LOCAL MATTERS

—The By-Kota Club will hold a regular meeting at the home of Miss Ada Schreiber on Monday evening, February 18th, at 8 p. m. and be entertained by Miss Schreiber, Miss Margaret Barwick and Mrs. Della Lewis.

—The price received for muskrat hides in Chestertown last Saturday was $1.50 for brown hides and $1.65 for black hides. Muskrat hides are reported to be scarce. It is thought that the high tides of last spring drowned the young rats.

—Mr. W. L. Fowler has been appointed temporary chairman of the ambulance committee of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. He will name assistants and drivers who will act until a permanent organization is formed.

—Dr. Paul E. Titsworth took advantage of the airplane in order to keep an appointment with Governor Ritchie last week, when after driving to Claybourn and found the ferry unable to land. He called the Chesapeake Aircraft Corp. from Claybourne and ordered an airplane to meet him at the Chestertown Airport. One hour after leaving Chestertown he was in Annapolis and kept the appointment. Without the airplane service in Chestertown he would have been unable to attend a very important engagement.

—The Willing Gleaners of the Chestertown M. E. Church presented a very attractive musical and play at the church on Monday evening of this week.
