SUNDAY MUSICAL PROGRAM AT W. C.

The first of the spring concerts by the musical organizations of Washington College will be given in the auditorium of William Smith Hall at 3.45 p. m., Sunday afternoon, March 24th. This concert will be presented by the orchestra and a quartette from the glee club. The soloists for this program will be Mr. W. H. Danneberg, pianist, and Mr. John M. Alderson, baritone.

A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Chestertown and to the residents of the surrounding communities to attend the concerts given at the college on Sunday afternoons.

The program for Sunday follows:

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel, of New York state, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer on Front street.

Mr. Allan B. Harris and family, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, of Chestertown, will shortly move from Rockford, Illinois, to Hagerstown, Md. Mr. Harris has been employed in the sales force of the Fairchild Airplane Company for the past year and has recently been appointed general sales manager for this district with headquarters in Hagerstown. He has been doing considerable flying lately and is a licensed aviator having gained experience as an aviator during the late war.

Mr. Walter P. Robinson was the guest of friends in Philadelphia over the past week end.

Dr. Charles W. Whaland is able to be out and attend to his practice after being confined to his home for several weeks suffering from a fall on the front porch of his home.

Mrs. Angeline B. Skirven has returned to Kent county after spending the winter with her son, Mr. Percy G. Skirven, in Baltimore. She is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth at their home on High street, Chestertown. Mrs. Skirven is one of Kents fine old ladies.

Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell left yesterday for a visit with friends and relatives in New York.

Dr. Blackiston B. Wroth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Wroth, will return to Atlanta Georgia on April 1st, after being confined at the home of his parents since Christmas from the effects of a severe case of influenza. Dr. Wroth is professor of chemistry at Georgia Institute of Technology.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strong will return to Kentucky April 1st, after spending the winter with relatives in Kent county. Mr. Strong is engaged in the road construction business in that state

Mrs. Thomas Davis, of Salisbury, has been the guest of her father, Mr. Walter Lusby on High street.

Miss Gertrude Tyler, of Cumberland, is the guest of her grand-mother, Mrs. Jennie Johnson.

Mr. Oscar Comegys, a former employee of the People's Bank, now a state bank examiner, was in Chestertown this week.

BRIDGE BILL PASSES HOUSE

The Governor's budget, calling for $1,500,000 for bridges has passed the House and is now practically assured. The Chester River bridge is included in this budget and in the meantime the citizens of Chestertown are trying to agree on the location of this bridge.

Three locations seem to be favored, High street, Maple Avenue and Barroll's hollow. The majority of merchants on high street favor the bridge being located at the foot of High st., while the remainder of the town is divided on the three locations.

The Rich Neck section of Queen Anne's favor the present location, Maple Ave.

Just how the location is to be settled is not known although it is understood that the opinion of the residents of this community will be considered by the State Roads Commission.
