John Robinson's big circus and menagerie exhibited in this city on Monday afternoon and evening last, but in consequence of the inclement weather, bad roads and muddy streets, the attendance was not as large as it might have been. The menagerie was large and contained a number of rare animals. The ring performance was very good and the many acts elicited rounds of applause from the spectators. The members of the press in this city who attended are indebted to the press agent, Mr. John Lowlow, for many courtesies and say he is the right man in the right place.

While John Black, of Silver Run, was driving to Westminster, on Thursday of last week, the bolt of his wagon broke, causing it to run against the horse which became frightened and ran down an embankment, upsetting the wagon. The regular monthly meeting of the branch will be held at Bowers' Hall, July 11th, at 4, P. M. A full attendance is requested.

The anniversary of the national birthday passed very quietly in Westminster. The Mayor's notice that the ordinance against firing guns, shooting-crackers, &c., must be observed on the principal thoroughfares, prevented the use of noisy explosives in a marked degree. The county offices, banks and most business houses in the city were closed. The only public demonstration in honor of the day was a parade by the Fire Department, which took place about 7, P. M. The patriotic firemen, to the music of national airs, skillfully rendered by the Westminster Band, marched and countermarched through Main street, in spite of its muddy condition. They deserve the thanks of the community for this mark of their appreciation of the great day in American history. Many citizens displayed the American colors during the day.

Three lady assistants to the Conductors were installed, viz.: Miss L. Smith, to wear a red sash, red being the signal of danger and therefore chosen as a warning against intemperance; Miss Addie Baile, to wear a white sash, white being an emblem of of purity and therefore selected to admonish all to live pure lives and not touch or use that which is unclean, and to keep ourselves free from the filthy habit of using tobacco; and Miss A. Woodbine Items.

Mrs. Reuben Harrison is on the sick list, but hopes are entertained that she will be out again in the near future.

As a heavily-laden freight train was going east, on the B. and O. Railroad, near Morgan station, a few days since, the first car broke down, causing a general smash-up. Nineteen cars were derailed and piled together. It was said to be one of the largest wrecks that ever happened on the road. But fortunately no one was hurt.

As we were passing through a section of country recently we noticed horse heads lying in a number of gardens, and, upon inquiring to learn what it meant, were told that it was for "good luck." Had those heads been reduced to dust and placed at the rootlets of plants there would have been good results. But how a "raw head and bloody bones" lying in a garden can give luck we do not understand. On one occasion we were helping a lady to garden and one parcel of seed was not to be planted unless the sign was in the twins, and we were sent to the almanac to see if they were present, but finding them absent, with a pencil we soon had them on time and so reported. The seed was planted and she told us afterward that she never had a better crop in all her life. This shows what superstition will do. Many children, soon after birth, are run back and forth through ladder steps for "good luck." There is no virtue in a ladder.

Shipley Items.

Our farmers are in quite a dilemma over their work and about the wet weather. Many an acre of wheat and hay were harvested during the fair days of last week, but this week has been very wet up to the time of this correspondence. Many of our farmers cut down 4 and 5 acres of grass last Saturday, and there it lies yet. The hay is worthless for anything except litter. Many are the demands of work upon our farmers, but they are utterly helpless to meet them at present. Corn wants plowing, wheat and rye are perishing, and truck of all kinds needs cultivating; but nothing can be done but wait for brighter days. Those who have peas to save are jolly enough, for they can save them, wet or dry. The potato beetles have been quite bad in many instances, but a light sprinkle of Paris green has effectually destroyed them. Many acres of worm seed has been planted here this summer and it is looking very well. So are all the growing crops.

Zion Sabbath School will have its Children's Day exercises at the church, on Sunday, the 14th inst., at 10½ o'clock, A. M.

John Carroll, son of Columbus A. Shipley, has been quite ill, but is improving slowly at present. Dr. James P. Summers is the attending pnysician.

Emanuel Bowers has had a creamery placed in a part of the new addition to his house. C. H. Brown, plumber.

Shiloh Items.

The frequent rains have greatly retarded the farmers with their harvest work and just at a time when their crops require immediate attention. The grain in this vicinity, as well as in other parts of the country, was materially injured by the wet weather while blossoming.

The honor of cutting the first wheat in this neighborhood belongs to John W. Smith, who began on the 19th ult.

This section is undergoing a visitation from a new pest in the shape of the Texan fly. During a recent visit of the writer to Dauphin county, Pa., he first learned of the existence of this annoying insect, the presence of which the farmers attribute to the introduction of Texan cattle. On my returing home I found the same insect in this vicinity. It is a small black fly which at night attacks the cattle at the base of the horns, congregating in large numbers and eating away until the raw flesh is exposed. The remedy is an application of tar on the spot attacked.

Union Bridge Items.

Monday night, 1st inst., the ceremony of raising the elective chiefs of Monocacy Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of this city, was performed Past Sachem John F. Kauffman, who was Master of Ceremonies; Philip Baker, Sachem; Geo. H. Mitten, Senior Sagamore; Joseph Haines, Junior Sagamore; Joseph Stoner, Guard of Wigwam; Samuel Minnich, Guard of the Forest.

The Union Bridge Fire Company has received and accepted an invitation to join in the great civic and trades parade, in Baltimore, September 9th.

Harney Items.

Our farmers made good use of the fine days last week and a great deal of hay was made. A great many commenced cutting grain and quite a number of wheat shocks can be seen. The most of the wheat through this section is cut with binders. They do excellent work. There will be a larger quantity of hay made than was anticipated.

There is a tract of land, near here, situated in Pennsylvania, that is claimed by two different parties and it has been making things rather lively the past few weeks for the persons concerned. One mows the grass, the other attempts to haul the hay; the one with fire arms orders the other off, and from hot words they come to blows, and from blows it goes to law.

The second quarterly conference of the U. B. Church, Pennsylvania Conference, will convene here on Saturday, the 14th inst. Rev. A. H. Rice, P. E., will preside. Revs. J. R. Hutchison and J. T. Shaffer are expected to be present over the Sabbath. This will be the last service in the church prior to rebuilding.

S. S. Shoemaker and family left here last Sunday on a visit to Freedom District, where they will spend several days at Mrs. Shoemakers's parents, near Morgan. Miss Cora L. Linn is visiting her sister in Baltimore. Mrs. G. M. Kemper of our village is seriously ill. Luckett A. Bush arrived home last Saturday from Westminster where he had been under the instruction of Rev. J. U. Asper preparatory to entering college.

Rev. Dougherty, of Annville, Pa., filled the pulpit here last Saturday evening.

There is some prospect of a drug store being opened here in the near future. This is certainly a good place for a druggist.

Our brother now has gone to rest
Beneath the tree of life,
He leans upon the Saviour's breast
So free from pain and strife.

Our brother's troubles now are past,
His pain disturbs no more;
But Jesus in his arms at last
Bore him to the heavenly shore.

Brother, how can we give you up?
It seems to us unjust
To lay you in that cold, damp ground,
To moulder into dust.
