Keller called at Hostetter's lodgings about eleven o'clock and rapped at the door, when the latter raised his window and fired four shots from a revolver with the result stated. ## Heavy Rainfall.

A tremendous rain lasting about half an hour visited this city between four and five o'clock last Saturday afternoon. Many persons are of the opinion that it was a veritable cloud-burst. As described by an intelligent gentlemen, a cloud came up from the south and another from the north and meeting poured out their contents in terrific volumes. A darkness, deep as twilight, settled over the city and in a few minutes the streets were covered with rushing torrents of water which, on Main street, met at the railroad and rose to such an extent that the wheels of the blue Mountain Express, which arrived in the midst of it, were half submerged and the platform at the railroad was partially covered. Fortunately there was little or no wind and the area of the rainfall was circumscribed, having been very slight south and west of Westminster; otherwise serious damage would have resulted. As it was, some cellars were flooded and gardens washed by the rapidly accumulating waters. Some loss was sustained by Mr. Edward Lynch who had about three tons of hay and some fencing washed away adjacent to the city limits. Mr. Henry Morelock lost a lot of lumber. The stream above Winters' dam, at Cranberry Station, carried down a quantity of logs, rails and hay which lodged in the dam and caused some apprehension that it might break under the pressure. The flood-gate was washed away and the meadows and low-lands along the Patapsco submerged to the distance of eight or ten miles below. Mr. R. C. Matthews' brickyard at Carrollton Station suffered to some extent and at Tannery, where the water was very high, considerable damage was inflicted. The waters of Meadow Branch and Bear Branch, northwest of this city, rose to an unusual height, and on White Oak Run, five or six miles east, three small bridges were washed away. A small bridge known as Crowl's a short distance north of this city, was destroyed. The loss in all these cases is inconsiderable. Along the path of the storm, however, the cornfields were badly washed and a considerable quantity of hay carried out of the meadows. The rain was very heavy at Manchester, where the streets were flooded.

Mitten, of Burns Post, Westminster, who will supply all necessary information concerning the trip. By doing so they will be enabled to procure tickets at the reduced rates over the B. & O. R. R. Tickets for the round trip will not be more than $19.55, and may be less.

Serious Accidents.

A sad accident occurred to Mr. Samuel Roop, one of the most esteemed and best-known citizens of this county, at his home at Meadow Branch, near this city, on Sunday last, by which he lost his left eye entirely. Mr. Roop had some bottled cider in his cellar, which he was examining when one of the bottles burst, particles of the glass cutting his cheek and eye. Dr. D. F. Shipley, of this city, was called and applied the proper remedies to alleviate the pain and reduce the inflammation, but expressed the opinion that the eye was irreparably injured. On Tuesday Mr. Roop, accompanied by Dr. Shipley, went to Baltimore and consulted Dr. Chisholm, the well-known specialist, who fully confirmed Dr. Shipley's opinion, and accordingly removed the injured eye. Mr. Roop met the trying ordeal with great fortitude, and no further evil effects of the accident are anticipated. Mr. Roop has the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in his affliction. Mr. Roop is rapidly improving and if all goes well will be home to-day or Monday.

On Monday evening between 8 and 9 o'clock, while Mr. Harry P. Albaugh, of this city, who is engaged in the huckstering business, was loading empties in his wagon at the railroad, the mule attached to the vehicle took fright and ran away. Mr. Albaugh, who was in the wagon, attempted to jump to the mule's back for the purpose of getting hold of the bridle rein and stopping the animal's flight, but was thrown against the curbstone with great violence. The wagon ran over his left arm, breaking one bone of the forearm, and also over his hip, which was severely bruised. He was taken to the office of Dr. E. D. Wells, who gave the necessary surgical attention and Mr. Albaugh is able to be about and is rapidly recovering. The mule was caught on Liberty street without having done further damage.

On the 20th ult., Scott Starr, the little six-year-old son of Mr. Milton Starr, of Uniontown, met with a serious and painful accident. He was sitting on the seat of the reaper which his father was driving, when his left foot was in some way caught by the master-wheel and he sustained an extensive laceration of the tissues of the ankle and foot down to the toes. The tendons were torn, the metatarsal bones of the foot injured, and some of the bones of the ankle joint exposed. Dr. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown, was called and rendered all possible surgical aid. On the 14th inst. Dr. Kemp called Dr. M. L. Bott, of Westminster, in consultation. The child is cheerful and his physicians express the opinion that if necrosis, or mortification does not set in he will recover from the accident, with no further permanent injury than a stiff joint, and that in that case amputation of the foot will not be necessary.

For Seining.

A number of cases, which caused considerable interest and excitement in this city, were brought before Justice George W. Matthews on Thursday afternoon. Wm. Stone, Wm. Oursler, Noah Barnes, Kimmey Oursler, Edward Cress and J. Milton Swartzbaugh, were arrested on the charge of violating Section 36, Article 7, Code of Public Local Laws, entitled Carroll County, by fishing with a seine in Winters' dam on Monday. The law in question provides that no fishing shall be permitted in the Patapsco river, except by angling, above the bridge on the old turnpike road between Baltimore and Washington. The accused claimed that they did not fish in the Patapsco river, but in Cranberry Branch which is only a tributary of the river. Wm. Oursler was first tried and found not guilty, not having participated in the seining. Wm. Stone was then tried and the justice adjudged him guilty and fined him $10 and costs. An appeal was taken to the Circuit Court, and the case made a test. The remaining cases were continued until the appellate court shall have rendered its decision on the subject. Warrants are in the hands of constable Thomson against Wm. Cress, John Stem and Charles Swartzbaugh on a similar charge. The State was represented by State's Attorney D. N. Henning and the accused by Messrs. Roberts, Bond and Brooks.

For the SENTINEL.

A Remedy for Chicken Lice.

MR. EDITOR.—About this time of year look out for lice on the chickens; especially the half grown ones. I thought my chicken-house the cleanest in town, and believe it is. I cleaned it every week and put dry road dust on the floor winter and summer. Yesterday in passing through the yard I picked up a half grown chick that seemed to be ailing. On examination I discovered thousands of those nasty fast-running lice. Then I remembered that the roosts had not been coal oiled. Coal oil the roosts about once a week; and you won't have scaly leg, nor lice. There will be enough oil get on from their sitting there over night to do the business and you wont endanger the chicken's life by getting too much on.

The Exposition.

Now that the farmers of Carroll county are getting through the pressing work of harvest and hay making, it is hoped they will turn their attention to the approaching Exposition at Pimlico. In the seven weeks yet remaining before the opening of the Exposition a great deal may be accomplished towards giving the county a respectable standing in exhibits at the Exposition. Something is being done outside of the agricultural department of industry; but it is desirable that every branch of business enterprise in the county shall be well represented. The members of the committees for the several districts appointed sometime ago by Mr. Francis H. Orendorff, will be doing the county a genuine service by interesting themselves and awakening interest in others in regard to the matter. ## Gamber Items.

Mt. Pleasant M. E. Sunday School will hold its annual picnic in the grove near the Church on Saturday, 27th inst. A band of music will be present and several addresses will be made. Ice cream and confectionery will be served; proceeds for the benefit of the school. Every effort will be made to render the occasion pleasant and agreeable.

Fully two-thirds of the grain in this vicinity was damaged in the shock by the late rains. It will cause a serious loss to the farmers and will make a very poor quality of flour. The grain in some fields is actually not fit for flour at all.

In consequence of the inclement weather on Saturday last the attendance at the festival at Pool's Chapel was slim and the net proceeds small.

The growing corn was very much damaged by the storm of Sunday last and the Thursday previous. A great deal of it was broken off near the ground.

During Thursday's storm lightning struck Joshua Murray's barn near this place and burned it to the ground. Fortunately the barn was nearly empty and the loss outside of the building was very trifling. A horse in the stable was gotten out without injury.

Pleasant Valley Items.

During the rain-storm, Thursday of last week, lightning struck the church at this place and produced some singular results. It entered beneath the cornice and ran between the plastering, tearing it off, and then striking the centre girder and passing from one to another split about fifteen of them, shattering everything with which it came in contact.

The rain-storm on Saturday afternoon last struck this place about 5 o'clock, but only in a narrow streak. Strange to say after the storm passed and the sun was shining the flood came, overflowing the meadows and carrying away bridges and fences, and really doing more damage than the flood about the first of June.

Farmers took advantage of the beautiful but warm weather of last week to get their harvest over and hay pretty well secured.

The present prospect for a good apple crop is not encouraging.

George Wantz, near this place, has purchased a new Geiser traction engine, with which he is traveling from farm to farm threshing grain.

Finksburg Items.

The anniversary of Mt. Zion M. P. Sunday School, which was to have taken place in June, was postponed until to-morrow, 21st inst. Rev. J. T. Ward, D. D., and Dr. J. W. Hering, of Westminster, will be present to address the school.

The heavy rains and wind have done great damage to corn by breaking it down.

There is still a great deal of hay to make. The wet weather has been very much against farmers completing their harvest.

There have been two deaths here from cholera infantum, one being the youngest child of Mr. St. Clair and the other the only child of Mr. Uhler.

Mr. William Gorsuch, who has been traveling for David E. Foutz, of Baltimore, for some time past, has returned home.

Harry C. Stocksdale, of the Baltimore city postoffice, paid a visit to his home last Sunday.

Cooksville Items.

Quite a severe storm visited this neighborhood on Saturday last, and many of our farmers were made to feel the effects of it. The lightning was vivid and did much damage to trees and live stock. It is reported that many horses were killed all over Howard county. Mr. J. H. Peddicord, of this place, lost a valuable horse which was struck by lightning on the Saturday mentioned. His four sons were in the stable at the time, one of whom was removing the harness when the horse fell. The bolt tore off some boards and went out without harming any one; then crossed the yard by the dwelling and struck a large tree near the house.

A woods meeting is being held in the beautiful grove surrounding the large new school house at Glenelg, this county, 4 miles from Cooksville, under the management of Revs. J. R. Andrew and J. K. White, which commenced on Sunday last, July 14th. A tremendous crowd was present. Among the charmng young ladies from this village were noted the following: Miss Maggie Brian, Misses Nellie, Carrie and Fannie Hobbs, Miss Florida Peddicord, Miss Josie Forsythe and Miss Mary C. Hobbs. The meeting will last all this week and probably next with three services daily. May success attend our Christian brothers' efforts to spread the gospel throughout this region.

Miss Ida Shipley, of this vicinity, is very ill at present and has been for the past two weeks.

A quiet little wedding took place in this neighborhood at the home of Mr. Somers. The contracting parties were Mr. Earnest Hartsock and Miss Alta Sanners. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. C. Cook, on Saturday night last. May the couple live long and be happy together forever, is the wish of many friends.

Misses Gertude and Annie Delashmutt, of Baltimore, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Walter Dorsey, of this place.

Miss Alice Ball, of Woodstock, Va., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Hobbs.

Miss Maggie Brian, one of the loveliest ladies in Howard county, spent Sunday with the Misses Delashmutt. Miss Brian is from the vicinity of Morgan Station, B. & O. railroad.

Corn in this section is doing all the farmers expect. Many fields are in tassel, and look exceedingly well.

Harney Items.

The quarterly meeting of the U. B. Church, which was held here last Sabbath, was presided over by Rev. J. T. Shaffer, of York, Pa. Mr. Shaffer was a resident of this neighborhood previous to entering the ministry about twenty-four years ago. He is a self-made man and stands high in his profession.

Charley Harner, who was killed by lightning last week, resided near here for many years and was well known in this community; consequently much sympathy is felt for his bereaved family.

J. A. Shildt, residing in Frederick county near here, lost a horse last week. This is the second horse he has lost since last fall.

A. J. Lightner is having his dwelling house improved by having shutters hung at the windows and the walls papered.

Week before last we came near having a fire in our town. W. J. Lightner's summer house caught fire from the oven which is attached, but it was discovered by the time the flames had reached the roof and with the free use of water it was extinguished. The building was damaged to the extent of about twenty-five dollars.

Jonas S. Harner had his wheat crop threshed last week by A. DeGroft and obtained 758 bushels. His straw rick is 40 feet in height, 76 in length and 27 in width. Who in Carroll county has a larger one?

As Mr. DeGroft was leaving Mr. Harner's with his threshing rig, last Saturday evening, he broke something about the eccentric of the engine which delays him in his threshing operations until he can get the repairs.

After a long silence your regular correspondent at this point, aroused by the inquiries of your last week's "special," encloses a few items of news from this important village. After some inquiry as to the meaning of that correspondent in denominating this as the seat of a great deal of gossip, it looks to your "regular" as if he, or she, whichever it may be, was putting it in a mild form, and might have enlarged somewhat on the subject.

Mr. John Weybright, Sr., is having the large locust trees in front of his blacksmith property cut away in order to give some younger ones, that have been lately started, a chance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dotterer and Mrs. F. J. Shorb spent Thursday with friends in Graceham, Frederick county.

Mr. W. W. Crabster will commence to rebuild a barn at once on the same site where the one was burnt last week. The size will be 70x40 feet. It will be a bank barn. The old barn and outbuildings were insured. Mr. Crabster thinks there must have been from 350 to 400 bushels of wheat burnt. There was very little hay in the barn. The boys that were struck by the lightning are doing very well. The widow, Mrs. Harner, has a grown son in Washington, who will come home and take charge of the farm.

Miss Vernie Diller spent Sunday last with Miss Betty Horner in Finksburg.

Mr. Wm. H. H. Saylor and Jesse Kolb left on Wednesday morning for the battle-field of Gettysburg where they will spend a few days in going over the field.

[The SENTINEL is very glad to hear again from its old correspondent and hopes to have a letter every week.—ED.]

Sam's Creek Items.

On last Saturday and Sunday evening we received very heavy showers of rain, making the ground very wet and favorable for vegetation.

Most of our farmers are now through with their harvesting and some few have commenced to plow for another crop. The farmer seems to have but little rest and not much pay for his services. Some persons who have been threshing their wheat say the yield is nothing extra; neither is the quality of the wheat very good, it being damaged by too much rain and cloudy weather. The corn on the improved land, in our section, is looking most excellent, but not so well in the clay lands, having been planted late.

The Stornoxys fly has commenced attacking the cattle in our neighborhood. This fly seems to make its lodging place around the base of the horn. As a remedy the people who are most interested are making an application of tar to the spot attacked.

Hon. P. J. Bennett and family will leave home July 26th for Atlantic City, N. J., where they will stop at the Mansion House.

The stubble fields never were set any better in grass than they are this season.

There has been a very heavy crop of hay made in our valley this harvest. It is supposed that Senator Bennett will make, on his two farms, one hundred and fifty tons.

DIED

Near Hahn's Mill, June 25th, 1889, George Motter, son of George A. and Susanna Formwalt, aged 5 months and 22 days.

Near Littlestown, Pa., July 11th, 1889, Joseph Rohrbach, aged 75 years, 7 months and 8 days.

Near Brummel, July 17th, 1889, Annie B., only daughter of Keziah and the late Simon Shafer, in the 14th year of her age.

How long she struggled 'gainst disease
Which baffled skill and care,
And long she lingered racked with pain,
And sufferings hard to bear.

And yet through all at times she'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth;
And, when the angels called her home,
She smiled farewell to earth.

What is home without our Annie?
'Tis our cottage robbed of flowers,
Where our broken, bleeding hearts
Will spend many lonely hours.

We have laid her in the silent grave,
Beside our father and brother dear to rest;
We know her happy spirit now
Is numbered with the blest.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps;
And the sunbeams love to linger
Where our sainted Annie sleeps.
