SCHOOL NOTES

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

By Janet MacVean

The rain seems to have washed away all the news this week. Either that is the reason or all these sneezes have blown them away.

Of course the attendance and general health has suffered, but why think about that. In spite of all the rain, it's Spring! The robins are coming back and the flowers are blossoming. Soon the students of C. H. S. will have spring fever. We hope our attacks will coincide with those of our teachers. Otherwise there might be some difficulties.

It isn't rain alone that makes the general atmospheric condition so damp. Part of the moisture is due to the tears shed by C. H. S. students because Mrs. Greene is to leave.

If Thursday is fine, a bowling contest is scheduled at Betterton for the benefit of the "Dragon."

The first track team in C. H. S., as you know, is organized with Herschel Calloway as captain, Oakley Valliant as manager, and Edward McMahon as secretary-treasurer. Each class has a captain. Bob Fleetwood of Washington College has volunteered to coach the boys. They plan to practice every afternoon. Their uniform will be dark blue pants and a white jersey. The boys who win in the county meet will receive red felt C's which they will wear in the state meet. Each boy who plays in the state meet will receive a chenille C. The highest number of points won heretofore has been 14, but our boys this year hope to win 25 points. We're all wishing them speed and luck.

Home Economics is one of the subjects in which any progress can be easily seen. For instance, one look at the Freshmen in the 8A section and you'll know that they are ahead of the rest of their class in notebook work and cooking. The odors drifting about the lower hall are sufficient notice that they are making muffin variations. The Sophomore girls are working "hammer and tongs" on their sewing. Some are even sewing at noon in order to finish sooner. Most of them have already finished their first article and several are ready to begin work on their third. 3rd years students are now taking inventory of their clothing preparatory to planning clothing budgets. The Seniors are now studying home nursing. Their first lesson concerned health rules, etc., but they are soon to learn how to care for a patient. The Singer Sewing Machine Company man again checked the machines in Miss Kersey's room. The 9A section is preparing its first Home Ec. Club program. You'll find out all about it next week.

The several times deferred supper for the "Dragon" is now finally scheduled for Thursday, March 30.

By now everybody knows the result of the Cambridge-C. H. S. game. However bad the score sounds, remember this—the boys played harder and faster that night than they ever did before. Also Wilkinson who made 19 points against Oxford was held to 7 by our boys. Captain "Mac" led the scoring. Those who played were McMahon, Wright, Valliant, Patton and Bibb. Kirby substituted for Wright for nearly a quarter early in the game. Calloway played for a time in place of Bibb. Gordon finished the game in "Mac's" place.

An Indian of the Seneca tribe is to speak to us Wednesday. We are all looking forward to his talk and tribal dances. His name, we think is Chief Suuny-skies. We hope he brings weather to match his name.
