Governor Ritchie Will Be The Winner

Lawyers and Others Returning From the Bar Association Convention at Atlantic City Are a Unit In Their Belief That the Gubernatorial Primary Is Over.

A Number of Shore Counties Will Be Found Behind the Ritchie Banner In the Primary.

Baltimore, Maryland—Lawyers and others returning from the annual convention of the Maryland Bar Association at Atlantic City, where politics was the chief topic of discussion, are practically a unit in their belief that the Democratic gubernatorial primary is over and that Governor Albert C. Ritchie is the winner.

This belief was accentuated early this week when the followers of Mayor Howard W. Jackson and George L. Radcliffe failed to agree on which of them should oppose Governor Ritchie in the primary.

With twenty-six of the party's twenty-eight ward executives in Baltimore City already committed to the Ritchie candidacy, it was held here that the Governor is assured of the City's solid delegation of 42 votes in the state convention. In addition, he is credited with the five counties of the Sixth Congressional District, with the possible exception of Garret, and the entire tier of Southern Maryland counties.

The 7 votes of Baltimore County, where the Governor has the backing of the Clark-Milling faction, are counted in the Governor's column as well as the 5 votes of Carroll County. Harford is regarded as a battle ground with popular strength for both Governor Ritchie and Mayor Jackson, and Tydings support for Mr. Radcliffe.

These calculations, which most informed politicians consider to be conservative, will give the Governor a minimum of 100 votes in the state convention without any allowance for Eastern Shore support. The Governor's friends, moreover, are confident that a number of the Shore counties will be found behind the Ritchie banner in the primary.

While supporters of Mayor Jackson, Mr. Radcliffe, and Dr. Charles H. Conley continue publicly to make large claims for their respective candidates, most of them admit privately that the gubernatorial primary is as good as over and their thoughts are now turning to filling out the Ritchie ticket.

DEATHS

WALTER B. STRONG

Funeral services for Mr. Walter B. Strong who died Sunday evening following a short illness, were held from his late home on Queen Street, Chestertown Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. L. Atwater. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery. He was 78 years of age.

The bearers were his nephews, Messrs. Edgar, Miller, Ruthwin, Howard, and Albert Strong, of Kent County and Edwin Watkins, of Baltimore.

Besides his widow, who before her marriage was Miss Bell Price, of Kent County, he is survived by three sons, Laurence P. Strong, W. Ringgold Strong and Ernest H. Strong, all of Chestertown.

One sister, Mrs. Joseph M. Watkins, of Mount Washington, Baltimore, and five grand children also survive.

Born in Kent County, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Miller Strong he went to Baltimore at an early age and later became associated in the paint manufacturing business with his uncle. He returned to Kent County forty five years ago and started farming on his farm in Broad Neck which he still owns.

Fifteen years ago he retired and moved to Chestertown, later building his late home on North Queen street.

Mr. Walter, as he was known to his many friends, may well be called one of the most popular and well known men in Kent County. His life as a farmer was one of neighborliness and his unselfishness and interest in the welfare of his friends endeared him to all who knew him. He was a sportsman in every sense of the word and he was among the most versed in county in hunting, fishing and ducking.

After retiring and moving to Chestertown he was a constant visitor among his friends in their homes and places of business where he was always welcome. He held the friendship of all who knew him and died without an enemy in the world. His death creates a big loss in Chestertown and Kent County.

JOHN WILLIAM RODNEY

Besides his widow, who before marriage was Miss Emma Walbert, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Darward Gosman and Mrs. Walter Biggers, of Worton, and Mrs. Olan Stafford, of Chestertown; also two sons, Walter Rodney, of Worton, and Wilbur Rodney of Chestertown. One sister, Mrs. Carrie Fogwell, of near Fairlee, and eleven grand-children also survives him.

Funeral services were held from his late home on High street, Chestertown Monday afternoon at 2 p. m., Rev. White officating. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery.

The bearers were: Messrs. Charles Rodney, Walter Biggers, Milton Fogwell, Olan Stafford, Darward Gosman and Lloyd Mulord. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

HERMAN KLINE

Herman Kline died at his late home in Fairlee Monday evening, aged 68 years.

He formerly lived on a small farm near Fairlee and followed his trade at carpentering which he continued after moving into Fairlee. He is survived by his widow, who before marriage was Miss Fannie Payne, and a son daughter, William H. Kline and Mrs. Thelma Hoddinott, both of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held from the home in Fairlee Thursday afternoon at 1 p. m. with Revs. Dr. Willey, of St. Pauls, assisted by Rev. Hamlin, of Salem Church, officiating. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery.

The bearers were Messrs. Frank, Jesse and Edward Payne, Walter B. Barnes, Frank Leaverton and Frank Elliott. Dodd & Usilton, undertakers.

MRS. ANNIE E. AYRES

Mrs. Annie E. Ayres, passed away at her late home in Rock Hall, Thursday morning in her 67th year. She was one of our oldest residents, devoted to her home and her church having been a member of the Methodist Church for many years. She was a member of the daughters of America.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. W. W. Clayton, Chester, Pa., Mrs. C. E. Wilson, of Camden N. J., six grand children, W. W. Clayton, Jr., Richard Clayton, Mrs. W. O. Bringham, Miss Louise Clayton, Miss Mary Clayton and Miss Margaret Clayton also three great grand children, Catherine and James Bringham and Robert Clayton. Also two sisters, Mrs. Nora Disney of Baltimore and Mrs. B. Colburn, of Havre de Grace, Md. Funeral servces will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the M. E. Church. Rev. Conrad Hayman officiating. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

WILLIAM T. PORTER

NOTICE TO ALL DELINQUENTS TAXPAYERS ON PERSONAL PROPERTY

We publish herewith a ruling from the Attorney General on the law governing the sale of personal property for taxes.

The law governing the sale of personal property for taxes in Kent County.

The local law on the subject may be found in Article 15, Sections 152-156, Flack's Code of Public Local Laws. Section 154, relating to sales, was amended by Chapter 310, Acts of 1933, and authorizes a sale of the property of a delinquent, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay the taxes with interest and costs. The general method of procedure is set out in Article 81 Sections 189 and 190 of Bagby's Code of Public General Laws (1929 Suppl.) Section 190 indicates that sale of personal property may be either at the Court House door, or on the premises where the levy is made.

Under the Law I will advertise and sell all or enough of the personal propery of all delinquents for 1930-1931 on the premises where they were levied upon if taxes are not paid on or before June 29th. This means all personal property that has been levied upon for 1930-1931.
