The October Registration.

The attention of the Republicans in the several districts of Carroll county is called to the notice of the October sittings of the officers of registration, in the advertising columns of the SENTINEL to-day. The registrars will sit five days, commencing Monday October 7th, between the hours of 8, A. M., and 6, P. M. On the first day of the sitting—Monday, October 7th—they "will sit for the purpose of registering all persons entitled to be registered as qualified voters and striking from their respective registries of qualified voters the names of all persons who may have died or become disqualified." On the three succeeding days—Tuesday, the 8th, Wednesday the 9th and Thursday, the 10th days of October—they "will sit only for the purpose of registering all persons qualified to be registered in the registries of voters." On Tuesday, October 11th, they will sit only for the purpose of hearing and determining applications for reinstatement of the names of persons to their respective registries." Particular care should be taken by those interested to have these proceedings of the registrars thoroughly understood. By observing such care it will be seen that no names can be stricken from the lists after the first day's sitting; and no person can be registered on the last day—Friday. That day will be devoted to considering applications for reinstatement from persons whose names may be stricken from the registries, but such applications will not be heard on any other day of the sitting. Republicans entitled to be registered are urged to have their names placed on the lists on or before Thursday, October 10th. Let there be a full registration and full vote.

The Democratic managers in Baltimore have found a reputable merchant in the person of Mr. Robert C. Davidson, to take the head of the ticket. Mr. Davidson's nomination recalls forcibly that of Mr. James Hodges under similar circumstances. Mr. Hodges posed as a reformer, but proved to be the pliant agent of the ring and a very satisfactory servant to the managers, who used him to the end of the chapter. It might be otherwise in Mr. Davidson's case, but many of those who were hoodwinked by the Hodges nomination are unwilling to risk a second experience of that character.

The Democratic nominating convention in Baltimore, which met on Wednesday, adopted a resolution favoring the Tilden election law, or Australian ballot system. That is rather a stale chestnut. A resolution of like import has been adopted at all the Baltimore Democratic nominating conventions for several years; but confidence in the sincerity of these utterances has been sadly misplaced. The old trick will hardly avail to satisfy the element of the Democratic party that is honestly seeking election reforms.

Mr. Thornton Rollins has been requested by a large number of leading business men of Baltimore to become an independent candidate for Mayor of that city. The name of Gen. George S. Brown heads the list. The respectable figure-head that graces the Democratic municipal ticket does not deceive the seekers after genuine reform. Men like Gen. Brown have not forgotten the Hodges fiasco.

Washington Press.

Senator Gorman, of Maryland, is pulling the wires in South Dakota to secure a Democratic legislature. A large amount of money has been sent to the chairman of the Democratic state committee to accomplish that end. Gorman is as deep as a well and cunning as a fox, but Quay and Dudley have unearthed him.

Still another evidence of the immaculate purity of the Democratic party, about which some people seem absolutely certain.

Trying to Use Him Both Ways.

An amusing attempt is made by our neighbor of the Advocate to employ the colored man as a factor against the Republican party in two ways—first by exciting the prejudices of the whites against him and then, on the other hand, informing him that he is not fairly treated by the Republicans. This is the way it tells about the appointment of a couple of colored men to office:

> "Negroes to the front! A negro named Carroll, who lives in Washington, but who is accredited to Maryland, has been given a place in the Postoffice Department. S. E. Gittings, white, of Baltimore, was bounced out to make room for Carroll. David D. Dixon, colored, of Baltimore, has been appointed storekeeper by Collector Hill. This is a place some Carroll county Republican ought to have had, and might have gotten had the leaders here presented the name of some of the applicants."

It is a pity the Republican "leaders" of Carroll are not as well informed as the Advocate as to Mr. Hill's purposes and willingness to appoint Carroll county men to office; but, perhaps, after all, its knowledge is only surmise. Certainly Collector Hill, himself, has given no intimation or assurance that he could do any more in that direction than he has already done. The quotation, however, shows the Advocate's own animus towards the colored man and its unalterable antipathy to his political recognition, as well as its desire to make capital for its own party by keeping alive the sentiment of hostility cherished against him by many Democrats, and provoking a similar sentiment, as far as possible, among Republican white men. The Advocate seems to forget that Mr. Cleveland gave the best appointment in the District of Columbia to a New York colored man, a fact that only shows that all Democrats are not in sympathy with that paper, on this subject. Indeed, when its notes on local politics are considered it may be doubted whether it is, itself, entirely in harmony with its own utterances quoted above. This is the way it pats the colored man on the back when it would stir him up against the party that made him free and enfranchised him:

> "The most reliable voters in the Republican party, is the 'black brigade.' For nearly twenty years they have cast about 500 solid Republican ballots at every election, and not a sign of recognition have they had, except a carriage ride on election day to the polls—with the privilege of walking home. The Republican organ of Carroll has spoken eloquently of their great progress in education and civilization since the days of slavery, and certainly by this time they are fully up to the proper standard. Let at least one of the delegates to the State convention be a colored man, and one of the places on the Legislative ticket be given to another of the colored race. David Ireland, James Hopes, John Snowden or Reuben Walker would give color to the delegation to the State convention, or the Legislative ticket and probably strength, too."

The Advocate might have mentioned the names of several other colored men in this community who would do no discredit to any party with which they might be connected, yet who, but for the Republican party would be without the right of suffrage. The Advocate's solicitude in their behalf has a funny sound when read in connection with the preceding quotation; and both Democrats and Republicans—white and colored—may place a proper estimate upon these utterances by weighing one against the other. Each is an antidote for the poison of the other.

It Claims Too Much.

The Advocate's diatribe against the Republican party last week could only be answered in one way, and that is by a similar exhibition of political malevolence towards the Democratic party. The SENTINEL does not propose to indulge in that sort of controversy. It pointed out the tergiversations of the Democratic party upon the questions of tariff and finance, and the Advocate confesses that it, the Democratic party, "at times since the war has deviated from the true path." Neither the Republican party nor its leaders, whom the Advocate says it meant when it remarked that "Republicans attach no importance to principle," require defence at our hands. No party on earth has ever had a more glorious history. To it was committed the preservation of the nation from the fierce assaults of those who, with few exceptions, have since the war allied themselves with the Democratic party. Successful in preserving the Union of the States, it stood as a bulwark of integrity against the subsequent attempts to dishonor the American name by practical repudiation. It held steadfastly to its purpose to make the promises of the government on paper equal to the true standard of currency among the nations of the earth, and in spite of opposition it triumphed in the effort. But why pursue the subject? The value of the Advocate's opinion concerning it may be gauged by a single expression. Referring to the Republican party it says: "Beaten, honestly, in 1864," &c. Beaten by whom? Surely that is the height of absurdity and would be ridiculed by any intelligent Democrat in the North. Yet all the Advocate's talk about the Republican party is about as reliable. Our neighbor claims too much and so discredits its whole judgment. It is evidently the warped and distorted view of partisan bigotry.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Morning Herald writes to that paper that the "Democratic leaders are criticising McKinney, head of the ticket in Virginia, for the ill-advised speech with which he opened his canvass. They say he spiced it too much with free trade. The Democratic candidate was admonished that he had made a blunder and he at once changed his speech. But General Mahone is holding him to his first utterance, and is circulating the free-trade speech as a campaign document. Since that speech a sort of supervisory guard has accompanied the Democratic candidate to keep him from foolishly shooting off his mouth." And that is a sample of Democratic consistency. Yet some people are sure that Democrats care more for principle than they do for spoils.

Advocate.

The demand for the best men in the Legislature is bearing fruit. In Carroll the Democrats have headed the ticket with Hon. Frank T. Shaw; in Montgomery with Hon. Philip D. Laird; in Dorchester with Hon. Daniel M· Henry, Jr.; in Talbot with Col. Edward Lloyd; in Cecil with John S. Wirt. In every county where tickets have been placed in the field at least one man of ability has been nominated for the Legislature.

That is rather hard on Messrs. Selby, Walsh and Stull. The people need men of ability, not one man out of four, thus endowed, to represent them and make their laws.

A Chicago newspaper suggests Foraker and Tanner as a presidential ticket for 1892.

The Maryland Board of Public Works received the committee appointed by the Hagerstown canal convention, on Tuesday, and expressed a willingness to lease the canal to responsible parties. Where does the Board get the authority to execute such a lease?

The Republicans in the several counties of the State have nominated their best men for the several offices to be chosen at the ensuing election. The Legislative tickets are exceptionally strong. Now let the Republicans of Carroll county, laying aside all personal differences and desiring only the welfare of the State and county and the promotion of sound Republican principles, emulate the action of their brethren throughout the State.

Republican Nominations.

The Republicans of Garrett county have nominated the following ticket: For State Senator, J. W. Laughlin; House of Delegates, Ira E. Friend, H. E. Kemp; County Commissioners, W. M. Junkins, Jacob Fresh, George W. Legge; Sheriff, E. N. Casteel; Register of Wills, James W. White; County Surveyor, John Harned.

The Republicans of Caroline county have made the following nominations: For State Senator, George M. Russum; House of Delegates, Dr. Wm. T. Kelley, Frank G. Slemmer; County Commissioners, Peter Hagadone, Willis Wright, Joseph B. Orrell; County Treasurer, William Stevens; Sheriff, Orlando J. Redden; County Surveyor, W. Penn Willis.

Prince George's Republicans have made the following nominations: For State Senator, Gen. Edward F. Beall; House of Delegates, R. Vinton Hall, Wm. A. Meloy, R. C. Parker; County Commissioners, Mr. John L. Waring, Luther Brashears, H. W. Clagett, Horace C. Roseier; County Clerk, John W. Belt; Register of Wills, J. Benson Perrie; Sheriff, R. Westley Beall.

The Republicans of Kent county have made the following nominations: For the Legislature, James H. Baker and Thomas A. Jacobs; County Commissioners, Edgar H. Price, Robert A. Bowers, Benjamin N. S. Wilkins, James A. Casey, one yet to be named; Sheriff, William H. Lambert, Jr.; County Surveyor, Comegys Brown.

The Republicans of Queen Anne's county have nominated the following ticket: For the House of Delegates, Charles Weatherby, George Derochebrune, S. L. Pratt; County Commissioners, J. F. Barwick, W. F. Ringgold, J. R. Woodall; Register of Wills, W. W. Bryan, Sr.; Sheriff, Albert Cowman.

The following ticket has been nominated by the Republicans of Charles county: For State Senator, Holman Posey; House of Delegates, Dr. George D. Mudd, Philip A. L. Contee, William DeCourcey Mitchell; County Commissioners, A. E. Bowling, Roderick G. Milstead, Joseph H. Harrison, Legrand Padgett, James J. Naylor; Sheriff, James A. Adams.

The Republicans of Frederick county have made the following nominations: For sheriff—Samuel Leaser, of Middletown. For County Commissioners—Jonathan Biser, of Frederick; George R. Shaw, of Creagerstown; John Peter Jones, of New Market; Morris Sheaffer, of Hauvers; Q. C. Keller, of Jefferson. For House of Delegates—John W. Kaufman, of Frederick; F. C. Norwood, of Liberty; Wm. P. Morsell, of Tuscarora; C. M. Riggs, of New Market; E. C. Hoover, of Catoctin. For Surveyor—Edward Albaugh, of Liberty.

The Republicans and Independent Democrats of Baltimore county have coalesced and nominated the following fusion ticket: For Sheriff—Robert S. Corse, Republican. For Treasurer—John P. Mays, Independent Democrat. For County Commissioners—John Bond, Republican; John Ridgely of H., Independent Democrat; George Bartholow, Republican. For House of Delegates—H. S. Jean, Republican; George M. Fultz, Republican; James G. Kane, Republican; William Wheeler, Republican; Samuel C. Heird, and J. Fred Smith, Independent Democrats. For Surveyor—Joshua G. Bosley, independent Democrat.

J. F. C. Talbott.

The board of public works, consisting of Governor Jackson, State Treasurer Archer and Comptroller Baughman, on Wednesday selected Hon. J. Fred. C. Talbot, of Baltimore county, to be insurance commissioner, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Jesse K. Hines, deceased. Nineteen ballots were taken. Governor Jackson proposed the names of State Senator Toadvine and Secretary of State LeCompte; Mr. Archer nominated Mr. Talbott, and Col. Baughman named Hon. Frank T. Shaw, of Carroll county. Col. Baughman voted for his nominee throughout and Governor Jackson gave his vote to Mr. Talbott on the nineteenth ballot.

A terrible landslide occurred at Quebec, Canada, on the night of the 19th inst. Several thousand tons of rock, disintegrated by the incessant rains, slid from Cape Diamond, at the end of Dufferin Terrace, to Champlain street, 300 feet below. Houses occupied the opposite side of the roadway and were supposed to be safe from any danger of falling rocks, but the immense mass swept down seven of them, killing and wounding the inmates to the number of fifty or more. The buildings, which were of brick, went down as if made of card-board. The mass of earth and rocks moved had a frontage of about 600 feet and a depth of 80 feet. Dufferin Terrace and the citadel are regarded as unsafe, as there is great danger of further slides.

A convention of delegates named by the Business Men's Association of Baltimore, and voted for at the primaries on Tuesday, met on Wednesday and made, among others, the following nominations: For Mayor—Robert C. Davidson; for Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench—Henry D. Harlan; for Clerk of the Superior Court—James Bond; for Sheriff—George McCaffray; for City Surveyor—Augustus Bouldin. The convention also nominated candidates for the Legislature and City Council.

The delegates elected at the Republican primaries in Baltimore, on Thursday, are said to be a unit in favor of the nomination of Major Alexander Shaw, for the mayoralty. There is, however, some talk of a combination with the Independent Democrats, although the movement has not taken form as yet. The probability is that the Republicans will nominate a straight ticket with Major Shaw at its head.

Washington Letter.

From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23rd.—Senator Blaine will arrive here in time to receive the members of the Three Americas Congress which is to meet and organize in a house near the State department on Tuesday, October 1. As soon as Congress is organized its members will start on an excursion, under the auspices of the State department through the eastern and western sections of the country, which will last four or five weeks. After seeing the sights they will return and go to work at the task allotted them—improving the commercial relations of the Three Americas.

When Secretary Proctor assumed control of the War department he found the department 40,000 cases behind in furnishing the Pension office with the records of applicants for pensions. The Secretary after an examination of matters concluded about two months ago to create the division of records and pensions in his department. The wisdom of his action may be judged from the fact that the work is now right up to date and on Saturday the applications received from the Pension office in the morning were all supplied before the department closed in the afternoon.

The State department has received dispatches from Minister Whitelaw Reid stating that the French Government has apologized for the arrest and discourteous treatment of two New York ladies at Mentone, several months ago; also that the French government had severely reprimanded the officials that made the arrests. Protection to American citizens, at home and abroad, is no idle boast under this administration.

The annual report of Hon. E. S. Mitchell, Commissioner of Patents, just issued, furnishes food for study. It shows the total number of applications for patents for the year ending June 30, to have been 36,740 and the total number granted during the same period to have been 21,518. In view of this statement one is apt to lose faith in the old maxium "there is nothing new under the sun." The Patent Office is a money making institution for Uncle Sam. The present report shows the profits for last year to have been $186,860. This amount added to previous profits makes a grand total of $3,524,526 which the government is ahead through the fees paid by its inventors.

Secretary Noble has received two large photographs, one for himself and one for the President, of Joseph Ledergerber Post, Department of Wisconsin, G. A. R. This post is composed entirely of Menomonee Indians, and the photographs were sent as a mark of gratitude to the administration for allowing the agent of the tribe to remain in office.

Secretary Tracy has decided to build the two 3,000-ton vessels appropriated for by the last Congress at Government navy yards. This action has been taken because all the bids received from private builders were in excess of the amount appropriated to pay for the ships, and the officials of the department believe they can be built by the Government for the sum appropriated.

It has been decided by the local board to hold a meeting in this city on the 23rd of October, of the National Board of promotion of the World's Exposition of 1892, in order to arrange a definite programme. The national board is composed of members of eighty-one boards of trade in every section of the country, twenty-three Governors of States and twenty-three ex-Governors.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific train, which left the main depot at Chicago at 5.35, Tuesday evening, for Blue Island, was crashed into by a freight train at the Lake Shore and Pan-Handle crossing, near Eighty-seventh street, Englewood. The passenger train was at a standstill, one coach projecting over the crossing. Into this coach, containing about 60 persons, plunged the freight train. The wreck of the passenger coach was instant and complete. When a thorough search had been completed it was found that three ladies and two gentlemen had been killed outright and a third man was in a dying condition. Three other persons were seriously injured. The latter unfortunates were hurriedly conveyed to their homes near at hand, while the dying man was taken to the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy. The five dead, all of Washington Heights, Chicago, were conveyed to the Englewood morgue.

The killed are: Mrs. Kelly, J. McKinzie, Fred. Huebner, Mrs. Brown, and an unknown woman. The most seriously injured are: Gus. Mulcahy, Seventy-sixth and Wallace streets, fatally hurt; Miss A. K. Steele, Anton Shuberg, Parker Harden. The others hurt sustained but slight injuries.

At the meeting of the civil-service board at the custom-house, on Monday, arrangements were made to hold the next civil-service examination on October 1 and 2. There are 107 applicants, 34 for the position of clerks, 31 for day inspectors, 30 for night inspectors, 11 for assistant weigher and 1 for gauger. The clerks and day inspectors' examinations will be held on October 1 and the others on October 2. The examination will be held by the local board in two upper rooms of the custom-house. As soon as the result is ascertained it will be given for publication.

Mr. Jesse K. Hines, State insurance commissioner, and for the past few years a resident of Baltimore, died at his home, No. 2437 North Calvert street, at 10.30 o'clock Friday night of last week after an illness of over a year. He was attacked by a severe case of pneumonia more than a year ago, and never fully recovered from it. With the trouble came other complaints until he became a confirmed invalid. For several months past he has been confined most of the time to his home.

Many hogs are dying of cholera in Kent and Queen Anne's counties. Two agents of the Department of Agriculture have just made an investigation of the ravages of the disease, which they state can only be stamped out by slaughtering affected animals.

The Democratic State convention met in Baltimore, on Thursday, and renominated Col. L. Victor Baughman for Comptroller of the Treasury Department by acclamation.

Major Warner has positively declined the appointment of Commissioner of Pensions.

The election for members of the Chamber of Deputies in France was held on Sunday last and resulted in a Republican success, although not overwhelming in its character. Boulangism showed little strength, but the monarchical factions elected a large number of the Deputies. Second ballots will be necessary in perhaps a hundred or more cases, and it is believed will add materially to the Republican majority. France is not yet ready to return to a monarchical form of government. The Republic has been severely tried but still stands.

Fires were numerous throughout the country on Saturday last. A mill of J. S. J. Watson, of Rockingham, Ont., was burned; loss $10,000. The large barn and several outbuildings of Adam Dechert, near Reading, Pa., were burned, with their contents, including 12 cows; loss $10,000. A fire in the lumber district, near Manistee, Mich., did $200,000 damage. A stable in the rear of Hunting Park, Philadelphia, with its contents, including nine cows, was burned; loss $4,000.
