Mr. Baynard Harper was chosen vice president of the group, and Mrs. tary-treasurer.

Frank V. Simpers was elected secretarq-treasurer.

Following the close of the session, which was addressed by Prof. Winton Tolles of the Washington College faculty, the association adjourned until next October.

BRIDGE PROBLEMS UNSETTLED

There is very little development toward the building of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge with the exception of the preliminary details being worked out by the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Authority.

The two chief obstacles in the path of actual construction is Federal extention of time for completion of the project and the loan of Federal funds for the cost of construction. The first is a minor detail but is causing considerable worry to bridge proponents. The second is the big item and there are numerous conflicting reports as to the progress being made.

SEED WHEAT OPPORTUNITY

County Agent J. D. McVean, announces an opportunity for farmers with quality wheat or barley on land free of obnoxious weeds, to have such grain inspected and certified for seed use.

The Maryland Seed Certification Board renders the service to the farmers producing the grain and also to other farmers seeking suitable seed sources.

On the basis of the field inspection and laboratory and germination tests the seed is classfied as 'certified seed' 'listed seed' and 'ther good seed,' depending on its origin, purity, trueness to type, freedom from weeds and impurities and germniation. Inspections are made only on grains tracing back to an approved source and quality.

Professor F. W. Oldenburg of the University of Maryland Extension Service is in charge of this service. He will visit Kent soon to inspect the grains fields which appear to be suitable as sources of high class seed wheat or barley. The County Agent has the details.

LARGE CROWD AT STREET DANCE

FIRE COMPANIES RELAY WATER A MILE

Decoration Day was a busy time in Chestertown starting with the memorial Day exercises at Chester Cemetery under the auspices of the American Legion and in which the Fire Company cooperated.

The afternoon crowd was divided into three parts, one group at the firemen's demonstration in which six companies relayed water from Chester River a mile to the Farm Bureau building, another group saw Washington College defeat Loyola 25 to 4, and the third group saw Chestertown down Dover 15 to 2.

That evening Chestertown was filled to overflowing by the large crowd which attended the Cross Street dance.

The pie-eating contest was again won this year by Taylor Frank while Earl McLockland leading the contestants in the ice cream eating contest.

Steven Hickman beat the other boys hopping in the bag race, and all in all it was a large evening.

OPEN KENNELS AT BETTERTON

Mrs. Myrtle M. Loud, of Betterton, Maryland, breeder of Boston Terriers, announces the opening of her new kennel on June 1.

The kennel points to be one of the most modern on the Eastern Shore. Being 64 feet in length, it is well equipped to easily accomodate 28 dogs and in an emergency 56 dogs.

Sanitation comes first. The dogs will be quarted in individual compartments, each with its spacious run, in a light, airy buildng equipped with ventilating system, electric lights, running water, and a complete fire and burglar alarm system.

The building is also equipped with a kitchen and food storage room where every means for sanitation will be provided for.

Mrs. Loud extends her personal invitation to each and every person to come out and inspect this kennel.

As you know the Hawthorne Kennels is the home of the sensational show and stud dog, Haggerty's Bantam Speed King who needs only 3 points to make him a Canadian and American Champion. A win at the show given by the Talbot County Kennel Club at Easton, June 2, will give this little fellow the title.

72 PROPERTIES SOLD FOR TAXES

Seventy two properties in Kent County were sold for 1931, 1932 and 1933 taxes on Tuesday of this week.

Of the 72 sales, 33 properties were bought by individuals and 39 by Kent County. The properties bought by Kent County were due to unsufficient bids to pay taxes due and will be sold by the county either at public or private sale after a year and day from May 28th, 1935. The amount of taxes due on the properties bought by the county were: 1st District $111.12, 2nd District $78.51, 3rd District $243.45, 5th District $65.72, 6th District $84.30, 7th District $9.92.

With a few exceptions, the properties bought by individuals were bought for the amount of taxes due.

WILL ASSIST IN P. W. A. APPLICATIONS

In accordance with directions from Washington, it was announced today, Arthur E. Hungerford, Director for Maryland for the National Emergency Council, will assist the public, whether state, municipalities, counties, communities or persons in presenting to the proper agencies recommendations and applications for projects under the Work Relief Program. His office is at 130 Custom House, Baltimore.

In explaining his added duties today, Mr. Hungerford said the following statement has come from Frank C. Walker, the Executive Director for the National Emergency Council:

'FIRST: Each State Director shall aid the public to understand the fundamental principles recognized by the President in determining eligibility of projects for inclusion in the Works Program. He shall assists the public in presenting to the proper agency recommendations and applications. Each State Director shall also act in a liaison capacity when desirable or necessary, between the administrators and officials of all Federal agencies within his State, and cooperate with such officers in coordinating and in expediting their activities under the Works Program.

'SECOND: Each State Director shall operate a clearing house for information concerning the functions and activities of all Federal agencies. He shall use as sources of information the Federal agencies within the State. Inquiries for information not thus available shall be referred to the National Emergency Council in Washington. An important objective is to make sure that the public understands the functions of the various Federal agencies in relation to the Works Program.

WASHINGTON PLAYERS TO PRESENT HOLIDAY

On Thursday, June 6th at 8.15 p. m. the Washington Players will give their last presentation for this school year on the stage of William Smith Hall, Washington College. Holiday is a three act comedy produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York, and written by Phillip Barry. The Players will be directed in this production by Winton Tolles, recently elected president of the Maryland Federation of Dramatic Clubs. Professor Tolles is well known in dramatic circles both for his ability as a writer and a director, his capable leadership the presentation is sure to be an outstanding hit. Holday ran for an extended period on Broadway and is recognized as one of the most riotous comedies of recent seasons.

Just to give you a brief insight into the entertaining plot of the vehicle a short synopsis follows. One of the daughters of the solvent Seton family has engaged herself to be married to an upstanding youth with no fiscal nor social background. The alliance is regarded dubiously but with dignity by the head of the house, a self satisfied money manliving complacently for and with the Seton ingots. The young percent bank note and that there is important fun to be had in the pursuit hero, though expert in finance is of the brief that life is not one-hundred of other treasures. He proposes to retire from business when he is young and to work when he is old. These radical impressions disturb both his betrothed and her parent and they set about to rectify them. Friendly to his credo is his prospective sister in law and here we come upon one of the numerous solutions of the play's success.

The play is the type that pleases all sorts of individuals and temperaments. The leading roles will be taken by Dot Clarke, Charles Benham, Carolyn Jewell, and Dusty Rhodes; all are experienced troupers and their performance will go far toward making this presentation a smashing success.

The dramatic critic for the New York Evening Post Commented: 'One could ask for nothing better than a stage full of Philip Barry characters indulging in his special brand of happy go lucky non-sense, rich in spontaneous absurdities and extradinarily funny lines. It's a real problem, the people caught in it are definitely woven.'

As a large number of Commencement guests are expected to attend the staging of Holiday it is wise that all towns people obtain their tickets at an early date. All seats are reserved and tickets are on sale at Stams Drug Store.

CHESTERTOWN DEFEATS DOVER

Chestertown won a one-sided base ball game over Dover at Hopewell Thursday by a score of 15 to 2. Bill Loller hurled for the locals and his teammates had little trouble with the offerings of the Dover pitchers.

J. T. KIBLER TO ENTERTAIN STATE COACHES

Coach J. T. Kibler, will be the host to the coaches of the base ball teams in the State Inter-Collegiate League next Monday at Chestertown.

It is very appropriate that this gathering should be in Chestertown in view of the fact that his Washington College team won the championship this season and also that Coach Kibler is without question the ablest and most experienced base ball coach in the State.

The afternoon will be spent in playing golf and other sports after which a fish fry will be held at the Country Club.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE SWAMPS LOYOLA NINE

Washington College closed its baseball season Thursday by crushing Loyola, of Baltimore, 24 to 4 in a game halted after six innings by agreement.

During the abbreviated hit-fest, the Shoremen established some sort of a record by stealing seventeen bases, including one theft of home.

The first three Shoremen to come to bat in the fifth hit homers. Nicholson, one of the three, got another homer in the sixth. The other fifth-inning clouters were Evans and Tignor.

Loyola scored three t imes in the second inning when Bremer drove a hard one through third to score Barzak, Powers and Cromaki.

JURY DISAGREES IN WOOD CASE

CIVIL CASE TRIED AT EASTON THIS WEEK

The suit of Amanda Derry, colored, vs Charles Wood for $10,000 was tried at Easton this week.

The suit was for $10,000 damages for injuries received when a carriage in which the plaintiff was riding and an automoble driven by the defendant were in collison at the curve just below the Country Club.

The jury after deliberating from 4 p. m. until midnight, failed to agree. Messrs. Herbert Perkins and James Chapman represented the plaintiff and Mr. S. Scott Beck represented the defendant.

GOLF LEAGUE STARTS TOMORROW

CHESTERTOWN TO VISIT PRESTON

The Peninsula Golf League will open tomorrow, Sunday, and as last year will be divided into a northrn and southern division.

Chestertown, Preston and Easton compose the northern division and the match scheduled tomorrow for this division is Chestertown at Preston.

The play this season will differ from that of last year in the fact that each man on the team will play an individual match with his opponent while last year it was played as a low ball foursome.

Mr. W. J. Stenger, who has captained the Chestertown team to victory for the past two years, was appointed captain for 1934 by the Golf Committee this week.

WHEAT PLAN APPROVED

KENT FARMERS STRONGLY FAVOR CONTINUATION

Kent farmers, to the tune of 97 per cent. approved of the adjusting of wheat production to domestic need, export possibility, and a safe surplus as a means of insuring a fair price for the wheat produced, voted on Saturday, May 25th, in the big National Referendum. Locally, in a highly representative vote, only three (3) per cent voted against the plan, while the farmers of the 37 wheat producing states voted more than 6 to 1 in favor of the plan.

The vote was an effort to secure from the farmers a definite answer to the question of farmers interest in and desire for the continuaton of the wheat adjustment plan. The result is clear cut approval of the plan. The vote did not commit the voter to sign an adjustment contract, it sought bones opinion of all wheat growers whether under contract or not.

A prominent land owner sums up the economics of the plan in these few terse words, 'If farmers want a fair price for wheat, they can get it only by adjusting the supply to match demand.' He went on to state his surprise that there were any votes in opposition to the plan.

Over 60 per cent. of Kent's contracts were represneted in the voting, 287 voting yes to ten (10) voting no. Both the contract group and the growers not under contract supported the plan. The latter group voting over 7 to 1 in favor of the plan.

Following is the vote by counties:

COUNTY TREASURER TO QUALIFY TODAY

WALTER MORRIS TO ASSUME NEW DUTIES

Mr. Walter Morris, who was elected Treasurer of Kent County in November, will qualify and assume his new duties today, Saturday, June 1st.

He will succeed Mr. H. Stockton Startt who has held that office for the past four years.

WILL TALK ABOUT TREES

NOTED TREE CONSERVATIONIST HERE NEXT WEEK

STATE D. A. R. CHAIRMAN OF CONSERVATION AND THRIFT

Mrs. Alice Paret Dorsey, of Roland Park, Baltimore, is planning to come to Chestertown on Saturday, June 8th, when she will give a talk to the Old Kent Chapter D. A. R. of Chestertown on the subject of Trees. On April 26, 1928, Mrs. Dorsey, through the Old Kent Chapter of the D. A. R. presented the Washington Elm to Washington College and a bronze tablet was dedicated to this tree several years ago.

Mrs. Dorsey will talk to the teachers and pupils of the Elementary School at assembly on Monday morning, and in the evening will be guest of honor at the meeting of the Rotary Club, when she will deliver an address 'Trees and how they serve Mankind.'

Mrs. Dorsey is Chairman of Conservation for the Maryland D. A. R., also Chairman of Conservation for the Baltimore District of Women's Clubs. She is the originator of the D. A. R. Committee of 'Historic Trees of America' and has suggested the planting of historic trees here, one from Mt. Vernon, another from the home of President Roosevelt, etc., which should prove very interesting in the future. At the close of the Washington Bicentennial she was awarded a Government Gold Medal for the most outstanding and conspicious work in the tree planting part of the celebration.

Mrs. Dorsey is deeply interested in the planting of trees and flowers for road-side beautification, as well as for other public and private planting, and those who may be fortunate enough to hear her talks will undoubtedly enjoy a rare treat.
