The issues of the campaign will be discussed from a local standpoint and the discussion will be of interest to tax-payers particularly, who are invited to attend.

Mr. Daniel Frazier, a well known citizen of Finksburg, died at his residence in that place on Friday of last week, in the 75th year of his age. A family of grown sons and daughters survive him. His remains were interred in the cemetery of St. John's Catholic Church, of this city, on Sunday afternoon.

Next Thursday evening will be Hallow E'en, on which day spooks are said to walk the earth and supernatural visions are to be seen; and which is also devoted by mischievous urchins to throwing corn against windows, ringing door bells, removing porches, gates and signs from their fastenings, and playing all sorts of pranks.

A letter from Double Pipe Creek, on Thursday last, says: Mr. John Weybright is still confined to his bed but seems to be slowly improving. Mrs. Ann Young, widow of the late Jacob Young, of the same place, is very ill and her death is looked for at any moment. She is 88 years old. Her husband died about 22 years ago.

Several persons have been arrested and fined for fast driving on the streets of Westminster during the past week. Bailiff Matthews has frequently given warning of his purpose to enforce the corporation ordinances in regard to this and other matters, and those who will not heed his admonitions must expect to incur the penalties.

Mr. John Masonheimer, of Pleasant Valley, met with a serious accident on Monday last. He was engaged in hauling logs, and was in the woods endeavoring to get one upon his wagon when it slipped and rolled down upon his left knee, which was badly crushed. He was alone and lay an hour after the accident before he was found. Dr. D. S. Coonan was called and gave the necessary surgical attention in the case.

The corpse of a young man named Thomas McDonald was found lying near the railroad crossing, at Sykesville, on Wednesday morning last. The manner of his death is not certainly known, but the probability is that he attempted to board a passing train, fell between the tracks and was dragged to death. One account says he was run over by the cars, and another that the body showed no signs to justify the supposition. He was about 28 years of age and a brother of Mr. John McDonald, a merchant and former postmaster at Sykesville.

Mr. George G. Little, of Pennsylvania avenue, this city, raised nine pumpkins in his garden the last season which weighed, respectively, 14, 17, 29, 30, 30, 35, 45, 58, and 67 pounds; total 325 lbs. Seven of them grew on one vine and weighed 228 pounds. The largest one measured 4 feet 10½ inches in circumference and the smallest 3 feet.

This locality was visited by the first snow storm of the season on Wednesday. Snow commenced falling about daylight and continued until shortly after noon, but melted as it fell except in exposed places. The temperature during Wednesday night fell below the freezing point and ice was formed thicker than a knife blade. The ground was frozen considerably.

As was predicted by some of the knowing ones, Mr. Isaac J. Slingluff, of New Windsor district, has declined the nomination of the Prohibition convention, for the House of Delegates. Mr. John W. Angel, the county chairman of the party, has named Mr. John Burgoon, of Myers' district, to fill the vacancy on the Prohibition ticket caused by the declination of Mr. Slingluff.

Mr. Charles L. Lindsay, butcher, of Wakefield Valley, whose business extends also to Westminster, has had built by Mr. John E. Eckenrode, of Liberty Street, an admirable new meat wagon in which the meats are protected from the dust by doors and screens. It is a very complete arrangement and thoroughly adapted to its purpose. Mr. Lindsay deserves commendation for his enterprise in providing the means of bringing meat to his customers in first-class condition.

Mr. Charles V. Wantz, cigar manufacturer of this city, has received an order from the store of Jefferson Davis, at Brierfield, Miss., for one thousand cigars. The store is not, of course, conducted by Mr. Davis in person, but all orders for purchases are submitted for his approval. He shows decidedly better judgement in sanctioning the order for the purchase of Mr. Wantz's cigars than he did in approving secession and the effort to establish a Southern Confederacy.

Several ears of corn raised on the farm of Mr. Edward Z. Mathias, in Myer's district, near the Pennsylvania line, were taken casually from the top of a load on his wagon by a gentleman who has left them at this office without Mr. Mathias' knowledge. One of the ears measures fourteen inches in length and is filled to the tip with large, plump grains, of which it contains twelve hundred. This ear and the remaining specimens which approximate it in size are a fair sample of Mr. Mathias' whole crop of five thousand bushels.

Prof. E. H. Norman, Principal of the New Windsor Business College, is about to start a night-class in the study of Book-Keeping, Penmanship, &c., in this city. He hopes to arrange for two nights in the week, the lessons to be given in some convenient and comfortable room. Prof. Norman is a graduate of Bryant & Stratton's Commercial College in Baltimore, in which he was a tutor for a number of years after his graduation, and is well qualified to give instruction in the proposed branches. This enterprise will afford a fine opportunity to the young people of both sexes in the community to get a fair knowledge of business requirements, and ought to be liberally patronized. The place, times and terms will be announced later.

The Hanover Spectator says: "The negotiations for the sale of the Hanover & York Railroad, (more familiarly known as the "Short Line,") to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which corporation has been operating it ever since its completion in 1875 under a lease for 90 years, have been consummated, and the final arrangements for its transfer to that great corporation will be completed this week. The stockholders, under the terms of sale as arranged, received the par value of the stock, $50, with three month's interest (75 cents) added. It is believed that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will also endeavor to purchase the Littlestown and the Frederick & Pennsylvania Line Railroads, extending from Hanover to Frederick City, Md., and which, with the Hanover & York constitute the Frederick Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad."

Eclipses of 1890.

The almanac makers tell us there will be three eclipses and a lunar appulse in the year 1890. The lunar appulse, which is simply a near approach of the moon to the earth's shadow, will take place June 3rd at 1.14, A. M. The uncertainty as to the effect of the earth's atmosphere render it doubtful whether the moon will enter the shadow or not.

Of the eclipses, the first will be an annular eclipse of the sun, June 17th, at 4.53, A. M.; invisible in America; visible in Africa and Asia. The second will be a partial eclipse of the moon, November 26th, at 8.28, A. M; invisible here, but visible in Asia and the Pacific ocean. The third will be a central eclipse of the sun, December 11th, at 10.9, P. M.; invisible here, but visible in Australia, India and part of Atlantic and Antarctic oceans.

The Flower Mission.

Shortly after the close of the Westminster Branch of the Baltimore Flower Mission, a few weeks ago, Miss K. S. Noell, the secretary, received the following letter, which we gladly give a place in the columns of the Sentinel, that those who are interested in the work, as contributors or otherwise, may see that their efforts have been appreciated:

Baltimore Md., Sept. 30th, 1889,

I received your note of September 26th, on Saturday, and cannot but regret that the work of the Westminster Flower Mission for the season of '89 closed last week. It is most gratifying to feel that the Flower Mission in Baltimore has so many interested friends at Westminster. I think the flowers have never before come to us in better condition than they have during the past summer, and I am sure much must be due to careful packing, which may have come with experience, for I fancy it must be rather difficult to send them allowing for the many hours passed before they reach us. The work here continues through October, when, although there is often a scarcity of flowers, we make our weekly visits to some of the hospitals, carrying fruit with us, which is generally most grateful to the ill. I read with interest the clipping from the paper, and hope to make special acknowledgement of the little boys' good work. When I complete the annual report expect to send you a copy. I trust another season will bring renewed interest to you, and all who have assisted in this work, and now thanking you once again,

Believe me yours very truly,
E. A. Smith,
Chairman of Flower Mission.

A Test Case.

A test case of much interest involving the validity of a number of $10 wheat notes was concluded in the Circuit Court for Kent county, on Wednesday, with a verdict for the plaintiff. Suit was brought by Messrs. Lorentz & Ritler, of Baltimore, against Victor Hendrickson, of Kent county, on a note for $200 given by the latter to the Hulless Oats Company of Westminster. The note was of the character now so familiar to the people of this county. The note passed into the hands of Price & Busteed, who transferred it, with a number of other notes to the amount of $4,000, to Messrs. Lorentz & Ritler in payment of a note for that amount held by that firm against them. The note was sent to the Chestertown National Bank for collection before maturity. Mr. Hendrickson resisted payment and suit was brought by Messrs. Lorentz & Ritler to recover, as stated. About twenty farmers of Kent county, who had given similar notes, banded together and made this a test case. The verdict was against them. Eminent counsel was engaged on both sides of the case.

Settled notes of the same character held by Mr. Wm. B. Thomas, of this city, were settled upon the above decision.

Death of Mr. John Reindollar.

Mr. John Reindollar, one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of Taneytown, died at his home in that place on Thursday, 17th inst, aged 75 years, 11 months, 13 days. He was the oldest member of the well-known Reindollar family, of whom his brothers Messrs. Samuel, David, James and Dr. Wm. Reindollar survive him. His death was caused by paralysis. He leaves one son, Mr. Wm. M. Reindollar and one daughter, Mrs. Daniel Fair, of Taneytown. He was, for many years, a member and elder of the Lutheran Church, of Taneytown, and ever manifested the characteristics of an earnest, devoted christian gentleman. His remains were interred in the Cemetery of the Church to which he was attached, on Saturday morning last at 10 o'clock, Rev. O. C. Roth, pastor, conducting the services, which were attended by a large number of the citizens of Taneytown and the surrounding country.

Gymnasium Opening.

The Yingling Gymnasium, the gift of Miss Anna R. Yingling to Western Maryland College, will be opened with a Calisthenic and Gymnastic Entertainment on Tuesday evening next, October 29th. As the accommodations for spectators is limited it has been deemed advisable to charge an admittance fee of 25 cents. Spectators will be admitted for this fee to the gallery until the entertainment is ended and then to a general inspection of the building.

Professor C. F. E. Schultz, director of the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium of Baltimore will have charge of the Gymnastic entertainment, which will consist of performances by professional gymnasts from Baltimore. The Calisthenics will be given by students of the College. As it is not possible to seat the Gymnasium the entertainment will be brief and will not weary the spectators. The money will be applied to further furnishings for the building. Tickets at the door.

BYRON—WILSON.

At high noon, Tuesday, October 8th, in the Post Chapel at this Post, occurred the wedding of Lieutenant Joseph C. Byron, 8th Cavalry, and Miss Jennie Frances Wilson, daughter of Chaplain David Wilson, U. S. Army.

The chapel was prettily decorated with flowers and plants, combined with evergreen, while flags were draped over the windows.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the splendid orchestra of the 8th Cavalry, from behind a screen of evergreen, sounded the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and the bridal party entered the chapel in the following order: Chaplain Wilson with the bride and Mrs. Wilson. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Lieut. Robert J. Duff, 8th Cavalry. Chaplain Wilson, proceeding to the place of officiating clergyman, the ceremony was then solemnly performed, concluding with the Lord's prayer to the accompaniment of the orchestra.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests proceeded to the quarters of Chaplain Wilson, where congratulations and best wishes were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Byron, after which an elegant collation was served.

At 2 o'clock the bride and groom left for an extended tour in the East, and will visit Boston, New York and West Point. It being a military wedding, all the officers present were in full uniform, as was also the groom.

The bride was attired in a handsome traveling costume of cloth and velvet with toque to match. In addition to the officers and ladies of the garrison, there were present Colonel and Mrs. Tilford, from Fort Robinson, and their guest, Miss Casey, from Kansas City. Quite a number of wedding gifts from friends, both at the Post and elsewhere, were displayed.

ROOP—M'COLLUM.

Mr. H. Scott Roop, of the firm of Roop & Zile, seedsmen and florists, one of the most popular young business men of this city, and Miss Kate M. McCollum, daughter of Mr. William H. McCollum, a well-known citizen of Uniontown, were married at 3 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, in the Methodist Protestant Church of the latter place. The church was beautifully decorated with growing plants and flowers. The bride wore a traveling dress of dark green cloth and velvet, with hat to match, and corsage bouquet of La France roses. She carried in her hand a bouquet of Perles des Jardin roses. As the bridal party entered the church a wedding march was played by Mr. D. A. C. Webster on the organ, accompanied by Messrs. Lee Erb and Howard Zollickoffer with cornets. The ushers were Messrs. J. Thomas Zile and Joseph W. Smith, of Westminster, Wm. Zollickoffer, of Uniontown, and Charles E. Roop, of Baltimore. The marriage ceremony was performed in a graceful and impressive manner by Rev. J. T. Murray, D. D., pastor of the church. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Roop started on a Southern trip.

Dedication.

St. Paul's new M. E. Church at Sykesville was dedicated Sunday morning last in the presence of a very large gathering. The services were in charge of Rev. J. E. Amos, presiding elder of West Baltimore district. A very eloquent sermon was preached by the Rev. J. B. Stitt, of Fayette Street Church, Baltimore. Revs. E Burhman and C. C. Cook, pastors, and W. T. D. Clemm also assisted in the service. The total cost of the Church, including the ground, was $2,600. $1,600 had been previously subscribed, leaving $1,000 to be collected at the dedication. This amount was asked for, and $1,150 was raised. The building committee was E. M. Mellor, John E. Gaither, John Harris, Wm. H. Bennett, H. O. Devries, Rev. C. C. Cook. Johnsie Selby & Sons were the contractors. The church is 50 by 30, is two stories high, the lower story being a basement for the Sunday school, and with a wood superstructure, surmounted by a belfry, making the total height sixty feet. This church succeeds the one built eleven years ago on the Howard county side. The site of the former church was considered a very poor one and altogether inconvenient; hence the change.

Death of Mr. James Shaeffer.

Mr. James Shaeffer, a native of Baltimore, and brother of Mrs. Elizabeth Roop and Miss Kate Shaeffer, of this city, died, on the 18th inst., at the residence of a married daughter, in Chicago, Ills., in the 80th year of his age. Mr Shaeffer was, some years ago, a frequent visitor to this city, where he had numerous relatives and was well known. He was, at one time, in the customs service at Baltimore, as a special inspector. He left two married daughters and one son residing in Chicago, and one son, Mr Charles Shaeffer, residing in Indianapolis, Ind., who is a prominent citizen and president of the street railway of that city. The remains of the deceased were brought to this city on the noon train, on Tuesday last, and interred in Westminster Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Cooper, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Charles A. Reid, of this city. The pall-bearers were: Hon. John E. Smith, Col. Wm. A. McKellip, Messrs. John C. Frizell and George N. Fringer, all relatives or family connections of Mr. Shaeffer.

Visit of Grand Lodge Officers.

Friday night of last week Mr. James G. Floyd, grand chancellor; James Whitehouse, grand keeper of records and seals, and William J. Moore, grand master-at-arms of the Knights of Pythias, all of Baltimore, paid a fraternal and official visit to Charity Lodge No. 58, K. of P., of this city, and received a cordial welcome from their brethren here. Speeches were made by the visitors and members of the lodge, and the work of the order was exemplified by Grand Chancellor Floyd. After the lodge was closed, the grand officers were given a banquet at the Albion Hotel, and sat until a late hour. In addition to the gentlemen named, those present were: Mr. J. W. Bird Hill Items.

Our Democratic friends have always been loud in their denunciation of third termism but we notice they have two gentlemen on their ticket that have filled their offices for two terms and now ask the people to elect them for a third time. We appeal to Democrats to be consistent in this matter and vote as they have professed to believe, against a third term.

On Sunday, October 13th, while Mr. Jno. L. Shipley and Levi T. Frizzell were returning from the funeral of Mr. Hezekiah D. Caple the coupling pin in the buggy broke and the occupants were thrown out. Mr. Shipley's side was badly bruised from the effects of which he has not yet fully recovered. Mr. Frizzell escaped unhurt.

Mr. Wm. Park has rented the dwelling of Hanson Davis, in this vicinity. Mr. Noah Stocksdale, of Finksburg, last Saturday moved into the house of Harrison Davis, formerly occupied by J. G. Cook. Elias Welsh and Brother moved into their new dwelling near this place, last Saturday.

Miss Dora Hess, of East View, who was visiting relatives and friends in Dauphin county, Pa., for some time past, returned home last week, much pleased with her visit.

We have recently been informed that Mr. S. Carr Wickert would undoubtedly be the next Sheriff. To this we will say: it is not yet decided.

W. S. Markel, who has been working in Baltimore county for several weeks, has returned home and will now engage in putting up post fence.

A. T. Buckingham has a number of hands engaged hewing timber with which he contemplates erecting a stable the dimensions of which will be 24x40 feet.

Master Francis Huff, of Baltimore county, visited his sister, Mrs. Thos. Phillips, of this vicinity, last week.

The gunning season is now at hand and the poor little rabbits are daily falling victims to the skill of the hunters.

Edward Osterhaus, of East View, is lying very ill at present with typhoid fever.

Wm. H. Blizzard of this vicinity lost a valuable cow recently.

Corn husking is now in full blast.

Mr. Elias Ogg is about to organize a singing-school in our place for the winter. He has shown by past experience that he is a competent instructor, and our young people are to be congratulated on having this opportunity of vocal culture.

A protracted meeting will commence at Deer Park Chapel on Sunday, November 3d. It will be inaugurated with love-feast, which will take place at 9, A. M., on the date named, followed by preaching at 10 o'clock. The services will thereafter be held nightly during the week, or for a longer period, according to circumstances.

Frizellburg Items.

Rev. D. A. Souders, of the Reformed Church, held his fall communion services at Baust's Church on Sunday last. The day was warm and pleasant and the attendance was very large. Service was also held at night.

Rev. W. S. Delp, pastor of the Uniontown charge, Lutheran Church, who went from the meeting of the Maryland Synod at Martinsburg, W. Va., quite unwell, to spend a short vacation at his old home in Lehigh county, Pa., has recovered and will return in time to preach at Baust's church at 10, A. M., on Sunday, 27th inst.

Mrs. Dr. Jacob Rinehart spent Fair week with friends in Frederick, then visited Emmittsburg and Fairfield, Pa. She resided with the Doctor at the latter place from 1860 to 1864 and has many warm friends in that community. She will return home on Monday next.

The corn crop in this locality is very fine and will yield 10 to 16 barrels per acre. Messrs. Samuel Wareheim and A. K. Myers have left several ears of corn at Mr. Levi N. Snader's store, in this place, which measure 13½ to 14 inches in length. Judge Wm. Frizell also has a very fine crop.

Wm. Warner husked 13 barrels and 8 bushels of corn (ears) by measure, for Judge Frizell, of this place, on Tuesday. He husked 8 barrels in six hours, from 6, A. M., to 12, M., and the remainder, 5 barrels and 8 bushels, from 1 to 5.25, P. M., tying up and shocking all the fodder. For a wager he can do much better.

Mr. Joshua Corbin, of Fountain Valley, is quite ill.

Gamber Items.

One day last week while Mr. Joseph Parrish, of near this place, was returning from Baltimore, a mule in his team was taken sick on the road and died soon after reaching home.

A Bible-reading class and prayer meeting gathers at Providence M. P. Church every Sunday night. It has been in existence ever since the close of the camp-meetings and is well attended by the young folks.

Mr. Wesley F. Barnes, of Porters P. O., has moved his photograph tent to this place and is located at Gamber's store, where he can be found every Saturday until the weather gets too inclement for outdoor work. Mr. Barnes has been in the business some fourteen or fifteen years and understands the work in all its branches.

The wood work on the church improvement at Providence M. P. Church is nearly completed, and if the weather permits it will be finished in a few days.

Agreeable to public notice by the secretary, Wm. S. Gamber, the Walter B. Brooks Republican Club of this place met at Gamber's store, last Friday night, October 25th, to arrange for holding a grand mass meeting on Thursday night, October 31st, which will be addressed by Col. McKellip, Capt. Chas. G. Miller, and Messrs. Clabaugh and Brooks.

Centre View Items.

Two weeks after his appointed time Rev. O. F. Schaeffer reached here on the 8th inst., much improved in health. He was a classmate of Rev. Geo. C. Erb, of Wilton Junction. He has in care the Berlin charge and is stationed at East Berlin, Pa. During his visit to this place he was the guest of Miss Maude V. Erb. He returned home the latter part of the week.

Miss Louisa Stewart has returned from her visit here to her home in Baltimore.

Miss Maude V. Erb is visiting her sister, Mrs. Daniel Crouse, Jr., Littlestown, Pa.

Messrs. W. and G. Hull and H. C. Albaugh spent last Sunday at Piney Creek.

Both of our pastors have now returned and we hope there may be no more Sundays without sermons for some time.

Several sly weddings are reported as impending in this community.

Woodbine Items.

The Sabbath school jubilee and treat to the children at Morgan Chapel, on Saturday last, was a happy gathering of the entire community. The Revs. Edward Smith, Thomas Edwards, and J. D. Burton addressed the large concourse of people. The dialogues, readings and speaches did credit to those who took part therein, and were interspersed with choice singing by Professor Hess's choir. The Misses Mollie and Nettie Hess, and Mrs. Minnie Brooks, of Westminster, presided at the organ. The Taylorsville Band also rendered excellent music. Mr. Basil Shipley, the superintendent, and the teachers have reason to be proud of the crowning success of the school. We recognize no backward step in Sabbath Schools. It is the Master's work for the Master's cause, and the motto is onward and upward. It is the Sabbath School that is fitting the world for the ushering in of the auspicious morn when the Lord shall come.

At last the people in the roadless corner above Woodbine have a man on the ticket from that section for Commissioner. Wesley P. Gosnell is a go-ahead man and if elected will give his people something better than coon paths for county roads. That section has been shamefully imposed on in regard to roads; and its citizens will act wisely to secure Mr. Gosnell, regardless of party proclivities.

Our Democratic friends say it was very strange that those who aspired to the House of Delegates were turned down, and other names placed on the ticket. "Shaw!" the ticket was "Doctored."

Frank Gosnell has built a large addition to his dwelling. William Evens is building a handsome cottage. Malachi Mills has erected a wagon house.

Mr. Edward Evans and Miss Ida Aldridge, of this place, were united in marriage on Thursday, 17th inst., by Rev. M. E. McLinn, of Union Bridge.

We have had a fine spell of weather for husking out corn and doing fall work in a general way. Farmers are about done grain seeding and are lofting their corn crops as fast as they can get them out. The corn crop is a good one generally speaking. The early sown grain is up and growing nicely. Even the timothy is up and showing plainly on the early sown fields. Many of our wormseed raisers are distilling their oil and say the yield is satisfactory. The clover seed crop was small, through this section of the county, this fall, and a very little was cut.

If U desir to by goods low for the eloquent Cash, the Racket Store holds unparaleled inducements. We are contented with smal profits, and the larg amount of goods we handl, second to non in Western Maryland, enabl us to fire with short range prices. We wish to enumerat our claims in as few words as possibl:

OUR DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS ar the choicest in the New York markets. A larger assortment of Ladies' Fine Cloths and Suitings no one would wish.
