The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

The announcement of two weddings is in accord with the advent of Valentine's Day on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cruikshank announce the marriage of their daughter, Julia Woodall to Lieut. James McDowell which took place on Monday, February 2nd at Camp Selby, Miss. Only the mothers of the bride and groom attended the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Johnston, of Sassafras, Md., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Emma to Mr. Carl M. Dill, of Galena, Md. The ceremony was performed in Galena, Methodist Parsonage on Saturday, January 31st by the Rev. Paul McCoy. .

The bride had as her attendant, her sister, Mrs. James Geary, while Mr. Arthur Dill served as best man to his brother.

After March 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Dill will reside in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Earl Jewell announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna Virginia, to Lieut. Vincent Martin, Jr., of Richmond.

Lent is approaching and before you hear from me again, Shrove Tuesday, pan-cake day, and Ash Wednesday will have arrived. And although the rush of parties, which have been more or less constant since the holidays, have subsided somewhat, however, from now on I'll probably discuss Victory gardens, Home Nursing, Air Spotting and in other words, a literal Black Out of Social Activities for six weeks. Even the Duplicate Bridge on Tuesday evenings will culminate it's series.

However, the week-end will furnish some gaiety.

Mrs. Perry Metcalfe will entertain at dinner and bridge on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne, Pa., who will be her house-guests for the week-end.

Another dinner and bridge, the same evening, will be entertained by Dr. and Mrs. S. Holt Wright at Wrightstead.

Mrs. Wright will also be hostess at two luncheon and bridge parties, one to be given to-morrow, Friday, and the other, Tuesday, February 17th.

Miss Elizabeth Brown will spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. H. Clay Brown. Miss Brown will be one of the god-mothers at the christening of the twin sons of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick. Dr. and Mrs. Dick will entertain, following the baptismal service on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines will entertain at luncheon on Sunday at Riverside.

General and Mrs. Milton A. Reckord, of Baltimore, will be week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, at Brampton. General Reckord has recently been appointed commanding officer of the Third Corps Area.

Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, having been a patient at the local hospital for the past four weeks, is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley at their home in Quaker Neck.

Mr. Raymond Wilkins, who has been recuperating from a recent operation at the local hospital, is visiting his mother in Baltimore before returning to his position in The First National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Needles entertained at dinner last Sunday in celebration of the former's birthday.

Mrs. Emerson R. Russell and little daughter, Nancy, have returned to their home here after spending several days with relatives in Baltimore.

Among out-of-town guests here last week-end, were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Nicholson an dtheir son, Bill II, who visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nicholson. Mr. Nicholson leaves on Saturday, enroute to Catalina Island, the training camp of the Chicago Cubs.

So with a fan-fare of trumpets we go out and for the future solemnity—we're waiting—my heart be still!

Yours in obscurity,

The Wanderer
