The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

As usual, we begin with announcements. So before going on to current events of the social world, let's take a look to see for whom the wedding bells will toll.

Mrs. Nettie Naundorf, of Kennedyville, announces the engagement of her daughter, Ann, to Mr. Marion J. Courtney. Mr. Courtney is in the U. S. Navy and is stationed at Miami, Florida. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

The wedding of Miss Hester N. Leaverton, daughter of Mrs. Oscar F. Leaverton and the late Mr. Leaverton to Private Franklin E. Price of Fort Belvoir, Virginia and Roc kHall, Md., will take place at Salem Methodist Church, Fairlee, Saturday, April 25th at 8.00 P. M.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Sonya Ebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Ebert, 2617 11th St. S. W., Canton, Ohio to Mr. Walter Howell Rees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Rees, of Chestertown, Md.

The wedding will take place on April 18, 1942, in the rectory of St. Joseph's Church, Canton, Ohio.

Miss Ebert is a graduate of McKinley High School and Canton Actual Business College, Canton, Ohio. At present, she is an employee of Timken Roller Bearing Co., at Canton. Mr. Rees is a graduate of Washington College, Chestertown, Md., and an employee of the Republic Steel Corp., Canton, Ohio.

After April 25th, they will have an apartment at 1612 Cleveland Ave., N. W., Canton, Ohio.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donnelly, of Rock Hall and Mr. Raymond Sparks, of Fairlee took place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 11, at the home of the bride's parents, The Haven. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. C. Louhoff.

Mr. Sparks is the bookkeeper at the Kent Defense Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Miller of Locust Grove, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Elizabeth, to Sergeant Edward R. Elburn, of Fort Meade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elburn, which took place April 11th, at St. Lukes P. E. Church, Church Hill.

Last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Harry B. Cannon entertained at a small tea at her home, Maiden Lot. Among the out-of-town guests present and who were here over the week-end included Mrs. Richard Hess, of New York, and Mrs. Ralph Judd, of Cleveland, house guests of Mrs. L. R. Blackhurst at King's Grant; and Mrs. John Brenneman, of Philadelphia, formerly of Shanghai, China, house guest of Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Guests at Brampton, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, last week, were: Mr. and Mrs. James L. Springer, of Baltimore, and over the week-end, Mrs. Benj. Houston, of Rehobeth, Del., and Mrs. H. Curry, of New York.

Mrs. Leonard DeMerritt, of Baltimore, will come on Friday to be a guest of Mrs. H. Clay Brown for a week.

Mrs. William T. Dixon and Mrs. Edward Fennimore will motor here on Saturday to spend the week-end at Green Point Farm, the home of Mrs. Dixon. Mrs. Dixon will return t othe county May 1, and be in residence at Green Point for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Coale, of South East Farm entertained Mr. and Mrs. Graham Patterson, of Philadelphia, as their week-end guests. Mr. Patterson is well known as the editor and publisher of the Farm Journal.

Mrs. Mabon Kingsley, President of the Kent County board of the Maryland Children's Aid Society, entertained at luncheon, the members of the board and a few additional guests, at the Sophie Fisher Inn, prior to the Annual Spring Meeting and tea which was held at the Country Club, later in the afternoon.

Mrs. Gerald Meyers entertained at luncheon-bridge on Thursday afternoon, at her home near Kennedyville.

Mrs. Fred W. Dumschott will entertain at dessert-bridge on Friday afternoon at her home on Mt. Vernon Place.

The Alpha Chi Omega sorority, at Washington College, has issued invitations to a patroness tea on Sunday afternoon, which will be held at William Smith Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whitworth and their daughter, Miss Laura Whitworth have returned to their home, Radcliffe Hall, after having spent the winter months in California.

Mrs. Ernest H. Strong left Tuesday for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Dwyer, in Harrisonburg, Va.

Mrs. Charles C. Schrieber is a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schreiber at their home in Columbus, Ohio.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Happersett upon the birth of a daughter born Saturday night at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. E. William Hall, of Baltimore, are the proud parents of a son born on Monday in that city. Mrs. Hall was formrely Miss Louise Nicholson, of Chestertown, daughter of Mr. Robert J. Nicholson and the late Mrs. Nicholson.

Mrs. Allan A. Harris will return this week-end from a week's visit with her sister, Miss Isabelle Beck, in Baltimore.

Mr. W. Robert Huey, cashier of the First National Bank here, who has been recuperating from a recent illness at Rehobeth, Del., returned to his duties on Monday morning.

Mrs. Wroth Stavely is a patient at the Dover Hospital, where she underwent a serious operation on Monday.

That's all for now, and I hope I'll be seeing you, in the meantime.

Yours anticipating,

The Wanderer
