The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

Although unheralded by any fanfare, last week-end turned out to be an unusually gay one. Parties tumbled all over themselves, lapping and linking one another, as in days of yore.

Of course, the largest was at the Grieb's at Deep Point, where Mrs. George Erety Grieb was the guest of honor. Hot as it was, guests milled around under the shade of the tall trees in the gardens where the refreshments were served until dusk.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cannon entertained at dinner at their home, Maiden Lot.

Sunday dawned, hot and sunny in spite of all the activity that was to be crowded into its round of the clock. Captain and Mrs. Roderick Blackhurst entertained at luncheon, at King's Grant, the home of the former's parents in Quaker Neck. Captain Blackhurst, who is stationed at Fort Dix was home for the week-end accompanied by Lieut. Nelson.

Commander and Mrs. Hugh S. Sease also entertained at luncheon on Sunday in honor of their house guests Captain Walter Webster U. S. N. and Mrs. Webster, of Philadelphia.

Still later on Sunday, prior to the weekly Sunday night supper at the Club, Mrs. John R. Speicher entertained in honor of her house guests. Dr. and Mrs. T. Nelson Carey ,of Baltimore.

And still another party at the same time was given by Miss Harriett Vane for her brother, Private Robert Vane, who is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

Sunday evening ,Mr .and Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines were hosts at a buffet supper at their home, Riverside. And so chimed the end of the hottest day.

Mrs. Frank D .Webb, of Ruxton, Md., is a guest this week of Mr .and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers. Mr. Webb, who was also a guest of the Rogers for the week-end, returned to his home on Monday.

Mrs. Leonard DeMerritt, of Baltimore, who has been extensively entertained since her arrival in Chestertown as a guest of Mrs. H. Clay Brown, will return to Baltimore on Friday. Mrs. J. Elliott Gilpin, of Baltimore will come the same day to visit Mrs. Brown. Mrs. DeMerritt was guest of honor on Monday at a bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. C. R. Humphreys, and on Wednesday, Mrs. S. Scott Beck was hostess at bridge and luncheon in compliment to the Baltimore visitor.

Mrs. Hugh S. Sease was extended a surprise birthday party on Monday evening, given by some of her friends at her home in Quaker Neck.

The younger set have been gay this week also, celebrating birthdays. On Monday evening, a crowd of the lower teen age, surprised Peggy Truslow in celebration of her birthday. Then on Wednesday evening Peggy Metcalfe entertained at a dinner party followed by a Treasure Hunt. Hilarious in glee and excitement, they tore from house to house in hunt of the clues which would lead to the victorious trophy. And so youth flings on!

On Wednesday, Mrs. William Buckingham entertained at luncheon for those of her friends who are war brides and wives of service men away. Mrs. Buckingham, herself a war bride of May, is the wife of Lieut. William Buckingham, U. S. M. C. and is at present living with her mother, Mrs. John R. Speicher.

Mrs. Sidney T. Manning of Baltimore, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Perkins ,at her home on Queen St.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell left on Monday for Washington, where she is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie H. Stam.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull are spending the week at Sherwood Forest, where they are visiting various friends at their summer cottages there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Smith, of New York, were guests this week of Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Edward A. Hurd, at "The Reward Farm."

Mrs. J. Lewin Burris and daughter, Anne, are spending the summer in Elmira, New York, where they are visiting Mrs. Burris's mother. They also have spent some time at a cottage on Lake Keuka.

Mr. Henry L. Griffin, of Towson, Md., was a week-end guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Jones, of Wilmington, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eshman at the Voshell House.

Mrs. George Maxwell and her three children, from White Plains, N. Y., will come on Friday to visit at Worton Manor, the home of Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell.

Fox Point, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs .Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne, Pa., will be opened for a fortnight when Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Alexander and young grandson, of Philadelphia, will come this week-end.

Mrs. Alday Clements and her little daughter, of Stonehurst, Pa., are guests of Mrs. Clements' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Anthony.

And that about brings us up to date. Here, staring us in the face is the Annual Regatta. So quiet and calm in comparison to those of past years, the fact that "regatta week-end" is here can hardly be recognized. Well, everything's changed and we are going to make the best of it. There will be an informal dance at the Club Friday evening, and on Saturday evening, following the races, a buffet supper and dance will be held.

The sail-boat races should be good, so on the pier let us cheer, as the sails go by—

Yours at the tiller,

The Wanderer

Diesel Versus Steam

Diesel electric switch engines are becoming increasingly popular on railroads today because they have a higher starting power and better acceleration than corresponding steam engines. They can operate more than 48 hours continuously without taking fuel or water.
