JUDGE FRANCE SUCCEEDS GEORGE AS DIRECTOR

The resignation of Isaac S. George as Executive Director of the Maryland Council of Defense, and the appointment of Chief Judge Robert France, of the Baltimore Traffic Court, to succeed him, were announced today by Governor Herbert R. O'Conor. Mr. George is resigning as Executive Director, Governor O'Conor made known, upon the advice of his physician, and because the duties and responsibilities of his office had become so exacting and exhausting that he felt unable to carry on to his own satisfaction.

Governor O'Conor paid high tribute to the splendid work done by Mr. George and said that he was happy to be able to state that Mr George would not retire completely from State Council duties, but would become a member of the Maryland Council of Defense and continue his efforts there.

The Governor recalled the fact that Mr. George had entered upon his duties back in 1940 without compensation, and had developed the work of the Council so well that the Maryland Body had been used as a model in other states in the country.

FARM LABOR NOW AVAILABLE FOR SHORE

Reports to Governor Herbert R. O'Conor on Wednesday stated that 2,600 migratory laborers are available to the farmers of the Eastern Shore.

Of the number 600 have reached the Shore or are on their way and 2,000 additional are available in North Carolina according to the United States Employment Service advices.

The effort to secure the migratory workers was launched as a conference called by Governor O'Conor in the State House several weeks ago and attended by Federal officials and Maryland Farm Bureau representatives. At the conference Governor O'Conor made available $5,000.00 toward a fund for the transportation of the Maryland farm hands from the Southern states to the Eastern Shore.

Spinach Mold Enhanced With Brown Sauce

There probably never was a dish of any kind that couldn't stand a little dressing up occasionally — in some cases it makes a difference in flavor—in other cases just a better appearances. Such is the case with molded spinach—it won't change the flavor—but it will enhance it and at the same time give the impression of a special company treat.

SPINACH MOLD

2½ cups boiled spinach
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon butter
2 eggs
1 cup milk
Salt and pepper
Brown sauce

Melt the butter in a saucepan and add to it the flour; when well mixed, add the milk and cook until it thickens. Chop the boiled spinach very fine, and add to it the grated cheese, the white sauce just prepared, well beaten eggs, and salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly and pour into a buttered mold; set in a pan half full of water, and bake in a moderate oven until the ingredients are firm like a custard. Unmold onto a hot platter and pour over a brown sugar. The sauce makes a more substantial and elaborate dish, but the mold can very well be served without it.

In spite of the rain, 20 representatives of organizations interested in rural fire control and prevention attended a meeting Wednesday night at the County Agent's office to talk through the existing situation and to plan a continuing campaign to stimulate interest in self help through neighborhood groups, since the tire and gas situation will limit activity of fire fighting agencies, to say nothing of conditions when war hits the Shore. Loss of members from the Fire Companies will also limit possible service. Organized effort will be made to induce each rural family to remove the existing fire hazards and to prepare to fight incendiary bombs and incendiary fires, through organized effort.

It is realized that people will not adopt any plan 100 per cent immediately, nor 100 per cent willingly, but will grow into the idea of self help in prevention and control of rural fires—just as they grow into acceptance of conditions imposed by war time conditions as they are doing on sugar and tire or gas rationing. This meeting meant much to those who are ready to "take the stitch in time"—while there is time.

MINIMUM PRICE SCALE ON MILK TO FARMERS

Announcement of minimum prices to be paid by 76 handlers in the Philadelphia milk marketing area to more than 9500 farmers in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware, aggregating $2,749,718.36, for milk delivered to handlers' plants during the month of July, was made this week by W. P. Sadler, Market Administrator.

The Class I (fluid milk) price for July was $3.70 per cwt and the Class II (milk made into cream and other products) price was $2.327 per cwt for milk delivered at Philadelphia containing 4 per cent of butterfat. These prices represent an increase of about one-quarter cent per quart for milk that was bottled and about the same per half-pint of cream over the prices for June milk. The weighted average return to farmers for 4 per cent milk F. O. B. Philadelphia, was $3.416 per cwt for July compared with $3,228 for June.

"The milk covered in this price announcement for July," Sadler said, "brings the total of returns to farmers, since the order became effective, to over eleven million dollars on the basis of 4% milk, delivered at Philadelphia. The sales of fluid milk (Class I) have increased consistently each month from the approximate million quarts per day recorded for April." "However," he said ,"deliveries of producers showed a decline in total of about 12% from the high point in May'.'

The price F. O. B. Philadelphia for 4% milk from the Worton station is $3.116.

In Memoriam

In memory of Lucille Bowman who died August 21, 1939.

In stormy weather and fair, dear,
We have toiled together through life;
And what shall ever compare dear,
With a faithful and loving wife?
Together we ever shall be, dear
Though death has severed us twain;
For your memory still is with me, dear,
And our spirits shall meet again.

To the Democrat Voters of Kent County

A few weeks ago a comparatively FEW members of the Democratic Party of Kent County got together and named what they choose to call a "Compromise" or "Harmony" ticket for the Democrat Primaries on September 8th.

The wishes or advice of the great majority of our party were absolutely ignored in the naming of this ticket supposed to represent the entire Democratic party.

In opposition to this mis-called "Harmony" ticket a new faction of the Democrat party was formed at a meeting open to All Democrats.

We submit for your approval the PEOPLES DEMOCRAT TICKET and solicit your vote and support for each and every candidate
