The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Saturday, October 17, is the date announced this week by Miss Mary Elizabeth Humphreys for her marriage to Mr. Frank A. Moorshead, Jr. The ceremony will be performed in Emmanuel P. E. Church at seven o'clock in the evening, followed by a reception at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. Further details will be forthcoming anon, but no doubt this will be the oustanding wedding of the Fall Season. Yes, there are to be bridesmaids and all the trimmings, consequently, there'll be lots more to tell. Of course, no end fo parties will preceed the nuptials and so we'll have those to hear about also.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Whalen, 134 Park St., Watertown, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Elizabeth to Corporal W. R. Huey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Huey, of Chestertown.

The wedding will take place at the 1st Pres. Church, Watertown, N. Y., on Wednesday, September 9th, 1942, at 6 p. m.

Dr. Youngs, pastor of the church will officiate.

Miss Whalen, who is a graduate of Katharine Gibbs School, Boston, Mass., is interested in music and is a harpist.

Corporal Huey, who received training at the Peabody Institute and who in civilian life is a church organist and choir director, is stationed at Pine Camp, N. Y., a member of Battery A-66 Field Artillery, Armored Battalion.

Out-of-towns visitors are always welcome and if their visit is of long enough duration, generally, the ball starts rolling in the way of parties, in order to make their visits more pleasant.

Such has been the case of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner, Miss Betty White, Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy, and Mrs. Hawkins Brittain. There certainly have been more parties during the past week than at any time this summer. Just which were for whom, I can't stop to decipher, but some or all of these out-of-town guests attended some or all of the parties, whether they were actually the guests of honor or nay.

Looking back over the week, let's commence with Sunday.

At noon, Mrs. Edward A. Hurd entertained, informally, at buffet luncheon, at The Reward, her home in Quaker Neck.

Later in the day, Mrs. Geraldine Williams entertained at the second of a series of small parties prior to the Sunday evening suppers at the Club.

On Monday evening, Mrs. Thomas Massey and Mrs. Charles Weaver entertained at dinner, at the home of Mrs. Massey.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer entertained at a dessert-bridge in honor of Miss Betty White, and on Wednesday evening, again at dessert-bridge, in honor of Mrs. Louis Skinner.

But Wednesday, also held another party on its calendar.

Mrs. Harry Deringer was hostess at a buffet luncheon.

Thursday, Mrs. Richard Carvell entertained at 10.30 in the morning at a "veranda" bridge, followed by luncheon.

And then we skip up until the approaching Sunday when Lieutenant and Mrs. Harry H. Deringer will entertain at luncheon at their home on Queen St.

Now a glance at some of the visitors here for the week-end only. Among them were: Mrs. Paul Wilkinson of Baltimore, who was a guest of Mrs. Carl Melamet; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ebsworth, of Baltimore, who were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Farr; Mr. and Mrs. James Chapman, of Baltimore, who visited Mrs. Frank Simpers; William S. Collins, Boatswain's Mate, 1st Class, U. S. Coast Guard, stationed at Norfolk, a guest of his mother, Mrs. R. H. Collins, Sr.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin V. Williams, of Salisbury, Md., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Leonard; Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, of Baltimore, guests of Mrs. Thomas Foley; Miss Lucie Frazier, of Washington, a visitor at her home here; Mrs. Anna C. Pippin, of Severna Park, a guest of her daughter, Miss Anne Pippin, Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, a guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. W. Jones, and Mr. Denver Benton, of Baltimore, who returned with his wife, who had been a guest here for several weeks of Mrs. James W. Kirby.

Spending a longer time here than the week end are Miss Nancy Pietsch, of New York, who is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow, and Mrs. Mildred Reis and two daughters who are visiting Mrs. Reis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Smith, at their home on Kent St.

Mrs. Charles Dudley and her young daughter, Suzanne, of Louisville, Kentucky, have been guests of Mrs. Dudley's mother, Mrs. J. Kennard Aldridge. At present, they are spending a few days in Philadelphia as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Hazel returning here to continue their visit.

Mrs. Nathaniel D. Sollers and her little daughter, Sally, will come this week-end from Baltimore as permanent residents of Chestertown, occupying the Chaires house on Philosophers Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Dersch will spend this week-end in Hagerstown, Md.

Mrs. Dovey Dill, will come on Saturday to be a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Stenger for several weeks.

The regular Sunday night supper at the Country Club will not be held this Sunday, but the last one of the season will be held on Sunday, Sept. 6th, when something very special is being arranged. Therefore, all club members are urged to turn out for the final feast, when a grand surprise is in store.

My yen for cooler days, came with a phenomenal veracity. Ever since, I have been pulling blankets out of moth balls, sweaters out of the chest, and shivering at the sound of ice. Some, I know, prefer ice, wherever they are.

Yours at Midway,

The Wanderer

Please Don't Call Washington unless you must!

WITH the war effort of 27 United Nations centered upon it, Washington is probably the busiest city in the world. It is fast outgrowing its physical limits—and its telephone facilities.

Since Pearl Harbor, long distance telephone calls in and out of Washington have increased from 45,000 a day to about 70,000 or more than 50 per cent. Some of these calls, of vital importance, get caught in the rush.

Now, it is no longer possible to expand telephone facilities as in the past because critical materials are needed for the fighting fronts.

So we must ask you to cut down on every call you can to Washington and other busy cities across the country—so that the Army, Navy and the Government can have the right-of-way to get America's biggest job done.

If you must make a long distance call, won't you place it in the off-peak hours—
