Yesterday was St. Valentine's day, and the occasion was not entirely forgotten by the votaries of their patron saint. The mails, however, were not so heavily charged with the peculiar missives of the season as they were wont to be in years gone by, and, of the valentines sent, the probability is that a majority were of the comic variety.

Quite a scene occurred at St. John's Catholic Church, in this city, during vesper services on Sunday last. The presence of gas, escaping from the furnace employed for heating the church edifice, was observed, but none of the congregation had any idea of its volume until a number of the worshippers were considerably affected. Adults became quite sick and children became partially asphyxiated and unconscious. They were speedily removed to the open air and under the care of Dr. E. D. Wells soon revived. Several of the children were confined to bed for several days, but all have now fully recovered. Among the children who fainted were May Bruce Smith, Mattie Fisher, May Fisher, Nannie Price, Josephine Price, Rose Awalt, Fannie McGirr, Rebecca McGirr and George Dull. Mr. Boyle has contemplated making this request for some time, but refrained from doing so fearing that it might jeopardize the change that he was endeavoring to have made in time of the fast mail going east. ### Carroll County Teachers' Association.

The Carroll County Teachers' Association convened in Central Hall on Friday, 7th inst., and was called to order by President Ebaugh at 10.30, A. M. Grove A. Shipley, by invitation, led in prayer. A duet, "The rock beside the sea," by Miss Ida Lockard and Ida Diffenbaugh, was followed by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted. Chas. H. Baughman made a few pertinent remarks on drawing, accompanied by blackboard illustrations consisting of work done by his pupils, which showed marked progress. A beautiful solo, "The rainy day," by Miss Ida Diffenbaugh, Miss Lockard accompanist, was highly appreciated by the audience. Miss M. E. Gillis read an able essay on "Moral training." Roll-call showed an attendance of seventy-five members, or one-half the members enrolled; though the many who arrived late in consequence of the inclemency of the weather and rough conditions of the roads, doubtless swelled the number considerably. A solo, "Be kind to the loved ones," by Miss Diffenbaugh, succeeded roll-call. Considerable consternation prevailed when it was announced that the names of those who were in arrears for annual dues would be called, but the procession which moved toward the treasurer's desk at the close of the session proved the movement had the desired effect. The amazement was, however, converted into amusement when it transpired that the instigator of the obnoxious measure discovered his name among the delinquents and settled the matter ere it was called. The examiner's address on various subjects pertaining to the schools occupied an hour. Among the many items of interest to which he called attention it is appropriate to mention a few which gave the teachers much gratification, viz: That Carroll County had proved her right to rank high in the state as regards education, and that her educational interests would be well guarded by her representatives in the Legislature. Many of our teachers will recall a warm argument which occurred in the Association early in the present administration: "Is Carroll County at the foot of the educational ladder and if so for what reason?" The speaker also again endeavored to impress the teachers with the importance of membership in the State Reading Circle, not only as a means of individual improvement but of obtaining recognition in State educational circles. On motion of Chas. H. Baughman the thanks of the Association were extended to Miss Diffenbaugh for her very successful efforts to entertain it, she not being a member. Adjourned at 12.30, P. M.

2. Are any of the provisions of the said bill onerous on the State or impossible of performance by it?

3. Are the interests and property right of the State as fully protected by the provisions of the said bill as they can be consistently with the terms of the bid made by the Washington and Cumberland Railroad Company to the board of public works for a lease of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal?

There are 14 persons in the family, consisting of the grand-father and grandmother, father, mother and ten children, ranging in age and size from young men and women down to a little babe. It is said that over one hundred persons visited them on last Sunday.

It seems that some people are not satisfied with the present mail arrangements from Westminster by way of Sams Creek to Oak Orchard. We do not wish to say much in regard to this matter; but will say this: that we think the present facilities are the very best that can possibly be had, and accomodate the most people, and that is an important point that should be considered.

The warm weather has brought acres of the alnus bush to full bloom, presenting a spring like appearance, and soon the warbling songster will be here to announce the advent of the season that reanimates all nature and swells the soul with gratitude to God.

The B. & O. Railroad Company is buying a large number of crossties, and the forests are being slain for that purpose. The sentiment, "Woodman spare that Tree" is not thought of when it applies to the oak and chestnut trees. But in this age of progression, when the timber is all gone, we will have learned that we have no use for it. The world is rapidly approaching an era of far greater improvements than it has ever yet realized.

Thousands of crows come daily to feed in this section, and when the shadows begin to lengthen, return in a northerly direction to roost. Many devices have been resorted to for their destruction, but the crow is a segacious bird quite able to take care of himself. They are becoming a great plague, and cost the average farmer from fifteen to twenty dollars a year. If we had legislation that would allow the boys fifty cents per dozen for their eggs, they would soon disappear.

The farmers are anxiously watching and waiting to see what our lawmakers at Annapolis will do for their interests. As yet the "big ditch" seems to occupy much of their attention. The Governor advises what should be the proper disposition of the canal.

Mr. Jacob Yingling, a well-to-do dairyman and farmer, died at his home, near Greenmount, on Sunday last. He had been a sufferer for several years with kidney and stomach trouble. About a year ago he had an operation performed which for a time promised restoration to health, but a return of the trouble set in and no medical skill could find a balm to heal. His remains were brought here on Tuesday and laid to rest in a family lot, Rey's. Eyster and Miller officiating. The funeral was largely attended.

On Saturday evening as Mrs. George Shower was about to go to her room to retire she suddenly fell to the floor in an unconscious state. Those around her thought she was paralyzed. Dr. J. H. Preston was summoned and soon assured her friends that it was only an attack of vertigo. Two bad cuts in her head were dressed and she was soon comfortable for the night. At this writing she is much improved.

Books are opened along the line of the Rockdale Branch Railroad from the high tressel on the Baltimore & Harrisburg Railroad. Report has it that the Hoffman Bros. will subscribe nine-tenths and the citizens along the line one-tenth of the cost of grading. The Western Maryland will then finish and run it at a certain per centage. The line will be about 4 miles long and will give the Hoffman Bros. good facilities for their extensive trade.

The supper and social of the I. O. O. F. on Thursday evening last was a success throughout and was well attended.

The members of Lebanon Lodge, A. F. & A. M., are arranging for a banquet at their installation on the evening of the 21st inst.

Barnes–Braungart.

New Market, Frederick county, was the scene of a very quiet, but pretty wedding on Sunday, 26th ult. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Rev. M. G. Balthis, the former genial and popular pastor of the Linganore Circuit, M. E. Church, who responded with pleasure and alacrity to the wishes of the wedding party. The bride was Miss M. Irene Braungart, daughter of Mr. Augustus Braungart, of the vicinity of Taylorsville, and the groom Mr. Augustus C. Barnes. The attendants were Miss Mollie Braungart, sister of the bride, and Mr. W. L. Crawford. The bride was becomingly attired in dark pearl henrietta, with hat to match, and tan colored gloves. The groom wore the convertional black with white tie and gloves to match those of the bride. After the ceremony an elegant wedding dinner was enjoyed at Griffith's hotel, after which the bridal party left for the home of the bride's father—who is generally known as Mr. Augustus Brown—where a reception was given. Those present on the occasion were Mrs. H. T. Englar, grandmother of the bride; Miss Lena Zimmerman, of Baltimore; Mr. Wm. H. Barnes and family, Mr. James A. Barnes and wife, Mrs. Thomas A. Barnes, Mrs. George W. Chase and daughter, Miss Maggie, and Rev. P. M. Henderson, pastor of Bethany M. E. Church South. Among the presents to the bride were two valuable and handsome ones from her aunts, Mrs. Charles Fisher and Mrs. Frederick Braungart, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Orndorff, of this city, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage on Monday evening, 10th inst., by giving a supper to a number of their friends, at their elegant residence, West Main street. It was a delightful affair and highly enjoyed by the participants. A sumptuous and luxurious repast was beautifully served. At the table were Mr. and Mrs. Orndorff, and daughter, Miss Belle Orndorff, and the following invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Gorsuch, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schaeffer, Col. and Mrs. S. K. Herr, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper, Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Slagle. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mitten, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Waesche, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Gladhill, Mr. and Mrs. J. Huffman Fuss, Misses Mary Nicodemus, Frank Pearre, Messrs. Charles H. Baughman, John E. L. Hanna and Wm. Devilbiss.

A majority of the Elections Committee favor seating Mr. Mudd from the Fifth District of Maryland.

Knights of Pythias.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, in Maryland, met in its twenty-second annual session, at Castle Hall, Gay street, Baltimore, on Tuesday afternoon. The grand officers and a large number of representatives of subordinate lodges throughout the State, among whom were Messrs. Fred. Himler, of Westminster; W. D. Hanson, of Manchester, and George H. Hare, of Alesia, in this county, were present.

The reports of the grand chancellor and of the G. K. of R. and S., which were submitted and referred to various committees, show the order to be in a flourishing condition in the State. There are 93 lodges, with a membership of 6,800, and a reserve capital of $187,000. During the past year there was expended by the various lodges in the State for sick benefits the sum of $11,534 50; for the burial of members and relief of widowed families, $6,838; for the education of orphans, $39 50; for relief of brothers in distress, $568; for sundry purposes, $11,042 75; for the relief of Johnstown sufferers, $980; total, $31,012 75. The reports show an increase in finances and an addition of three new lodges, and net increase of 25 in membership.

An election for officers of the grand lodge for the ensuing year was held Tuesday evening and resulted as follows: Grand chancellor, Wm. Meissel; grand vice-chancellor, John D. Blake, M. D.; grand prelate, W. G. Moore; grand M. of E., Wm. S. Quigley; grand K. of R. and S., James Whitehouse.

Election of S. S. Officers.

At the annual meeting of the teachers of Grace Lutheran Sunday School of this city, on Wednesday evening last, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, B. Frank Crouse; assistant superintendent, J. Q. Stitely; secretary, Charles P. Cassell; assistant secretary, Jacob Handley; treasurer, Abr'm. Price; librarian, Dr. Geo. E. Baughman; assistant librarian, A. Reese Bixler; assistant Organist, Miss Lizzie Stouch; leader of music, Joseph Stouch. Messrs. H. B. Grammer, Jacob F. Elgen, and M. Schaeffer, who have been, respectively, superintendent, treasurer and librarian, for a number of years, requested to be relieved from longer service. They have all been faithful and efficient officers and their determination to retire was sincerely deprecated. They each, however, gave assurance that their interest in the school would remain unabated and they would still maintain their connection with it. Mr. Grammer has been superintendent of the school since its organization, twenty-two years ago, and has been a faithful, conscientious and laborious officer, ever meriting and receiving the respect and esteem of all the members of the school.

Bargains without a Parallel.

We begin at once a stupendous Clearance Sale of our entire store preparatory to taking stock. The continuous mild weather has left us fearfully overstocked, so that it becomes absolutely necessary to cut prices and profits down to a minimum. In fact we find it necessary to sell some things at COST and some under. DRESS STUFFS, COATS and Heavy Winter Wearables all come under the cost and under cost.

Anticipating an enlarged trade we stocked up more heavily than we ever did, and while our business has broken over last year's record still we are in a tight place so far as heavy stuffs are concerned. This coming week, therefore, you can look forward to obtaining bargains—genuine bargains—such as you have seldom, if ever, obtained in Westminster.
