Dear Roamer

Miss Mary Elizabeth Humphreys was the guest of honor at a handkerchief shower and bridge party, given by Miss Fredrica Metcalfe last Friday afternoon. On Friday of this week, Miss Humphreys will be honored by a tea to be given by Mrs. Perry Metcalfe. Invitations will shortly be issued to the wedding of Miss Humphreys and Mr. Frank Moorshead, which will take place on Saturday, October 19 at 7 p. m.

The wedding of Miss Mary Emma Chaires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bates Chaires, formerly of Chestertown, now of Hagerstown, and Mr. John Harrison Beck, U. S. N. R. will take place on Saturday, October 10th at 4 o'clock in Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore.

Mrs. Chaires was a guest of Mrs. Merritt Clements last week-end.

A most delightful party was given at "The Maples" on Tuesday, when the Misses Jennie and Grace Wilkins entertained at their home in Quaker Neck at luncheon-bridge.

Mrs. Edward Hathaway will entertain informally at luncheon on Friday at her summer home, near Betterton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway will return to Philadelphia after this week, coming to Kent Co. only for week-ends during the Fall.

On Saturday, Mrs. Russell L. Heberling will be hostess at a luncheon and bridge party to be given at the Sophie Fisher Inn.

However, the party of the week for the children, was naturally the Circus. Plenty of grown-ups were there too, who didn't even have the excuse of "bringing the children." I, for one, was a witness to the acrobatic performances of ladies in bespangled tights, the man on the flying trapeez, the dancing dogs, the jumping ponies and the antics of the elephants. Clowns, pop-corn and candy all supplied the typical background.

On the whole, it was a good show.

Looking over our personal items we find among our most recent visitors in the County, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gundry who were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, for the week-end, enroute to their home in Catonsville.

Having spent the Summer at Rehobeth, they arrived at Brampton, in a phaeton drawn by a pair of horses driven by a white haired colored coachman. Quite a picture of the past in a modern town was revealed as they drove around the streets of Chestertown paying calls to many of their friends here, during the week-end.

Miss Belma Keiser, of Fairmont, West Virginia, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. S. Holt Wright.

Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones is spending this week in Baltimore as a guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Bryan.

Miss Betty Beck left on Tuesday for New York, where she will attend the Katharine Gibbs School this winter.

Mr. Henry Coleman, librarian of Washington College for the past year, has enlisted in the U. S. A. and will report at Camp Lee, Virginia, on Monday. He will visit his home in Lexington, Kentucky before reporting for duty.

Mrs. Charles Humphreys is dividing a visit here between her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Knotts, and Mrs. Raymond Humphreys. She will remain here until after the Humphreys-Moorshead wedding, before joining her husband in Bittyforte, Maine, where Mr. Humphreys has been transferred and where they will make their future home for the next 6 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son born in Baltimore at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Mrs. Harrison was formerly Miss Elizabeth Fontaine, daughter of Dr. Clarke Fontaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Harrison are also receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son born in Texas. Mrs. Harrison was formerly Miss Frances Metcalfe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hayden Metcalfe, of Sudlersville.

Both Mr. Harrisons are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Harrison, of Lands End Farm, on the Chester River, in Queen Anne's County.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Weaverling, of Washington, D. C., were guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Simmons last week-end.

Miss Charlotte Steinborn, of Wilmington, Del., was a week-end guest of Miss Helen Westcott.

Last week, this time, we were sweltering and NOW—well, you know and I know. But can you decide which temperature most prefer?

Yours in a huddle,

The Wanderer

Save Waste Paper

The waste paper every American can save daily will help win the war. The paper is needed for packing ammunition and other vital war supplies.

Woman Grabs Hawk

When Mrs. Burton Kidd of Varrier, Mills, Ill., saw a blue teal hawk descending on her chickens she didn't hesitate. She waded right into the flock, grabbed the hawk by the legs and hung on. When the feathers of the scrap had cleared away Mrs. Kidd had the hawk.
