He Fenced Them In

In an old book written by a western congressman, a contemporary of Clay and Webster, containing reminiscences of his times, a story is told of one of his friends, a farmer in Kentucky named Payne, who had six daughters, none of whom were blessed with beauty. The congressman knew them in their homely youth, and when he returned a few years later found them all married to good influential men. So great was his surprise that he ventured to ask their father why they all had been so sought when other girls remained neglected. The old man chuckled.

"Yes and you may say when they had neither dower or good looks.

"Well, I'll tell you. When I want my cattle to eat buckwheat stubble instead of grass I don't drive them into that field. I fence it off from them. They are so contrary that they always want the thing they can't get. They break down the fences; I drive them out and put it up. By the time they fight for it once or twice they think they like the stubble.

"Well, I saw my girls weren't the most attractive kind, and I—fenced them in!

"You never found them in hotels dancin' or keepin' stalls at country fairs. Young men to know them had to come to their father's house. When the neighbors saw how the Payne girls were kept apart from the crowd they thought their value must be high. Young men came to break down fences."

"The story was coarsely told, perhaps," adds the old narrator; "but there is more in it than meets the eye."

A Clock's Mysterious Music.

Springville, U. T., is enjoying a genuine sensation over a wonderful musical clock owned by Mrs. Martha Stevenson, of that place, accounts of which have appeared in the Provo papers. Mrs. Stevenson was met by a reporter, who asked her if the statements in regard to the clock were correct, or whether it was all a hoax. "It is no hoax," replied the lady, "and the whole thing is unaccountable to me. I have had the clock for seventeen years, and never suspected that it had any musical tendencies until November 1. On that day an enlarged portrait of my son Charles, who was killed by Indians in Arizona, was hung in the room where the clock was. Shortly afterward the clock commenced playing of its own volition, and has continued to do so ever since. It has been carefully examined by several persons, and the question as to how the music is produced still remains a mystery."

Several Phases of Dishonesty.

There are many people who, while they would not rob their neighbor of a farthing, appropriate the money and the treasure of the public. A man has a house to sell and he tells his customer it is worth twenty thousand dollars. Next day the assessor comes round and the owner says it is worth fifteen thousand dollars. The Government of the United States took off the tax from personal income, among other reasons, because so few people would tell the truth, and many a man with an income of hundreds of dollars a day made statements which seemed to imply he was about to be handed over to the overseer of the poor. Careful to pay their passage from Liverpool to New York, yet smuggling in their Saratoga trunk ten silk dresses from Paris, and a half dozen watches from Geneva, Switzerland, telling the custom house officer on the wharf, "There is nothing in that trunk but wearing apparel," and putting a five-dollar bill in his hand to punctuate the statement.

The Walk of the Horse.

Reference is frequently made to the walking gait of horses, and the farmer is advised when buying a horse to test the speed of the animal in walking. That is all right, but test the speed as much as you like and the fast walker will not be found. In all our experience and observation we have never seen but one horse that was a fast walker. It is true that there is a difference in horses in the matter of walking, but the walking gait of the fastest is not what would be called fast. The truth is that there is not the slightest care taken to produce fast walkers. Neither in selection of breeders or the training of colts is fast walking made a special purpose, and it will require both to improve the walking gait of our horses. We ought to remember, however, that the horse that will walk fifty per cent. faster than another horse is the most valuable animal.

To clean lace baste your lace nicely on a piece of muslin. Rub it freely with cold starch until it forms a paste on it. Put it in the sun to dry, and when thoroughly dry rub off. Your lace will then be clean and need no ironing.

Racket Store, New Windsor, Md.
F. J. DEVILBISS.
Our entire stok was purchased in New York this seson direct from first hands, thereby giving our patrons advantage of lowest prices and newst styls. Our prices and low and paralyz al competition in whatever shap, and our watchwords, in simpl English, bold down, are UNDERBY—UNDERSEL.
If U desir to by goods low for the eloquent Cash, the Racket Store holds unparalled inducements. We ar contented with smal profits, and the lagg amount of goods we handl, secured to us on Western Maryland, enable us to fire with short range prices. We wish to enumerat our claims in a few words as posabl:
OUR DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS ar the choicest in the New York markets. A larger assortment of Ladies' Fine Cloths and Suitings no one would wish.
GOOD GINGHAMS 8c.
CANTON FLANNEL 6¼c.
CALICO, good styles, 5c.
CLARK'S SPOOL COTTON 4c.
RAG CARPET 20c. per yard. Our 25c. Carpet is a bombshell in the camp.
WOMEN'S RUBBER SHOES, best for 25c.
SLESINGER'S SHOES for tender feet ar gradualy annihilating al "pet" brands.
WOMEN'S SOLID LEATHER BARN-YARD SHOES for 95c.
OUR $1.25 BUTTON SHOE crazes the prophets.
Where did you get that hat? The reply herd is, invariably, "AT DEVILBISS." Our New York styls and prices utterly desicat the Liliputs.
IN THE BOOT DEPARTMENT we have strained every nerv. The $2.50 Full Stock Boot is a cob-crusher. The $1.75 Boot is grand.
