The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

With the election now a thing of the past, normalcy returns to a certain degree, to the tenor of our ways. Life is no longer the gay butterfly existence of days of yore and the penning of a social chronicle becomes increasingly difficult. The very return of one of our Army or Navy boys for a few days, is as big an item to their family and friends as any formerly heralded party, and so, in the course of human events, we must learn to read of the visits of these young men, the rare travelling of any member in our community, the honor of a visit from one out of town with as much interest as we did, in years past, of luncheons here, teas there, dinners hither, and dances yon.

For we are at WAR, whether we want to think of it or not. I am not advocating a Gertie Gloom atmosphere, nor a sit-at-home sad faced Susie attitude. We must be bright, we must pursue and donate a certain amount of entertainment and enjoyment.

This week, Mrs. H. Clay Brown entertained informally on Tuesday evening at bridge in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Allan A. Harris.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. Geraldine Williams entertained at dessert bridge at her apartment on Queen St.

On Tuesday of next week, Mrs. G. Howard Dana will be hostess to the active members of "Our Garden Club". At the November meeting the annual election of officers is always held, therefore, only the active members are invited to attend.

Here's a piece of interesting news! Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Thomas of Chestertown announce the engagement of their daughter Marian Ann to Private Frank Vannort Simpers, Jr., son of Mrs. Frank V. Simpers and the late Mr. Frank Simpers of Chestertown. Miss Thomas is a graduate of Chestertown High School and attended Washington College. Private Simpers is in the United States Marine Corps, stationed at New River, N. C. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Louis Skinner, of Bronxville, N. Y. came on Wednesday to remain for a few weeks as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, during the absence of Mr. Skinner on a business trip to the West Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown attended the Army—Penn football game in Philadelphia last weekend.

Miss Elizabeth Dixon and Miss Ellen Duer, of Baltimore, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. William T. Dixon, at Green Point Farm last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam and their young neice, Page Wilmer, who have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. A. H. Stam, in Chevy Chase, have not returned, due to the illness of Page Wilmer, who was taken with pneumonia a few days before their scheduled plan to return last Sunday. At this writing, she is much improved.

Mr. Elliott Hurd, a recent pneumonia patient at the Union Memorial Hospital, is recuperating at the home of his mother, Mrs. Edward A. Hurd, in Quaker Neck. Miss Marian Handy, of Baltimore was a guest at "The Reward" last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bryan, of Seaford, Del., are guests this week of the latter's mother, Mrs. Simon Westcott, at Scotch Folly, Locust Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. McGregor of West Falmouth, Mass., are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. Alan McGregor, at their home at Worton Point.

Miss Genevieve Dixon, formerly of Chestertown, now living in Baltimore has been a recent guest of relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dersch and Mrs. Ellen Caywood entertained at a Bingo party last Thursday evening at their home on Queen Street.

Mrs. Margaret A. McIntyre, left on Friday for East Orange N. J. where she will spend the winter months.

Mrs. E. R. Anthony left on Wednesday for Boston, Mass., where she will visit her son, Ensign James T. Anthony, who is in training there.

Captain and Mrs. James K. McDowell are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born on Thursday morning at the local hospital. Mrs. McDowell was formerly Miss Julia Cruikshank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cruikshank of Galena.

Miss Alice Smith, of Annapolis, Md., was a guest over the weekend and remaining until Wednesday, as a guest of her sister, Mrs. John E. Barnes.

Thanksgiving time, turkey time, is fast approaching. In the meantime the ducks are flying, and the ducking widows, are spending lonely evenings. The anticipation of the next evening's sumptuous meal, and perhaps many more of that tasty fowl compensates for any man-less hours.

Yours for the realization,

The Wanderer

Engaged

Miss Marian Thomas

Miss Marian Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomas, whose engagement to Pvt. Vannort Simpers New River, N. C., is announced today.

Queenstown—Capt. Willie Schelberg and seine crew are only drifting along these days. They are running short of beer change and decided to make a dip which netted them $973 one day last week. They decided to make another dip later in the week and this amounted to $989. Captain Willie tells the poor (?) oystermen that he and his crew could over-stock the fish market with rock and perch fish if they would work regular as our rivers and even creeks are alive with fish.

Your Coal Supply

The "Buy Coal Now" appeal by the Government last Summer exceeded all plans.

Now that heating season is here, it is the desire of the Government and the Coal Trade that the supply be distributed so all will have Winter Requirements.

If you have no Coal, place your order and allow as much time as possible for delivery, and accept delivery of the available sizes, where there is a temporary shortage of your favorite size.

Consumers who have supplies should co-operate by withholding orders until there is Coal in Every Bin. This is the American Way.
