The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Enters blustry, cold, wintry December, with an impetuous greeting, which bespeaks the fact that Fall days are a thing of the past, and the time for woolies, fur coats, puffs and the like can really be put to use.

There seems to have been a lot of water over the dam since I wrote you last; Thanksgiving having come and gone, guests arriving and departing, with a few more parties than usual on the calendar.

But before I begin on the latter subject we have before us the announcement of a most interesting engagement and approaching wedding.

Namely: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Josiah Watson announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara Carville to Mr. Walter Ringgold Strong, of Chestertown. The wedding will take place Saturday, December 19th at Old St. Paul's P. E. Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. Wm. Wyllie, officiating. No invitations will be sent in the county.

Mrs. Lee Barnes, sister of the bride, will be Miss Watson's only attendant, while Mr. W. Tilden Brice will be Mr. Strong's best man.

Following the ceremony, a small reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents for members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

After a wedding trip the bride and groom-elect will make their home in the Baldwin Apartments on Queen Street.

Miss Watson for the past three years has been Night Supervisor at the Women's Hospital in Baltimore, while Mr. Strong is with the State Roads Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCullough, of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son born on Thanksgiving Day. The baby will be named William, Jr. Mr. McCullough, is the son of Mrs. J. S. William Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers have returned from a visit to Baltimore, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Skipp and their young son, who has received the name of Stephan Rogers Skipp.

Over Thanksgiving week-end, among the out-of-town guests included Miss Elizabeth Dixon and Mr. William Dixon at Green Point Farm. On Saturday evening, they entertained a number of the younger set at a Coon Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Frank Hines.

Came along Tuesday, when Mrs. Clarke Fontaine entertained at a large dessert-bridge at her home on Water St. Incidentally, we had our first peek at Christmas decorations which were the "motif" of the evening.

Happy Birthday was the song on the lips of those who attended the large party given by Mrs. Charles W. Whaland on Thursday evening in celebration of her birthday.

On Friday—a lack-a-day, come two parties going on at the same hour. One will be a luncheon and kitchen shower to be given by Mrs. S. Holt Wright in honor of Miss Laura V. Whitworth. Miss Whitworth's marriage to Mr. Philip D. DeWitt will take place on New Year's Eve. Guests of the Whitworth's at Radcliffe Hall, included Mr. DeWitt and Miss Edwina Senior, of Baltimore, over Thanksgiving.

The other party, that afternoon, will be a dessert-bridge, which will be given by Mrs. Roland R. Corey at her country home, near Fairlee.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard and her son, Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard in honor of the former's son-in-law, Mr. George Maurice Morris, President of the American Bar Association, to a terrapin supper, which will be given on Saturday, December 12th at the Sulgrave Club.

Mrs. Harry E. Jefferson, who recently sustained a bad fall, has been convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Omar D. Crothers, in Elkton, Md.

Mrs. Claude Truslow and her daughters, Misses Peggy and Nellie Truslow, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Richmond, Va., as guests of Mrs. Charles Weaver and her son, Charles.

Mrs. Lawrence Strong and her sister, Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne were guests over the Thanksgiving holidays of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Walters, at their home in Howard County.

Mrs. Philip Hickman was a week-end guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Menkel at their home in Baltimore.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, of the faculty of Garrison Forest School, was a week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. H. Clay Brown.

Miss Harriette Welch, who teaches in Sag Harbor, L. I., was a holiday guest of her aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Spaulding, of Baltimore, who were scheduled as guests two weeks ago, and who were unavoidably detained, will be guests this week-end of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown and Mrs. James G. Beck.

Ensign James T. Anthony, U.S.N.R. and Mrs. Anthony are enroute to Miami, Fla., where Ensign Anthony will be stationed following his assignment in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Anthony, before her recent marriage, was Miss Dorothy Vickers.

Now, comes the time, when Christmas absorbs the thoughts of all of us. Not like those of yore, a more serious one for everybody, perhaps more reserved for many and even sadder for some. But the tide pushes on and with it, we must go. Let's make the best of it and do what we can to spread as much cheer of the season as possible.

Yours on the brink,

The Wanderer

Peanuts Are War Veterans

Peanuts first became nationally known as a result of the War Between the States. Before and during the war, they were grown only in a small section of Virginia. Union soldiers, fighting in the territory, ate the Confederate-grown delicacy and liked them—thereby starting Americans to eating peanuts.

Little Prestige

The Supreme Court of the United States, for 2½ years after it was established in February, 1790, did not have an opportunity to try a single case. Almost two decades later, the court still had so little prestige that it once held its sessions in a tavern while a room was prepared for it in the basement of the Capitol.
