LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. Emanuel Koontz, a well known citizen of this district, has removed to the vicinity of Owings' Mills.

Lessons are laid aside at Western Maryland College until Tuesday next. Good Friday and Easter Monday are observed as holidays.

The bill to amend the charter of Taneytown, which previously passed the House of Delegates, was passed by the Senate on Friday, March 28th.

The body of Frank Matthias, who died in Baltimore on Saturday last, was brought to this city on Sunday and taken to Silver Run and interred in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. Larkin Shipley, of Winfield, a student at Western Maryland College, has been ill for some time with a complication of diseases resulting from grippe. He is under the medical care of Dr. D. F. Shipley.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Edwin J. Lawyer's little son, Clarence, who was very ill at his home on Pennsylvania avenue, this city, for several weeks, with a complication of disorders resulting from measles, is recovering.

Mrs. Dr. J. L. Mills, of this city, showed us, on Thursday, a peculiar hen egg, obtained from her henery. It was shelless, the covering having been a tough skin, and was elongated, one end dwindling to a narrow, teat-like shape.

Miss Laura Stalnaker, of Grafton, W. Va., who graduated at Western Maryland College in the Class of '81, has returned to her Alma Mater as a member of the Faculty. She is instructor of bookkeeping, phonography and typewriting.

Mr. George W. Albaugh has purchased the vacant lot of Carroll Division, Sons of Temperance, lying between Carroll Hall and the residence of Dr. F. T. Shaw, Main street, this city. The lot has a front of thirty feet and extends the usual depth. The price paid was $1,000.

Rev. Thomas O. Crouse, son of Rev. Wm. A. Crouse, of this city, has received a call to Chatsworth Independent Methodist Church, Baltimore. Mr. Crouse has been pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, Chestertown, Md., during the last five years. He is a very able and attractive preacher.

March "came in like a lion and went out like a lamb," but it was only lamblike in color. In fact the last day of the month was about its most disagreeable one. Snow commenced falling about 11, A. M., and continued far into the night. It was soft and sloppy and under the influence of an April sun entirely disappeared by noon of "All Fool's" day.

Hon. Frank Brown, ex-postmaster of Baltimore, has recently erected ten cottages in the village of Sykesville, which he will offer at public sale, on Tuesday, April 29th, at 10, A. M., on the premises. At the same time he will offer the well known Springfield Cottages Summer Resort. A description of these properties will be found in our advertising columns to-day, to which the attention of our readers is directed for further information.

The frame buildings on the lot belonging to the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Westminster, adjoining the banking house, have been removed to give place to a substantial brick structure, the erection of which will be proceeded with at once. It will be two stories high with a front of forty-one feet on Main street and a depth of fifty feet. It will be divided into stores and and offices, and will be a handsome improvement to that section of the city.

We advise the readers of the SENTINEL to give the cold shoulder to wire fence agents proposing to sell district rights and take their pay in a commission on the first 1000 yards of fence erected, in the meantime requiring a note to be given that is not to be collected and is to be returned when the first part of the contract shall have been fulfilled. The scheme, it is said, is being operated in some of the counties of Pensylvania. It is the same old swindle of which patent hay forks and lightning rods were manifestations.

Rev. J. B. Walker, of Adrian, Mich., Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Education of the Methodist Protestant Church, who is attending the Conference at Chestertown, was in this city a few days ago, having come here to visit his son, Prof. Thomas F. Rinehart, of Western Maryland College. He was the guest, during his stay here, of his venerable friend, Mr. John Smith, of Wakefield. He preached in the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday morning and conducted a service at the College Sunday evening.

The SENTINEL recently received a letter from Andrew Yeakle, who before the war was a resident of this city and lived with Mr. Elijah Wagoner. He was among the first to enlist in the Union service, having donned the blue as a member of the 1st Md. Regiment P. H. B., commanded by Col. Wm. P. Maulsby. Mr. Yeakle now resides at Milton, Kansas. Recently some one sent him a copy of the SENTINEL, which revived his memory of Westminster and his old associates, the boys as he calls them, and he wrote to make inquiry concerning them. He once lived in Manchester, and will doubtless be remembered by some of the middle-aged and elderly citizens of that place, and of this city.

The glad Easter Festival will be celebrated in this city by special and appropriated services in most of the churches.

Messrs. Roop & Zile, seedsmen and florists, of this city, have dissolved their partnership. The business will be continued by Mr. Roop.

Mr. George C. Harman, of Bankert's Mill, lost a valuable cow on Tuesday last. Her death was caused by overfeeding. She got into the feed-room and ate too much chop.

Dr. Wm. N. Martin, Clerk of the Circuit Court, received for record, during the month of March, 53 deeds, 42 mortgages and 24 bills of sale, and issued 22 marriage license.

We have only space to call attention briefly to the fact that Wednesday next, 9th inst, will be Arbor Day, and to suggest that it be observed as fully as possible, by the planting of trees.

Governor Jackson has signed the bill to enable the voters of Freedom district to determine by ballot whether or not spirituous, fermented or alcoholic liquors or bitters shall be sold in said district. The election will be held on Tuesday, 15th inst.

The bill requiring the County Commissioners of Carroll county to pay to the corporate authorties of Westminster one-half the amount of road tax levied and collected on property within the city limits, which had previously passed the House, was passed by the Senate on Saturday last.

Mr. Mordecai Babylon, who has long been with Messrs. Babylon & Gilbert, of this city, has purchased the stock and fixtures of Mr. John W. Nelson's store, in the Haines building, near the railroad, and will take charge of the establishment next week. Mr. Babylon has had considerable experience in the grocery business and intends to keep a large and choice stock of goods in that line.

At the meeting of Carroll Division No. 42, Sons of Temperance, of this city, on Monday evening last, officers for the ensuing term were elected, as follows: W. P., C. B. Hunter; W. A., E. Gehr Smith; R. S., C. H. Baughman; A. R. S., H. M. Gernand; F. S., A. W. Buckingham; T., Jesse F. Shreeve; C., W. E. Everhart; A. C., W. E. Buckingham; I. S., Harry M. Warner; O. S., Jesse Mobley; Past Worthy Patriarch, John H. Mitten.

Mr. William G. Rinehart is erecting a frame two-story dwelling house, 16 by 24 feet, on Union street, near Main street. He has purchased the lot, corner of Main and Union streets, and removed the old, dilapidated frame building that disfigured it and will erect, at once, a double three-story brick dwelling house 34 by 30 feet. This will be a handsome improvement and add very much to the appearance of that section of the city.

The dwelling house and furniture, except five chairs, of Michael Borshet, near the pool and engine-house of the Westminster Water Company, were destroyed by fire between 12 and 1 o'clock Thursday morning. The building was a one-story log structure. Mr. Borshet and his wife were not at home when the fire occurred. There was an insurance of $150 on the house, and $100 on the furniture, in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County. The loss is considerably more than the insurance. The origin of the fire is not known, but is supposed to have been incendiary.

The Webster Literary Society of Western Maryland College celebrated its 19th anniversary on Thursday evening by giving an entertainment in Smith Hall. The program included the President's address, by Mr. J. S. Mills, of this city; an oration by Mr. J. M. Tull, of Princes Anne; a farce entitled "My Uncle, the Captain," and the Drama of "Damon and Pythias," and was exceedingly well rendered. The music was furnished by Prof. Royer's Westminster Orchestra. We regret that lack of space prevents the publication of a full report of the entertainment in the SENTINEL.

A Westminster correspondent of the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday last wrote: "A party of surveyors are making a corroborative proof of the State lines of the middle third of the State of Pennsylvania in order to verify the topographical map in the State records and as an authoritative reference in the geological State survey. They started from the extreme eastern boundary of York county and intend to work through to the western confines of the State. The company, under the leadership of Messrs. Charles Gorton and F. M. Towl, consists of Messrs. Addison Van Campen, (a descendant of the earliest settlers of Pennsylvania), H. G. Middaugh, Wm. Tarbert, David Coffman and W. B. Hawkins.

The Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church met at Chestertown, Md., on Wednesday. It is the sixty-second annual meeting. The President of the Conference, Rev. W. M. Strayer, occupied the chair and nearly two hundred ministerial and lay delegates were present, among whom were Rev. J. L. Mills, D. D., and Mr. M. L. Lantz, of this city, and Rev. W. A. Crouse and Mr. Elias Welsh, of Deer Park Circuit. Rev. J. T. Ward, D. D., President of Westminster Theological Seminary, Mr. J. B. Whaley, instructor at that institution, Messrs. Judefind, Valliant, Marshall, and others of the students and Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., President of the Western Maryland College, are also in attendance.

Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son are about to commence the erection of a steam roller flouring mill on the premises now occupied by them, and immediately adjoining their elevator. The dimensions of the structure will be 35 by 48 feet, and it will be three-stories with basement. Its capacity will be 100 barrels of flour per day. It is intended to have it entirely completed and in running order by the time new crop wheat comes into market. This city and the surrounding country are to be congratulated upon the enterprise that has prompted this energetic firm to take this step, which must necessarily be advantageous to the community. Besides giving employment to a number of persons it will afford an additional home market for grain produced in Carroll county and will keep a considerable sum of money in circulation that now goes abroad and benefits other communities.

Quietly, at the residence of the bride, a few miles from town, on Sunday evening, the 30th ult., Miss Amanda Hawn and Mr. John Murry were united in the bonds of wedlock by Rev. H. Ditzler, who read the marriage service in a very impressive manner. The newly married couple intend to make their future home in Harney.

The Reformed parsonage was the scene of no little enjoyment on Saturday evening last, 28th ult. The occasion was a surprise party given to Miss Nora and Master Lloyd Ditzler, by their many little friends. It was one of the largest parties of the season. The evening was spent in plays and general merry-making. Before departing for their home all the visitors gathered around the large dining room table, which contained a bountiful supply of all the delicacies of the season, prepared and brought by themselves. It was certainly a happy little party and will be long remembered by those who were so fortunate as to have been present.

Bird Hill Items.

It is April 1st and moving day in this community, at the present writing, and the wintery weather does not deter the people from making changes of residence previously determined. Mr. Levi T. Frizzell, who has been a resident of our village for nine years, has moved to Mr. John G. Cook's house, near Shipley, and the house vacated by him will be occupied by Mr. Noah Stocksdale. Mr. A. T. Buckingham will then move into the house vacated by Mr. Stocksdale and will occupy it until the house of Mrs. Prugh, which was recently destroyed by fire, has been rebuilt, which we hope will be soon, as we desire to see Mr. Buckingham at the old site in good shape again.

Mrs. Barber has had two attacks of grippe, but is about again. Mrs. Kate Davis is complaining and is under the care of a physician.

Mrs. Jennie Snow, formerly Miss Jennie Burgett, of Columbus, Ohio, is visiting among her friends in this neighborhood, which is the scene of her birth and her old home. She is looking very well.

Our public school will soon close. Can you tell, Mr. Editor, why our schools are not kept open as long as the schools of some of our sister counties, Baltimore county, for instance. We pay our taxes just as promptly as the people elsewhere, where they have four terms.

The pupils of the public school here and the patrons also want Mr. Rinehart returned as teacher. He has done well this winter, and has taken much interest in his pupils and they like him very much and have learned very rapidly under his instruction.

[In answer to our correspondent's inquiry we have to say that the reason why the public schools in this county are not kept open four terms is that the sum levied for their support is not sufficient for that purpose. Baltimore county maintains her schools longer and pays the teachers better salaries than Carroll by levying School taxes at a higher rate. —EDITOR.]

Patapsco Items.

Bush's house; Nicholas Leppo to the house vacated by Mr. Weaver. Calvin R. Chew will shortly occupy the house vacated by Joshua T. Stansbury. Mr. E. J. Houck, our miller, has purchased a mill in Baltimore county, to which he has moved. The Tracy mill here will be occupied, it is said, by a Mr. Beam, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Taylor gave a delightful social party in honor of their daughter, Miss Fannie, at their residence near Carrollton, Friday evening, 28th ult. Social conversation, vocal and instrumental music were indulged till 12 o'clock when the guests were invited to partake of refreshments bountifully supplied and charmingly prepared to tempt their appetites, after which they retired to their homes greatly pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

For the SENTINEL.

A Surprise Party near Uniontown.

On Tuesday evening, 1st inst., a surprise party was given to Mr. Charles Foutz, at his home near Uniontown, by a number of his friends from the village At seven o'clock the merry company assembled at the home of Mr. Ben. Hoffman, Uniontown, and by half past seven were ready to start to the country, in an open wagon, drawn by several horses. They made the town lively with bells, horns and other instruments, as they passed through it, all seeming determined to have a jolly time. Arriving at the home of the young gentleman to whom the party was given, the gay crowd made it known to their friend, who was so bewildered that he hardly knew how to speak, but his sister, Miss Gertie, who was in the secret and so nicely kept the surprise from her brother, soon had the merry party assembled in the cosy parlor. Games of all kinds were played and the evening passed rapidly. At twelve o'clock the company were invited to the dining room to partake of the many delicacies prepared for the occasion. One interesting feature of the refreshments was an "April Fool" prepared by one of the young ladies, of which all partook and seemed to enjoy the amusement it caused. As the "wee" small hours rolled around all returned to their homes after having spent a delightful time, and feeling none the worse for their evening's enjoyment. Those present were: Misses Gertie Foutz, Arabella Harbaugh, Mabel and Byrle LeFever, Mary and Laura Hoffman, Messrs Charles Foutz, Ben. Hoffman, Nevin Hiteshew, Harry Yingling, Norman Eckard, Harry Harbaugh and Clarence Davis.

Mr. George A. Humbert, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, we are glad to say is gradually improving.

Mr. Franklin Mathias, who had been engaged in the telegraph and telephone business for a number of years, died of typhoid pneumonia, in Baltimore, on the 29th ult., in the 30th year of his age. He was the only surviving son of Mr. B. J. Mathias, of this place, whose family has the sympathy of the community in its bereavement. The remains were brought home on Sunday, March 30th, and on the followiug Monday morning the interment took place at Silver Run church.

Mr. George Koontz was one of the bearers-off on the brickyard where the bricks were manufactured for the Union Church at Silver Run, which was built in the year 1821. Mr. Koontz, who is now upwards of eighty years of age, assisted last week at excavating the foundation for the new Reformed church. There will be a lapse of about seventy years between the erection of the two churches, and we doubt if there is another man living who can say, like Mr. Koontz, that he assisted in the building of both. In addition to this honorable physical labor, Mr. Koontz has made a liberal cash subscription to the new church. This aged father is quiet and unobtrusive in his manners, is a respected member of the community, and during his long life has been a consistent member of the Reformed church, to which communion belongs a host of his descendants.

Pleasant Valley Items.

The demand for houses in our village could not be supplied this spring. Some of the dwellings are accommodating two or three families, while some of the neighboring villages have four or five unoccupied. This is sufficient evidence that all enterprise is not banished from our midst.

The amateur musical entertainment to be given in the Band Hall at this place, the evening of April 19th, promises to be an agreeable and interesting affair. Great pains have been taken in the arrangement of the program, to secure the newest and best selections.

The growing grain in this section is looking very fine.

A New County Project.

"It is said" that a movement is on foot to organize a new county out of parts of Carroll and Frederick counties, with Rocky Ridge as the county seat. Meetings have been held at Motter's Station on the Emmittsburg Railroad and elsewhere, for the purpose, ostensibly, of considering the practicability of a turnpike road from Mt. St. Mary's College, via Motter's Station and Rocky Ridge, to Creagerstown; but it is asserted that the real purpose is to inaugurate the new county movement. Taneytown and Middleburg districts will form component parts of the territory included in the outlines of the proposed county. At least that is the plan named by those who claim to know something about the project. But the best laid plans sometimes fail, and Carroll county need have no apprehensions that she will be shorn of those Republican jewels, old Taneytown and Middleburg. If the project isn't a myth the new county will never be anything more than that.

Harney Items.
