FOR THE SENTINEL.

SUPREME COURT.

Is it any wonder that there is consternation? I see amazement everywhere. It is on men's faces, at the fireside, on the street, in the store, following men at the plow, settles down on the couch, rises with the sun, sits at the table, creeps into every little company, saddens their looks and lengthens their faces. These are some of the expressions we hear: "Dread Scott Decision"—"Infamous"—"Monstrous"—"Ridiculous." "The Temperance people have no rights that the Whiskey Ring is bound to respect." "They were assuredly bribed." "No sensible men would ever make such a decision as that." "Money is at the bottom of the whole business." "Money rules this Government." "They made their everlasting fortune out of that decision." "They are prepared to retire now." "Thank God we still have three men on the Supreme Bench." "They will probably reopen the Slave trade."

"No use to quarantine against diseased cattle." "Money makes the mare go" "After all, what virtue there is in grease." "Palm oil slides her through." "How much did they get for it?" "That beats the grandest efforts of the resubmissionists all hollow." "Our judges propose to have plenty of whiskey wherever they go." A regular wholesale business." "Resubmissionists can now stack their guns."

"Three cheers for the Supreme Court, and the whiskey ring." "Poor Iowa! they wanted whiskey now they have got it." "Kansas take warning! Maine look out! You have held sway long enough, now we propose to give you a drench." "Look out Chicago! You have been trying to collect a license from these poor downtrodden saloon men men long enough. We propose to break their bands and set them free. Poor fellows! How long they have had to endure this great oppression." "Look out you, you bull headed, States' rights, prohibition, temperance, contracted scallawags—we propose to make you take whiskey now whether you will or no—don't dodge—take it straight—take it by wholesale—by the barrel—by the keg—by the carload. Come, we propose to give you enough to last you awhile—enough to make up for lost time." "License laws stand from under." "Prohibition hunt your hole." "Crusaders, don't crow."

The above are some of the Kansas comments. Hav'nt heard from Iowa and Maine yet.

It is a clear case that when the Supreme Court made that decision they were under the influence of liquor. It is an opportune time to try the virtue now of homeopathy. The hair of the dog may cure the bite. I would say drench them with whiskey till they disgorge. Their medicine ought to be taken internally or the case is hopeless—desperate. Make them throw up as quick as possible. That liquor, whiskey, beer, alcoholic, metallurgic, monetary miasma of bear's grease has struck in. Make them strike out. Change their quarters. Disinfect their nests. Trot them out for exercise and for the remainder of their days let them enjoy a more healthy atmosphere on the plains. Give them a whiskey punch. Punch them clear out. Try cauterization. If they break out with sores, why, let them break out anyhow, the sooner, the better. Get them and the sores both to running. Put on a poultice of slippery elm and let them and the elm both slip together. Rub them with bran and wine and remind them of Brandywine and Bull's Run. The exercise will prove beneficial to remove a congestive chill, and prevent a fever taking hold of the body politic.

I suggest a delegation of old women from each of the Prohibition States to wait on the Supreme Court, sit on one end of the bench and administer the above prescription. Clean them. Clean them out. CONTEMPT.

KANSAS, MAY 6th, 1890.

"Arkansaw," the alligator slayer of East Orange, Fla., recently killed one of the "varmints" that had three of its legs bitten off, a portion of its jaw had been eaten by a stronger kinsman, and holes were found in him where he had paid the penalty of a pound of flesh simply because his opponent was the stronger. Arkansaw states that alligators feed upon each other to the extent that regulates the supply to the demand, and that if they were to cease from their cannibalistic habits they would soon abound in sufficient numbers to pile alligators four feet deep all over the St. John's river country.

The North Pole may at length be reached, all on account of a pair of trousers—oil skin ones—which were on board the ill-fated Jeannette. The garment is said to have been found on the coast of Greenland, showing that on their journey from the Pacific to the Atlantic, the breeches must have passed the pole, carried that way by a current.

A vegetable flannel is made in Germany of fine leaves which are woven into undergarments and clothing of various kinds. One great advantage is no vermin will lodge in clothes made from the material.

FERTILIZER! FERTILIZER!

A FEW POINTERS FOR THE FARMER.

The season for sowing Fertilizers is now at hand and farmers will see many cheap Fertilizers advertised claiming great merit. We desire, however, to call their attention to the fact that we are the largest buyers of

RAW MATERIALS

in the county, and are manufacturing and shipping our goods over 800 miles from home and are able to meet competition at that distance. We are shipping into three different States and our goods have been subjected to the analysis of the three different State chemists, who have proved them as represented. This being the fact, we know that we can

SAVE TO THE FARMER

who deals directly with us from $2 to $5 per ton on our goods when the analysis is taken into consideration. We further wish to state that we make a

Special Mixture for each Crop

Corn, Oats, Potatoes and Vegetables, according to their chemical requirements, and are not like the patent medicine man who sells one kind of medicine to cure all ills that human flesh is heir to. We also as desired by the farmer himself. We ask you to call and see us before buying elsewhere, and try our goods along side of the so-called cheap Fertilizers, and see for yourself where you get the best value for your money. We also are headquarters for CLEAN MICHIGAN CLOVER SEED AND NO. 1 WESTERN TIMOTHY SEED, at very low prices.

MIX FORMULAS

Yours Respectfully,

BEST PAINT IN THE WORLD.

Been in the Market 21 years.

ARMSTRONG, CATOR & CO., MILLINERS. Baltimore, 1884.

Mr. C. P. Knight, Sole General Agent N. J. E. Paint Co.—Dear Sir: In January, 1878, our store was painted with the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company. We used tints that generally show the effect of exposure, but the paint has retained its color, gloss and freshness. We shall take pleasure in using it in future.

Yours truly,
ARMSTRONG, CATOR & CO.

Baltimore, October 21, 1882.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: The Enamel Paint manufactured by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company, which you furnished me years ago for painting the exterior of my residence in Baltimore county, has given entire satisfaction, and to-day presents as handsome appearance as when first applied. It has stood the exposure wonderfully well. I will in the future use no other paint for the same purpose. Very respectfully,

THOS. J. MYER.

Dear Sir:—I have used the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company, and cheerfully recommend it to those who need painting. Yours truly,
