"Yo', dar—what's de rumpus?" demanded the driver as he checked his mules.

"Dun got stuck fast."

Tact in Managing the Boys.

A quaint story is told about Master Tommy Anderson, an old-time pedagogue. Once he taught a school in Farmington, where the boys had driven out several teachers. He found that the chief conspirator was a good-looking grown-up girl, saucy and proud. The schoolmaster wore his hair in a cue, as was the fashion in those days. When he was "doing a sum," with his head down, she tossed his cue back and forth as if it were a toy, much to the amusement of the scholars. Uncle Tommy said nothing but kept up quite a thinking. He knew if he called out the guilty girl and punished her, the big boys would rise and carry him out. So he adopted unusal tactics in conducting his campaign. He found a lot of long hair hanging up in a barn. From this he selected and smothed out a bunch resembling a cue, and tied it up nicely with a ribbon. Taking this to the school-room early the next morning, he suspended it from the peg where the girl always hung her cloak and hood; then he commenced to set copies as usual. When she came in and spied the curious contrivance she looked surprised and puzzled. Quoth Master Tommy, in a mild tone of voice:

"Miss, I have brought that bunch of hair for you to use as a plaything instead of my cue."

The proud-spirited girl was humiliated before the whole school, and could not help crying. Uncle Tommy had won the victory by stratagem rather than by force of arms, and had no further difficulty with his scholars.

A Tiny Railroad.

The most diminutive railroad in New England, according to an exchange, is that owned and operated by the Monson Slate company, running from the company's quarries to Monson Junction, on the Bangor and Piscataquis, in Maine. This little road has a two-foot gauge, is about six miles in length and is thoroughly equipped with locomotives, passenger, baggage and freight cars, has several stations, regular time tables and a superintendent. The superintendent is also conductor, baggage master, mail agent, passenger and freight brakeman, news agent, and director—a regular Pooh-Bah—and for performing all these offices he gets $900 a year. Ten men constitute the entire force of the road. The trains average about fifty miles a day in summer and twenty-five miles in winter. The road is all down hill one way, so that a car will run from the quarries to the junction without the assistance of a locomotive. If a passenger misses the regular train $5 will secure a special to carry him over the line. Last year this road carried 4,000 tons of the company's freight to Monson Junction, six tons to a car, for transshipment over the Bangor and Piscataquis to Bangor and points west, and 4,200 passengers, who paid $12,000 in fares, were transported at a cost of $9,000. This little road has been in operation six years, and in all that time no accident of any kind has occurred on it.

FERTILIZER! FERTILIZER!

A FEW POINTERS FOR THE FARMER.

The season for sowing Fertilizers is now at hand and farmers will see many cheap Fertilizers advertised claiming great merit. We desire, however, to call their attention to the fact that we are the largest buyers of

RAW MATERIALS

in the county, and are manufacturing and shipping our goods over 860 miles from home and are able to meet competition at that distance. We are shipping into three different States and our goods have been subjected to the analysis of the three different State chemists, who have proved them as represented. This being the fact, we know that we can

SAVE TO THE FARMER

who deals directly with us from $2 to $5 per ton on our goods when the analysis is taken into consideration. We further wish to state that we make a

Special Mixture for each Crop

Corn, Oats, Potatoes and Vegetables, according to their chemical requirements, and are not like the patent medicine man who sells one kind of medicine to cure all ills that human flesh is heir to. We also as desired by the farmer himself. We ask you to call and see us before buying elsewhere, and try our goods along side of the socalled cheap Fertilizers, and see for yourself where you get the best value for your money. We also are headquarters for CLEAN MICHIGAN CLOVER SEED AND NO. 1 WESTERN TIMOTHY SEED, at very low prices.

MIX FORMULAS

Yours Respectfully,

Been in the Market 21 years.

ARMSTRONG, CATOR & CO., MILLINERS.
Baltimore, 1884.

Mr. C. P. Knight, Sole General Agent N. J. E. Paint Co.—Dear Sir: In January, 1878, our store was painted with the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company. We used tints that generally show the effect of exposure, but the paint has retained its color, gloss and freshness. We shall take pleasure in using it in future.

Yours truly,
ARMSTRONG, CATOR & CO.
