A Drought seems to be threatened in this county. In some localities very little rain has fallen within the last four weeks and the growing corn is suffering considerably. An electric storm prevailed Thursday night and brought a refreshing change in the temperature, which had been very hot for several days previous, so hot, indeed, that laborers, in several instances, were obliged to quit work. The rainfall, however, was hardly sufficient here to lay the dust, though considerable showers occurred in some parts of the county.

Meeting of the State Teachers' Association.

The Carroll delegation at the State Teachers' Association, which was in session last week at Bay Ridge, consisted of President Grimes, L. P. Slingluff and Jacob H. Blocher, of the School Board; Mrs. Grimes, Ollie Grimes, School Examiner Diffenbaugh, Prof. James W. Reese, of Western Maryland College, and his son Paul, Charles H. Baughman, A. H. Wentz, wife and child, Misses Ella Nelson, Lillie Trayer and A. Maria Mikesell. The address of welcome, written by Mr. John C. Bannon, School Examiner of Anne Arundel County, who was unable to be present on account of the death of his father, Michael Bannon, was read by Mr. Diffenbaugh. It contained, among other good things, the following: "If inspiration were needed for the duty of this hour, no thoughtful man could fail to find it in the associations and suggestions of the place, and in the purposes and embodiments of the meeting. Anne Arundel County is historic ground. On her soil the common conflict of Man with nature, with destiny, with his own blinding, blasting passions, has assumed the dignity and importance of a public event, for here has been the cradle and home of a State. From early Colonial times our Ancient City has been the stage of thrilling scenes and stately actors in the great drama of Human Life. The first statesmen, the leading jurists, the most eloquent divines and the renowned beauties of the Revolutionary period were often gathered within her gates. In all the stirring events of that time she bore a conspicuous part. Charles Carroll and Daniel Dulany debated the unrighteousness of the Stamp Act in her journal. The spirit of liberty demanded the destruction of the Peggy Stewart in her harbor. Baron DeKalb and the Count Pulaski recruited and organized their legions in her streets. And when, after the arduous struggle of years, the great warrior, who redeemed patriotism from the reproach which centuries of designing knavery had cast upon it, came home victorious, it was here he made that sublime voluntary surrender of power wherein he vaulted at one bound above all autocrats and conquerors by simply declining their company.

On the same spot the acclamations of reverential thousands welcomed La Fayette, when he came among us a second time 'to see the maturity of that rich boon his gallant sword had assisted to achieve'.

But, sir, there are domains of public enterprise more pertinent to our present convention, in which the region around us is rich in interesting suggestiveness. In those things which contribute to the instruction, the comfort, the convenience, and the happiness of man, Annapolis has a gratifying history.

Here was built the first theatre, here was coined the first silver money for small change, here was laid out the best race-course, and here was published the sixth newspaper in the colonies.

Her people have always been earnest friends of Education, general and special, public and private. Her young days were fruitful of educational enterprises which were conducted with gratifying success. As early as 1696 there was established in her midst, by Act of Assembly, the famous 'King William's School, 'for the propagation of the Gospel and the Education of youth in good letters and manners.'

If the little hamlet on the Severn could justify her existence, and her claim to your regard, by no other record or event, she could do it, when the long roll of America's distinguished men is called, by pointing with just pride to William Pinkney and Reverdy Johnson, who were educated at this school and its lineal descendant, St. John's College.

In the midst of scenes and associations such as these, there surely must come to this conference an inspiration and a strength that will lift up and carry forward the work in which we are engaged.

I welcome you then, ladies and gentlemen, to this free communion, in the name of all those in this community who take a serious and intelligent interest in general Education. I welcome you in the name of our Capital City and the State Government therein established. Most cordially I welcome you in the name of the school authorities and school teachers of Anne Arundel County. And I invoke upon your labors the best blessings of Heaven."

Prof. M. A. Newell responded in the happiest manner, and the meeting was fairly inaugurated. The programme included a variety of educational and kindred topics. It goes without saying that nothing on it was better or more thoroughly enjoyed than a paper by Prof. James W. Reese, entitled "Lessons In Words." When this paper was read the largest attendance of the session was present and the best order prevailed. Everybody paid the closest attention, and the applause was frequent and generous.

Mr. Charles H. Baughman was appointed on the nominating committee. Prof. John E. McCahan, Asst. Supt. of Baltimore City schools, was elected president for the ensuing year, and Prof. James A. Diffenbaugh was made chairman of the Executive Committee, who have in charge all the arrangements for the next annual meeting.

The accommodations at Bay Ridge were not sufficient for the assembly, and many of the members, including our own party, had to seek lodging in Annapolis. But the meeting was, on the whole, one of the most successful and profitable the Association has ever had. The next meeting will probably be held either at Ocean City or the Blue Mountain House.

Pleasant Valley Items.

Threshing the new crop wheat has commenced, but the yield is not so large as was anticipated. The grass, however, was fine and a large quantity of hay has been made. Farmers say that never before in their experience has the hay crop been as large as it is this season.

The Band festival held in the grove of Mr. D. D. Myers, on Saturday evening last, was very largely attended. While the members of Mr. Myers' family were at the festival, a thief entered his house and stole his pocket-book, which contained $82 in money and some valuable papers. The rogue who perpetrated this robbery has not yet been apprehended.

The apple crop in this section is said to be an entire failure.

The roads are very dusty and rain is badly needed for the growing corn and potatoes.

The whooping cough is prevailing among the children in our village.

The Union Sunday School will hold its annual celebration at this place on Saturday, August 30th.

Obituary.

MRS. ANNE SEGAFOOSE.

Miss Anne Segafoose, formerly of Uniontown, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Franklin, West Main street, this city, on Friday, 11th inst., in the 87th year of her age. She leaves five children, Messrs. Wm. H. Segafoose, David S. Segafoose, of Uniontown; Mrs. Elizabeth Franklin and Mrs. John T. Anders, of Westminster, and Mrs. John S. Devilbiss, of Baltimore. Mrs. Segafoose was the widow of the late Wm. Segafoose, who was elected Sheriff of Carroll county in 1859, on the Democratic ticket, the only other successful candidates of his party, at that election, having been Mr. Joseph M. Parke, for Register of Wills, and Dr. Bernard Mills, for the House of Delegates. Her remains were interred in the German Baptist burying ground at Pipe Creek, on Sunday last, Elders Ephraim W. Stoner, of Union Bridge, and Wm. H. Franklin, of Sams Creek, officiating. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. R. Anders, Wm. C. Devilbiss, Bernard Devilbiss, Walter Devilbiss, Guy Segafoose and Joseph Franklin, all of whom are her grandsons.

MR. JOHN HOFF.

Mr. John Hoff, formerly and for many years a citizen of Baltimore, but for upwards of thirty years a resident of this county, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Francis Eckenrode, near Carrollton, on Tuesday last, at 5.15, P. M., in the 85th year of his age. Mr. Hoff was a native of Germany and came with his parents and family to America when he was a very small boy. It was related by him that the attempt of his parents to emigrate to this country was for a time frustrated by the perfidy of the captain with whom they first sailed, who ran his ship into a Dutch port and disposed of his passengers by selling them as servants to the Hollanders. For this act he was subsequently tried and suffered death. After many vicissitudes Mr. Hoff's parents and their children were released and finally landed in Baltimore, where he resided until upwards of fifty years of age and where he was a leading butcher and meat dealer in the markets. He became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church more than 60 years ago, with which he continued his connection to the close of his life. He was one of the original members and founders of the old Whatcoat Church, Baltimore. Among his numerous relatives in Baltimore are his two brothers, Messrs. Jacob Hoff and Lewis Hoff. His wife, who is now 82 years of age, survives him; also four children, one son and three daughters, Mr. Jacob M. Hoff, of Sandyville; Mrs. Fringer, wife of Ex-Sheriff George N. Fringer; Mrs. Mitten, wife of Mr. John H. Mitten, manager of the AMERICAN SENTINEL; and Mrs. Francis Eckenrode, of the vicinity of Carrollton.

Funeral services were held at Pleasant Grove M. E. Church, on Thursday afternoon, by Rev. J. Tolly Marsh, the pastor, assisted by Rev. J. T. Lassell, of the M. P. Church, Finksburg, and Rev. Mr. Staub, of the Church of God. A very large concourse of the relatives and friends of the deceased attended the services. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, among them having been a pillow and a cross of cut flowers, and a cross formed of wheat surmounted by immortelles. The remains were interred in the cemetery adjoining the Church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. George Shipley, Wm. H. Leister, Charles W. Brown, Granville T. Hering, Elias Read, Nelson Matthews.

MISS LAURA WEBSTER.

Miss Laura Webster, daughter of Mr. Charles W. Webster, of this city, died at the home of her parents, on John street, on Sunday morning last, of typhoid fever aged about 24 years. She had only been confined to her bed about a week, but had been complaining for some time previously. The event has caused much sympathy for her aged father and mother, of whom she was the chief dependence. Her father, who was for twelve years State's Attorney of this county, is nearly 80 years of age, and on account of defective eye-sight has been unable to practice his profession for 15 or 20 years past. Miss Laura was a devoted daughter and her loss to the bereaved ones is irreparable. She was, from her twelfth year, a consistent member of the M. E. Church and died in the full assurance of Christian faith. Her remains were interred in Westminster Cemetery, on Monday afternoon, after funeral services conducted by Rev. C. S. Slagle, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, of this city.

Masonary at Mechanicstown.

Grand Inspector B. F. Crouse, Junior Grand Warden James A. Diffenbaugh, and Charles H. Baughman, Secretary of Door to Virtue Lodge, No. 46, A. F. and A. M., of this city, visited Acacia Lodge, No. 155, at Mechanicstown, Frederick county, on Monday evening last and assisted in conferring the third degree. It was the occasion, also, of the last meeting of the Lodge during the heated season, labor being suspended until September. In honor of the visiting brethren an elaborate and elegant banquet was served at the Miller house, which was enjoyed by the sisters as well as the brethren, about 40 being at the tables, which were not deserted until after fraternal courtesies had been exchanged. This is the youngest Lodge in the district, and the weakest in membership, but the true masonic spirit pervades the craft, and an enthusiasm which is sure to bring success. The Lodge will have an excursion to Baltimore in August for the benefit of the Grand Lodge Fair fund. We hope the receipts will be large.

A lawn party was given by the ladies on the Academy grounds on Thursday evening of last week that was a very delightful affair. The grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and seats were provided for those not engaged in the active games of the occasion. The mercury was in the sixties, and croquet, bingo &c., were highly enjoyed by the large company. The gentlemen, who were the invited guests, behaved with becoming bashfulness when conducted to a large table filled with luxuries to tempt the palate, but they needed little urging to fall to and gratify the appetite. The festivities continued till midnight. A whirlwind caught up about a quarter of a ton of hay from the lot of Dr. Luther Trump, South Main street, Friday of last week, and scattered it over the adjacent fields. At a distance the whirling hay looked like smoke in the air, and gave rise to the opinion that a fire had broken out. Many persons hastened to the scene under that impression.

The late fire demonstrated the need of a truck and the fire company is taking steps to procure one. It only needs earnest effort and hearty co-operation on the part of citizens to bring the matter to a successful issue.

Steam threshers have been doing a great deal of work in this section. The yeld reported for the best varieties is 18 to 20 bushels per acre.

Last week farmers had very good weather for making hay and a large quantity has been made. It is no unusual thing to see from two to twelve large ricks of hay on nearly every farm. Quite a number of our farmers say they have made a hundred tons.

Mr. A. W. Degroft has purchased a new grain separator.

Mr. S. S. Shoemaker and family are spending this week visiting friends in Freedom district.

The ground is getting very dry and rain much needed by growing vegetation. If the dry weather should continue much longer the corn crop will be injured.

We hear a great many persons complain of feeling badly, of weakness &c. Our doctors say it is owing to the grip which is yet clinging to its victims.

In giving an account of Mrs. Slaughenhaupt's death we stated that her children all resided in this State except two. We should have said three. Mr. A. L. Slaughenhaupt resides in Littlestown, Pa.

On Monday a special train brought about a hundred Baltimore capitalists to this city, who went to Miss Lizzie Cox's Mountain View farm, in Frederick county, to examine the lead deposits discovered there. Buckey, Jr., on Thursday, on which occasion two young gentlemen of this city took the obligation to abstain from the use of intoxicating beverages. This is practical temperance work and we think the young men acted wisely and that all would find it well to do likewise.
