Mr. Slagle Saw the Rescue.

A private letter from Rev. C. S. Slagle, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, of this city, to a member of his congregation, gives a brief but interesting description of his voyage to Boston by the steamer D. H. Miller, last week. He sailed on Thursday and reached Boston Sunday afternoon at six o'clock. The steamer encountered all sorts of weather, blustering winds, calm, rainy, foggy and fair. A very exciting incident occurred during the voyage in the rescue of the captain, his wife, little daughter and crew of the iron steamship Moran, of Liverpool, England. The Moran was run down by the large three-masted schooner Z. Sherman, and sunk. The captain with his family and crew took to the boats and after nine hours were picked up by the D. H. Miller. Mr. Slagle writes that they were taken aboard with great difficulty, as the sea was very rough and the boats danced about like egg shells on the waves. About the only things saved from the Moran were a parrot and pet kitten belonging to the captain's little daughter. She had them in her arms when taken aboard the Miller. Newspaper accounts of this occurrence state that one of the sailors of the Moran went back to the ship after they had embarked in the boats and rescued these pets because the little girl cried when she discovered they had been left behind.

Patapsco Items.

The long drought was broken in this vicinity by the rain of the 24th ult., and all growing crops are showing its reviving effects and are much improved. The wheat being threshed in this section is not yielding more than 15 to 20 bushels per acre. The hay crop was unusually abundant, but oats is well nigh a failure.

The improvements to the store and warehouse of Mr. Wm. L. Richards, which have been in progress for some time, are about completed and add much to the capacity of the establishment and very much increase Mr. Richards' facilities for conducting his large business.

Mr. Charles Taylor, of Woodberry, is ill with consumption at his uncle, Mr. George Shamer's. Mr. Watson Taylor is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Downey, of Woodberry, are visiting at Mr. Geo. Shamer's.

Miss Gertie Taylor, of Woodberry, is visiting friends in this place and at Carrollton Station.

Our miller, Mr. Beame, is doing a good business at the Tracy mill, and is turning out some very fine flour.

Reunion at Pen-Mar.

The reunion of the members of the Reformed Church at Pen-Mar, Thursday, was a great success. The estimates of the number of persons present vary considerably, but it is probable there were not less than seven thousand. A thousand went from Baltimore; twelve car-loads from Hanover and Gettysburg, Pa., eight car-loads from Manchester, 700 persons from Frederick and many hundreds from all points along the lines of the Western Maryland Railroad and its tributaries and connections. A number of persons went from Westminster and other places in this county. Special services were held on the grounds at Pen-Mar, and addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Clever, of Baltimore; Rev. Dr. Eschbach, of Frederick; Rev. Dr. Peiffer, of Hagerstown; Revs. A. M. Schmidt and L. F. Zinkhan, of Baltimore. Mr. J. W. Hamrich, of Martinsburg, W. Va.; Revs. Joel T. Rossiter and M. L. Firor were the committee of arrangements.

While Mrs. Jesse Fuss, of the vicinity of McKinstry's Mills, was searching for a hen's nest on Tuesday, near her dwelling, she walked into a den of garter snakes. She called her husband, who was near and who ran to the spot where he succeeded in killing twenty-five snakes, varying in length from twelve to thirty-seven inches. One of the reptiles escaped.

The excursion to Pen-Mar on Tuesday next, 5th inst., announced by the ladies of Grace Lutheran Church, of this city, promises to be a very pleasant affair. The excursionists will leave Westminster by the regular 9.50, A. M., train and return by the Pen-Mar Express. Fare for round trip, $1.00; children, half price.

FARMERS,
Clean Your Own Seed Wheat!

READ THE TESTIMONIALS.

MR. JOHN C. FRIZELL,
Westminster, Md.

DEAR SIR: Last year I purchased one of your "Hawley Seed Wheat Cleaners and Graders" for the Alms House Farm, and it affords me great pleasure to state that it is one of the most perfect machines for cleaning seed wheat I ever saw. It takes out all cockle, garlic, cheat and all small grains of wheat, and leaves nothing but the pure, large, healthy grains for sowing purposes. I can recommend it to all farmers.

DAVID STONER,
President of the Board of County Commissioners for Carroll County.

We hereby certify that we have carefully examined the new Seed Wheat Cleaner and Grader's work, and can cheerfully and willingly endorse President Stoner's letter as above. It is a perfect machine for cleaning seed wheat. [Signed.]
