DEAR ROAMER

Last week-end the wedding bells rang loud and clear, as four weddings took place of great interest here. Two of the nuptials were performed in Chestertown and as they have not been mentioned previously here they are:

The marriage of Miss Emily J. Jewell, daughter of Mr. H. Theodore Jewell, and the late Mrs. Jewell, of Chestertown, and Mr. C. Harper Webb of Syracuse, N. Y., was performed Saurday morning at 11 a. m. in the First Methodist Church by the Rev. Paul E. Reynods in a double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

The Maid of Honor Miss Carolyn Jewell, sister of the bride was attired in blue and carried pink snap dragons.

Mr. Preston P. Heck, brother-in-law of the bride served as best man for Mr. Webb. The ushers included: Messrs. J. Hyland Jewell of Pittsburgh, brother of the bride and Luke E. Eberly, of Riverton, N. J.

A wedding breakfast held at the Sophie Fisher Inn immediately followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb will reside in Syracuse, N. Y., where the former is an X-Ray engineer of the Westinghouse Electric Co. The bride was formerly head Librarian at the Catonsville Public Library.

Then at the same hour, 11 o'clock last Saturday, Old St. Paul's P. E. Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Emilie N. Skirven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skirven of Fairlee, became the bride of Mr. Herman G. Spencer, son of the late Mrs. W. Ringgold Strong, of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Wyllie, rector of the church.

The other two weddings were the Schiller-Mead and the Dorsey-Eliason events of which I wrote you last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Watson, of Comegys Bight are receiving congratulations upon the birh of a son born last Friday at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. The baby will be named after its father, Gilbert L. Watson, III, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Watson, of Winnetka, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Neale Watson, now of Norfolk, all were at Comegys Bight last week end.

Still another family reunion will take place this week-end, when Dr. Gilber W. Mead, who celebrates his birthday on Sunday, will with Mrs. Mead, have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Jr., and family, and Mrs. Francis Mead. Lt. Francis Mead is serving overseas.

Parties, forthcoming in order of their occurrence mark the calendar thus: Saturday afternoon, a garden party to be given at Wide Hall by Mrs. W. W. Hubbard and her son, Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard.

Tuesday, the May meeting of the Garden Club, which will be entertained by Mrs. John Speicher and Miss Mabel Toulson at their home on Campus Ave.

Wednesday follows with a tea to be given in honor of Mrs. James Woodburn of Franklin, Pa. by her sister, Miss Dorothy Paca, at her home "Kentfields", in Quaker Neck. Mrs. Woodburn came on Wednesday to be a house guest of her sister for an extended visit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Childs of New York, wil lbe a guest this week-end of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown at Godlington Manor. Mrs. Brown will leave this month for California to spend the summer wtih her son Captain H. S. Brown and his family.

Lieut. Arnold M. Mering, U. S .N. and Mrs. Mering were guests of Dr. and Mrs H. C Hughes, last week end.

Mrs. Vannort Simpers has been spending this week in Siver Springs, as a guest of Mrs. William A. McGregor.

Mrs. Alton E. Dryden, Jr., was a guest last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Philip DeWitt at their home in Germantown, Pa.

We hear from the Entertainment Committee of the Country Club, that a picnic supper and dance is being arranged for Saturday night, May 13th. Sounds rather intriguing when you hear all the details so better be holding out that date.

Yours for a treat,

The Wanderer

Parrot gets Will Dudley's Goat

Will Dudley never liked his wife's pet parrot. Claimed the parrot called him "Stinky"—and ate his pipe tobacco. And the Missus said it served Will right . . . she'd told him not to smoke his pipe indoors.

To make her point, the Missus grabs Will's pipe and throws it out the window. So Will grabs the parrot and throws him out too. Looks like unpleasantness—till in comes the parrot with Will's corn cob in his mouth. (And whistling "Home Sweet Home," Will claims.)

Well, Will and his wife both bust out laughing . . . and made peace over a friendly glass of beer, allowing how it's pretty silly getting mad at one another's differences.

From where I sit, that's a mighty happy ending. If all of us would live and let live in a spirit of tolerance—whether it's tolerance for a parrot or a pipe—we'd be a whole lot happier, and better off.

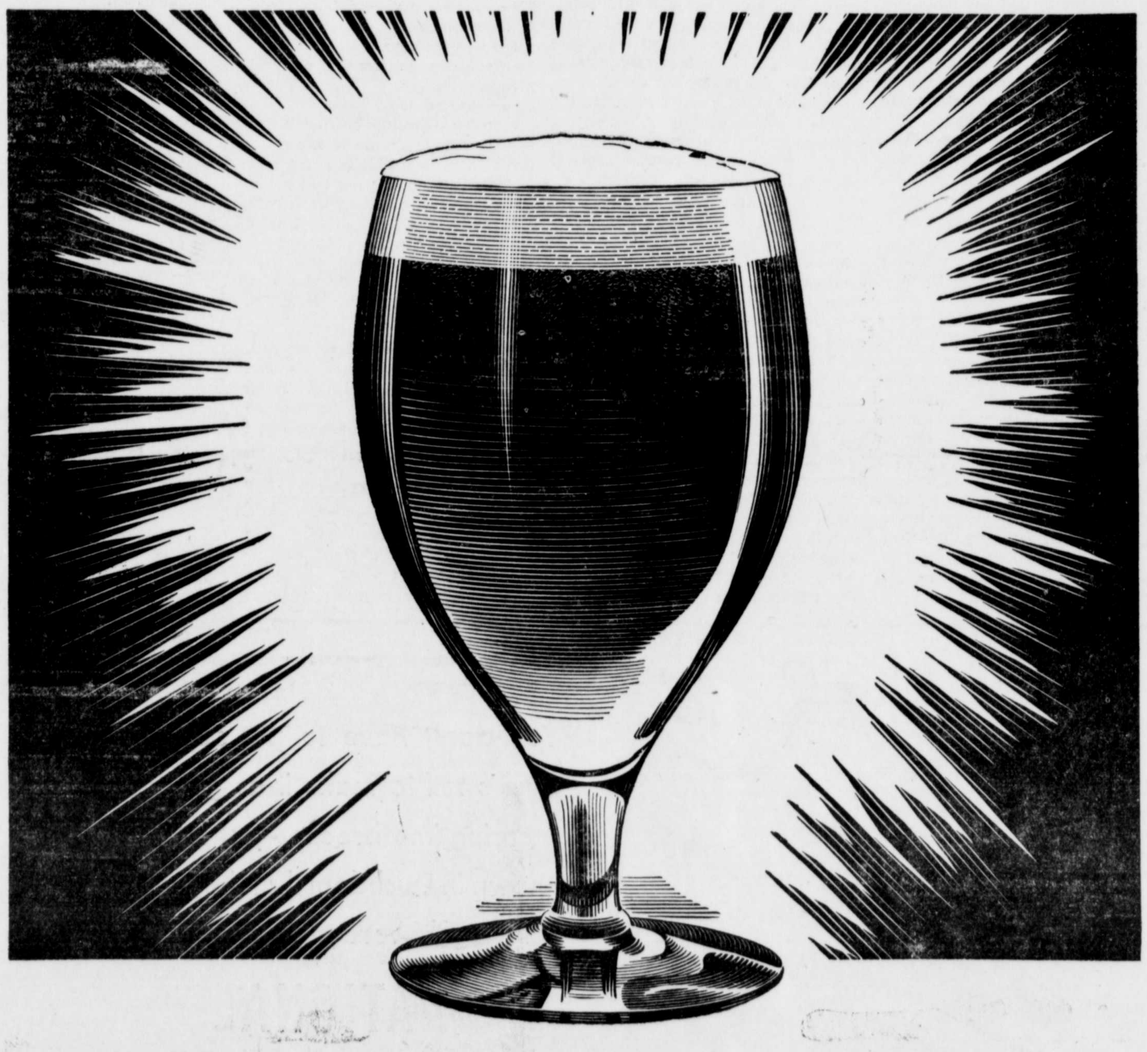
A good glass of beer!



. . . and how hard it is to make today!

In spite of wartime restrictions, Arrow is STILL making a good glass of beer. We're proud of that.

You see, almost anyone can make a pretty good glass of beer in normal times. The big job today is to make a good beer in these abnormal times. The bigger job is to keep away from the short-cuts caused by the scarcity of malt, hops and grain.

Here at Arrow we've kept away from the short-cuts. We'd rather give you a little less of GOOD beer . . . than a whole lot of "so-so" beer.

Taste Arrow! Note how the same tangy, different flavor so characteristic of this GOOD beer is STILL present. It's the definitely different taste so many like so much.

We'll keep it that way so long as we make Arrow.

No wonder
