Mr. Wm. B. Thomas has had an excellent and substantial brick pavement laid in front of his property on East Main street, this city, except his elegant new residence and banking-house. This portion of the sidewalk is of asphalt blocks from the works of the Maryland Pavement Company of Baltimore. A substantial curbing of granite is a decided addition to the appearance of the whole, which is altogether a marked improvement.

On the 2nd inst. Messrs. Charles E. Ridinger and Samuel Galt, administrators with the will annexed of the late Isaac N. Ridinger, sold, at public sale, the following real estate: First, the home farm, half a mile from Copperville, containing 77 3-10 acres, to Mrs. Susan E. Ridinger, for $2,000; second, a tract containing 30 7-40 acres, two and a half miles from Taneytown, on the road leading to Union Bridge, to Richard Hess, at $25.55 per acre; third, a wood lot, near the last named tract, containing 9 acres, 2 perches, to Samuel Ocker at $46.10 per acre.

Mr. Wm. B. Thomas' fine black horse escaped from his stable on Thursday afternoon and getting into the premises of Col. Longwell, near by, through an open gate, ran into a barbed wire fence, wounding himself severely. A small artery was cut in one of the fore legs, from which the blood spurted in a stream. The animal ran some distance before he could be secured and returned to the stable. Dr. Harstone was summoned very promptly, secured the artery and dressed the wound. The injury, it is believed, will leave no permanent effect.

Mr. A. J. Jordan, the great cutlery manufacturer, of Sheffield, England, and St. Louis, Mo., in writing to his mother, Mrs. Margaret Jordan, of Dennings, this county, from the former place, said he had a splendid time on July 4th, the anniversary of American independence. He had the stars and stripes waving from his window from 5.30 in the morning until after 12 o'clock at night. It astonished the good citizens to see a large American flag suspended from a second-story window in Clarkson street, of that city. Many curious eyes were turned towards it, and there was much speculation as to what it meant. It must, indeed, be a perpetual surprise to citizens of Sheffield to have this enterprising American pushing the manufacture of cuttlery, for which the place is celebrated, right under their faces, as well as to observe the evidence of his patrotism exhibited by the display of the starry banner of his country.

A Shooting Affray.

On Monday last Murray Butler, of this city, went before Justice William Moore and charged Edward Woodyard with shooting him with intent to kill, and also made complaint against Howard Snowden, James Brightwell and Robert Williams for disorderly conduct and carrying concealed weapons. The accusations arose from a fracas in which these parties indulged while returning from a picnic or festival at Wesley Chapel last Saturday afternoon or evening. When near the powder house of Mr. N. I. Gorsuch & Son, a short distance from the city limits on the road to Spring Mills, a quarrel was started, pistols were drawn and a number of shots fired, one of the bullets striking Butler in the side below the ribs. Fortunately it glanced and inflicted only a flesh wound which is not dangerous. A bullet also chipped the brim of the hat worn by Wm. Moffat, a young man in the employ of Mr. Wm. H. Vanderford. Justice Moore issued warrants for their arrest and they were taken before him Monday afternoon by Constable John T. Diffenbaugh, and three of them, Woodyard, Snowden and Brightwell held in $200 bail each and Williams committed to jail, in default of bail, all for a further hearing on Thursday. The three first named were also taken before Justice Geo. W. Matthews by Constable John Thomson and held in their own recognizances for further action, on a charge of disorderly conduct preferred by James Black. The parties are all young colored men.

The hearing set for Thursday was subsequently changed to Wednesday, when several witnesses testified that none of the parties implicated, except Williams, fired a pistol, while no witness was found to swear that they did. Williams was accordingly held to bail for court and the others discharged.

Gamber Items.

A game of base-ball was played at Gist last Saturday between the second nines, of that place and Mechanicsville, the latter winning by a score of 15 to 9.

I observe that the game played in Westminster, on the 11th inst., has been published in the papers. Why did not the Westminster club have an account published of the game played here on the 2nd inst., when the Mechanicsville boys won by a score of 7 to 3? Only five innings were played.

Naill and others, for a change in a portion of the bed of the old Liberty road, were ratified and confirmed, and the petioners required to make the new road at their own expense. Jesse Luther Franklin was allowed $40 damages in the case.

Wanted to Leave the Babe.

On Wednesday evening of last week a woman, with a babe several weeks old, arrived in this city by rail and stopped at the City Hotel where she gave her name as Mrs. Palmer, of Baltimore. She stated that she was alone in consequence of having missed her friends, and expected to be joined on the following day by her husband. On Thursday evening a man who called himself George E. Palmer, reached here in a carriage, with a pair of horses and driver. These he left at the old Anchor Hotel, now kept as a boarding house by Mr. Pfeffer, and went, himself, to the City Hotel, where he registered under the name given and announced himself as the husband of Mrs. Palmer. On the following morning the man and woman called on Dr. Wm. H. White, whose office adjoins the Anchor Hotel, and requested him to recommend some suitable person whom they could employ to raise the child. Dr. White suggested Mrs. Wm. Fisher, who resides in Cranberry Valley, about three miles from this city, and thither they drove and requested permission to leave the babe while they went a short distance to get its clothing. As they did not return promptly, Mrs. Fisher began to suspect that the child had been abandoned and she and her husband came here to make inquiry about the parties. It was found that they had returned to the City Hotel about 2 o'clock, paid their bill and again departed. Subsequently, however, they went back to Mrs. Fisher's and endeavored to induce her to keep the child, promising to reward her well for her trouble. This she declined to do unless she were paid the sum of $250 at once, for which amount she offered to take and raise it without further recourse to its parents and without asking questions. The man pleaded financial inability to comply with the request, but offered Mrs. Fisher his gold watch, if she would keep the babe ten days. She was willing to do this upon the condition that the mother remained with it. To this the woman demurred and the matter ended by their leaving and taking the child with them. It is reported that unsuccessful efforts were made to induce other persons in the neighborhood to take charge of it.

When the parties returned to Mrs. Fisher's the second time they had a quantity of clothing for the babe, which was of fine quality. Both the man and woman were genteel in dress and apparently intelligent. Whence they came, or who they are, nobody in this community seems to know. The name under which they appeared was doubtless an assumed one.

Various rumors are current concerning the matter. One is that the man is supposed to be a member of the bar of Adams county, Pa. Another that the parties are believed to belong to Waynesboro', Pa. The proprietor of the Westminster City Hotel has received a letter from the latter place asking a description of the couple. A private letter from Union Mills informs us that "on the 18th inst., a lady and gentleman came to Mr. Cyrus Feeser's, Silver Run, and made arrangements to stay there awhile, and they are believed to be the same parties that were at Fisher's. A day or two later the man departed and another woman was brought in his place, and at last accounts these two women, with the child, were still at Mr. Feeser's." A postscript to the letter adds that they left Mr. Feeser's on Tuesday, saying they were going to Baltimore.

Death of Miss Annie R. Yingling.

Miss Annie R. Yingling, formerly of this city, died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Dr. J. G. Keller, 639 Franklin street, Baltimore, at 5, P. M., on Saturday last, after a long and painful illness, of consumption. She was a daughter of the late Joshua Yingling, for many years the leading merchant of this city, and was born in 1853. She was one of the early graduates of Western Maryland College, in which institution she always took a deep interest. The Yingling Gymnasium, erected on the college grounds a year ago, was her gift. She was, since early life, a member of the Methodist Protestant Church, and a devoted and earnest Christian, full of the spirit of true piety and of good works. She was a singularly pure, refined and noble woman and richly merited the sincere affection lavished upon her by her friends and the exalted esteem in which she was held by all her acquaintances.

After services at the residence of Dr Keller, in Baltimore, at 8.30, A. M., on Tuesday, her remains were brought to this city, by the 11.41, A. M. train, and taken at once to the Methodist Protestant Church, where funeral services were held, the pastor, Rev. J. L. Mills, D. D.; Rev. J. T. Ward, D. D., President of Westminster Theological Seminary, and Rev. Thos. H. Lewis, D. D., President of Western Maryland College, officiating. The services were very largely attended by citizens of Westminster and vicinity and friends of the deceased. Among her relatives present were her three sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coon, of this city; Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Keller, of Baltimore; Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Gill, of Eutaw M. P. Church, near Baltimore, and two of her brothers, Dr. George S. Yingling and Mr. Charles J. Yingling, who are leading business men of Tiffin, Ohio. Her only remaining brother, Rev. Wm. A. Yingling, D. D., of Kansas, was unable to be present. Her remains were interred in Westminster Cemetery, beside those of her honored father and mother. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. The pall-bearers were, Dr. J. W. Hering, Messrs. E. O. Grimes, Frank K. Herr, George R. Gehr, George E Sharrer, and Jesse F. Shreeve.

An Error Corrected.

Our Union Bridge correspondent was in error concerning the cause for which Messrs. Jno. A. Pfoutz and Carlton Pfoutz were held to bail, as stated last week. It was not as accessories to the theft of a cart by Grant Deyhoff. Jno. A. Pfoutz was held in the sum of $250 on the charge of having purchased the cart from Deyhoff, knowing it to have been stolen, and Carlton Pfoutz in the sum of $500 as a witness. Deyhoff, in default of bail, was committed by a Union Bridge justice of the peace, to the jail of Carroll county, on the charge of having stolen a cart belonging to Mr. Haines, near Linwood, and is now in that institution. The error in regard to the Messrs. Pfoutz was an inadvertence on the part of our correspondent, and we promptly make this correction as due to those gentlemen. Mr. Carlton Pfoutz is not charged with any offense whatever, and Mr. John A. Pfoutz utterly disclaims all knowledge of the theft and complicity in the transaction.

Inquest on Spidler's Remains.

Justice John J. Abbott, of Hampstead, has summoned a coroner's jury, with Prof. Lewis C. Myerly, as foreman, to investigate the death of William Speidler or Speidle, who was burned to death in the fire which destroyed Messrs. Furry & Hull's store, at Eden, last week. The portion of the trunk of the unfortunate man, which was all that could be found of his remains and buried, was exhumed on Monday and examined by Dr. Wm. H. Warehime, of Hampstead. The jury met again yesterday, but no account of their proceedings has been received. A correspondent of the Baltimore American, writing from Hampstead under date of 19th inst., in relation to the burning of the store and the death of Spidle, says:

John G. Furry and Wm. B. Hull, proprietors of the store, have been in this locality only a few months, and came here from Indian Springs, Washington county, where Speidler also claimed his home. The three had been well acquainted for years past. On Sunday previous to the fire, Spidle left the farmhouse of David Leister, and went with the two men a short distance down the country. They returned on Monday morning, and Spidle stopped with Furry and Hull all night. Hull and Spidle slept in one bed over the store while Furry slept in an adjoining room. Hull, who is now living at the house of Noah Leister, stated to-day that he was awakened by the smoke, and as soon as he could, tried to arouse Spidle. The room then began to fill with smoke, and he jumped out of the window. Furry also had to jump out of a window, and Hull says he thought Spidle had done the same. The two young men have always borne a good reputation. Spidle was twenty-six years old, and the only son of a widow living at Indian Springs,

Last week Mr. B. J. Mathias, our popular pump maker, discovered five or six bullets deeply imbedded in a log out of which he was making a pump for Squire Earhart. How they got there is a mystery, but it is supposed that the tree, which was cut in the woods along the turnpike west of this place, was used as a target for rifle practice many years ago.

Martin's saloon where he ran against a hitching post.

One of our citizens went to a great deal of pains last spring and prepared a piece of ground for a melon patch, and as a result he has one of the finest melon patches we have ever seen. Last Sunday night week some thieves got in and destroyed the finest of the unripe melons. Another attempt was made last Sunday evening to enter the patch, but fortunately there was a watch on hand and the thieves beat a hasty retreat.

The Sunday School celebration at Pine Hill last Saturday was largely attended. The music was furnished by our band. Mr. Wm. Cluts, the superintendent, deserves great credit for his excellent management of the celebration. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Wm. Simington, of Emmittsburg, and Rev. G. W. McSherry, of Taneytown.

HARNEY, August 20th.—The severest storm passed through here yesterday evening that we have had for 26 years. Twenty-six years ago a tornado passed through here doing considerable damage to orchards and fencing, but no buildings were struck except one small barn which was unroofed. Yesterday's storm was much more severe, from the fact that so many buildings were damaged. From what we have seen of the effects of the storm we are satisfied that it was the severest cyclone that ever passed over this section. The first damage we heard of was done at Mr. W. A. Shoemaker's, where it tore the chimneys off his house. Some damage was done at Messrs. Washington Shoemaker's, Chas. Engler's and Samuel Ocker's. At Mr. John Sterner's, along the Monocacy, it unroofed his barn, and damaged every building on his farm. From Mr. Sterner's to Myers' mill, formerly Sell's mill, all the trees and stacks in its way were blown down. The long iron bridge over the Monocacy, at the mill, is almost a total wreck. The first span of two hundred feet, high truss, was blown off the piers and is a total wreck. Another span of sixty feet was broken down by a large hickory tree falling upon it. The loss on the bridge will reach several thousand dollars. The storm just escaped Harney. A few shed roofs were blown off here and the new Lutheran Church was somewhat damaged.

At Mr. James Reaver's, near here, the dwelling house and wagon shed are badly damaged. The house on Mr. Abraham Hesson's farm was unroofed and blown a considerable distance away. The wagon shed at Mr. Hesson's is also blown over. Messrs. David and John Spangler's barns are both unroofed. We have not heard of damage any further, at present. It is impossible to give any any idea of the loss to property at present; but it was the greatest loss this vicinity has ever experienced. Our people should be thankful that the storm did not strike Harney.

Shipley Items.

We had a very heavy thunder gust on the 19th inst., but it fortunately did us no harm.

The corn crop of this vicinity is looking well and the potato crop fair. Some have commenced pulling and hauling away their sweet corn, which is only ordinary. The wheat crop here is not up to the average this year, while the oats crop is a total failure, generally speaking. The rye is a fair crop. Fruit is a scarce article. Mr. A. J. Easton has a good supply, and he is the only one in our whole neighborhood who has a full orchard.

Zion Sabbath school has employed the Warfieldsburg brass band to intersperse its literary exercises with music on the second Saturday of September. A good time is hoped for and the public is invited.

Bird Hill Items.—A Barn Struck by Lightning and Burned.

During the prevalence of a violent thunderstorm, on Tuesday evening last, lightning struck the barn of Mrs. Eliza A. Williams, widow of the late William Williams, and set it on fire causing its total destruction, with most of its contents. The horses and cattle were gotten out and saved, but it contained ten or twenty tons of hay, seventy bushels of wheat, two wagons, two buggies, two sleighs, all the harness, besides farm implements. The barn was a fine one and in good condition. The entire loss will probably exceed $1,500. There was an insurance of $1,000 on the barn and $500 on contents, in the Carroll County Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Mr. H. T. Smith raised his new barn on the 14th inst., and it will soon be completed.
