The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

Comes the big week-end of the Summer, Labor Day-week-end, when everyone endeavors to fill every moment with events of interest. For with Labor Day, the death knell of summer activities has been sounded. Schools start to open, boys and girls leave, swim suits are gradually cast aside, sail boats reefed, fishing wanes, and the days themselves take on a Fall aspect.

One of the largest parties of the week-end will be the oyster scald given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb at Deep Point on Saturday evening. Many from Chestertown and the surrounding country will attend.

Among the delightful parties of the late summer was the cocktail-supper given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ruhnka, at their home in Quaker Neck.

Wednesday evening, Mr. George R. Debnam, Jr., of Baltimore, entertained at a supper party at his home near Rock Hall, where he spends part of the Summer.

But before the arrival of guests and the departure of many for the week-end, comes an announcement of interest. Lieut. Richard F. Welton, 3rd, U.S.N.C.G. and Mrs. Welton are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born on Monday, Aug. 28 in New London, Conn. Mrs. Welton was formerly Miss Betty Beck, daughter of Mrs. S. Scott Beck and the late Mr. Beck. Mrs. Beck will leave on Monday for New London to remain several weeks.

Included in the many guests arriving to spend the week-end and Labor Day holiday here are:

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Watkins, of Philadelphia, who will visit Mr. and Mrs. Ringgold Strong.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moorshead and son, of Lansdowne, Pa., and Miss Dian Hubbard, of Philadelphia, visited Mrs. C. R. Humphreys at her home in Quaker Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Smith of Wilmington, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Brown.

Miss Edwina Senior, of Baltimore, who came this week and will remain for a month as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whitworth. Mr. and Mrs. Philip DeWitt, of Germantown, will be week-end guests also at Radcliffe Hall, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth.

Lt. (j.g.) Philip Skipp, Army Service Force, arrived on Monday from New Orleans to spend three weeks here with his wife and son, at the home of Mrs. Skipp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers.

Taking a peep at recent guests over last week-end and during this week we find that Mrs. Barret Catlin and her daughter, Miss Sally Catlin, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mrs. Jas. G. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence P. Strong entertained their niece, Mrs. Albert Pioso, of Oakland, Cal., several days this week.

Mr. Jos. Lippincott, of Philadelphia, was a guest this week, of Mrs. Edward A. Hurd, Sr., and Mrs. Hurd, Jr.

Lt. J. B. DeCoursey, U. S. Army and Mrs. DeCoursey, of Newark, N. J., visited their farm in Quaker Neck last week-end.

Mrs. Hiram S. Brown, who has spent the past three months in California, with her son and family, has returned East and will join Col. Brown at Godlington Manor this week-end.

Now comes the general exodus:

The Roe cottage at Rehobeth Beach where Mr. and Mrs. Brown Roe are spending most of the summer, will be the scene of a jolly house party over Labor Day week-end, when joining those who are there will be Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Williams, Mrs. Elizabeth Trew Russell, Mrs. Don Falls, Jr., Mr. Ronald Wilson, Mr. William S. Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. John George, the latter of Sudlersville.

Mrs. Charles Chester Atwater, with her two daughters, is visiting her parents, Captain Hugh Branham, U.S.N., and Mrs. Branham in New York, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull will leave to-day, to remain over the holiday week-end, with friends in Sherwood Forest, Md.

Miss Ellen Bordley will spend this week-end in New York as a guest of her fiance's mother, Mrs. Ruth Schottland.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Vansant have returned from a vacation last week, which they spent in the Poconos near Mt. Pocono.

Among those Chestertown and vicinity who spent last week-end at Ocean City were: Mr. and Mrs. Roger Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gsell, Mr. Harrison Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cronshaw, Mr. Dudley Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Coleman. All attended the reception given in honor of Sen. Millard E. Tydings, and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Roe.

Those who went for the day only, but attended the reception were: Mrs. A. E. Nicholson, Mr. Albert Nicholson, Mrs. Charles Whaland and Mrs. Edward McC. Fisher.

So concludes the exit. (Hush! hush! —Even the Wanderer stole a day off —semi annual outing, and it was fun) Now, hale—September. be of good cheer and best wishes for a fine week-end.

Yours in anticipation,

The Wanderer

Recipe for a Perfect Marriage

Dee and Jane Cuppers celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary last Saturday. Having so many friends, it seemed like half the town stopped in that evening to pay their respects.

Little Ida Moffat brought a home-made poem to read, called Love Enduring. Bert Childers fiddled "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Will Dudley made a speech and proposed a toast.

And as I watched that toast—Dee with his glass of beer, Jane with her buttermilk—I thought to myself: There's a recipe for happy marriage. Two folks with different tastes—no doubt an honest fault or two—who through the years have learned to live in tolerance and understanding.

From where I sit, Dee and Jane are a mighty good example to young married people of today—an example of how moderation, tolerance and understanding can build lasting happiness and solid homes.

Cooperation Saves

DURING the past year feed prices have been high–too high in relation to prevailing prices of milk, eggs, poultry and meat animals. Unfortunately, it appears that this unfavorable ratio of prices paid to prices received may continue for some time, but—

Southern States Cooperative, by means of its vast purchasing power, efficient operation and capable management, is leading the way in reducing prices of mixed feeds.

Your Kent County Farm Bureau Cooperative, which has always operated on a very small margin, is making that margin still smaller with the result that it is now possible for you to buy top quality feeds at most attractive prices. The few sample prices listed below will give you an idea of the immediate savings you make through dealing with your own stores. The entire story of savings is told when you receive your patronage dividend —the difference between the price your Cooperative pays plus the small cost of operation and the price you pay.

These new low prices became effective August 28:

Milkmaker 32% Dairy Feed	$3.10 per hundred
Kent 18 Dairy Feed	3.05 per hundred
Kent Hog Feed	3.15 per hundred
Super Laying Mash	3.55 per hundred
Growing Mash	3.55 per hundred
Turkey Growing Mash	3.80 per hundred
Coarse Scratch	3.10 per hundred

In lots of 5 bags or more at any of our stores prices are 5c less per bag.

Get Fall Needs Now

Special carload of new crop timothy just arrived. While it lasts or until September 16th, you can buy this seed at $4.10 per bushel if you take it with you. Sacks included on bag lots of 125 lbs. Southern States Fertilizers grow fine crops. Buy the best at prevailing prices get the Cooperative savings back as a patronage dividend. Big dividend on last year's purchases will be announced next week.

Fall Grain Seeds are now ready. We still have a few bushels of Wong Barley—it stands up and sheds its beards. Also Certified Marnobarb and Tennessee barleys; Penn'a 44, Mammoth Red and Leapland wheats, Lee Coldproof oats; Abruzzi and common rye; all fall sown grasses. Top quality seeds at fair prices. Have YOU tried Farm Family Flour? It is really good!
