The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

Now that the big Thanksgiving week-end is over, everyone has settled down for Christmas shopping or preparations for the coming holidays. So in the meantime, we might chat of the everyday events, and of some visitors and travelers that we hadn't heard about last week.

But before we go delving into either, we have an interesting bit of news in the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hines Beck, of Minneapolis, Minn., formerly of Chestertown, are receiving congratulations on the birth of their second son, born on Tuesday, Nov. 21.

Saturday, the Army and Navy game will be played in Baltimore with all of us envious of those who go. From here, Miss Peggy Metcalfe and David Massey will be among those to attend.

Mrs. James G. Beck and her daughter, Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, will attend the wedding on Saturday of Mrs. B. C. Catlin to Mr. Orville S. Dickson. Miss Sally Catlin will play the wedding march, and render the music before and during the wedding.

Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler and her sister, Mrs. Scott Beck, came to Chestertown yesterday, from Blackstone, Va.

Mrs. Charles B. Whaland will entertain at her annual birthday party Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. A. McGregor is visiting her daughter, Lt. Anne Cameron, of the Canadian Royal Navy, in Montreal, Canada.

Mrs. A. T. H. Harper has closed her residence here and is spending the winter in Elizabeth, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey spent the Thanksgiving holidays as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eliott Hudgins in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleetwood sojourned to Trenton, N. J., where they spent the past holidays.

Miss Lottie Peacock visited in Philadelphia over the Thanksgiving week-end.

Miss Hermione Riches entertained her sister, Dr. Naomi Riches, of the faculty of Goucher College, during the holidays.

Miss Thelma Smith of Washington, D. C., has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. John Smith.

Miss Rachel Hess returned to her school at Gaithersburg, after visiting her aunt, Miss Lena Vansant during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarman of Baltimore were guests last week-end of Mrs. Elizabeth Trew Russell and among the out-of-town guests at the cocktail party at the Country Club Saturday evening.

Mrs. Sydney Manning, who has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Medford Brooks, returned to her home in Baltimore on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip DeWitt, of Germantown, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whitworth. Mr. DeWitt is convalescing from a recent operation.

Mrs. Frank Moorshead and her young son, of Lansdowne, Pa., are guests of Mrs. C. R. Humphreys. They will be joined over the week-end by Mr. Moorshead.

Mrs. Naomi Russell, has returned from Hartford, Conn., where she visited her daughter, Miss Naomi Russell over Thanksgiving.

Lieut. and Mrs. Vernon Kirby and their young daughter, Miss Edna Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Benton, of Baltimore, and A. Ray Kirby, C.S.P.A., of Patuxent River, were guests over last week-end of their mother, Mrs. Annie Kirby.

Time marches on and ushers in December, bright and cold, a welcome change from the down-pours of the last few days. But the whims of the elements are fickle, and I better sign off in a clear light.

Yours for fairer skies,

The Wanderer
