The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

Ring out the old, ring in the new, ran the rhymes on New Year's cards of old. Scarcely anyone will be sad in the passing of this year, for in surety, it certainly hasn't been one of our happiest. Life consists in looking ahead, and so for 1945 we dream of better days. But in this, our last letter, of the old year, let's not dwell in the minor key, and what pray can bring us more to the major, than the joys of youth.

For the younger set, the world has not been too unkind, and after all we're glad. Their sociaal calendar has been and is overflowing. Just for example it runs in such manner:

Christmas Eve—Clarence Newcomb (Newky) had an egg nogg party from 8:30 to 11.

Tuesday night — Nellie Truslow gave a birthday party.

Wednesday night — The Junior Dance at the Club was held. Jean Turner was to have had an intermission party, but due to the weather (if you remember) itwas called off, (and wisely, I'd say.) However, afterwards, they all ended up at Rosemary Wright's for hamburgers and cocoa.

Thursday night—David Massey was host at a dinner party and dance, at the home of his mother. Incidentally Charlie Weaver from Richmond, and his mother, Mrs. Virginia Weaver, who spend their summers here, are guests of Mrs. Thomas Massey for the Christmas week and New Year holidays.

Friday night — Rolph Townshend and Billy Wilmer are giving a dance at the Club.

Monday afternoon, Anne Wilmer and Mackey Metcalfe are entertaining at a tea dance at the Country Club.

And so, let's fret no more, whether the tenn age, have enjoyed their holidays or not.

Meanwhile, at the very lovely party given by Mrs. A. F. Whitsitt and Mrs. Frank Taylor, at the Country Club, we spield some visitors, among whom were Mrs. Robert Farr, who since Dr. Farr's departure for overseas, has been living in Baltimore, but who is visiting this week, Mrs. A. F. Whitsitt. And still another, was Mrs. Elliott Hudgins of Baltimore, who with Mr. Hudgins and her son (one of the beaux of the younger set) are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey this week.

And another, near Baltimorean, was Mrs. R. M. Norris, of Towson, Md., who with her little son, is a guest this week of Dr. and Mrs. A. Holt Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton H. Williams of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Lee F. Rhodes, of Richmond, Va., and Miss Emma W. Williams were guests over Christmas of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clyde Fox. Miss Williams will remain several weeks as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Ford, Jr., with their two children, Patricia and Joyce, of Upper Darby, Pa., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford, Sr., over the Christmas week-end. Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Whiting, of Baltimore, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ford for the New Year's week-end.

Mrs. Joseph S. Laird, of Dearborn, Mich., is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Ivers Leonard for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Olp, of Haddonfield, N. J., and Messrs. Lloyd and David Connelly were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stenger over the Christmas week-end.

Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler and her daughter, Miss Jane Kibler came on Tuesday to remain here over New Year's. Lt. Col. Kibler is expected to join them here for the week-end. after which, they will return to Virginia.

Mrs. Sydney Manning, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Medford Brooks for several days.

Misses Marybette and Jackie Sweetman, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. K. Bessner, of Calumet, Mich., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Sweetman over the Christmas week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Peterson announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Virginia to Owen C. Smith, Jr., Quarter Master 2nd Class, U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith, Sr., of Chestertown. Quarter Master Smith is now stationed in New London, Conn., having been in the service for the past 3 years. The wedding will take place in January.

The marriage of Miss Ellen C. Bordley to Lt. Stanley A. Schottland, U. S. Army, son of Mrs. Charles Schottland and the late Mr. Schottland, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl N. Bordley on Christmas Eve at 6:30 o'clock in the evening. The ceremony, which was attended only by the immediate families, was performed by the Rev. Paul E. Reynolds.

The bride was attired in a dress of blue wool and wore a corsage of orchids. Her only attendant, her aunt, Miss Naomi Baxter, also wore blue, and a corsage of camellias.

Lt. Schottland had as his best man, his brother, Corp. John Schottland, who flew from Texas, to attend the wedding.

Following the ceremony, a bridal dinner was held, after which, the bride and groom left for New York and Quebec, where they will remain for a week.

Lt. Schottland, recently returned from the European theatre of war, is a patient at the Valley Forge Hospital, where he is being treated for wounds received while serving with General Patton's troops.

Time waits for no man, and the hours grow few, leaving only a short space to express the wish of A Happy and Victorious New Year to you from,

Yours faithfully,

The Wanderer
