The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

Generally the week before Lent, there is a last fling of parties, prior to the season of penitence and fasting. And true to form, this year, is no different.

On Monday evening, Mrs. Philip J. Skipp entertained at the second of two dessert-bridge parties, the first having been given on Friday evening of last week.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. A. C. Dick was hostess at a dessert-bridge and entertained likewise on Wednesday afternoon.

Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Gerald Myers entertained at her home in Kennedyville, and to-day, Friday, Mrs. E. Clyde Fox is hostess at her home in Queen Anne's on the Chester, both parties being the popular dessert-bridge. The concluding one, before Lent, will be given on Monday afternoon, Lincoln's Birthday by Mrs. Charles Van Trump Owens at her home in Queen Anne's.

Mrs. Henry Beck, who is a house guest of Mrs. Allan A. Harris has been much feted, since her arrival last Friday, at small informal parties, and on Saturday evening will be the honor guest at the home of her hostess when a few friends have been invited for bridge.

Mrs. William A. Colescott, of Germantown, Pa., is a guest of her niece, Mrs. J. Kennard Aldridge for several weeks.

Miss Frances B. Denton left on Wednesday for Texas where she will visit relatives in Austin and other parts of the state until the end of March.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnstone, of Honest Point Farm, spent several days this week in Chestertown, concluding their visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb at Deep Point.

Captain and Mrs. Wm. A. Buckingham who are now living in Washington where Captain Buckingham is stationed with the U. S. M. C. spent last week-end in Chestertown, as guests of Mrs. Buckingham's mother, Mrs. John R. Speicher.

Mrs. Roland Corey left on Wednesday for Warm Springs, Ga., where she will visit her son, Midshipman R. Reese Corey, U. S. N. Before returning to Chestertown, she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Norman Corey in Birmingham, Ala.

Lieut. and Mrs. Richard F. Welton, III with their young daughter, arrived Wednesday to be guests of Mrs. S. Scott Beck. Lieut. Welton will remain here for a week before reporting for duty, while Mrs. Welton and her daughter will stay for an indefinite period.

'Ere we meet again, Pan Cake Day, Tuesday will have come and gone, Ash Wednesday, and the season of Lent will have started. Incidentally, Ash Wednesday and Valentine's Day are one. But surely there can be no harm in remembering Cupid on that day—that day of hearts and flowers—so omitting all verse—rhyme and reason therefor, we sign off with merely the wish to be—

Your Valentine,

The Wanderer

The temperature will average below normal. Warmer Wednesday. Becoming colder by Thursday night and continuing cold through Sunday.

There will be light rain in the south portion and light to moderate snow in the north portion of the District, occurring about Thursday; a few snow flurries thereafter in northern and central New York State.

COLLEGE FIVE TURNS BACK DELAWARE 58-23

The Washington College basketball team defeated the University of Delaware, 58-23, Saturday at the Washington College Gymnasium in a reserve-studded Mason-Dixon Conference contest.

Recovering from Delaware's threat of strength last week when the Chestertown aggregation eked out a 36-34 win, the Washingtonians Saturday piled up a 35-11 lead in the first half and, led by E. Rook and William Mullineaux, romped to an easy victory. Rook tallied 15 points and Mullineaux 20.

The game was the last for Guard Elwood Lewis, who will leave Coach Carrington's squad tomorrow for induction into the armed services. Carrington said he also expected to lose Herbert Ward, guard, and Mullineaux before the season's end.

LYNCH

Mrs. Bessie Newcomb spent Sunday with her brother Mr. Charles Ivens at Worton.

Mr. Herbert Oliver has returned home from the University Hospital, where he had been a patient for several weeks. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. R. Jewell is spending a few days with her mother in Baltimore.

Mrs. William Dwyer and Mrs. Norman Brice of Lynch spent Monday with Mrs. Dwyer's sister Mrs. Roger Brown at Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Nowland Nickerson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Nickerson, on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Jones and Miss Anna May Jones spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Medford Jones at Betterton.

Miss Joyce Jewell and Master Charles Nickerson spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Jones.

McNALLY-HILL

At a Candle Light Ceremony in St. Andrew's Church, Baltimore, Md., on Dec. 16, 1944 Ensign Rosemary B. McNally (NC) U.S.N.R., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McNally of North Olmster, Ohio, became the bride of Lt. Robert R. Hill, II, U. S. M. C. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Raymond Hill of Kennedyville, Md.

They were attended by Miss Rita C. McNally, sister of the bride and Lt. Joseph Hoehl, U. S. M. C., friend of the groom.

A reception at the "House of Weslh" followed the ceremony which was attended only by the immediate families.

Ensign McNally, a graduate of St. Alexis Hospital School of Nursing, Cleveland, Ohio, was recently stationed at the Naval Air Station Dispensary, Daytona Beach, Florida. Lt. Hill an alumnus of Washington College, Chestertown, Md., and Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., is at present stationed at Quantico, Virginia, where the couple are making their temporary home.

Balloon Cloth

One of the finest textured cottons to be had is "balloon cloth" with a silky finish and firm body but light weight. This is usually found in prints comparable to those in better rayon crepes.

The acreage of rye planted for all purposes in Maryland, last fall, is estimated at 67,000 acres, compared with 64,000 acres in the fall of 1943 and the 10-year average of 43,000 acres. This is a report of the Crop Reporting Service at the University of Maryland, cooperating with the U. S Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

February 15, 1945 will be the last date on which performance reports may be filed in the County Office as a basis for making a net payment to producers on 1944 ACP applications for payment. If any farmers have not reported their 1944 performance under the AAA program it is essential that they do so at once.
