The pastor will have the assistance of brother ministers in the dedicatory services, which will be of a very interesting character; and should the day prove favorable there will be a large attendance.

A protracted meeting commenced on Sunday, 21st ult., in Thomas M. E. Chapel, at Tannery, under the charge of Rev. J. Tolly Marsh, the pastor, and has continued nightly since that date. The attendance has been very large, much interest has been manifested in the services, and there have been several penitents. The best order has been observed by the crowded audiences.

The Blue Mountain Express train on the Western Maryland Railroad made its last trip for the season on Monday last, it having been discontinued upon its arrival in Baltimore that day. It was feared that this would deprive our citizens of the convenience of an early mail to Baltimore, but Postmaster Sharrer, by prompt action, was enabled to supply the deficiency, and a locked pouch is now dispatched daily by the 7.11, A. M., train, under authority of the Department, granted at his solicitation.

East Main street having been graded down considerably, from the railroad to about opposite the Wantz Buildings, the work of lowering the sidewalks to correspond has been commenced. It has necessitated the removal of the stone steps leading up to the level of the pavement in front of the Albion Hotel, which will now be approached at grade, and the same result is probable on the opposite side of the street in front of the property of the railroad company. The change will be a decided improvement and eminently satisfactory to pedestrians. New sidewalks have been laid at other places on Main street and in some cases changed to conform to the new grade. A number of pavements on that thoroughfare are in bad condition and should be thoroughly repaired or relaid before winter.

We are enabled to lay it before our readers through the courtesy of Postmaster Sharrer, from whom the circular was received.

The statement of the Westminster Savings Institution, published in our advertising columns this week, is an exhibit of which its officers have just reason to be proud. It furnishes ample evidence of the remarkable skill and care with which the Institution has been managed and is a demonstration of its extraordinary strength and solidity. It would be difficult to find anywhere in the county a more prosperous and reliable institution of this character.

Rev. M. E. McLinn, pastor of the Union Bridge Charge of the Lutheran Church, which includes the new congregation at Taylorsville, informs us that he has found it impossible, heretofore, to hold his services at the latter place at any other time than on the afternoon of the days when services were held in the M. E. Church there. The hour of 2 o'clock was named to avoid, as far as possible, a conflict of time. Now, however, by the division of the charge, he is enabled to change the hour of holding the services, and preaching may be expected at the church, near Taylorsville, at 10.30, A. M., Sunday, 12th inst.

A Handsome Office.

The work of fitting up Mr. Charles V. Wantz's counting-room has been completed, and he now has one of the cosiest and handsomest offices to be found anywhere. A neat carpet covers the floor, the furniture is finished in cherry, to correspond with the woodwork of the room, the walls are covered, as we stated last week, with beautiful illuminated cigar labels, the number used for the purpose exceeding two thousand, in addition to which handsome pictures, beautifully framed, several placques, a unique clock, and other articles, all legends of the character of Mr. Wantz's business, adorn the room and add to its beauty. These articles include a handsome portrait of Mrs Cleveland 26x40 inches in heavy gilt frame, presented by John W. Carroll, Lynchburg, Va., manufacturer of Lone Jack smoking tobacco; a beautiful hand painted picture of a boquet and stand, on glass, which cost $25, to represent Seal of North Carolina Smoking Tobacco, presented by Marburg Brothers, Baltimore, which is the only one of the kind outside of the factory east of the Rocky Mountains; hand crayon of the Wantz Buildings, made by Rodgers, Photographer; picture of a handsome young lady, 26x40 inches, with heavy gilt frame, from Gravely & Miller, Danville, Va., manufacturers of Gravely's plug and smoking tobacco; a fine hand painted Landscape, from L. H. Neudecker, Baltimore, manufacturer of the "Blue and White" cigar; a large eight-day clock, one of the handsomest ornaments in the office, by John Finzer & Bro., of Louisville, Ky., manufacturers of the famous "Five Brothers" tobacco; also handsome U. S. flag, hand painted on glass, presented by Russell & Morgan, Cincinnati, Ohio. These pictures are only presented by the manufacturers to extensive dealers in manufactures of tobacco. The papering was very neatly and artistically done by Messrs. Haller & Matthews and the painting, which is of a superior character, by Messrs. Nelson Gilbert and Bailey Morelock. The carpet was furnished by Messrs. S. Kann, Sons & Co.

Shipley Items.

The recent rains and inclement weather has greatly retarded farm labor in this section, although many have succeeded in getting their corn cut off, and the greater part of their grain sown. The early sown grain is up and making a greening all over the fields where sown. Some have increased their wheat acreage this year, others lessened it; but notwithstanding a fair crop has been or will be sown, some are sowing more rye than usual. They think it will pay better than wheat, when the price of straw is taken into consideration.

Zion Sabbath School did manage to treat the children and have a sort of a festival on the 27th ultimo, as announced, but no success pecuniarily speaking. The protracted meeting of Zion Chapel will be commenced on the 5th inst., by having an all-day service.

Bessie S. Shipley is improving nicely, and Dr. Jas. Summers has pronounced the broken limb as doing well.

Many who planted wormseed in this section have saved their crop and pronounce it a fair one. Several have their potatoes still in the ground. We are hoping for more sunshine this month and less rain.

Miss Mary Palster is still getting along nicely at Morgan Run and the scholars seem to like her too.

Death of Mr. Dennis H. Maynard.

Mr. Dennis H. Maynard, one of the most prominent business men of this county, died at his home, in the town of New Windsor, at five o'clock Saturday morning last, after a long illness, in the sixty-seventh year of his age. He was one of the wealthiest citizens of the place, having conducted his business with great success, and accumulated a large fortune. Mr. Maynard was born near Unionville, Frederick county, and spent the earlier years of his life in his native county, where he was widely known and esteemed. He took up his residence in New Windsor about twenty-six years ago, and during the last fifteen years has been engaged in the manufacture of fertilizers and the management of his estate. Politically Mr. Maynard was classed as a Democrat, but of late years has acted to some extent with the Prohibition party, having been a strong temperance man and in favor of prohibitory legislation. He was often urged, as a Democrat, to become a candidate for political honors, but invariably and resolutely declined, and devoted his attention constantly to his large private interests. He was married to a sister of the late F. W. Bennett, of Baltimore, the well-known auctioneer, who survives him. He leaves also two daughters, Mrs. Charles Jones and Mrs. L. G. Smith, the latter a widow, both residing in New Windsor. Funeral services were held at his late residence at 1 o'clock on Sunday afternoon last, Rev. Emory Buhrman, of the M. E. Church, officiating, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery of the Presbyterian Church in New Windsor. At his request, indicated shortly before his death, the active pall-bearers were taken from the membership of New Windsor Division, No. 40, Sons of Temperance, of which he was an honorary member, and in which he had always exhibited much interest. The funeral services of the order were performed at the grave. The active pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. Mitten, Albert Fishpaw, George Fritz, Newton Burgoon, Pius Fowler and Isaac Smith; honorary pall-bearers, Judge James A. C. Bond, Justice G. W. Crapster, Mr. Wm. H. Thomas, of Westminster; Mr. Jeremiah Baile, Judge Wm. T. Smith, of New Windsor, and Mr. Wm. R. Curry, of Oak Orchard.

College Notes.

Dr. Lewis is away on a trip to the Eastern Shore, and during his absence the college machinery has been moving smoothly.

The new upright Knabe piano, which was just lately placed in the college, is not only an instrument of beauty but produces an excellent tone when the key board is manipulated by Miss Main.

A grand tennis tournament will take place on the college grounds next Saturday, 4th inst., between Messrs. White and Waesche, of the college, and Messrs. Smith and Stitely of town. Both sides have been practicing and a lively game is expected.

Friday afternoon, 3rd inst., a part of the Senior class will deliver their term orations in Smith hall. This is a strong class intellectually and sterling orations will no doubt be delivered. Part of the Junior class have their themes assigned them and they will be on duty Oct. 17th.

Tuesday last, at 5 o'clock, P. M., the Y. M. C. A. reopened their hall in the main building. It has just been refitted in the most artistic manner with new paper, carpet, chairs, &c. A well prepared program was carried out with an opening address by Mr. Johnson who stated that they were highly favored by having such a fine hall. Dr. Ward made a fine address, in which he reviewed this work even from the year 1854 when it started in Philadelphia. His remarks were well appreciated by all present.

Last Saturday evening college hill was in a flutter. It was the first "parlor evening" of this term and as a consequence the gay and happy students were too anxious to speak a few words with their class-mates. The reception was held in the spacious library room of Hering Hall, and it was in every respect a high tide affair. The young ladies, the most beautiful in all creation, were all there in full evening dress to make the acquaintance of the young cavaliers who are to shape the destiny of affairs in the near future. The gentle gurgle of laughter continued to roll through the halls till the "clock struck the hour of retiring," when all departed, feeling that it was good for them to have been "thar."

Two hundred and eighteen students are now enrolled, as many at this early period of the session as were enrolled altogether last year.

Close of the Flower Mission.

With the shipment of this week's contributions the work of the Westminster Branch of the Baltimore Flower Mission ended for the season. It has been faithfully performed and the weekly contributions of flowers have been regular and, generally, abundant. Many a sick bed has been brightened and many a heart made glad by this ministry, in the hospitals of the great city, and doubtless the knowledge of the pleasure conferred upon the needy and suffering has more than compensated for the trouble incurred and the self-denial practiced by the contributors. In a letter received by the branch here, from Miss Smith, president of the mission, hearty thanks are expressed to all who have so kindly contributed during the past season. The contributors this week were: Mrs. Samuel Shunk, Mrs. Wm. A. Cunningham, Mrs. Charles P. Cassell, Mrs. George W. Matthews, Mrs. Maggie Royer, Mrs. D. D. Bonsack, Mrs. A. H. Huber, Mrs. Weybright, Misses Carrie Mourer, Emma Sheeler, May Nelson, F. V. Pearre, Gracie Diehl, Ida Lockard, and Master Harry Huber.

Mr. Dennis Morelock, a prosperous and well known farmer, residing in the northern part of Myers' district, died on the 27th ult., after a lingering illness of typhoid fever. He was a man of sterling integrity and his death will be very much felt in the community in which he lived. He was an exemplary member of the Reformed Church, and was deeply interested in the welfare of the new church now in course of erection at Silver Run. His remains were interred at that place on Tuesday of this week, his pastor, Rev. J. G. Noss, officiating on the sad occasion. Woodbine Items.

Rev. I. S. Burton preached at Morgan Chapel on the 28th ult.

The annual Sabbath School festival at Morgan Chapel, on Saturday last, was a success. A large concourse of people was on the ground, notwithstanding the clouds were lowering and the day more or less rainy. The program for the day was carried out amid and between the showers. The readings, recitations and dialogues were very creditable to those who took part therein. The Browningsville Band and Professor Walker's choir were present and rendered splendid music. But they need no enlogies from us, for they stand high up on the top round of the ladder. At the close of the program about two hundred children came foward for their treat, and were made as happy as so many squirrels in a tree laden with nuts. Much credit is due Mr. Frank Leatherwood, the superintendent, and Mr. W. H. Harrison, assistant superintendent, and other officers and teachers for their labor of love in training up the children in the way they should go.

The corn crop is cut off and the bulk of the seeding done. A large acreage has been sown. The farmers evidently believe the good time is at hand.

We are sorry to learn that the people at Berret have so much trouble with the public school at that place. If they would get a lady teacher and appoint females for trustees their troubles would soon come to an end.

Our Lutheran friends are holding protracted services at Woodbine and much good is being done.

Miss Ida Carthorn has seventy pupils in her school, and will soon have at least thirty more added to the number. This is certainly more work than should be required at her hands. Miss Carthorn is giving general satisfaction, and should have an assistant teacher.

Hampstead Items.

He proposes taking a four years' course in civil engineering. Both of them will be heard from.

After a long and anxious watching and waiting the Master's call came to one of His sainted servants on Friday evening of last week, and peacefully Mrs. Rohrbaugh, widow of Lawrence Rohrbaugh, passed away, at the ripe age of 82 years and 9 months, at the residence of her son William, in Wantz's Valley. The aged lady survived her husband 33 years, battling through the turmoils of life with her family. Of late years she had been a member of her son's family, where she died. She was a consistent member and close attendant of the Reformed Church during her long life. Her remains were laid beside those of her husband on Sunday last, followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends. There were 49 or 50 vehicles in the funeral procession. Rev. N. J. Miller preached the funeral sermon and officiated at the burial.

Gist Items.

Mr. Editor, we appreciate your kindness in publishing our first letter as introductory, and you may be sure it gave rise to many speculations; but all were jovial.

We are busily engaged sowing grain and cutting off corn. The weather has been rather dull for seeding. The corn crop here is very good and the early sown wheat is up nicely. We have had two light frosts thus far, but no damage was done the flowers and tomato vines.

Wormseed distilleries are in operation here, but the yield is just ordinary.

The protracted meeting at Bethesda closed on the 24th ultimo., with 4 conversions.

The chestnut crop here is exceptionally good both in quality and quantity. Apples, here, were very scarce, and so much were they valued that they were all saved and used. The quince crop was scarce and peaches were non est.

Mr. Joseph H. Shipley, who renovated his dwelling house recently, contracted malarial fever from exposure while at the work and is quite poorly. Miss Georgia, daughter of Mr. John Hallenger, is convalescing slowly from a long spell of typhoid fever.

Bird Hill Items.

The unfavorable weather has interfered very much with the work of seeding and farmers become very busy whenever the skies are propitious and make every effort to complete the sowing of their grain. About all the corn in this section has been cut off. It is a fair crop. Potatoes are also a pretty good crop. Those who raised wormseed are now distilling it. The yield, however, is not very satisfactory. Vegetables generally have yielded well and are abundant. There are no peaches or apples in this vicinity, and will be no cider or apple-butter.

Mr. Elias Ogg and his singing class paid a visit to Mr. Emory Zepp, near Eastview, and were pleasantly entertained, on Sunday last. They were well pleased with their visit.

Mr. Irving G. Rinehart has taken charge of the school here again, for the winter, and has a very good attendance, the average number of pupils being about 35. The pupils are very much pleased at his return. He has won their confidence and regard and is getting along finely.

The public school opened here on the 8th of September with Miss Clara L. Smith, of New Windsor, as teacher.

Most of the farmers have finished cutting corn. Some have finished seeding and are beginning to husk corn.

Last Thursday evening as Mr. J. W. Blizzard was moving his traction engine, separator, etc., from Mr. Samuel Warehime's, at Frizellburg, to Mr. Harry Albaugh's, near Cranberry, he had the misfortune to break through the high bridge near Krider's Church. The engine turned upside down, falling with a crash into the branch below. Mr. Blizzard only escaped being crushed beneath it by jumping. The lever was twisted off the separator thus saving it from complete demolition. Mr. Geo. Wantz's engine was employed to pull it out and only succeeded after hard work, on Monday morning. Upon examination it was found to have been damaged to the extent of $100 to $160. Mr. Blizzard took it to Waynesboro, Pa., for repairs, Thursday morning. He will be at work in a few days.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Commingled with the sadness there is an undefinable joy in contemplating the close of the life of a good man. While to those most dear it speaks of darkened firesides, parting of loved ones and a severance of happy associations, to him it means a blissful eternity. We point with pride to the man of honor, whose every-day walk is one of strict integrity, and yet how often is it that, not until the call of Death has been answered, and eyes unused to tears have silently yielded their tribute, the world is advised in full of his goodness of heart. The death of Dennis H. Maynard, which occurred in New Windsor on Saturday, September 27th, removes from that community one of its best citizens. He was a man the soul of honor and scorned a mean act. In his business relations he was ever honest, and none failed who relied upon his judgment. His kind-heartedness was evidenced by many generous acts, and not a few will lovingly cherish his memory. To his family he was most dear and for their comfort ever thoughtful. It was here that his happiest moments were spent and the loving confidences exchanged are thoughts for pleasant memory. Truly "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die."

H. S. Roberts & Co,

FERTILIZERS

We appear again before the farming public in this our second year, greatly encouraged both in the amount of sales and from the flattering reports that we are receiving daily from all sections of the county as to the good results on last year's crops. We could produce hundreds of testimonials verifying this fact without going back over a series of years to get them; but as we have sold goods over nearly all this county, we prefer to refer you to your neighbors who have used them.

We challenge competition in analysis, drilling condition and bulkiness of our goods, as our sacks will show, and we also challenge competition in and we invite the farmer to go to the full extent of finding out the truth of this assertion. We believe that we are selling more goods than all of the factories of the county combined, and it is because of the large amount of our sales that we are able to do business on small profits.

We Make Our Own Goods

from material with a guaranteed analysis, and

We know what we Sell, and do not have them manufactured by the cheapest BIDDER IN SOME OBSCURE PLACE, but do it right under the eyes of our customers. We will give a large reward if any such insoluble matter as hoofs, horns, leather or marl, or such cheap materials as plaster, ashes or dirt of any kind can be found in them. We invite the farmer to our factory and ask that you encourage home manufacture by buying from
