The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

Howdy! It's mighty good to be chatting with you once more. However, I should have timed my return to a more gala season, when numerous events were slated, and much travel and visiting were scheduled. But, here we are, and out in mid-March with Easter three weeks in the offing.

I always did like to start in a romatic mood, which naturally leads to weddings and so one of the near future nuptials, we learn will be that of Miss Helen Blanchard Westcott, whose marriage to Mr. Tevis Ridgely Baker will take place on Saturday, April 28, at Emmanuel P. E. Church, here in Chestertown. More details anon, as I believe, at the moment, Miss Westcott is choosing her attendants and getting all those million details attending a wedding in line.

While few formal parties, if any, are being given, small informal gatherings occur now and then. On Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday evening, Mrs. G. Howard Dana, entertained at small dessert bridges and will be hostess at a similar party on Friday evening, to-night.

This is the time of the year when I usually write of the school crowd returning for Spring vacations, but so many of the schools. by Government request, are omitting such, this year, I haven't learned yet, just who will and who will not be home. By next week, I'll probably have a list for you.

Miss Jean Truslow a Junior premedical student at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., has returned after spending two weeks here as a guest of her mother, Mrs. Neal A. Truslow.

Skipping over to the sick list we find Mrs. Donald McDorman recuperating at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital, from an operation for appendicitis performed on Tuesday.

Mrs. James G. Beck who was planning to visit in Baltimore this week-end, has had to postpone her trip due to an attack of grippe.

While probing further, we learn that Mrs. Laurence Brown has returned from Baltimore, much improved after six weeks of treatment for a broken arm sustained last October.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dersch have returned from a visit to Charlotte and Goldsboro, N. C.

Mrs. J. S. Wm. Jones spent last week-end in Alexandria, Va., visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William McCullough, who are now making their home there. Mr. and Mrs. McCullough and little son have been visiting with Mrs. Jones for the past five months pending completion of arrangements for residence in Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Eliason are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son born at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital on Monday, March 12. Mrs. Eliason was formerly Miss Elizabeth Dorsey, daughter of Mrs. Irving Brown.

Lieut. and Mrs. Peter Meek are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their second daughter born last Friday at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. Mrs. Meek was formerly Miss Lucille Rasin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Covey are guests for two weeks of their daughter in Upper Darby, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tull and their two young sons, of Cynwyd, Pa., will spend this week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull, the two sons, however, remaining for all of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb have returned from a visit to Middleburg, Va., where they spent several days.

Mrs. J. Thos. Kibler and her daughter, Miss Jane Kibler, a student at St. Margaret's School, Tappahannock, Va., will come next week for a visit to Chestertown. Mrs. Kibler at present is visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Skinner in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hickman entertained at dinner on Sunday in honor of Sgt. Howard Taylor, home on furlough after 28 months duty in Panama. Sgt. Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Taylor. Among those present included Sgt. Taylor's mother, his sister, Miss Charlotte Taylor and Miss Katie Reed.

To-morrow is St. Patrick's Day. Wear your ties of green, ye men, and those of the other sex, don what frocks ye have of the same, for if green were lucky centuries ago, perhaps, even in the passing of a few hundred years, the pressure of the shade may help bring soon that Victorious Day for which we are hoping and praying. Now with a hand shake and a glad to be with you once more,

Yours in verdant array,

The Wanderer

How Sober Hoskins Got His Name

Everybody kids Sober Hoskins about his name. Of course, they allow that it's appropriate. Sober never drinks anything stronger than a glass of beer. And a harder worker in the fields there never was.

"Shucks," says Sober's dad. "We named Sober 'Sober' just because he looked that way when he was born. [illegible] called his sister 'Cay,' [illegible] other sister 'Prissy.' [illegible] its effect on all of 'em [illegible] with spirit. (Prissy [illegible] maid in the Hoskins'[illegible]

From where I sit, there may be something in what Sober's dad says. Naming children after virtues is a fine old American custom. Look at the names of our pioneers and pilgrims: Faith, Pious, Charity, Hope, Ernest.

Maybe we should use such names more often. And one I'd like to add is "Tolerance." If we all had Tolerance for a middle name, and lived up to it, we'd have a better, happier world.
