Children's Pictures Taken Last Monday

The Waltz Studios, of Des Moines, Iowa, took the pictures of one hundred and eight children at the Fire House this past Monday. Between fifteen and twenty more children refused to have their pictures taken despite old time spankings and promises of ice cream. The photographer will be in Chestertown with proofs of these pictures, at the Daughters of America Hall on Cross Street on April 10th from 1 to 8 P. M. The pictures will appear in THE TRANSCRIPT at a later date.

Note: If you did not get to the Fire House last Monday and wish a picture of your child get in touch with THE TRANSCRIPT, Phone 2, as we are making arrangements to have pictures taken of those that could not get there Monday.

M. on Tuesday, March 13th, injuring the pilot so seriously that twenty-four hours later he was still unconscious in the Memorial Hospital in Easton. From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Greet a Wounded Soldier

Charlie Jenkins got back from overseas the other day, discharged for wounds . . . and he was pretty well banged up.

Naturally, our town felt mighty bad about it. We wanted to sympathize with him and help him. But Doc Walters set us straight about that.

He said that what Charlie wanted most was to be accepted as one of the gang again . . . as if nothing had happened. So [illegible] asked him over to pitch [illegible] shoes with his good h[illegible] enjoy a friendly glass [illegible] and chew the fat like o[illegible]

And you should have seen him pick up! From being scared of meeting people, Charlie got his confidence back and soon became his own self again.

From where I sit, Doc Walters gave us the right steer. The wounded men coming home don't want our sympathy or our overenthusiastic help. They want to be treated like the rest of us . . . with a chance to work and lead a normal life. And that's the least we can offer them.
