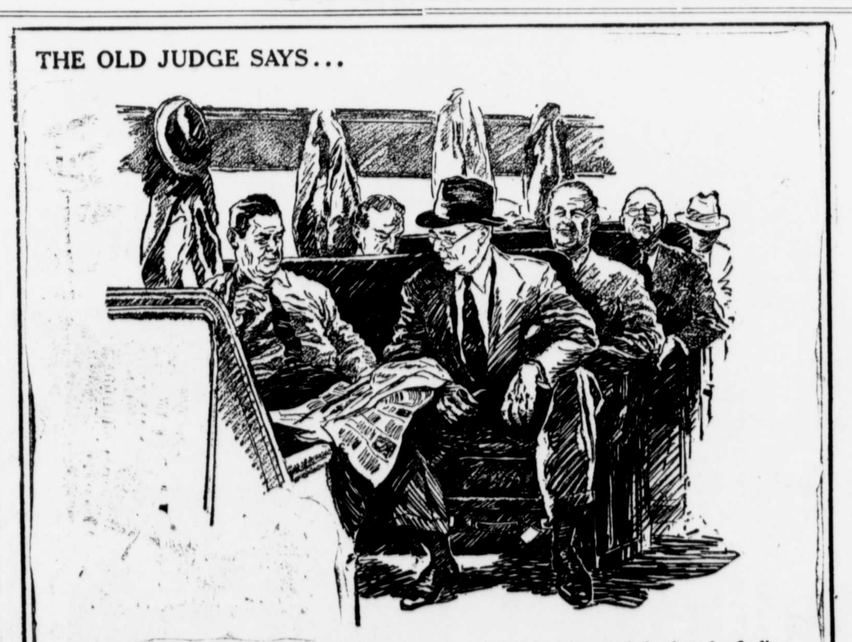
THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...



GEORGE: "Yes, I certainly would like to hear why you call that an old fashioned idea, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "Glad to tell you, George. Until recently, a person known as an alcoholic was generally treated as a social outcast. Little if anything was done to understand him or help him. But, during the past few years, medical research and study has developed that alcoholics are really sick people... that there is usually a deep-rooted physical, social or emotional reason behind their behavior. That's why today so much is being done to help them by finding out and correcting the condition that leads them to excess."

GEORGE: "How many folks are there like that, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Well, according to scientific research, 95% of the people who drink, drink sensibly. 5% do so unwisely, at times. Included in that 5% is the small percentage of the sick people I'm talking about."

GEORGE: "That certainly gives me a clearer picture. It's the most sensible approach I've ever heard on the subject."

Keating F. Cahall and any unknown wife of Keating F. Cahall and any unknown surviving widow or heirs at law, devisees, legatees or personal representatives of said William P. Cahall or unknown creditors of William P. Cahall secured or unsecured, and Arthur F. Pinder and Kathryn N. Pinder, his wife.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY

In Equity No. 3451

The object of the Bill filed in the above case is to procure a Decree for the appointment of a Trustee for the sale of the real estate mentioned therein and the distribution of the proceeds from said sale to the party or parties entitled thereto according to their respective interests.

The Bill states:

1. That Mary D. Cahall and her former husband, William P. Cahall, acquired title to all that tract of land or farm situate in Kent County, Maryland, known as the "White House Farm" and more particularly described as follows: Situate, lying and being in Kent County, State of Maryland on Route U. S. 213, 6.1 miles from the U. S. Post Office Building in Chestertown, containing 236 acres of land more or less; in lieu of an adequate meets and bounds description, the following laymen's description is used as a means of identifying the above farm. BEGINNING at a culvert that crosses Route U. S. 213, 6.1 miles north of the U. S. Post Office Building in Chestertown, Maryland and running in a south easterly direction along the northern boundary of a farm owned by Mrs. M. C. Kennedy and P. M. Brooks join; thence in a north easterly direction along the western boundary of a farm owned by P. M. Brooks, approximately 140 perches to a county road leading from Route U. S. 213 to Morgnec; the intersection of this boundary line at the county road is approximately 110 yards west of the concrete bridge which carries said county road across Morgan Creek; thence, along said county road in a north westerly direction approximately 45 perches; thence, in a north easterly direction along the boundary of a farm owned by H. Dudley Orem and Son approximately 44 perches; thence, in a north westerly direction along the boundary of the said farm owned by H. Dudley Orem and Son a distance of approximately 160 perches to Route U. S. 213 at a point opposite a filling station and plot of land owned by A. G. Bosley, thence, across Route U. S. 213 in an easterly direction running by and with Maryland Route 292 (which is a concrete road leading from Route U. S. 213 to Betterton, Maryland) for a distance of approximately 120 perches to a stream in the woods; thence, by and with said stream in a southerly direction along the east boundary of the lands owned by Mrs. E. S. Jones, Mrs. C. B. Raymond and E. S. Tyler, a distance of approximately 320 perches to a point of the beginning. The lands of this farm lie on both sides of Route U. S. 213 from a point locally known as Urieville Hill where formerly stood the old Urieville Mill, a distance of 1 mile to a point where Maryland Route 292 intersects with U. S. Route 213; this being the same farm that is described in the deed dated May 23, 1919 to Mary D. Cahall from William P. Cahall recorded among the Land Records of Kent County, Maryland in Liber A. P. R., 4, Folio 503 containing 220 acres, 1 rood and 23.92 square perches of land, more or less, under and virtue of a deed from Norman S. Dudley and Clara E. Dudley, his wife, dated May 2, 1916, and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County in Liber A. P. R., 1, Folio 96, etc., a certified copy of which said deed is filed herewith and marked "Complainant's Exhibit I".

That said conveyance created a tenancy by the entireties in the said William P. Cahall and Mary D. Cahall, his then wife.

2. That subsequent to the acquisition of said title to the aforsaid tract of land, the said William P. Cahall executed a deed to Mary D. Cahall, his then wife, dated May 3, 1919, and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County in Liber A. P. R., 4, Folio 503, etc., whereby he attempted to convey all his right, title, interest in and to said above described tract of land unto his said wife Mary D. Cahall. The said conveyance was inoperative to accomplish its intended purpose by reason of the fact that title being held as tenants by the entireties it could only be transferred by joint deed executed by both husband and wife and not by individual conveyance as will appear by certified copy of above mentioned deed from William P. Cahall to Mary D. Cahall dated May 3, 1919, and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County aforesaid in Liber A. P. R., 4, Folio 503, etc., filed herewith and marked "Complainant's Exhibit II".

3. That said deed from William P. Cahall to Mary D. Cahall recorded as aforesaid was exectuted and delivered for the purpose of vesting in said Mary D. Cahall the whole fee simple estate in and to said property for the reason that she had paid the full amount of the purchase money therefor and it was the intention of all parties concerned that the property be her sole and separate property.

4. That subsequent to the execution of said deed of William P. Cahall to his said wife, Mary D. Cahall, the said Mary D. Cahall obtained a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from her said husband William P. Cahall under and by virtue of a Decree passed on March 8, 1926, by the Superior Court of New Castle County, State of Delaware in a proceeding pending before said Court entitled Mary D. Cahall vs. William Perry Cahall, March Trials 1925 No. 20, and exemplified copy of which said divorce decree is filed herewith marked "Complainant's Exhibit No. III", and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

5. That by reason of said divorce decree the tenancy by which the said William P. Cahall and Mary D. Cahall, his wife, held title to said described property became changed by operation of law from a tenancy by the entireties to a tenancy in common.

6. That subsequent to said divorce decree, the said William P. Cahall disappeared and his whereabouts have become unknown and whether he is living or dead is likewise unknown, although diligent and exhaustive search and investigation have been made to locate him, all efforts have met with no avail; and if he be dead it is unknown whether he died testate or intestate and, if dead, who his executor or administrator may be or whether he left a surviving spouse or not. It is known, however, that he had the following brothers and sister, who, if living, would be his heirs at law, viz.: John Cahall, Dudley Cahall, and Keating F. Cahall, and Nellie Cahall Wiggins.

The said sister, Mary Cahall Wiggins is married to Harry Wiggins and resides at 3235 Elmora Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

The marital status of none of said brothers is known to your Complainant nor is the place of residence of any of said brothers so known.

7. That the said Complainant has entered into a Contract of Sale with two of the Defendants, Arthur F. Pinder and Kathryn N. Pinder, his wife, to purchase the aforementioned real estate for the sum of $8,600.00 cash of which the sum of $1.00 has been paid to bind the bargain said contract of sale dated the 20th day of July, 1944, and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County, in Liber R. A. S. 35, Folio 240, etc., a certified copy of which is filed herewith, prayed to be taken as a part hereof and marked "Complainant's Exhibit No. IV".

8. That the said real estate is not being operated by said Complainant on a profitable basis and there is no material income therefrom and said property is in need of repair and expenditures for maintanance to put same in such condition as to yield a profitable income to the party or parties entitled thereto.

9. That said propertty is not susceptible of partition in kind and it is for the benefit and advantage of all persons interested in said tract of land that the sale be made as aforesaid and the contract of sale ratified and th eproceeds of sale returned to this Honorable Court for further distribution of the same in accordance with the further Order of this Honorable Court in the premises.

10. That all persons having any possible interest in and to said property are parties hereto.

IT IS THEREUPON this 15th day of May, 1945, by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, Ordered that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper in said Kent County once in each of four (4) successive weeks before the 9th day of June, next, giving notice to the said William P. Cahall, if living, or if dead, to Nellie Cahall Wiggins and Harry Wiggins, her husband; John Cahall, and any unknown wife of John Cahall; Dudley Cahall, and any unknown wife of Dudley Cahall; Keating F. Cahall, and any unknown wife of Keating F. Cahall; and any unknown surviving widow or heirs at law, devisees, legatees or personal representatives of said William P. Cahall or unknown creditors of William P. Cahall, secured or unsecured, warning them to be and appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 25th day of June, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

Comegys Brown, Jr.
In The Circuit Court for Kent Co.
In Equity No. 3448

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff from the Defendant.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 21st day of August, 1931, she was married to the above respondent, Comegys Brown, Jr., by the Rev. J. N. Latham, at Lynchburg, Virginia, as per Complainant's Exhibit No. 1 filed herein and prayed to be made a part hereof.

2. That following their marriage, your Respondent, and her husband lived together as husband and wife part of the time in Kent County, Maryland, and in the month of February, 1942, your Oratrix and her husband, and their infant child, Ann Comegys Brown, returned to Kent County, Maryland, to their farm located in the Seventh Election District of said County, where they continued to live together as husband and wife until August, 1942, when, although the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband, the said Comegys Brown, Jr., was, at all times, kind, affectionate and above reproach the said Comegys Brown, Jr. did, without just cause, and against her desires, abandon and desert her in the said month of August, 1942, and he, at that time, declared that it was his intention that the marriage relation should no longer exist, and that such abandonment has been continuous since the said month of August, 1942, and that it is deliberate and final and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your Oratrix continued to reside in Kent County, aforesaid, and has been ever since that time and still is a resident of Kent County, Maryland, although she is, at present, temporarily employed elsewhere.

4. That your Oratrix and the said Comegys Brown, Jr., have had born unto them a daughter, Ann Comegys Brown, who is now thirteen years of age.

It is thereupon, this 23rd day of April, 1945, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 19th day of May next, give notice to the said Comegys Brown, Jr., non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 4th day of June next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
