Revival services are being held nightly in the M. E. Church of this city.

Election Tuesday, November 4th, 1890. Polls open from 8, A. M., till 6, P. M.

The first ice of the season made its appearance yesterday morning, when the temperature was slightly below 32 degrees.

Mr. Wm. H. Yingling is building a fine two-story brick store and dwelling, 30x50 feet, at No. 87 Pennsylvania avenue, this city.

Henry Aulthouse, of Taneytown, who served in the Union army during the war of the Rebellion, has been granted an increase of pension.

The Presbyterian Synod, which met at Wilmington, Del., recently, adopted a resolution looking to the ultimate purchase of New Windsor College.

Mr. John T. Snader, of New Windsor district, has sold at private sale, his farm of 100 acres, lying upwards of a mile South of New Windsor, to Mr. Peter Cover for $6,500 cash.

John Rock, a soldier of the Union army who resides near Carrollton Station in this county, has been granted a pension of $8.00 per month, with accumulations amounting to $709.

The members of Westminster Lodge, No. 41, I. O. M., of this city, will attend Divine service in a body, at Frizellburg, to-morrow, Sunday, afternoon at 2 o'clock. They will meet at their Hall at 1 o'clock, P. M., sharp.

We are authorized to announce that the fall term of the public schools will close on Friday, November 14th, and that the School Board will meet on Tuesday, the 18th, and the County Teachers' Association on Friday, the 21st.

Rev. W. M. Strayer, of Baltimore, President of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, preached in the M. P. Church on Wednesday evening, and in the M. E. Church, of this city, on Thursday evening.

Mr. Lewis J. Barnes, of Gamber, left at this office, on Tuesday, a curiosity in the shape of two dahlias growing on a single stem and both perfectly developed. It was cut from a stalk in the flower garden of Mr. Henry Pool, Center street, this city.

Mr. Emanuel Mackley, of East Main street, this city, sent to the SENTINEL office, yesterday, an enormous hen's egg, laid by a White Brahma hen belonging to him. The egg weighs a quarter of a pound and measures 7x8 inches in circference.

Chas. T. Reifsnider, Esq., attorney or agent, sold, on Monday last, at public sale, the farm of Mr. Washington Southgate, about two miles from Taneytown on the road leading to Union Bridge, containing 53 acres, to Mr. Henry J. Hilterbrick, for $1,067.95.

The ladies of Trinity Reformed Church Mite Society will give an old time New England supper, on Saturday evening, in Mrs. Ober's property, on S. Main street, Manchester. The dress, viands and apartments will conform to the style of the Miles Standish era.

We are indebted to Mr. Harvey F. Caylor, of Colorado, for copies of Denver, Topeka and Kansas City papers. The advertising columns of these papers bear evidence of the extreme energy and enterprise of the people of the cities and localities mentioned.

Mr. Milton Chew, of Carrollton, has presented a mamoth pumpkin, weighing 88 pounds, to Mrs. Margaret Jordan, of Dennings. This is one of the big pumpkins raised by Mr. Chew in his garden at Carrollton, of which mention has heretofore been made in the SENTINEL.

Mr. Donald McLean, whose wife is a daughter of the late Judge Ritchie, of Frederick, and a grand-daughter of Hon. Wm. P. Maulsby, of this city, has been nominated by the Republicans and anti-Tammany Democrats as a candidate for one of the judgeships of New York city. Mr. McLean is a Republican.

Rev. J. C. McGaughey, recently of Gettysburg Theological Seminary, of the vicinity of Mercersburg, Pa., and formerly of Martinsburg, West Va., has been called to the pastorate of Freedom Charge Ev. Lutheran Church, composed of Messiah Church, Porter's; Calvary Church, Woodbine, and St. Paul's Church, Taylorsville.

Miss Carrie E. Lauver, of Middleburg, sold, on Tuesday last, the property recently purchased by her near Keysville, containing 31 acres, to Mr. Joshua A. Stansbury, of Middleburg, for $2,875. Mr. Stansbury also purchased 20 acres adjoining the above, from Mr. Thomas Stevenson, of Westminster district, at $40 per acre.

The hospitable home of Mr. Isaac C. Forrest, near Warfieldsburg, was the scene of a pleasant little gathering of visitors on Tuesday last, who were royally entertained by the worthy host and his family. An elegant and sumptuous dinner was served and heartily enjoyed by the guests. The visitors were: Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Charlton, of Uniontown; Mrs. Levi N. Snader, of Frizellburg; Mrs. Charles Miller, Miss Cornelia Fowble, of Baltimore; Mrs. Joseph A. Waesche, Mrs. Leander Gladhill, of Westminster; Mrs. Joshua Sellman, Mrs. Levi Manahan, of Warfieldsburg; Mrs. D. F. Albaugh, of Linwood; Mr. Harvey Caples, of Sandyville.

Election Tuesday, November 4th, 1890. Polls open from 8, A. M., till 6, P. M.

On Tuesday last Mr. David W. Englar, of Medford, mortgagee of Mr. David Frownfelter, sold, at public sale, a farm lying on the road leading from New Windsor to Uniontown, about equi-distant from those places, and containing 192 acres, to James T. Lambert, for $26.00 per acre; and also a house and lot of ground in New Windsor, to A. E. Lambert, for $1035.

Master Guy Fowler, son of Mr. Albert T. Fowler, of this city, set in the garden at his home on Church street, last week, a steel trap and a box trap, for the purpose of catching rabbits. The first night a dog was caught in the steel trap and a cat in the box trap, but nothing daunted by this untoward circumstance, Master Guy repeated the experiment and on Monday night secured in the box trap a ten pound opossum.

Miss Clarissa Bankert, daughter of Mr. Mosheim Bankert, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Waynesboro, Pa., and Prof. G. Worthington Berry, principal of the public schools at Pittsville, Md., were married at the home of the bride, in Waynesboro, on the 18th ult. It was a very pretty home wedding. The bride wore a beautiful traveling costume. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. E. Stofflet, of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Waynesboro. Mr. and Mrs. Berry took a wedding trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. Rosa Steffey, wife of Mr. McKendrie Steffey, of Williamsport, Md., and daughter of Capt. Jesse H. Sheets, a well know conductor on the Western Maryland Railroad, died at her home in that town, on Friday of last week, of pneumonia, in the 27th year of her age. Mrs. Steffey was a grand-daughter of Mr. Jesse Yingling, of this city. Her husband and two small children survive her. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Williamsport, on Monday last, a large and sympathizing concourse attending the obsequies.

Miss Fannie Boose, daughter of Mr. Peter S. Boose, of York, Pa., and grand-daughter of Mrs. Rachael Lantz, of this city, was married to Mr. Chester A. Miller, son of Rev. J. O. Miller, D. D., pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, of the former place, on the evening of the 23rd ult. The ceremony was performed by the father of the groom, assisted by Rev. W. S. Freas, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, York. The bride is a native of this city, where she is well known and has many friends. Both she and her husband are very popular and have a wide circle of friends in York, and were the recipients of a large number of valuable and handsome presents.

Mrs. Ella May Yingling, wife of Mr. Ulysses Grant Yingling, died at the residence of her father, Mr. Thomas Tate, near this city, on Tuesday last, after an illness of two weeks or more, of typhoid fever, in the 22nd year of her age. This sorrowful event is fraught with peculiar sadness. Mrs. Yingling was only a bride, having been married to her husband on the 23rd day of September, only five weeks before her death. Her remains were interred at the German Baptist burial ground at Pipe Creek, on Thursday morning. A large circle of friends mourn, with her bereft young husband and sorrowing parents, the sudden death of this loving and beloved young wife and daughter.

The warehouse, mill and entire business premises of Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son, West Main street, near the railroad, were lighted with electricity for the first time on Tuesday night last. The machine used for generating the illuminating current is an Edison dynamo of 800 candle-power, and the current is subdivided into fifty lights of 16 candle-power each. The dynamo is attached by a belt to the machinery driven by the mill engine, thus causing a material saving in the cost of the power used. The new light is a great improvment as well as convenience to the Messrs. Gorsuch and their employes. A 32 candle-power light has been placed in front of the warehouse for the benefit of pedestrians. Mr. C. C. Gorsuch is also lighting his dwelling by the new method.

The passenger department of the Western Maryland Railroad has issued a work of 92 pages entitled "Gettysburg in War and in Peace." The book, which is handsomely printed, contains a map showing the lines of the W. Md., B. & H., B. & C. V., and Western Extension (the old Tape Worm) Railroads; also a panoramic view of these lines, a bird's-eye view of Gettysburg, many views of battlefield scenes and a compilation of the history of the Battle of Gettysburg, with rosters of the armies engaged and also a description of the old Tape Worm Railroad, with numerous fine illustrations. The work was compiled by Mr. Thomas E. Jenkins and is a valuable summary of battlefield history and scenery. It will serve to stimulate a desire to visit that classic ground, and will be a valuable guide in the hands of visitors.

Mr. Isaac Prugh, of Montgomery county, Ohio, died at his home, about 4 miles from Dayton, on the 17th ult., aged about 66 years. The Dayton Daily Times says of him that "he was an energetic farmer and owned one of the finest farms in Van Buren township. He was a man of quiet habits and retiring disposition. In his home he was always kind and hospitable to friend or stranger. In his business intercourse with his neighbors his actions were characterized by strict integrity and upright dealing. He was a true Christian gentleman and faithful member of the Reformed Church." He leaves a widow, who is a relative of Mr. David J. Roop and Mrs. Mary Horn, of this county, and one son aged about 18 years. Mr. Prugh was a nephew of Messrs. Abraham and David Prugh, and a cousin of Mr. Levi Manahan, of this county.

The annual lovefeast of the German Baptists of Meadow Branch Church, near this city, was held last Saturday afternoon and evening, according to previous announcement, and attracted a large attendance of the Brethren and others who were drawn by the interesting character of the exercises, which were conducted with the decorum and solemnity befitting such a service. The following ministers of the Church officiated on the occasion: Elder Jeremiah Brown, of New Windsor; Elders Wm. H. Franklin and Wm. K. Franklin, of Sams Creek; Elders Uriah Bixler, Emanuel Babylon, David D. Bonsack, of the vicinity of Westminster; Elder R. T. Pollard, of Armstrong county, Pa.; Elders Joseph Long, Jos. Price, Jacob Aldinger, of York, Pa.; Elder John Trostle, of Gettysburg, Pa.; Elder E. S. Miller, of Black Rock, Pa.

Mr. Thomas S. Cover, formerly of this county, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cover, at Elkton, Rockingham county, Va., on the 22nd ult., of pneumonia, at the age of 28 years, 6 months and 23 days. We are not in possession of any further particulars of the sad event. The deceased was a nephew of Mr. Samuel Cover, of this city.

Mrs. Marcella Hammond, familiarly known as "Nurse" Hammond, an aged colored woman, died at her home near Fairview, on Saturday last, and was buried at Fairview Church on Monday. She was greatly esteemed in the community and the attendance of all classes of people, white and colored, was far beyond the capacity of the Church to accommodate them. Her funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Brown, and Mr. Isaiah Devilbiss made some remarks in eulogy of the deceased. Mrs. Hammond was about 78 years of age.

Complaints are frequently heard from business men who advertise by posters, painted signs, &c., in public places in various portions of the county, that their advertisements of this character are often destroyed or defaced, so that they become of no value, and consequently no benefit is derived from them. Such acts, in all probability, come under the head of misdemeanors, such as the willful and malicious destruction of property, and are consequently punishable by fine and imprisonment. They are usually the work of thoughtless or mischievous boys, who are warned that sufferers from this cause contemplate resorting to the law for protection.

Election Tuesday, November 4th, 1890. Polls open from 8, A. M, till 6, P. M.

Laying of a Corner-Stone.

The corner-stone of the new St. Mary's Reformed Church, at Silver Run, in this county, was laid on Sunday, with interesting and appropriate ceremonies, in the presence of a large assembly of people, the number in attendance having been estimated at 1,500 persons. The congregation of St. Mary's church has worshipped for many years in a plain but substantial and commodious edifice, belonging jointly to the Reformed and Lutheran Churches of Silver Run, but this building, which is still standing, was entirely inadequate to accommodate the people who assembled to witness the laying of the corner-stone of the splendid structure about to be erected by the members of St. Mary's Church, in consequence of which the services on Sunday were held in the open air at the site of the new building. Rev. Calvin S. Slagle, of Westminster, preached the dedicatory sermon, and the Liturgical service was conducted by Rev. John G. Noss, the pastor. Rev. Henry Ditzler, of Taneytown, and Rev. Prof. Krebbs, of Littlestown, Pa., were present and participated in the services. The corner-stone, which is a large, plain block of granite, bears upon the two exposed sides the simple legend "1890." In a case, which was deposited in a cavity in the stone, was placed a large copy of the Bible, copies of the Heidelburg Catechism, Reformed Church Messenger, Reformed Church Almanac, AMERICAN SENTINEL and other county papers, and a brief history of the movement leading to the building of the new Church. The building about to be erected was designed by Mr. Jos. W. B. Fry, of Philadelphia, Pa. It will be a large and handsome structure, and its entire cost, when completed, will not fall short of $15,000, a large portion of which has been secured by subscriptions and liberal contributions on the occasion of the laying of the corner-stone. It will be 100x74 feet and the general style of its architecture will be Gothic. It will be built of brick with trimmings of Gettysburg granite and there will be a tower 80 feet in height from the ground level at the northeast corner. There will be three rooms—the main auditorium, Sunday School and Infant Sunday School rooms—the first two mentioned being arranged with sliding doors in such manner that they can be thrown into a single room, with a seating capacity of 800. The two Sunday School rooms will also be arranged with sliding doors so that they can be thrown into one. There will be a cellar under the entire building, 7 feet in depth, in which will be 27 brick pillars to support the flooring, and which will contain three hot air furnaces for heating the church and Sunday School rooms. Altogether the church will be one of the handsomest and most capacious in the county, and the pastor and members are to be congratulated on the prospect of soon possessing so beautiful and spacious a place of worship. The contractor is Mr. Elias Roth, of Oxford, Pa.

Dedication of a Lutheran Church.

Calvary Evanglical Lutheran Church, recently erected at Woodbine, at the extreme Southern limit of Carroll county, was dedicated to the worship of God, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Sunday last. The services were attended by a large and deeply interested congregation. Rev. Charles S. Trump, of Martinsburg, W. Va., preached the dedicatory sermon, and the ceremony of dedication was conducted by Rev. M. E. McLinn, of Union Bridge, who, until the division of the Charge, was the pastor, and under whose ministry and by whose faithful and untiring efforts the edifice was erected. Rev. J. C. McGaughey, of the vicinity of Mercersburg, Pa., who has been called to the pastorate of the new Charge, of which Calvary Church forms a part, was present and participated in the services. The new edifice is a frame structure, 28x44 feet, with a 6-foot recess and an end gallery; and has a belfry in full view of the B. & O. R. R. station at Woodbine. The general style of its architecture is Gothic. It has a seating capacity of 250, and was erected at a cost of $2,000. Before the dedication Rev. M. E. McLinn announced that a debt of $700 still rested on the building, which he desired to have provided for before proceeding with the services. In response to his appeal nearly the whole amount was pledged and the Church was dedicated comparatively free from indebtedness.

Reported for the SENTINEL.

New Windsor College.

The Synod of Baltimore, which embraces the three Presbyteries of Baltimore, Washington and New Castle, and covering the State's of Maryland and Delaware, the District of Columbia, and parts of Virginia and West Virginia, at its late meeting in Wilmington, Delaware, heartily passed the following paper, which was recommended by a committee of Synod, appointed two years ago to consider a proposition made by Dr. Jelly to transfer the New Windsor College property to the Synod:

1. The synod of Baltimore appreciates most highly the generosity of the Rev. A. M. Jelly, D. D., president and proprietor of New Windsor College, in making this exceedingly liberal offer to transfer to the synod, New Windsor College upon payment of one-half of a fair cash valuation of the property, said valuation to be determined by a committee.
2. That synod desires to accept the offer of Dr. Jelly, if the way shall seem clear. And to that end synod requests Dr. Jelly to keep his offer open until synod can ascertain what can be done to raise the necessary funds, meanwhile making such provision in his will, as shall give the option of purchase to synod in case of his sudden death.
3. That this committee be continued and be authorized by synod to receive such tenders of money as may be made toward the end in view.

A College was chartered in 1843, at New Windsor, under Presbyterian auspices—the incorporators having been Rev. Drs. Robt. J. Breckenridge, John C. Backus, Geo. W. Musgrove, J. P. Carter and others. This is to be the perpetuation of that institution, and it is an interesting coincidence that the chairman of the committee appointed by Synod to carry out this object is the Rev. Dr. Alexander Proudfit, a successor of Rev. Dr. Robert J. Breckenridge in the Second Presbyterian Church, Baltimore. Dr. Proudfit did his work faithfully and well and answered, effectively, every objection urged, by an eloquent and logical speech before the Synod.

New Windsor College is now filled with students. New rooms have been fitted up and these are all taken or engaged, and the possibilities of New Windsor as an educational centre have been demonstrated. The large and wealthy Synod of Baltimore sees this and has thrown its strong arm around Dr. Jelly and his College; and Carroll county is to be congratulated on the prospect of this new addition to its prosperity. The change of tenure is not intended to change Dr. Jelly's relation to the College.

Proceedings of the Orphans' Court.

Annie E. Barnes, administratrix of Henry Barnes, deceased, settled 1st and final account.

Third and final guardian accounts settled for Cecelia V. and Mary J. Obold, by Julia E. Obold, administratrix of Edmund J. Obold, deceased, their late guardian.

Julia E. Obold, administratrix of Edmund J. Obold, deceased, settled 1st and final account.

Wm. S. Wooden, executor of Ellen B. Marshall, deceased, received order to sell real estate.

Street Improvements.

Considerable energy is being displayed by the city authorities in pushing forward the street improvements. The bed of Pensylvania avenue has been graded almost throughout its entire length and is about ready for the stone. In no section of the city will the improvement be more marked than on that thoroughfare. The narrow roadway, in the shape of an embankment running through the centre of the avenue, has been cut down and the side drives filled up, preparatory to macadamizing the whole width of the street from gutter to gutter.

Work was commenced on Liberty street several days ago, and is being carried forward rapidly under the superintendence of Mr. Jacob Wilson. Quite a number of thrifty young trees, mostly locusts, which stood just where the gutter will be made, on the northwest side of the street, have been necessarily sacrificed, and the thoroughfare presents a rather strange appearance on account of the change.

The sidewalks in front of the First National Bank building, and the adjoining property occupied by Mr. H. Haines, East Main street, have been graded to conform to the bed of the street and the crossing from the railroad platform, so that the steps heretofore located at that point, in passing eastward from the railroad, have been dispensed with. Handsome asphalt block pavements have been laid by the railroad company and the bank, and by the city at the crossing of the alley adjacent to the bank building. In addition to the appearance of these pavements they are very durable and will not need renewing for many years.

The sidewalk in front of the Wilson property, on the northeast side of Main street, west of the railroad, has also been graded and a new pavement is now being laid.

Election Tuesday, November 4th, 1890. Polls open from 8, A. M., till 6, P. M.

College Notes.

There are now 225 students in attendance, and others will enter the fold by and by.

H E. Downham, son of the mayor of Alexandria, is among the students who recently registered.

Prof. J. B. Whaley, of the Seminary, is pursuing a course of study in the Semitic languages at Johns Hopkins University. He is absent Monday of every week.

Mr. I. F. Smith, a member of the Sophomore class, returned to the college a few days ago from his home at Lorentz, W. Va., where he was called two weeks ago to attend the funeral of his father.

Last Wednesday, the 29th, Dr. Lewis was in Baltimore attending the last sad rites, and serving as pall-bearer of the remains of Rev. Augustus Webster, D. D. The deceased was a man much beloved by all who knew him, and had been an exemplary minister.

The "College Monthly," like every thing else on the hill, is undergoing improvement and in a few days it will appear before the eyes of the public in an entire new dress. The editors and publishers are chock-full of the yeast of courage and have energy enough to get up a spread-eagle college paper.

Last Saturday night the doors of Hering Library Hall were thrown open to lads and lasses of the college and soon the hall was filled with students anxious to make the occasion a swimming success. All were happy—the boys especially, because they were not compelled to stand around idly like little urchins at a big circus.

And it was last Friday that part of the Freshman class made their de but in chapel, to a full audience. Those who sent forth flames of eloquence were Messrs. Baker, Bennett, Claypool, Cain, Dick, Clay and Forsythe; also, Misses Barnes, Bowden, Baukages, Butler, Buckingham, Dale and Dixon. This class is on the first round of the ladder and by a superabundance of application by each member it will come out all right about the year '94.

Letter from Hagerstown

MR. EDITOR.—I promised to write you a few items from Hagerstown, Md., when I left your place. It is said when anything gets too full it must split. Well, I think Hagerstown is split wide open and the boom crops out as boldly and abundantly as the limestone rocks upon the many hills around the town. News of any other character is put well in the shade by the "Great Land Sales" here in progress. This life seems a great race for wealth and all the investors here have been winning in the race. I bought six lots in June, 1890, amount of cash payment required being $200, closed out the holding in less than 90 days and made $1000. Others have even done better than this. This success encouraged me to purchase 27 lots at the October sale, a number of which I have already sold at a good advance and when all are sold at same ratio I will have cleared $2500 to $3000, and I will not be 90 days at it either. The electric street railway is assured and when built lots will sell for more than double their present value. Everything points to the grand future of Hagerstown, as all is life and bustle here. Manufacturers are gathering here, the last being the removal of a large silk mill from New York, the foundation for which is being prepared in the new addition to Hagerstown at this writing. I am confident that in less than five years Hagerstown will be a city of 18,000 or 20,000 inhabitants. News about anything else cannot be heard for the boom, boom, of Hagerstown, which sounds in your ears wherever you go. Even the thunder of politics is but a faint sound amid the din. Of course McComas says he will get there and McKaig says so too. I will get the news correctly in November. I do not think both will be elected unless the boom being so big it will be necessary to have two congressmen from this district.

Middle Conference of the Lutheran Church.

The Middle Conference of the Maryland Synod met at Point of Rocks, Md., on Monday, October 27th, 1890. Rev. P. H. Miller, of Westminster, was elected President, Rev. J. U. Asper, of Westminster, Secretary, and Rev. M. E. McLinn, of Union Bridge, Treasurer. An important event in the history of the Conference was the election of a Missionary President, Rev. P. Bergstresser, D. D., of Middletown, Md., to labor in the interests of Church advancement and the Missionary cause in the territory represented. Three sermons were preached before Conference by Revs. J. U. Asper, M. E. McLinn, and L. Kuhlman, respectively.

The subjects discussed were as follows: "The Sabbath—Its Desecration, and Benefits of Proper Observance," "Infant Baptism—Its Authority and Benefits," "Duties of Members to their own Congregations," and "Relation and Duties of Christian Parents to the Spiritual Nurture of their Children." All the sessions were marked by warmth of feeling and intense interest in the subjects discussed, and impressions were certainly made which will prove of great benefit to the Point of Rocks congregation, and to all throughout the bounds of Conference.

Its next session will be held at Mechanicstown, Md., sometime during the month of May, 1891.

The delegates were cordially and generously entertained, and all agreed that never in the history of the Conference has there been a more pleasant and instructive meeting.

Taneytown Items.

Mrs. Amos Duttera is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Grace Hockensmith, who has charge of the public school at Rocky Ridge, Md., spent Saturday with her parents, in this place.

Mrs. Mary Eckert, of Hanover, Pa., and Miss Maggie Lansinger, of Littlestown, Pa., were recently guests of Mrs. C. Shriner.

Mrs. Susan Buffington, who has been sojourning in the west for several years, returned last Friday, and intends to make this her permanent residence.

The members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, in this place, have decided to give a street parade on Thanksgiving Day, in connection with an oyster supper, to be held in Eckenrode's Hall, starting on the same date and continuing throughout the week. Invitations have been extended to all of the neighboring orders and several good bands of music will be in the parade. A good time general is expected.

Hampstead Items.

The anniversary of the Board of Church Extension was held in the M. E. Church on Sunday last. The sermon was preached from Isaiah, 54: 2-3, by the pastor, Rev. T. Marshall West, who first emphasized the duty of Christians to send the Gospel to the heathen and then of the necessity for evangelistic work at home. It was shown in the course of the sermon that the Board, since its organization in 1864, has helped into existence 7,172 churches and that at the present time it is helping to build over one church for every day in the year. The appeal for offerings to the cause was responded to by the people in a good collection.

Last week Mr. A. J. Houck resigned his commission as one of the Justices of the Peace, and Governor Jackson filled the vacancy by appointing Mr. Thomas Tipton, who is principal of the Hampstead public school.

A vestibule has been added to the two rear rooms of the above named school. This will be greatly appreciated by the pupils.

Dr. Geo. R. Roop, residing two miles south of Hampstead, has sold his place to Mr. John M. Bush and has since purchased the farm of Mr. T. J. Hunt, situated within the limits of this town.

On Saturday, 25th ult., Messrs. Miles and Wm. Grogg, executors of the late David Grogg, sold, at public sale, his farm and homestead. The latter was purchased by Mr. Miles Grogg. The farm, consisting of about 88 acres, was sold in lots to the following persons: T. J. Hunt, A. J. Houck, John Oliver Murray, Luther A. Martin, G. P. Furhman, Joshua Shafler, Whitfield Stansbury.

Mr. Win Arnold, of Baltimore, and Miss Nannie L. Shubkagle, of Hampstead, were married October 27th, 1890, at 9 o'clock, by Rev. J. B. Hall, of the M. E. Church, Baltimore Conference. At 11.30, A. M., they took the train for Baltimore, where they will permanently reside.

Mr. James Marshall, father of Dr. James Marshall, of Myers' district, died last Friday morning week at his home and was buried on Sunday following in Manchester. Rev. N. J. Miller, pastor of the Reformed Church of Manchester, officiated at the funeral, assisted by Rev. J. S. Derr, of the Hampstead Lutheran Church.

Harney Items.

The new Lutheran Church in this place was dedicated to the service of God on Sunday last. Rev. H. H. Weber, of York, Pa., Secretary of the Board of Church Extension of the General Synod, preached a very appropriate sermon at the morning service to a very large audience, the commodious edifice not having been large enough to admit nearly all the people who came to witness the dedication. After the sermon it was announced that a debt of $1,750 was still unprovided for, and an earnest effort was made to secure the amount. At the close of the service, however, there was nearly $300 lacking of the sum required. This was raised at the evening service, after which the building was dedicated with appropriate and interesting ceremonies, and Rev. J. U. Asper, of Westminster, preached an excellent sermon, that was highly appreciated by the audience. The new Church is a very fine and handsome structure, complete in every respect. It forms a part of the Mt. Joy Charge, of which Rev. Mr. Hellman is pastor. Harney can now boast of two Churches that are not only comfortable and substantial, but ornaments to the place.

We are glad to hear that Smith & Gilbert, of Gettysburg, Pa., have the contract to rebuild the bridge at Myers' Mill. They put up good bridges.

Mr. S. S. Shoemaker has erected a street lamp in front of his store, that is a great convenience.

Mrs. Geo. Doll, of our town, had a stroke of paralysis this week and is very ill.

Mrs. Daniel Shoemaker, of this place, picked about a pint of raspberries from her vines in the garden this week.

Gist Items.

Corn husking has commenced here in good earnest, but the wet and cold weather combined keeps our farmers from making much progress.

The trees are shedding their leaves, the wild geese have been going south, and owners of wells have been having them cleaned. Judging from general appearances, nature and her subjects are getting ready for winter, which the snow birds predict as fast approaching. Game of all kinds that harbors in our clime is plentiful here, and the hunters are plentiful too.

Many of our citizens are hauling away their onions and potatoes to the Baltimore markets, where they receive from 60 to 75 cents for potatoes and 95 cents and $1.00 for onions.

We had quite a flurry in the weather on the 29th inst. It rained, hailed, snowed, and blowed as it commonly does in the month of March. When the weather permits worm-seed raisers ply their skill at distilling the oil from the herb, which seems to be yielding reasonably fair. Work is very abundant here, but hands are scarce and wages very high for short days. Nearly all have extracted their potato crops from the ground and in most instances the yield was good.

Union Bridge Items.

Mr. William Norris, a well known and highly respected citizen of this place, died very suddenly on Monday morning last of congestion of the lungs. He had been in ill health for a number of years, but was not confined to bed and his death was not anticipated. A few weeks ago he accidentally cut his left hand severely, but the wound was healing, and probably had no connection with his death. Mr. Norris was a native of Frederick county, but had resided in this city several years. He was in the 50th year of his age, and leaves a widow and five children surviving him. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church, of this city, Rev. Osborne Belt officiating, after which the remains were taken to Liberty, Frederick county, for interment.

Judge George W. Lindsay, of Baltimore, G. I. of the Independent Order Red Men, of this State, paid a visit to Monocacy Tribe, of this city, on Monday last, for the purpose of explaining the endownment plan of the order to the members.

The young ladies and gentlemen of the "Y," a temperance organization, will give an entertainment in the Town Hall on Friday evening, October 31st.

Election Tuesday, November 4th, 1890. Polls open from 8, A. M., till 6, P. M.

Personal.

Miss Estella B. Gruber, of North Mount street, Baltimore, is visiting the family of Mr. John B. Saylor, West Main street this city.

Mrs. J. Edwin Weaver, of Baltimore, visited this city this week. All the members of her family are well and are becoming pleased with their new home.

Rev. Lloyd E. Coblentz and family, of Altoona, Pa., are visiting Rev. Calvin S. Slagle. Rev. Coblentz will fill the pulpit of St. Paul's Reformed Church on Sunday.

Mrs. I. S. Weaver, of Baltimore, who spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Bott, West Main street, this city, left on Wednesday, by one of the Bay Line steamers from Baltimore, for New Berne, N. C., where her husband, Mr. I. S. Weaver, is engaged in the manufacture of rosin, turpentine and cotton-seed oil. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Bott, who will visit some of the Southern cities, including Morehead City, the famous watering place of the South; also Raleigh and some of the principal cities of South Carolina and Florida. On her route homeward she will visit Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Maryland and the District of Columbia held its annual session on Thursday, at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, Baltimore. Mr. Charles B. Hunter represented Carroll Division, of this city. The reports of the Grand Worthy Patriarch, R. M. Duvall and Grand Scribe, R. T. Smith, represented the order as in good condition throughout the jurisdiction. Officers were elected as follows: Grand worthy patriarch, Rev. A. H. Zimmerman, formerly of this city; grand worthy associate, Mrs. N. E. Black; grand scribe, R. T. Smith; grand treasurer, Wm. Silverwood; grand chaplain, Rev. J. W. Steel; grand conductor, J. B. Reed; grand sentinel, Miss L. Kesler.

A Substitute for Bone.

THREE (3) different strata of the Woodsboro Lime Rock, separately burnt and then combined proportionately, will improve any land equal to Bone for one-half the money. Guarantee it or refund the money. Every farmer can have a full supply of this Lime delivered to his nearest railroad station on short notice, but we prefer farmers to order as far ahead as possible. Will ship in house or open cars as desired. We invite all who wish to use or buy Lime to call and examine our facilities, Lime, Rock, &c. All correspondence solicited. Address
