The grading of Pennsylvania avenue is completed and the stone is now being added to complete the work. Liberty street has been graded but as yet little more has been done towards completing the improvement.

A youth named Baxter Bowers, aged 15 years, had his right foot crushed to pieces in the machinery of a horse-power, near Warfieldsburg, last week. He is a son of Mr. John C. Bowers, of Warfieldsburg. Amputation was performed by Drs. James P. Summers and J. H. Billingslea.

Mr. Theodore Derr has lowered the sidewalk in front of his store and dwelling to conform to the new grade established by the city authorities. The curbing used by Mr. Derr in making this charge, is heavy granite and the work has been well done and is a decided improvement.

The finishing touches are being put to the new Reformed Church at Krider's Cemetery and it is now definitely announced that the edifice will be dedicated on Sunday, 30th inst. It will be an interesting occasion in the history of the Church and congregation, and will doubtless attract a large assemblage.

Hog cholera, or a disease of that character, is prevailing to some extent in this vicinity and in the neighborhood of Carrollton. Mr. Milton Schwartzbaugh, of this city, has lost two large hogs by the disease. Mr. Harry Caples, of the vicinity of Carrollton, has lost eight and several other persons one or two.

On Monday last Judge James A. C. Bond drew the following jurors for the November term of court, which commences on Monday next: Wm. Frizell, of Uniontown district, in place of George H. Birnie, of Taneytown district, excused, and David Englar, Jr., of Westminster district, in place of John V. Criswell, non est.

Mr Charles Shultz, who is in the employ of Messrs Charles E. Goodwin & Bro., met with a severe accident at their limestone quarries, on Thursday, by the sliding down of an embankment in front of which he was working. One of his legs was badly bruised and his head considerably cut by coming in contact with a rock against which he was thrown. It was supposed at first that his leg was fractured, but Dr. John S. Mathias, who was called to see him, expressed a contrary opinion and says Mr. Shultz's injuries are not dangerous nor permanent.

An anonymous correspondent at Waynesboro, Pa., writes that Mr. Charles L. Beard, formerly of Westminster, but now residing in Waynesboro, recently met with a severe accident by falling through a trap door in the shop of Messrs. A. M. Good & Co., where he has been employed during the past year. The account states that in falling he struck his left side on a large porch post and received internal injuries, and that he has been confined to bed for over a week, and, while somewhat improved is still in a very bad condition, suffering, at times, great pain about his heart. He is attended by Dr. James B. Amberson. We depart from our ordinary rule of throwing anonymous communications into the waste basket, in this case, because there would seem to be no cause for misrepresentation in the matter, and the name of the writer was probably omitted inadvertently.

Mr. B. F. Crouse, Clerk of the Circuit Court, received for record, during the month of October, 35 deeds, 18 mortgages, and 16 bills of sale, and issued 20 marriage licenses.

The oyster supper and festival being held by the ladies of the Grace Lutheran Church of this city, in the new store room of Mr. H. C. Keefer, will be continued to-night.

Miss Mary L Null, daughter of Mr. George Null, of Liberty, Frederick county, and Mr. George H. Mitten, of Union Bridge, son of Mr. John H. Mitten, manager of the Sentinel, were married on Thursday evening, at the parsonage of Faith Reformed Chapel, Baltimore, by Rev. A. S. Weber. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties having been present. Mr. and Mrs. Mitten left yesterday morning for a wedding trip to Washington, Philadelphia, and elsewhere. They will reside at Union Bridge.

About seventy members of Westminster Lodge, No. 41, I. O. M., of this city, attended Divine service, in a body, at the Bethel of the Church of God, at Frizellburg, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on Sunday last. An eloquent and appropriate sermon was preached to the visitors by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Seilhamer, of Uniontown. The opening prayer was offered, and a few remarks made by Rev. P. H. Miller, of this city. The attendance on the service on this occasion was very large, numbers failing to gain an entrance to the Church on account of its crowded condition.

On Thursday a fire broke out in the stable of Mr. Howard M. Zile, in Winfield, and before it could be arrested spread to the stables of Moses Costley and Isaac Dorsey and also Mr. Zile's large creamery and a slaughter-house, the name of the owner of which we have not learned. All the buildings named, with their contents, were totally destroyed. The entire loss is estimated at between $3,000 and $4,000, more than two-thirds of which falls on Mr. Zile. All the stables were insured in the Dug Hill Company and the creamery in a Springfield, Illinois, Company, but the full amount of the insurance is not known. It is, however, only partial.

There are Thieves About.

A thief or thieves entered the cellar of Mrs. Jane Sellman, Green street, near Belle Grove Square, this city, on Thursday night, and stole a lot of wood and potatoes. The depredators must have had a key that fitted the lock on the door of the cellar as it was found intact, and there was no other mode of entrance possible.

Some big footed individual removed the windows to the cellar of the Sentinel office on Tuesday night in search of plunder, probably in the shape of fuel. The tracks were visible, but it was impossible to tell whether anything had been carried away.

Shipley Items.

We have been having some pretty rough weather of late, and farmers find it a little rough for husking out their corn. Most of our farmers have been very busy this fall; the wet weather has been an obstacle to regular progress more this year than usual, and if Prof. Irl Hicks' prediction be true for the month of November, we had better anchor for the winter. Work is very abundant here, and will be for a long time to come.

Everybody seems to be affected with colds, which are provoking and lasting, and in some instances render us unfit for labor.

Mr. Eph. B. Repp, of New Windsor, who has been in Washington, D. C., for some months past, was in this city for a short time on Monday last, and paid the Sentinel office a visit. Mr. Repp is, at this time, superintendent of construction of a large building being erected by the American Security and Trust Company.

Mr. Joseph Bollinger and daughter, Miss Hattie, of this city, after a sojourn of a week or more at Memphis, Tenn., left, on the 1st inst., for New Orleans, La. For some reason the Sentinel, which has been regularly mailed to Mr. Bollinger, failed to reach him at St. Louis or Memphis, and he writes us has been very much missed.

Mr. John F. Everhart, of this city, left on Tuesday last, for Roanoke, Va., where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Everhart is a reliable and worthy young gentleman and has many friends in this city, who regret his departure, and will be glad to welcome him back again should he at any time conclude to return. Many good wishes follow him to his new home. The business heretofore conducted by him in this city will hereafter be in charge of his brother, Mr. Will E. Everhart, who, for several years, has been with S. Kann, Sons & Co.

Hampstead Items.

The Republican meeting which was held Thursday, 30th ult., in this place was largely attended, considering the coolness of the evening, there being about 200 persons present. Capt. John E. Wilson, who was expected to have addressed the people, was unexpectedly detained in Baltimore on business relating to the campaign, but sent Mr. Joseph B. Burleigh, of Govanstown, to fill the vacancy. The evening was enlivened with music by the Hampstead Cornet Band.

Last Monday night the question, "Shall women be admitted to the Electoral and General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church?" was voted upon in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place. The vote stood as follows: For admission 2, against admission 15.

On Wednesday, October 29th, Mr. Joel Ebaugh, of near Houcksville, sold at public auction his crop, stock, farming implements and a portion of his household furniture, the whole amounting to about $700. Mr. Noah Reese will farm Mr. Ebaugh's place, and will take possession immediately.

Mrs. Mary Burgoyne, mother of Mrs. Dr. Wareheim, died last Thursday, at her daughter's home in Hampstead. The remains were interred in the M. E. Church burial ground. Rev. N. J. Miller, of Manchester, officiated at the funeral.

Last Thursday Dr. Clyning, a gentleman temporally making this his home, was badly bitten by a dog belonging to Mr. Wm. Zepp.

College Notes.

A few members of the Senior Class will go to Baltimore to see Booth and Barrett play "Macbeth."

Most of the classes are now reviewing the work which they have passed over since the beginning of the term. Examinations will commence December 1st.

Several of the students made a heavy demonstration in the form of a bon-fire last Tuesday night. It was not certain in what their glory consisted as the returns had not arrived.

The Webster Literary Society is now preparing a drama for the annual anniversary which will take place Thursday evening, 27th inst. The Philomathean Society will soon have the program blocked out for its anniversary.

Last Friday afternoon the students enjoyed the pleasure of listening to a splendid musical recital given by the music students and their teachers. Misses Tise and Wimbrough began the exercises with "Tannhauser March." Then Miss Spence played "Blue Bells of Scotland," which was followed by a solo by Miss Wolfes, entitled "Judith." Miss Main played a grand classic, and was followed by Miss Blanton, who sang "Una Voce Poco Fa." Other pieces of music were presented, then Misses Main and Kinney gave some brilliant flourishes to a highly delighted audience. All left the chapel delighted.

Prodigious Growths.

Prodigious vegetable growths have been quite common during the past season.

In our Bird Hill correspondence, this week, mention is made of a ten pound red beet grown by Mrs. Wm. P. Baker in her garden in that village.

Master Guy Fowler has left at this office a club gourd, grown in the garden of his father, Mr. Albert T. Fowler, on Court street, this city, which measures 3 feet, 8½ inches in length and 15 inches in circumference at the largest part.

We were shown, on Tuesday evening, by Mr. James E. Lynch, a radish grown on his father, Mr. John T. Lynch's farm, "Sunnyside," in this district, which measured 19½ inches in length by 16½ inches in circumference, and weighed 9½ pounds.

Mr. Luther Bushey, of the vicinity of Porter's in Freedom district, exhibited in the Sentinel office, on Wednesday, four ears of Mammoth Chester corn, which measured, respectively, 12, 12½, 13 and 14 inches in length and ranged from 2½ to 3 inches in diameter.

The Democrats have been exhibiting a very large beat during the past week, but close inspection indicates that the huge affair is hollow and will collapse and shrivel about the ides of November '92, if not sooner. All such growths are abnormal anyhow.

Harney Items.

Mr. George Doll, whom we reported sick last week, died on Friday evening, October 31st. Funeral services were held on Sabbath morning at the Lutheran Church. His remains were taken to Mt. Joy, Pa., for interment. Mr. Doll had just moved to our town last Spring.

Mr. S. S. Shoemaker had a stone pavement laid in front of his store last week, which is not only substantial but a great improvement.

Mr. Benj. Hyser, near here, planted potatoes last spring in a patch of ground containing 792 square yards, on which he raised 29 bushels. He then planted corn in the same piece of ground, on which he raised a good crop; when he finished working the corn he sowed turnip seed and has taken up about 50 bushels of very large turnips, the largest weighing 5 pounds.

The weather the past two weeks has been quite cool and many think the cold will continue. There is a great deal of corn to husk yet.

Mayberry Items.

Most of our farmers have finished their corn husking, but a few still have a small amount of this work yet to do. The yield is reported as fairly good.

Mr. Joseph Wantz, who was quite ill, is now rapidly recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. Jacob Rinehart, of Frizellburg.

On Sunday evening, 9th inst., Rev. Mr. Still will preach in the Church of God at this place. He is to become our future pastor.

Capt. Rogers Birnie, of the United States Army, now located at Washington, D. C., has just spent a ten day's leave of absence with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Birnie, of Glenburn. He had a very pleasant time and enjoyed some good hunting during his visit. Capt. Birnie is the youngest son of his parents. He returned to Washington on Saturday last.

Last Sunday afternoon and evening the Sunday School at this place had very interesting exercises, which drew together large audiences. At the evening services, particularly, the Church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The exercises consisted of singing, recitations and speeches by the scholars, and addresses by Elder Saxton and Mr. Wesley Rodkey, all of which were admirable in character and manner. The exercises were under the supervision and management of Mr. N. L. Fleagle. The school now closes for the season.

Your correspondent is grieved to have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Wesley Feeser, which occurred on Sunday morning last. She had been ill about eleven weeks and for several weeks past no hope was entertained of her recovery. Her husband and four small children survive her. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. Mrs. Feeser's age was 33 years, 6 months and 2 days. Her remains were interred in the cemetery of the United Brethren Church, near Taneytown, on Monday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Weaver, of Littlestown, Pa., officiating, assisted by Rev. P. Lookingbill.

Porter's Items.

Services were conducted at Messiah Lutheran Church on Sunday last, November 2nd, by Rev. Mr. McGaughey. The subject of the discourse was "Christian Patience." There will be preaching by the pastor next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, when the subject will be "The History of the Reformation."

The Walnut Grove Musical and Literary Society met at the residence of Mr. R. C. McKinney on Tuesday evening, October 27th. Among the visitors present were Mrs. Anna J. Cullison of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess and family, Misses Carrie Fowble and Lula Brandenburg, and others. The program was as follows: Instrumental duet, "Bonnie Brae Waltz," by Misses Milly Bushey and Abbie McKinney; reading, "Too much Annie Rooney," by Miss Mattie Shoemaker; chorus, "Greeting Glee;" reading, "Country Boy," by Harry Bushey; duet, (vocal) "We are growing old together," by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hess; comedy, "The Bashful Young Man," by Misses Milly Bushey, Lillian Rawlings, Emma Condon, and Mr. Morley Farvour; chorus, "Juanita;" reading, "I like a Stingy Man," Miss Carrie Shoemaker; solo, "Love's Golden Dream," Miss Milly Bushey; violin solo, Mr. Cook; comedy, "Proposing by Proxy," by Mr. Clarence G. Wilson, Miss Milly Bushey, Mr. John S. Bushey, Mr. A. H. Wallace and Miss J. R. Ways; trio, "I am dying for some one to love me," by Misses Effie Hess, Abbie and Minnie McKinney; reading, "How I tended the baby," by Mr. A. H. Wallace; chorus, "Sweet Summer;" reading, "Queer Things," by Miss Minnie McKinney; duet, "Lovely Roses," by Misses Milly Bushey and Julia R. Ways; reading, "The Household Genius," by Miss Julia R. Ways; duet, "Walking in the Narrow Way," by Misses Annie and Dora Hess; chorus, "Evening Bells." At the close of the exercises refreshments were served and after a few hours of social enjoyment all dispersed to their homes after warmly thanking their host and hostess for their kind reception.

Union Bridge Items.

Hallow E'en was observed in Union Bridge by the festively inclined in rather an uproarious and reprehensible manner. One venturesome individual climbed the lightning rod of the Reformed church and struck the fire alarm on the bell of the church, the use of which is given for that purpose. The fire company responded promptly but could find no fire. The lightning rod and other church property were damaged to the extent of fifteen dollars. The perpetrator of the joke was captured and had the pleasure of paying a fine and costs for his prank, amounting to $3.30. The sum was raised by a collection taken up among the instagators of the proceeding. Porches and steps were removed from dwellings, signs from business houses, gates from yards and gardens, the street lamps were enclosed in barrels, wagons were hid, out houses overturned, and, in fact, all sorts of mischief that could be devised perpetrated by the thoughtless jokers, to the decided annoyance of the quietly disposed citizens.

The young ladies of the "Y" held what they called a phantom entertainment in the Town Hall on Hallow E'en, which was largely attended, the hall having been crowded to its utmost capacity by a delighted audience. The program included recitations, dialogues and music, and concluded with a phantom drill, in which the performers were clad in white sheets covering their entire persons from head to foot.

The Fire Company, at its meeting on Monday evening last, resolved to procure a bell for the Town Hall, to be used only for fire alarms and the purposes of the organization.

Topographical Survey.

Mr. A. E. Murlin, who, with a topographic party from the Geological Survey office at Washington, has been operating for sometime in the southern portion of this county, was in this city, on Monday, making preliminary observations. Mr. Murlin states that the party of whom he is in charge has reached the neighborhood of Shipley P. O., with its surveys, and work will now be suspended until next Spring, when it will be resumed and continued until the whole county shall have been surveyed and mapped. This work is being done by the Geological Survey office, which is connected with the Department of the Interior, and a complete topographical map, of minute character, is to be made, not only of Carroll county, but of the whole State, and, probably of all the States and Territories.

Bird Hill Itmes.

Mr. Noah Stocksdale has removed from our village into Mr. F. Gardner's house, near Sandyville.

Farmers are very busy husking corn, a good deal of which they find damaged by having been blown down before it was cut.

Mrs. James Bowers has gone to reside with her aunt in Beavertown, Pa., and Mr. Bowers will follow as soon as he can finish up the work he has on hand.

Mrs. Brown has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Mr. Emanuel Bowers has erected a new rat proof corn-crib. He says he is tired of the rats eating his corn and means to deprive them of their winter board.

Mrs. Wm. P. Baker raised in her garden, the past season, a red beet that weighs ten pounds. This extraordinary vegetable can be seen at Mr. A. T. Buckingham's store, by anybody who doubts this statement. Mrs. Baker got the seed from which the monster beet was raised from Samuel Willson's seed house, Bucks county, Pa. It is the kind of beat the Republicans will give the Democrats in '92.

The protracted meeting at Deer Park Chapel, under the charge of Rev. Wm. A. Crouse, the pastor, is still in progress. Mr. Crouse has preached with eloquence and power, but as yet there have been no penitents. Excellent order has been maintained and it must be said of our young people that they have a becoming reverence for the house of worship.

A little daughter of Mr. John Barber, who lives about a mile from this place, was so badly burned on Tuesday afternoon that death ensued shortly after the occurrence. The cause of the sad accident is only surmised. The little girl and two younger children were left in the house alone while Mrs. Barber was attending to some out-door duty. Mr. Barber was husking corn in a field near by. Hearing the children screaming they both rushed to the house, where the little girl was found with her clothing entirely burned from her person and her face, arms and body almost charred to a crisp by the flames. She lived only about an hour and a half. Partially burned sticks protruding from the stove indicated that the child had been playing with the fire, which was communicated to her clothing and quickly burnt out her young life. She was a very sweet and attractive child and great sympathy is felt for her parents in their great affliction.
