Dear Roamer

Two weddings of interest have been announced this week. One was that of Miss Alice Entrekin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reese Entrekin to Mr. Bergen Thomas Brown which took place on Friday, October 26, in Chestertown.

The other is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Frances E. Jarrell and Mr. John J. Teal of Philadelphia, Pa., which was solemnized on Saturday, October 27, at 1:30 P. M. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jarrell in Millington, Md., by the Rev. Caldwell.

The bride wore a gown of white satin brocade featuring a sweet heart neckline and embroidered with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was held by a pearl studded headdress. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Molly Burrell, of Earleville, the Maid of Honor, wore a rose taffeta gown with matching headdress and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

After an extended honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Teal will make their home in Philadelphia, Pa.

Franklin who expects to receive his honorable discharge in the near future, from the Army, will return to Cumberland, Md., where he will resume his position as health officer, in which capacity, he served in Kent Co., a number of years ago.

Mr. James E. Cooper, who for several weeks has been a patient at the Union Memorial Hospital, returned to Chestertown Sunday.

Now that Hallowe'en has passed, and we hope the "goblins didn't git ya," we greet November. November spells gloom-doom for turkeys, all of which, tho' sad for the gobler, is another reason for

Yours to be thankful,

Peterborough, N. H.—The American Guernsey Cattle Club announces the election of James T. Pine, Fairfield Farm, RFD, Still Pond, Md., to membership. Mr. Pine has a herd of registered Guernseys on his farm.

The American Guernsey Cattle Club is a national organization of 25,000 breeders of purebred Guernseys. It records the registrations of purebred Guernseys that trace to the Island of Guernsey, the original home of the breed, in the English Channel. It also supervises tests of production and through Golden Guernsey, Inc., supervises the marketing of Golden Guernsey milk.

Aerosol bombs that spread a fine fog of insecticide are good for killing flies, mosquitoes, and moths on the wing, but will not kill vermin in hiding spots nor eggs and larvae.

Many Uses

Not only does paint protect woodwork but it also protects metalwork from corrosion. Fire-escapes too would rust and become unsafe for use were it not for paint.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Keeping 'em Down on the farm

Rode out to the Jenkins farm the other day—and there was young Charlie Jenkins—two months out of uniform—driving a tractor as pretty as could be with his one good arm.

"I expect you find that pretty dull after piloting a bomber," I suggested.

Charlie gives me a wide, contented grin. "Dull?" he says. "All the time I was over Germany I dreamt of this—the smell of hay, and the hot sun on my back ... and comin' home to women's voices in the farmhouse, and home cookin', and a friendly glass of beer. No," he says dreamily, "not dull!"

From where I sit, that's how lots of returning veterans must feel. Yearning for excitement? No, just mighty glad to be back with the old familiar things, the day's work, the rewards of home, companionship, and simple pleasures like a friendly glass of beer. No ... not dull.

On the Council to represent the Eastern Shore are H. S. Leaverton, Chestertown and Henry L. Andrew, Easton.

Army Recruiting Office Here

The appearance of the Army recruiting poster picturing an American Infantryman "On Guard" throughout the world has alerted Americans to the fact that the Army Recruiting Program is now under way in the cities and counties of this nation.

In line with th eWar Department's recruiting program, a sub-district recruiting stations has been established in the McLane Building at Elkton to serve Cecil, Kent, and Harford Counties. Already a number of World War II veterans and new enlistees have volunteered for the regular Army. Increases are expected as demobilization progresses, thus requiring the induction of fewer selectees through local draft boards.

The Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act of October 6, 1945, provides many new and sensational benefits for the Regular Army soldier. Foremost among the provisions of the law is retirement with liberal pension after twenty years service, which includes any prior military service prior to enlistment now. Never before in the history of the American Army has such a liberal retirement provision been available to the American soldier. In addition, a bonus of $50.00 for each year of continous prior service will be paid the enlistee, furlough will be granted for prior service, mailing and allotment provisions have been extended, and facilities are being maintained within the Army for various means of extendng the applicant's education. Terms of enlistment are for one and one-half years, two years, or three years, with choice of branch of service and choice of theatre. Applicants must be at least seventeen years old and not over thirty-five years old.

Lt. John F. Barlow, representing the Elkton Recruiting Station will be at the Post Office, Chestertown from Thursday, November 1st through Saturday, November 3rd. Interested persons are invited to talk to Lt. Barlow concerning any phase of Regular Army Enlistment.

REINDOLLAR IS NAMED STATE ROADS HEAD

Annapolis, October 31—Robert M. Reindollar, Assistant Chief Engineer of the State Roads Commission for the past 16 years, tomorrow will assume the Chairmanship of the Commission, to which post he was named last week by Governor Herbert R. O'Conor. He succeeds Major Ezra B. Whitman, who leaves today because of ill health, after a service of 6½ years.

A "career man" in roadbuilding operations, Mr. Reindollar has been connected with the State Roads Commission for thirty-three years and has filled successive positions from that of office boy to his present post as Assistant Chief Engineer.

"The appointment of Mr. Reindollar is made solely on the basis of his demonstrated ability and experience in the roadbuilding field," Governor O'Conor said. "I consider him the best qualified man available for the appointment. In addition, he has a through knowledge of our State Highway Program and, as a consequence, there will be no interruption in carrying forward the various projects already determined upon.

"We now have immediately ahead of us the largest roadbuilding program ever to be undertaken in our State. Mr. Reindollar is familiar with all the details and, in fact, has played a large part in outlining the various projects. He is also well known to every member of the State Roads Commission organization and I am confident will secure the utmost cooperation throughout the various districts of the state.

"I am determined to give the people of Maryland the most extensive system of roads that can be construced. Mr. Reindollar will have my 100% backing in carrying out this program in an intensive manner."

A good way to use some of the plentiful cabbage crop this fall is to make sauerkraut. Kraut can be made in fruit jars as well as in larger amounts in crocks or barrels. For directions on making sauerkraut, residents of Maryland may write for a free copy of Extension Circular No. 142, "Home Drying, Salting, and Brining of Foods." Send a post card request to The Extension Service, University of Maryland, College Park, Md.

Farm Values Mount

The value of agricultural physical goods has increased from 49 to 74 billion dollars from 1940 to 1945, with an increase of 5 billion dollars during 1944 alone, says "The Balance Sheet of Agriculture," issued recently by the bureau of agricultural economics of the USDA. Increases in the valuation of physical assets are due mainly to higher prices, it is stated. Continued high farm income is the most significant factor in the balance sheet.

Painting Cover

The number of coats required when repainting a barn, or house, or other structure for that matter, depends upon the condition of the surface. Normally, in painting an entirely new surface, three coats — a primer and two coats of finishing material—are advocated by paint advisers. If the old paint is in good condition, free of loose, scaling or peeling paint, and clean and dry, two coats of the finishing material usually should be sufficient.
