The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Believe it or not, Decoration Day or Memorial Day is this; about to enter we are on the month of June, roses, commencements and weddings. Having slept under blankets many of these past nights, it does seem incredible but the fact remains.

Well, first of all in news I want to tell you of something I overlooked last week until after my letter had gone to press. The greatly beloved and genial Dr. Micou has returned to town after having spent the winter and early Spring with his nieces, the Misses Nicholsons, in Washington. Greetings and welcome home, Dr. Micou, for we missed you no end, even if we dn't get around to see you as often as we like.

This is the time of the year to come back to Chestertown, for it is as its loveliest now. So thought Mr. Horace Beck and Mrs. C. Beck Jones who have spent the past two months in the West. Returning with them to spend the summer is Mrs. Jone's niece, Emily Hamilton. With plenty of young girls her age in the community, she is due for a big summer.

Boys and girls of the adolescent age have a delightful time these days, and one of the recent entertainments given which sme thirty in number attended, was a dance given last Saturday evening by Miss Helen Westcott at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westcott. From all I hear, they had a "simply georgeous" time.

I believe I wrote you of the supper party which the Rolph Townshends were to give last Sunday night. After that also went to press, later plans arranged the party to be a combined one by the Townshends and the Tom Masseys which was held out at the latter's "new old" home, outside of town. It was a perfectly grand party, with little tables out on the lawn, and the tall shade trees giving a most peaceful and appropriate setting for such an affair.

Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll was hostess last weekend to her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Hiss, who, with her mother, Mrs. Dickinson, are returning to their home in Madison, Wis., from Florida. Other guests who visited Mrs. Ingersoll, included Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Callahan, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Josephine Knox, a professional diver, Miss Knox, who won the Silver Cup at the Century of Progress expedition, dives at Miami during the winter season and at Atlantic City during the summer season. Last Sunday she did some diving for her friends, but no boards were high enough for any thrilling exhibition. Mr. and Mrs. Eben Jenkins of Hyattsville, and Mr. Gilbert Ingersoll, of U. of Md., completed their mother's house-party.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Philadelphia, who are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck, will be guests of honor at a buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong this evening before the dance at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. The Memorial Day dance is always a nice one, and with good music predicted, a delightful evenig is in store for members and their guests.

Last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laidman, of Georgetown, entertained at a large dinner in honor of a number of house guests from New York.

William Dixon comes to-morrow to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon. Bill graduates next month from Gilman Country School, and incidentally is the President of his class. He wil bring with hm, Jack Webb, of Cambridge.

Mrs. Harrison Cooke and daughter, Anne Washington, of Elizabeth, N. J., will come to-day to spend some time with Mrs. A. T. H. Harper. Mr. Thos. Perkins will join his daughter at Mrs. Harper's over the week end, while Mr. Cooke will come over the week-ends during his wife's visit here.

Mr. James Bacchus, of New York, came yesterday, to spend the week endw with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus.

Additional week-end visitors over Decoration Day will be Mr. Frank Beck, of Baltimore, and Miss Trilla Goheen, of Pittsburgh, who will be guests of Mr. Beck's sister, Mrs. C. Beck Jones, and Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore who will visit Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones.

An engagement of much interest is about to break into print, which, if it startles you as much as it did me, you'd better get a chair handy. The wedding is supposed to take place in the fall, tho' the details thereof are still unknown. The lady in question has beautiful red hair, and spends her summers in Kent County, while the young man whose real home is here, has a position with the DuPont Co., in Wilmington.

That's a pretty good lead this time, so you won't wear yourself out guessing, will you?

Yours for a surprise,

THE WANDERER.

NOW AND THEN

Decoration Day, a day of Remembrance.

The poppies worn by people everywhere are in memory of the host of fallen, many of them in Flander's Field.

In Flanders Field

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still singing bravely fly,
Scarce heard amid and guns below.

We are the dead, Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Field.

John McCrae.

FIREMEN TO DISCUSS FINANCES WITH CITY COUNCIL

A committee of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company will meet with the Mayor and Council of Chestertown after the regular monthly meeting of the latter body Monday night for the purpose of discussing means of financing the fire company.

Every effort is being made by the fire company to find means of securing sufficient finances with out holding a carnival due to the fact that there is a strong local sentiment against a carnival on the park.

It has been suggested that a special tax be added to the present tax rate of 75 cents for the maintenance of the fire company but before such action can be taken there will probably have to be a special act of Legislative which would postpone action until next year.

The present charter of Chestertown empowers the Mayor and Council to equip and maintain an adequate fire company but provides no means of financing it. The charter limits the tax rate to 75 c which at the present time is being used entirely for maintenance, street and road construction and payment of bonded indebtedness and interest.

DID YOU KNOW?

BY C. COX HOPPER

DID YOU KNOW:

That Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner," was born near Pipe Creek, Frederick County, August 9, 1780, the son of John Ross Key and Phoebe Ann Dagworthy Penn Charlton Key, his wife. Frances Scott Key married, Jan'y. 19, 1802, Mary Tayloe Lloyd, daughter Hon. Col. Edward Lloyd, of "Wye Huse," Talbot County, and Elizabeth Tayloe of "Mount Airy," Richmond county, Virginia. Francis Scott Key and his wife for several years lived in Frederick Town, Maryland, but later lived in Georgetown, D. C., and afterward removed to Washington, D. C. He died in Baltimore, January 11, 1843, in the 64th year of his age, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Howard, whose residence stood on the spot now occupied by the handsome Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church. Key resided in Georgetown, D. C., at the time "The National Anthem" was written. An interesting account of Key by Chief Justice Roger Brooke Tawney, will be found in Vol. 2, Maryland Research Society, at the Maryland Historical Society.
