Two more picnics of school pupils that cannot be left out are the ones held by the Freshmen and the Sophomores. The former was the journey to Barry Harris's to hold theirs, and their eats were more than likely the same things that the Reflectory-Dragon's were. The latter crowd went to Margaret Groves's, and from all prospects, joy reigned high.

FLASHES FROM CHESTERTOWN HIGH

By EMORY M. HINES, JR.

In the high school and starting classes by eight o'clock! That's the new schedule for the last two weeks of school—we begin at eight A. M. and stop at twelve noon to avoid the heat, which incidentally we have had plenty of, and have the entire afternoon free to do whatever may be slated. For some that means studying for the Final Exams. The Seniors have, however, completed all of theirs, and the remaining students have only one or two more to take.

With all the swimmers that have been at the Country Club recently and who are students here, someone ought to suggest some sort of swimming meet. The water athletes would certainly not be hard to secure, and the sport would provide another activity to the physical education end of school. My suggestion is that a meet be held some afternoon as the collede did. copy will be completed early June 8th, and all the subscribers will receive Usilton rush madly to and fro to locate er previous ones.

The Atheltic Association's chicken salad supper appeared to be a gala success with many towns-people attending. Over one hundred and fifty were served and over fifty dollars was cleared. We needed the money to a large extent, and the associations take this time to thank you for your patronage. The two cakes raffled off were won by Bill Waddell and Hazel Gozman.

Announcements have at last been made by Bill Waddell, business manager of the DRAGON, that the yearbook is now going to press. The first copy wil be comvleted early June 8th, and all thes ubscribers will receive their copy by that date also. During this last week, while seeing Mr. Bill Usilton rush mady to and fro to locate Miss Riches, I succeeded in getting a glance at some of the proof. The print is certainly clean, and from all indications, the 1936 DRAGON is bound to be better and bigger than some othe pevious ones.

The two History Clubs composed of Juniors from 10A to 10C joined together last Friday to present the biggest program of the school year. This occasion has been the only time that both classes have been able to have a joint meeting, anh the aovantage was well taken care of. The reports were gased on important historical events that have happened in May and why we celebrate the numerious "set-aside-days" of that month. Among those that participated in the progrma were: Virginia Hague, Martha Wessell, Virginia Foley, Neal Truslow, Albert Foley, Emory Hines, and Joe Weer. To set a contrast at various intervals, a group of piano solos were played by class talent.

Important in the business side of the meeting was the fact that the secretary, Thomas Eliason, announced that the Club had pulled itself out of the "red" and that a balance of a few dollars was on hand to be left to next year's club. As usual, a History metal will be given to the bet Senior History student at graduation.

Another enjoyable event of note was the annual REFLECTOR-DRAGON Staff picnic which was held last Wednesday afternoon from two-thirty till five at Miss Nancy Price's farm just outside of Betterton. All those students who were on either of the publication's staff were invited, and more than thirty attended. A refreshing swim was the first order of the afternoon, after which supper was started. The menu, being entirely donated by various people, consisted of never-to-be-forgotten hot-dogs, rolls, sandwiches, marshmellows, and cake. The thunder storm hastened our departure a bit, but no one was heard to say that they didn't have a good time.
