The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Practically the whole week has been devoted to the commencement and entertaining of the fair graduate, whether he or she be from college or high school. So if you are weary of graduation news, just bear this week with me, and remember the day when enough couldn't be said when you donned your cap and gown. The Junior-Senior Prom of the Chestertown High School took place Tuesday night at the Country Club, with the Alumni dinner dance following on Wednesday night. It did me good to see their fresh young faces and the eager look of expectancy of the things to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stenger entertained at luncheon on Wednesday, the faculty of the High School and Bishop George W. Davenport, speaker at the commencement address in the morning.

Now to wander off from this theme, the subject of flowers and gardens next comes to mind. "Our Garden Club" was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Thomas Laidman, of Georgetown, on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. James Dorsey, of Baltimore, was the speaker and had as her topic "trees." Mrs. Dorsey brought a part of her valuable collection of bits of wood from historic homes, foreign countries and noted places. She impressed upon the members the value of trees, their hundreds of uses, and the plea to treat them as friends and to aid in their preservation in every possible way.

On Thursday, the Garden Club was entertained by the Sudlersville Garden Club by a tour of the gardens there, with supper following, at the home of Mrs. John Stokes.

Tuesday night, Mayor and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer entertained at a small dinner party at their home on Water street.

Mrs. Charles Comegys, formerly of Quaker Neck, is the guest of Mrs. H. Clay Brown. Miss Elizabeth Brown came yesterday to spend her summer vacation here, with her mother.

Miss Josephine Cockley, of Indiana, is the guest for two weeks of her aunt, Mrs. Nora Maxwell.

Mrs. Dorsey Hines left on Thursday to attend the class reunion at Smith College, of which she is a graduate. Before returning to Chestertown, Mrs. Hines will also visit friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bringman entertained at a dance last Friday evening at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club in honor of their daughter, Miss Kitty Bringman.

A surprise party was given on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Eleanor Barwick at the home of Mrs. Josephine Yackle.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Leaverage entertained at a birthday party on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Leaverage's young sister, Miss June Maslin.

Last week end, the town was filled with out-of-town guests, many attending the Washington College Alumni reunion, and others, who just happened to be visitors. Therefore, I am not going to try to mention all of them. President Harry Clifton Byrd, of the University of Maryland, his daughter, and a friend, were houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines; Miss Anne Boardman, of Baltimore, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins, Jr.; Miss Grace Nickerson, of Baltimore, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Nickerson; Miss Susie Frazier, of Washington; Mrs. Florence Fowler, of Elkton, guest of her sister, Mrs. Mamie Walters; Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, of Washington, D. C., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Blizzard and son, guests of Mrs. Ella S. Crow.

This week-end, Mrs. Guy M. Stone, of Pittsfield, Mass., will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, before going to Ocean City where she will spend the remainder of the month.

Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, of Washington, is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton.

Mrs. William F. Russell, Sr., will move to Salisbury, Md., shortly, where she has purchased the home formerly owned by Mrs. Minnie Ringgold.

Mrs. Alice Derringer is visiting her brother, Dr. Harry Hurtt, in Washington, D. C. She is recuperating from a recent operation performed in that city.

Mr. David McMenamin, of Wilmington, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Amy McMenamin for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne, with their family are opening to-day, their home at Fox Point for the summer months.

Mrs. Morris Barroll and son, Waldo, are visiting Mrs. Barroll's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newcomer at their summer residence at Gibson Island.

Mrs. W. Barnard Jones and two children, Emily Louise and Barnard, Jr., of Atlanta, Georgia, are guests of the former's parents, Mr and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell.

So with yachting, boating, golfing and swimming starting in full swing, let joy be unconfined.

Yours for fun,

THE WANDERER.

LOCAL DOGS WIN AT EASTON SHOW

(COMMUNICATED)

I have been unable to get an accurate list of local winners at the Easton show, but will give you the best I can. I think Mrs. Hugh Branhan did well with her cockers, winning 1st and 2nd, in their classes. Unfortunately Mrs. Whaley was unable to get her Bloodhound entries in but I am sure she would have done well. Mrs. Kellog Smith made a nice win with her cocker. I placed one of Frank Skirven's setters 3rd in the novice class. The beagles I had went best of winners, best beagle in show and 2nd in the sporting group. I had the best scottie in show with Walsing Weathercock and also 4th in the terrier group. My Cane and bull dog placed 1st in their respective classes, and the Boston Terriers also made some fine wins. I would have liked to seen more local dogs there but all inall it was a nice local show.

DR. BEACHLEY ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

Dr. R. G. Beachley, County Health Officer was the principal speaker at the Monday dinner meeting of the Chestertown Rotary Club. He talked on preventible disease and those which at the present time are uncontrollable.

He advocated that health authorities devote their efforts of experimentation to those diseases which at the present times are uncontrollable, such as cancer, heart disease, etc. He advised those present to go to a doctor once a year for a thorough examination so that if ailments are discovered they may be corrected or controlled.
