The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Here I am back with you again, maybe you're glad or maybe you're sorry, but if the latter be the case, just turn right on over to the next page and I'll never know the difference.

Well, I suppose by now, all your lunch for tomorrow is in preparation, fire-crackers bundled together, and the usual 4th of July day is close at hand. Probably since 1776 people have been going on picnics and shooting off fireworks as regularly as Santa Claus climbs down chimneys on December 25th. Out at the Country Club, we're to have a picnic supper, eating down on the banks of the famous Chester River, with an informal dance following at the Club house. If we have as much fun this year, as last, it ought to be a very good party. Here's hoping.

Texas is represented here this week, by two residents from there honoring us as their guests, Miss Dorothy Quarles, of Houston, is visiting Miss Elizabeth Brown for a few weeks. Last Sunday evening, Miss Quarles was the guest of honor at a delightful buffet supper given by Miss Brown. The small tables were set on the lawn over looking the river, which setting, added to the occasion an unusual sense of enjoyment.

The other Texan in our community is Mr. Joseph Wickes, who is visiting his mother, Mrs. Gladys Wickes at the old Wickes home on High Street.

Mrs. Robert D. Wilson entertained at the first of two bridge-luncheons on Wednesday at her summer home, Fox Point. The second will be given next Wednesday.

Last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Armstrong, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines at Riverside.

Mr. James Bacchus, of New York, was listed among the out-of-town guests over last week-end also. To-day, he and his mother, Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, leave for a trip to the coast of Maine, where they will spend several weeks. Mrs. Norris Harrison who has been spending several weeks in Maine has joined her family at their summer home, Land End's Farm.

On Thursday, Miss Leonore Harris Springer, of Baltimore, and Miss Charlotte Jane Curry, accompanied by her father, Mr. Hal Curry, of New York, came to visit Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines. The two young ladies will remain throughout the summer as the guests of their uncle and aunt.

Dr. Esther M. Dole, of the faculty of Washington College, has left for Alfred University in New York State, where she will teach summer school.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Beachley and Miss Eleanor Beachley left on Tuesday for Abington, Va., where they will make their future home.

A perforamnce, "The Wedding" was given on Tuesday afternoon by members of the very youngest set. Tickets were sold at the price of 1 cent with the proceeds of $2 going toward the Mile of Pennies drive of the hospital. Dolls were dressed to represent the bride, groom, maids, and clergy, having as their spokesmen the little girls in charge, consisting of Anne Wilmer, Jane Kibler, Frances and Peggy Metcalfe and Nancy Clark Humphreys, the latter, performing a dance following the wedding. The wedding march itself was caroled by them as well. The scene of the affair was on the lawn in back of the Wilmer-Kibler homes. Many attended to applaud the dramatic performance.

Mr. Eric Wood, of New York and Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, of Washington, will be holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton. Mr. Wood will spend a week's vacation here.

Mrs. Robert Thomas, her two children and her mother, Mrs. William Beck arrived on Thursday to spend the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have rented the Russell home on Front St. Mr. Thomas and Miss Ellen Beck will come to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harris will leave on Sunday, July 12, for a western tour. While in California they wil spend a week in Los Angeles visiting Mrs. Allan B. Harris and her two two sons, who now reside there.

Miss Bessie Dixon, daughter of Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon, sails for Europe at midnight on Tuesday from New York. Her brother, Mr. Bill Dixon will drive her to that city and issue Bon Voyage for the family.

On Thursday, Mrs. Tilden Brice, Mrs. Belt Townshend, and Mrs. Raymond Humphries with her two daughters, left for a motor trip to North Carolina. Mrs. Humphries and the girls will remain visiting near Hendersonville for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wood and son, of Baltimore, come today to spend ten days in Chestertown. While here, they will stay at the home of the Misses Welch on Maple Ave.

Mrs. Charles Mead, of Washington, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mead at their home on Washington Ave.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. William Jones left last week end for Atlantic City remaining there for about a week.

Miss Anna Harris, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Norman Cooper on Washington Ave.

Miss Esta V. Harrison left this week for Springfield, Missouri, where she will spend the summer months.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Shinn, of St. Michaels, and Mrs. William Smith, of Camden, N. J., were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Holt Wright this week.

The time is drawing close when needs be this letter must be brought to an end. The press is calling.

So with a bing, bang,, boom, hip-hooray for the glorious 4th.

Yours celebrating.
THE WANDERER.

POSTER—WILLIAMS WEDDING

Last Saturday evening, June 27th, 1936, at eight o'clock, Miss Laura Porter, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Hogans, of Rock Hall, and Leo Anthony Williams, son of Fred Williams, were united in marriage by the Rev. C. J. Conway at the rectory in Chestertown. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hogans. The young couple are at home to their friends at the home of the bride's mother and step-father.

The groom is engaged in the automobile business at Rock Hall.

VISITING AT GALENA

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appel and two children, Katheyn and Harold, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests at the home of the latter's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Betz. Miss Phyllis Haley, of Galena, spent the week end with her cousin, Miss Marjory Haley.

Miss Mabel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith, is recuperating from an operation for the removal of appendix at the Kent and Queen Anne's General Hospital on Tuesday of this week.

SERVICE OFFICER HERE JULY 17

According to information received this week Mr. Thomas B. Edwards State Veterans Service Officer will be in Chestertown on Wednesday and Thursday, July 17th and 18th for the purpose of assisting veterans with State and National claims.

DID YOU KNOW:

That "the Kent Bugle," Chestertown, August 14, 1835, carried the following 'An Appeal."

To the people of the Old State (Maryland) particularly. Among the many wagons conveying movers to the West which daily pass through this town (Wheeling' was one on Tuesday attended by thirty-five persons, twenty six of whom were on upon it, the others followed on foot.

There were five families from the Western Shore of Maryland who had united in chartering a single wagon, the upper loading of which was bedding piled to the height of 12 feet from the ground, on the top of which twenty-six women and children were perched. On the next day four families four families containing 29 persons with a single wagon followed from the neighborhood.

This copied from the Wheeling Gazette will give some idea of the desperate conditions under which Maryland pioneers journeyed in the opening of America's western territory.

STUNNED BY CHARGED WIRE FENCE

A farmer was knocked unconscious and his wife in Harford County were stunned last week by barbed wire charged with electricity from a broken power line. Three cows were killed also when they came in contact with the fence.

The high tension wire sent a terrific number of volts coursing through the fence that enclosed a pasture on the farm of Mr. Robert Choate, near Dublin. It was reported that friction from tree limbs apparently caused the wire to break.

Leaving his tenant house, Reeves McCann saw a cow walk up to the fence, touch it with her nose and fall over dead. Two others died later in a similar manner.

Going to investigate, Mr. McCann started to crawl through the lower strands of the fence. The current knocked him unconscious, threw him to the ground and seared the grass around his feet and body.

Mrs. McCann seeing this from a distance, ran to the aid of her husband and knocked him from the fence and was badly knocked when she did so.

SAYS COSMETICS ARE NECESSITY

A report of the legislature committee delivered by A. A. M. Dewing of Centreville proved to be the unexpected high light of the annual convention of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Association at the Lord Baltimore hotel on Thursday and Friday in the course of which Mr. Dewing scored the present tax on cosmetics as a tax on a necessity rather than a luxury. The tax is part of the special levy for relief and old age pensions.

Speaking for the committee Mr. Dewing said that lawmakers must be made to visualize that cosmetics are as essential as clothes to the American housewife and the working girl in their struggle for social and economic security.

Cosmetics, he added, are necessary because our high standards of living make cleanly and well-groomed appearance imperative to woman's self-preservation in this highly competitive world.

He will no doubt have the ladies with him on this argument which is o strong factor behind any move.

AND LOTS OF IT

Mother (to son wandering around room): 'What are you looking for?'
Son: 'Nothing.'
Mother: 'You'll find it in the box where the candy was.'

LUCKY

First Novice Pilot (in a tailspin): 'Say, just look at the earth, will you?'
Second N. P. (looking over side): 'Boy, we're lucky we left it when we did. It sure is acting queer.'
