The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

Just about now I am reminded of a child's song about a train that ran along something in this vain:

Chuff, chuff, now the train is going
Faster, faster, hear the whistle blowing, ding dong, bell.

Then the second verse, came along with:

Chuff, chuff, now the train is stopping,
Slower, slower, now the gates are dropping, ding, dong bell.

As simple as it is, it nicely describes August and the days following Labor Day for after Monday, oh me, oh my, what a change there's going to be in those wheels. It hardly seems possible that we have covered the summer, and at such a terrific pace, but 'them's facts.'

Well, about twelve hours too late for you last week, I learned of an engagement over which you will be delighted, and without any more stalling here 'tis: Mrs. C. B. Quarles, of Houston, Texas has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Quarles to no other than Dr. Alexander Colclough Dick! Miss Quarles who visited Miss Elizabeth Brown all of July, and was much entertained during her visit here, has made many friends, and will be heartily welcomed to the community when she returns as the bride of our popular young surgeon. The wedding, I understand is to be in the Fall, but that's enough for one day, isn't it? Such a whirlwind courtship behooves some of our other bachelors to step a little faster.

On Tuesday, Misses Peggy and Patsy Wilson entertained the younger crowd of girls at a bridge-luncheon, while the other party that day was the one I mentioned last week—a luncheon-bridge given by Mrs. Brown Metcalfe and Mrs. Rolph Townshend. Wednesday came along holding two more, a luncheon by Miss Harriett Lousia Rogers for the younger set and a luncheon bridge given by Mrs. R. N. Whaley at her home, Stratford.

The Barn Dance held for the benefit of the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital attracted a large number of people. The barn was artistically decorated, the music good and all seemed to be enjoying the novelty of the affair.

In comparison with what I've been writing these past few weeks that amount of entertaining seems very little, but like the little song it's getting slower, slower each day now.

Summer visitors are returning one by one, and those of us who've been vacationing are singing the Home Sweet Home tune. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller who have been spent a great part of the summer in Europe are expected at Hinchingham over the week-end, having landed in New York yesterday.

Mr. Stephen Crane, of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker. Mr. Crane who is an interior decorator, and an authority on various forms of art and flowers will be the guest speaker at the September meeting, on Tuesday, of Our Garden Club which will be held at the home of Mrs. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Steele, of Old Hickory, Tenn., are guests of Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull and Mr. Harvey Tull, of Philadelphia, will be guests over the week-end and Labor Day of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Miss Martha Ireland, of Haddon Heights, N. J., has been the guest all of this week of her aunt, Miss May Ireland.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kenly moved this week into their new home in the Wickes' Apartments.

Mr. Bill McCullough, son of Mrs. J. S. W. Jones left this week to visit his grand-parents in Indiana.

Mr. Vannort Simpers has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Simpers, here, after having been the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Chapman, 3rd, a great part of the summer.

Mr. Horace Beck has returned from a visit to Baltimore where he spent several days.

Miss Priscilla Grainger will enter Beacon Business oCllege in Wilmington this coming week.

Miss Marie Bryan has returned from her vacation, and will reside at the home of Miss Minnie Massey for the winter.

Mrs. Robert Wood, who has been living in Porto Rico for the the past year, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Henry Kratzer for the month of September.

As Labor Day looms up red on my calendar, it's red light says stop—no more work to-day, and as I believe in signs, here's the end.

Yours resting,
THE WANDERER

STILL UNSOLVED

Slowly, with a menacing look in his eyes, the bulldog approached the two street musicians.

The men looked at him out of the corners of their eyes and then slowly

'Yes, that's all very well,' said Bill with a doubtful grimace. 'But if it don't do the trick, where'll I get the wind net; perhaps it'll frighten 'im away.' banjo, suddenly, 'blow 'ard on your cor-edged away.

'I say, Bill,' said the man with the to run away with?' Boston Herald.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

B. R. FELLOWS,
Funeral Director.
