Ground Bone as a Fertilizer.

At the New Jersey station the fertilizer work of the present year included an analysis of thirty-one samples of ground bone, seven of dissolved bone and four of superphosphates with potash. Ground bone is both a phosphatic and nitrogenous fertilizer. It is insoluble in water, but is readily decomposed by the action of the soil, and furnishes amounts of nitrogen and phosphoric acid to the crop from year to year in proportion to the fineness to which it is ground. It is less liable to adulteration than mixed fertilizers, and varies in composition between reasonably narrow limits.

What is termed raw or unboiled bone is perhaps the purest, though not always the best, in agricultural value, as the fat prevents the full effect of the agencies in the soil which cause the decay necessary before the nitrogen and phosphoric acid can serve as food for plants. The nitrogen in boiled or steamed bones is often very low, while the phosphoric acid is correspondingly high. This is owing to the extraction of the nitrogen along with the fat.

To determine the value of bones, says Mr. Voorhees, the chemist, both the amount of nitrogen and phosphoric acid and the degree of fineness are taken into consideration. The finer pure bones are ground the more valuable they are, provided the whole of the bone is used to secure the fineness. A mechanical analysis of a sample of ground bone consists in dividing it by a system of sieves into four grades, each grade having a different value for the phosphoric acid and nitrogen. The average cost per pound of these elements with regard to fineness is stated at 12.5 cents for nitrogen and 5.4 cents for phosphoric acid, while that of the finest is 15.4 and 6.8 cents respectively.

Admirable Porter had a Chinese servant who acted as his butler and who announced the guests all right until the end of the reception, when the gas collector arrived. When Ching Yan opened the door the man handed him a strip of yellow paper. Yellow is the imperial color of China, and a gas bill looks not unlike a Chinese visiting card. The admiral's Chinese butler bowed low as he saw it, and, laying the bill reverently upon his silver plate, he motioned the gas man to follow him and ushered him into the presence of the ladies.

The most complex of all the animal tissues is the brain. The fibers in one single optic nerve have been counted under a microscope to the number of about 300,000. When you consider that the brain is largely made up of fibers you see how vast this number becomes. So with regard to cells; they are countless. No method of science has been able to count the cells in a single square quarter of an inch of the outside covering of the brain.

Seeing that there was no man present to pass the plate in a Brooklyn church the other day a stylish dressed young woman, with pink in her cheeks, volunteered to do it. Her success surprised her. Coin fell thick and fast and crisp bills fluttered like leaves from every quarter. Among the pews where queer old ladies in funny bead bonnets and silk mits say their prayers half a dozen blessings were spoken on her curly head

A London merchant rejoices because he tried music as a medicine. His boy, six years old, was dying with typhoid, and was quite insensible with no appearance of being able to live through the night. Knowing his son's fondness for music the father procured a large music box, and caused it to play, with the result that the child's attention was aroused and his life saved by the reaction.

It has been demonstrated beyond cavil that when fed with nitrogenous foods—clover-hay, cow peas, wheat-bran, oilcake, cottonseed meal, etc.—corn fodder has a feeding value equal to 90 per cent. of the same weight of timothy hay. If timothy hay is worth $10 per ton, it is safe to say that every year there is wasted in this country corn fodder of the value of $500,000,000.

A remarkable fact has been conclusively demonstrated in regard to beet culture in Germany, that the longer the variety of beet root the smaller the percentage of sugar have the smaller roots. A poor crop, as it might be called, provided it is of a variety naturally with small roots, does not indicate a poor crop of sugar.

In the manufacture of gold thread for embroidery a cylinder of silver is covered with gold and afterwards drawn out into wire. In this way six ounces of gold have been made to yield over 200 miles of gilt wire.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly has never failed to justify its title as a "Journal of Civilization," and it has done so with a constant regard to enlarged possibilities of usefulness and a higher standard of artistic and literary excellence. It leaves untouched no important phase of the world's progress, and presents a record, equally trustworthy and interesting, of the notable events, persons, and achievements of our time.

Special supplements will be continued in 1891. They will be literary, scientific, artistic, historical, critical, typographical, or descriptive, as occasion may demand, and will continue to deserve the hearty commendation which has been bestowed on past issues by the press and the public. As a family journal, Harper's Weekly will, as heretofore, be edited with a strict regard for the qualities that make it a safe and welcome visitor to every home.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Bazar is a journal for the home. Giving the latest information with regard to the Fashions, its numerous illustrations, fashion-plates, and pattern-sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modiste. No expense is spared in making its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its clever short stories, parlor plays, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. During 1891 Agnes B. Ormsbee will write a series of articles on "The House Comfortable," Juliet Corson will treat of "Sanitary Living," and an interesting succession of papers on "Woman in Art and History," superbly illustrated, will be furnished by Theodore Child. The serial stories will be by Walter Besant and Thomas Hardy.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

ILLUSTRATED.

The important series of papers on South America, by Theodore Child, will be continued in Harper's Magazine during the greater part of the year 1891. The articles on Southern California, by Charles Dudley Warner, will also be continued. Among other noteworthy attractions will be a novel by Charles Egbert Craddock; a collection of original drawings by W. M. Thackeray, now published for the first time; a novel written and illustrated by Geo. du Maurier; a novelette by William Dean Howells; and a series of papers on London by Walter Besant.

In the number and variety of illustrated papers and other articles on subjects of timely interest, as well as in the unrivalled character of its short stories, poems, etc., Harper's Magazine will continue to maintain that standard of excellence for which it has been so long distinguished.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.

50th YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

The queen of the ladies' monthlies enlarged and greatly improved, making it more desirable than ever, and keeping it in the lead of the Ladies' Magazines.

It's fiction is strong and clean. Some of the best known American writers contribute to its pages, among them Edgar Fawcett, Frank Lee Benedict, Howard Seeley, Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, Rebecca Harding Davis, Miss M. G. McClelland, Alice Bowman, and Minna Irving.

Historical and Biographical Sketches, with numerous and appropriate illustrations, printed on fine paper, will be given monthly.

In the Fashion department, we aim to combine beauty and utility. The newest and prettiest styles of costume are given with full descriptions, also a monthly dress-pattern sheet. As a fashion magazine, "Peterson" is universally pronounced as far in the lead of all others.

Numerous designs for needle-work, embroidery, knitting, painting, &c., with designs printed in colors. Articles on the management of the sick, by a trained nurse, household and garden hints, recipes for cooking and interesting articles on various topics, are given monthly.

The aim of the publishers is to give such variety of contents as will both interest and instruct its readers, and make it a helpful companion of every woman.

Terms: $2.00 per year with large reduction to clubs, and handsome premiums for getting them up.

A sample copy, with full particulars, will be sent for 5 cents.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The Tariff and the Farmer.

The Tribune will devote much space during 1891 to the Tariff as it affects the Farmer and the Mechanic.

Hon. Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, has been added to the Tribune's staff of Tariff writers for this purpose. He will, through the columns of The Tribune, devote himself to this topic, and will invite and answer questions upon points which perplex the American Farmer and Mechanic. He will also, so far as other duties will allow, attend Farmers' Institutes and agricultural gatherings the coming winter and spring, and expound the principles of the Tariff.

Those who desire the presence of Mr. Horr at Farmers' Institutes, etc., are invited to communicate promptly with The Tribune.

Young Men Who Wish to Succeed.

Many a man feels the lack of early direction of his energies and early inculcation of the maxims which promote the formation of character and success in after life. Every such man would gladly see the young men of to-day better guided in youth than he was. The Tribune has planned the following series of valuable articles, which will appear in this paper only:

"What shall I Do?" By S. S. Packard, President of Packard's Business College.

"Suggestions for the Boys on the Farm who are Ambitious." By the Hon. J. H. Brigham, of Delta, Ohio, Master of the National Grange.

"Education without the Help of a College." By President C. K Adams, of Cornell University.

A Continuation of "How to Win Fortune." By Andrew Carnegie, whose remarkable article of last Spring was so full of encouragement to poor men.

"Multiplicity of Paying Occupations in the United States." By the Hon. Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of the Department of Labor.

"A Talk with American Boys." By P. T. Barnum, of Bridgeport, Conn., the great American showman, temperance lecturer, traveler and writer.

"Examples in the History of our own Country. By Gen A. S. Webb, the gallant soldier of Gettysburg and Spottsylvania and College president.

"Importance of Good Manners." The views of Ward McAllister.

"A College Education good for all; what is best for those who cannot get it" By President William Pepper, University of Pennsylvania.

The Tribune will print from week to week, well-considered answers to any questions which young men or women, in any part of the country, may ask.

Vital Topics of the Day.

"Present Needs and Future Scope of American Agriculture." By the Hon. Jeremiah Rusk

"Proper Function of the Minority in Legislation." By the Hon. Julius C. Burrows, Kalamazoo.

"Village Improvement Associations, their practicability in Rural Districts, with the story of certain Model Villages." By the Hon. B. G. Northrop, of Clinton, Conn.

"Principle in Politics and the Virtue of Courage." By the Hon. James S. Clarkson, of Iowa.

"Influences of the Labor Movement upon Human Progress." By Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor.

"America's Suburban and Rural Homes." By George Palisser, of New York.

"Glaciers of the United States." By Professor Israel C. Russell, of the United States Geological Survey and explorer of Alaska.

Other Features.

During 1891 The Tribune will print a valuable series of articles, written by its own traveling correspondent, on the agriculture of the United States, with explanation of a large number of model farms.

A special correspondent, a practical farmer, is now in France, visiting the farms and farm-buildings of that thriftiest of the agricultural nations of the world. He will report upon the dairy, grain, stock and other branches of French farming in illustrated articles.

Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, President of the Woman's Relief Corps, will contribute a column of notes and news to The Tribune's G. A. R. page, every week.

Admirable letters of travel in the Southern States, illustrated with pictures, will be printed, describing the South as it exists to-day

All the regular features will be continued.

The Home Circle columns will be varied by frequent illustrated articles on home decoration, fashions and other objects of intense interest to women. Written principally for people with little money.

Mrs. Bayard Taylor, the widow of Bayard Taylor, will write articles on Cookery. She is a remarkable housekeeper, with a scientific as well as practical knowledge of her subject.

Steinitz, the great chess champion of the world, will supply a column a week on the greatest and purest of all the games of the home.

Foreign letters, good stories, the news of the day, the best of market reports, book reviews and literary news, witty jokes, etc., etc.

The Tribune is printed in large type and broad columns, and is the easiest paper to read in the country.
