THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Drip, drip drip—and pitter, pitter patter, the echo of the week's chronicle. At least, I can't rave about the heat, and that's a help. However, visitors come and go, and parties continue, rain or no rain, for all of which I am duly thankful. If this column must be written, the more news available, the less pencils I chew, while compiling the items at hand.

As usual, suppose I start with the parties. Beginning the week, Miss Dorothy Vickers and her brother, Mr. Harrison W. Vickers, 3rd, were hosts last Sunday evening at a picnic supper held at the old Vickers estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard entertained at a dinner party on Monday evening in honor of their grand daughter, Miss Patricia Morris of Washington, D. C., who has been their guest.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend and Miss Doris Nichols, her sister who is making an extended visit here, entertained at luncheon Wednesday in honor of Dr. Eleanor McCoy, of Easton.

On Thursday, Mrs. G. Howard Dana entertained a number of guests at a luncheon, given at her home on Washington Ave.

Miss Ann Pippin was honor guest at a surprise birthday party given to her by friends last Friday evening.

Last night another Junior Dance was held at the Country Club for the younger members of the Club and their guests. These dances have proved most successful and seemed to be enjoyed no end by the sub-deb crowd. The last one of the summer season will be held September 10.

Mr. Jack Whitworth and the Misses Whitworth entertained at a buffet supper prior to the Junior Dance, last evening.

Now comes the time of the year when plans are being made for the coming Fall and Winter. Those who have graduated will seek new environments, those who have never been away to school will launch upon their own, and many will return to the schools of the past year. Mr. William Atwater leaves Monday for Sucora, New Mexico, to enter the New Mexico School of Mines.

Campers are returning and altogether, the aspects of Fall are taking form. Miss Elizabeth Brown and Miss Betty Beck returned Thursday from Ely, Vermont, where they have been since June, as counsellor and student respectively.

The Mead boys Gilbert and Frances have returned from camp, while John who has been on a trip to South America arrived home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler and little daughter, Jane, left by motor for Plattsburg, N. Y., on Wednesday and will return after the week-end with their son, Jack, who has been at Major Lambert's camp, there, now an extension of Camp Red Cloud.

Mrs. William B. Usilton, 3rd, who has been the guest of her parents in California since early in June is expected to return to Chestertown on September 3.

Prof. and Mrs. Louis C. Robinson spent part of the week at the Blue Ridge Mountains, Pen Mar, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown have returned from a motor trip covering a tour of the New England States, having gone as far North as Portland, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Clarke Davis, are spending the week touring in Montreal, Canada, and the New England States.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. William Jones left Wednesday on a motor trip to the Maine coast and along the shores of the Bay of Fundy. Included in their itinerary is Portland, Bar Harbor, St. John, Halifax and the Evangeline country.

Miss Clara Biddle, Mrs. Edward Greenwood have gone to Cleveland, Ohio, where they are attending the Great Lakes expostion.

Mrs. Clark Grieb and her daughter, Miss Marian Grieb are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts at their summer home in Eagles Mere, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jarman, both well-known here, Mrs. Jarman being the former Miss Martha Trew, will sail on Thursday for an extended tour in Europe.

Mrs. T. Hynson Beck and Miss Hermione Riches have been spending several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woodward in Centreville.

Mrs. Emerson R. Russell is spending sometime at the home of her parents in Baltimore.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Hughes have been visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Little Janet Vinyard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vinyard, has been visiting her great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Vinyard, at Houston, Del.

Mr. Melvin Leonard and Mr. Charles Clift have been spending several days in Norfolk with relatives of the former.

Naturally as the Summer swings along, travel slows up. But the town has been gay with guests and from all reports it looks as if we're going to be booked until the middle of September.

Last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carpenter, of New York, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hnes. Today, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Detwiler, of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrive, to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hines until after Labor Day.

Misses Mary Woodland and Elizabeth Westcott are entertaining a house paryt of young people over this week-end at their summer home Marsh Point Camp on the Sassafrass River. They included Miss Ann Cameron of Worton Point; Miss Sophie Scott Schaffer and Charles Martin Schaffer, of Westfield, N. J.; Bill and Francis Bratton of Elkton, Joe McLain, of Baltimore and Bill Dering, of Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, formerly, of St. Louis, were guests this week of Mr. Horace Beck and Mrs. C. Beck Jones. Miss Comfort Vegley, of St. Louis, who was delayed in reaching here last week, came on Thursday to visit Mrs. Jones for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sknner and daughter, Miss Ellen Skinner, of Bronxville, N. Y., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thos. Kibler, having come on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Springer, of Baltimore, have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory at their home in Broad Neck.

Miss Helen Simpers who has been spending part of her vacation as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elias Nuttle at her summer cottage at Rehobeth Beach, is now the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Simpers.

Mrs. Charles Perkins has returned from Washington, and is a guest of Mrs R. H. Collins, Sr.

Mr. Warren Barker, of Baltimore, visited friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy Woodland and children, of Marion, have been the guests of her mother, Mrs. Horace Reed, the past week.

Mrs. Merle Goss, and children, of Virginia, have been visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. Phillip Sewell, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. William McIntire, and the latter's father, Mr. Deale, of Washington, D. C., were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Rosa O. Howard last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. D. Wilkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bennett and daughter, Eleanor, of Baltimore have been guests of Mr. John W. Barnes.

Mr. A. Parks Rasin, of Washington, spent the week end at his home on Kent Circle here.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sheats, of Washington, D. C., were guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. Vernon Barnett several days last week. After leaving Chestertown they toured through the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, going by the Skyline drive.

Mr. William T. Smith and youngest daughter, of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of Mrs. Belle P. Smith here and will be joined tomorrow by Mrs. Smith and their older daughter, who have been visiting in Salisbury, following a stay at Ocean City.

Mrs. Earle Gitt, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Frank Clark here. She was returning from a vsiit at Ocean City.

But now, day is done, shadows fall and man works no more. So I lay me down to sleep with my pen at rest.

Yours for slumber,

THE WANDERER

New Telephone Cable Conveys Many Voices

A human voice recently traveled 3,800 miles before being heard, though the cable was only ninety-four and one-half miles long, extending from New York City to Philadelphia. This was equal to twenty round trips and took less time than it does to say "Jack Robinson." The trips were made most of the way by underground tubes, which are only about the size of an ordinary lead pencil. The occasion was the first public test of what some observers called, "the latest miracle of electrical communication," the coaxial cable.

The two tiny copper tubes in the coaxial cable provide up to 240 two-way talking circuits. Telephone engineers say that ultimately as many simultaneous voice messages may pass through such pairs of tubes as now go through an ordinary telephone toll cable the size of a man's arm.

The new cable named from its form of construction, contains instead of the huge bundle of paper insulated wires, a pair of copper tubes. Within each tube is a wire held centrally by thin discs of hard rubber spaced along the wire.

Many problems, the engineers explained, must be met before coaxial systems will be ready for general use. The final systems must have such refinements as to be suitable for the long transcontinental distances. Noise and crosstalk must not accumulate, and finally the amplifiers must be so reliable that continuity of service will be assured even with hundreds of repeaters in operation and each repeater handling different communications.

Sydney, Australia . . . Telephone calls made throughout the commonwealth of Australia during the last fiscal year reached a total of 36,000,000, a new record exceeding the previous high established in 1930 by about 653,000. Last year's calls represented an increase of 10 per cent over the number reported at the close of 1935. Australia has been connected with the United States by telephone since October 27, 1930. Additional trunk lines have been constructed between Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane and Adelaide, with the result that plans for the current year include the installation of additional circuits between Melbourne and Sydney, bringing the total number in operation to fifteen, according to U. S. Trade Commissioner E. Souira.

Dog-Gone Tired?

For weeks on end, a million little voices all over that body of yours, begging you to lie down and rest?

You haven't been treading the light fantastic into the wee small hours, either!

Well, it's time to visit your good friend, the doctor. Unexplainable fatigue is an early sign of tuberculosis.

Remember, there's a way of solving the mystery.

TOMATO PRICE INCREASING

Due to the rainy spell this week the price of tomatoes on the local market this week jumped from 15 cents a basket to 19c.

Local canneres are paying 20 cents a basket for tomatoes on a limited acreage. The crop in Kent County is expected to be almost a complete failure due to wet weather and low price. The crop on the entire shore is reported to be only fifty percent of normal but growing conditions in other States are reported to be better so as to take care of the supply.
