TOLCHESTER BOAT TO START FERRY SERVICE TODAY

$1.50 Charge For Automobiles Effective On Two Round Trips Daily

The Tolchester ferry, scheduled to start operation on Wednesday of this week, will make its first trip today, Saturday, the delay being due to inability to complete arrangments by that date according to a statement of company officials yesterday.

The boat, "Chelsea", an all steel double-end ferry will be used for the run and according to the schedule the trip will take two hours with a fifteen minute lay-over at Tolchester.

The schedule includes boats leaving Baltimore at 7.30 a. m. and 3.00 p. m. Leave Tolchester 9.45 a. m. and 5.15 p. m.

The rate for carrying automobiles is reduced below the former rate making it the lowest rate ferry service between the Eastern and Western Shores.

An advertisement appearing on page 4 of this issue gives a complete schedule of rates for automobiles, trucks and passenger service.

There has been no ferry service from Tolchester to Baltimore since the reorganization of the Tolchester Company two years ago and the reestablishing of this service and the reduced rate is welcomed in this community.

NEWS OF ROCK HALL HIGH SCHOOL

Probable the most important event of week was the occurance of the Senior Class plays. It was rather an experiment because it was the first time three one-act plays have been presented instead of one three-act play. The object was to give everyone in the class an opportunity to show their talent. From the turn-out, the experiment was a complete success. Everyone was pleased. Special credit should go to Robert Tucker for taking two parts on last minute notice, Cordary Wood for the laughs he drew, Jane Lussier for her perpetual crying and all the rest of the casts for giving their time for the benefit of the class.

The program was as follows:

A WOMAN WONT.

Jane Lussier, William Boulter, Catherine Stevens, Vernon Rodney, Dorothy A. Skirven, Cordary Wood.

WHO GETS THE CAR TONIGHT?

Walter Parsons, Thelma Mench, Edward Reihl, Eileen Kelly, Robert Tucker.

PIN A PIN ON ME.

Charles Jacquette, Nina Brice, Richard Walbert, Mae Mench, Ann Archer Burton, Robert Tucker, Christopher Grant.

During preparations for the class play this past week, the other three classes have been allowed an athletic period. Everyone has joined in the spirit and appeared on the athletic field for one of the sports. It is quite a sight to see a football game going on, a speedball game progressing, a soccer game under way, and the field ball team dutifully practicing, all at the same time. It helps us in the belief that sports should be a part of the daily school program.

Going back to football, a big game is to be staged Friday afternoon. The 1st and 4th year boys will stand the 2nd and 3rd years. It will prove pretty exciting and we hope to all be there rooting for our individual classes.

No further news has been heard of a state championship fieldball game, and we fear an agreement might not be negotiated after all.

The Junior class has been given charge of the Christmas entertainment to be held in the Auditorium on December 22nd. They are planning to present several scenes from Dicken's Christmas carol. Of course there will also be the annual treats and exchanging of gifts.

New English books have been issued to the 9th, 10th, and 11th grades for the next semester. The 9th grade have "On The High Road," an introduction to literature, the 10th, "American Literature," and the 11th have, "English Literature." Many a person can be seen pouring over their new books outside of class.

DATE FOR SANTAS VISIT NOT YET SET

Will probably Be December 13th or 14th

Henry Gill and B. Fox are in direct communication with North Pole arranging a date for the annual visit of Santa Claus to Chestertown. Santa has missed Chestertown for the past three years in his annual pre-season cruise but plans are being made to make the visit this year make up for the past three years omission.

Santa will bring with him 750 pounds of candy and enough crates of oranges to provide for every kiddie from Kent County and nearby Queen Annes and parents are invited to bring their children to Chestertown that day as that they may meet Santa and take part in the celebration.

The date for the visit has not been set although it is understood that it will be Monday or Tuesday, December 13th or 14th. The local committee is endeavoring to make arrangements so that the Kent County schools will have one session that day so that all school children can be on hand.

A committee from the Rotary Club is arranging for the decorating of the business section with gaily colored electric lights and indications are for a gala Christmas here.

The entire business interests of Chestertown are cooperating in the pre-Christmas activities.

COLLEGE LECTURE ON MODERN DRAMA

Fifth Of Series To Be Held Monday Night

Modern Drama has been selected for discussion in the next public lecture of the series, "The World of Today," being presented by members of the Faculty of Washington College. It is scheduled for 8 P. M. Monday, December 6, in the Assembly Room of William Smith, Hall, and the speaker is Professor Winton Tolles, of the Department of English. As with all of these addresses the public is cordially invited and there is no admission charge.

According to Professor Toles, who styles his lecture "The Drama Comes of Age," there was a dearth of worthwhile English drama in the two centuries between 1700 and 1900, but in the last forty to fifty years this art has undergone a remarkable rebirth and has ramified into four distinct types. These he terms the schools of romanticism, realism, naturalism and expressionism. The speaker will discuss these types, centering his remarks around the concept of what the drama is today and why it is what it is.

The audience is promised more than a merely verbal exposition, however. Various members of the Washington Players will take part in the program, illustrating points made by the speaker with excerpts from plays which they will enact.

In addition, Professor Toles will describe the distinctive contributions of America to the drama, will speak of the free theatre movement, and will conclude with remarks in the nature of a prophecy as to possible trends the drama will show in the fu-

The lecture ris admirably fitted for

The lecturer is admirably fitted for the topic as he has himself written several published plays, and includes among his many duties on The Hill the strenuous task of coaching the Washington Players, student dramatic organization that has developed so remarkably under his leadership.

Professor Tolles came to Chestertown in 1933 and is at the present time completing all requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Columbia University. He is an able speaker and a busy and popular lecturer on the campus. Among his offerings which attract many students are sections of Freshman Composition and the Sophomore Survey of English Literature, and separate courses on the English Novel, the English Drama and Public Speaking. All those interested in any phase of the drama are promised a treat in attending this, the fifth lecture of the series.

BLUE BIRD INN WAS ROBBED MONDAY

Millard Simms Charged With Crime

A thief, with the use of a pinch bar, broke into the Blue Bird Inn in the wee hours Tuesday morning. The pin ball machine was robbed of all available cash and a quantity of cigarettes was also missing.

Working on a tip that Millard Simms, an employee at Schauber's Brick Yard, had a grudge against the proprietor of the Blue Bird Inn, Deputy Sheriff, John Bennett, Jr., watched the action of Simms and when he suddenly left Kent County he was followed and arrested near Crumpton.

Simms is a stranger in Kent County. Just before his arrest he had spent considerable money in beer gardens. When arrested he had $9.00 on his person. It is reported that he is wanted for other crimes.

ANNUAL XMAS SEAL SALE UNDER WAY

Drive For Funds To Aid T. B. Eradication

For thirty-one years the funds raised through the annual sale of Christmas Seals during the period from Thanksgiving to Chrsitmas have been the foundation upon which the campaign against tuberculosis has been built throughout the nation. Christmas Seals have brought about the establishment of sanatoriums, the organization and maintenance of clinics, the services of public health nurses and a great campaign of education for the "prevention, cure, and control of tuberculosis" throughout the land. Since the first Christmas Seal Sale in 1907, tuberculosis has been forced from the leading cause of death in the nation to the seventh place and the annual number of deaths has been reduced from over 200,000 in 1907 to 55,000 in 1936.

It is peculiarly appropriate that this year, a jovial town crier greets the Christmas season by means of the Christmas Seal—a town crier all muffled in wool against a wintry scene. As he lights his way with his lantern down the village street and swings his merry bell, our 1937 bell ringer announces the good news that tuberculosis has been proven to be preventable and curable, and now can be eradicated if every good citizen does his part.

DAIRYMEN TO HOLD DINNER MEETING DECEMBER 15, 1937

400 Dairymen Expected To Hear New Rate Dicussed

Kent dairymen their wives and friends will hold an important dinner meeting at Washington College gymnasium at 6 P. M. Wednesday, December 15.

Arrangements are in the capable hands of H. Stockton Startt, John Carvel Sutton, Clayton Reynolds and delegates representing the milk locals of Kent County.

The Ladies of the St. James Church will serve one of their famous dinners. An interesting and instructive program is assured.

The dairy industry is the most important one in Kent. It means some $450,000 annual income which is largely expended in the county. Progress and cooperation go with an informed membership.

Plans are made for an attendance of 400 people. Tickets may be obtained from the Committee or at the County Agents Office. Business men as well as farmers are invited to share in this important meeting.

Mr. H. S. Startt, chairman of the program committee will act as toastmaster and the principal speaker will be Mr. A. H. Lauterbach who will report on the annual meeting of the Interstate MilkCooperative. The question of the new price scale as suggested at the annual meeting will be discussed and action taken by dairymen at these meetings may have an important bearing on the future price scale to be adopted. As the dairy industry is one of the chief agricultural revenues in Kent County the meeting on the 15th promises to be an important one.

ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL HI SCHOOL

Returning from a hearty Thanksgiving holiday, everyone has again settled down to work. The 4A seniors are busily reading the immortal "Hamlet" by Wm. Shakespeare. In the hall after this English period one might hear, "To be, or not to be, that is the question," or "There's something rotten in Denmark", or any other famous quotation from this play.

The drama class are industriously working on the play, "Trifles", which they are presenting before the P. T. A. on December 6. The characters are portrayed by C. Robinson, J. Ruppert, R. Logan, N. Ford and C. Newton. It will be the first opportunity for the public to see what the drama students are accomplishing.

The Chemistry Club under the direction of Mr. Fleetwood was organized last week. It was decided that the club was for work and therefore no officers were elected and the business formalities done away with. A general notebook will be kept in the laboratory and when a member has completed a certain experiment he will record it.

In the last meeting of the Press Club Miss Riches told us that she thought that part of the time should be used for writing and helpful criticism of the articles for the Reflector. In that way the writer will benefit and also the articles, as a whole, will be improved.

The programs at the Home-room meetings were very interesting.

For the benefit of 4A Mary E. Humphreys gave an interesting book report of "The Other Wise Man."

3A was very amusingly entertained by a "tall story" told by Robert Livingstan.

2C had a very elaborate program following the business meeting:

Cocal Solo, L. Thompson.

Vocal Duet, L. Thompson and D. Scott.

Tap Dance, Madeline Thrift.

Speech, H. M. Jones.

For the following few minutes of the period they played "Quack."

The 3C gave a little play called "Light House Tragedy". The characters were:

The Lighthouse, M. Kennedy, (she has red hair.)

The Lighthouse Keeper, J. B. Robinson.

The Murderer, G. Ruppert.

Wife, D. Reidy.

Doctor, H. Connelly.

Neighbors, V. Bland, E. Thomas, R. Bonnett.

They also had a little music: A vocal solo by B. Bowers and a harmonica solo by Sonny Thomas.

1 A's program:

Poem by C. Price.

Trio by M. Lancaster, R. Fogwell, and F. Bennett.

Quartet by E. McGinnis, M. Petterson, E. Usilton, and A. Derringer.

Poem by M. Petterson.

Another party has been scheduled for the night of December 3rd and if it is as entertaining as the last one, it will certainly be a success.

The football squad has divided itself into two teams, the Army and the Navy. These two teams will battle it out on Thursday to see who will be the victor.

The volley ball girls have again resumed practice.
