Old Timer Comments On Politics

Dear Mr. Editor:

It seems as how the boys are talking politicks again after last weeks lull and although there hasn't been any definite talked about, the boys haven't forgot that there is going to be an election next fall.

I hear the crowd that calls themselves the Independant Democrats had a meeting this week and talked a lot about the situation but only took one definite step toward making a ticket by endorsing Mr. Herbert Perkins for States Attorney. It seems as how Mr. Perkins hasn't made any statement that he will run for that office but the Independants have made it known that he is their man. I remember some weeks back that the boys said that Mr. Thomas Healey had announced his desire of running for that office and it looks as if that office, which everybody said nobody wants, is getting to be more popular. If the contest between these two Chestertown lawyers should come about it will be between the oldest, (I didn't say old) members of the bar against one of the younger mmebers. These meetings of the Independant Democrats looks like they intend to make a ticket and I haven't heard any comment lately about a get-to-gether. Sorse even if this is the first of April three is plenty of time yet to do most enything but I still say that people ain't mad enough or talkin enough to make the listening as good as to might be. I did hear that those Independants have made a few changes in the names that was first talked about. Corse there is a lot of other talk again on about whose goin to run for what but I don't pay no attention to that kind of gossip cause I can't see as how there is anything back of it. Corse there is a lot of people who want to get an office but as I said before it takes a lot of people to agree wiht them before they can be elected. The nice fixed up Court House seems to make a lot of people think they wuold like to move in but the moving is a big job en takes a lot of time er work.

I don't hear much about what is goin on in among th eState boys cept that three don't seem to be enough metings goin on in the State to give all of them a chance to speak cause I see where they are attending meetings in bunches which keeps them from saying what they are thinking about the others. I'm expectin some good reading when they get nerve enough to say what thy are thinking cause if they do they will all have to carry fire engines around with them to put out the fire.

That's all,

UNCLE JAKE

The Story Behind the Dollars

On page 2 of this paper, you will find a story of the dollars-and-cents activities of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in 1937. There is another story behind these figures —the human side of a Life insurance company's service to its policyholders.

Read it. Then let us tell you how Metropolitan Life insurance can help provide you and your family with the independence and security enjoyed by so many others.
