THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

I almost played April Fool on you to-day, by skipping a week, but then on second thought, decided that would be a right mean trick and so, here goes. The inspiration to do such, was caused by the usual Lenten "recession" in social activities.

The Sunday afternoon tea at the Club last week was such a success that the committee planned another one for this Sunday. This will be the last, however, until after Easter.

By this time the "movers" are getting a slight bit settled. The Harry Cannans are now down on Front St. in the old Brown house and have with them Mr. and Mrs. Louis Andrews, who have just recently arrived in this country from Shanhai, China. Mrs. Andrews is a sister of Mrs. Cannan.

Meanwhile, the Foley family have taken the Chapman house on Washington Ave. and the Dr. Dicks moved on Thursday to the Chaires house on Philospher's Terrace.

Miss Page Humphreys, of Washington, D. C., has been a guest here, this past week, of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Raymond T. Humphreys.

Additional out-of-town guests last week-end included:

Miss Leonora Harris Springer, of Baltimore, who visited Miss Fredrica Metcalfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel, of Philadelphia, who visited Mrs. Carvel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer. Mr. and Mrs. Carvel are getting their country home near town, in readiness for the summer season.

Mr. Dell Hendershott, of Newark Valley, N. Y., and Mrs. Nellie Gray, of Endicott, N. Y., who were guests of Mr and Mrs. George N. Cooper.

Miss Molly Hazel and Miss Margaret Frankenfiled, of New Jersey, who visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Biddle.

Miss Olevia Woodring ,of Lynchburg, Va., who is the guest of Mrs. Ella Crow, her sister.

Miss Grace Nickerson, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Nickerson.

Mrs. Arthur Hurlock, of Cambridge, Md., is a guest this week of her sisters, Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne and Mrs. Lawrence Strong.

Miss Virginia Brice, of Far Hills, N. J, has joined her father, Mr. George Brice, at the home of her aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper, for a visit.

Miss Margaret E. Jefferson spent last week-end in New York, where she attended the Lottie Lehmann concert, last Sunday evening. Lottie Lehmann one of the Metropolitan stars charmed her audience with a program of Schubert, Shumann, Wolf and Strauss selections.

The Truslow boys are enjoying their spring vacations in different ways. John from Lehigh, is home working away on his boat. Neal Abbey is in Jacksonville, Fla., on a fraternity house-party, have motored down with a class mate.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam have returned from a visit to Washington where thye were guests of Mrs. Annie H. Stam.

Mrs. Ernest Strong and Miss Helen Strong left last Monday for Harrisonburg, Va., where they were guests of Mrs. Strong's parents. This week-end they motored to Blacksburg, Va., where Miss Helen Strong will attend the hops, last night and to-night, at V. P. I. They will return to their home here to-morrow.

Mrs. Thomas Willis has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Helen Elizabeth, to Mr. Walter George William Clatanoff, on Thursday, the fourteenth of April, at six o'clock, in the evening, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Chestertown, Md.

Mrs. Virginia Cushing, Mrs. Mary Pennington, and Miss Elizabeth Starkey, entertained about forty guests last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Cushing on High street in honor of Miss Elizabeth Willis. A china shower was given and additional feature of the evening was a mock wedding. The ceremony had all lady participants.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Needles and little son Leonard E., attended a birthday dinner last Sunday, in honor of their son, Vernon, at his home in Dover, Delaware.

And now a word of thanks to the Bentztown Bard for his very kind and generous compliment on Thursday. Fellow columnists know the encouragement a word of praise given now and then helps us onward.

Yours endeavoring,

THE WANDERER

Mead, President of Washington College will discuss "The Value of Professional Education in Meeting the Problems of the Times", and Dr. A. G. DuMez, Dean of the School of Pharmacy of the University of Maryland, will discuss "The Major Developments in Pharmaceutical Education Over the Past Few Years". Both Dr. Mead and Dr. DuMez are outstanding figures in the educational world and what they have to say will be of real interest and value.

It is hoped that the public will avail itself of this opportunity to hear these addresses.

Odd Fellows Plan Dance

The Chestertown Order of Odd Fellows are planning a dance to be held in the Chestertown Armory on Wednesday evening, April 27th. Music will be by Lew Startt and his orchestra.

NEWS OF ROCK HALL HIGH SCHOOL

The Seniors have set the date for their class play. It is to be held at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. The name is "Aunt Minnie from Minnesota." It is a force comedy with plenty of fun and laughter. Rehearsals are coming fine. We hope everyone will be here to see it. April 7 is the date set.

Last Monday night the school held a "shower" for Miss Willis. Every class contributed to the shower. Decorations looked vrey well. A rainbow effects was carried out with great success. Miss Willis hunted her gifts in "pots of gold." She received many beautiful pieces of silver from the classes and faculty. We will take this opportunity to wish her much happiness all through her life.

The teams have been having good practice due to the fine weather. We certainly hope the weather remains good. The boys here are trying to organize a baseball team so that they can play a few games with Chestertown. However, not much time is being devoted to this sport at present. The heavy weight speedball team is more important as field day draws nearer. The girls also have a speedball team. We hope to return from the meet a winning school this year.

Quarterly lists are to be given this week and next. The classes are expected to devote a little more time to study, and try to make better grades.

This Sunday Betty and Nita Lussier will journey to Baltimore to swim with the Knights of Columbus Club against Broadwood Club from Philadelphia. Then on Monday night they will compete in the indoor Smith Atlantics. We wish them much success in both meets, but especially the South Atlantics. When this last paragraph is read by these two youngsters, I'll be thrown in the bay—for I have been constantly warned by them to leave their names out of the news. So I believe I'll be going.

Valete!
