NEWS GATHERED ON THE PENINSULA

C. I. O. Unwelcome At Crisfield

With the crab pickers at Crisfield still on strike the residents of that town are apparently determined to keep out any C. I. O. activities. The automobile of a representative of that union was wrecked and burned. The present status of the strike is as follows:

GOVERNOR NICE ordered A. Stengle Marine, commissioner of labor and statistcis, to go to Crisfield to settle the controversy "amicably."
MAJOR ELMER P. MUNSHOWER, commander of the State police, and Lieut. Ruxton Ridgely were ordered by the Governor to "survey the situation" in Somerset county.
STANLEY WHITE, Federal labor conciliator, left his Crisfeild hotel upon the request of the proprietor, James Byrd.
FRANK J. BENDER, regional director of the C. I. O. for Maryland, protested to Mayor Bradshaw of Crisfield and to Governor Nice the recent demonstration against Michael Howard, C. I. O. cannery workers' representative.
S. KIRK MADDRIX, State's Attorney of Somerset county, told the Governor, "Everything at present is quiet."

Federal Grants In State Exceed $350,000,000

Maryland received a total of $372,646,282 from the Federal Government in grants, loans and Federal Housing Administration insured loans from March, 1933, to January 1st, 1938, according to a statement submitted to the Senate by Majority Leader Barkley (Ky.)

Reject Bids For Denton Armory

Bids for the new Denton Armory were opened in Baltimore on Wednesday morning, but were all too high. There has been $50,000 appropriated for the project but the building must cost not more than $45,000, leaving $5,000 for architectural work and furnishings. There were thirteen bidders and all bids were in excess of this amount.

All Trains Electrified

Completion of the electrification of freight lines between the New York and Philadelphia districts and between Harrisburg and Perryville Md., was announced last week.

Asks Payment For Hospital Patients

Milton Campbell, president of Emergency Hospital, at Easton, was before the Mayor and Council on Monday night, in the interest of an annual payment by the town towards the cost of Easton's free patients. Mr. Campbell stated that the hospital since it was founded in 1906 had contributed more than $150,000 for taking care of the indigent of the town of Easton exclusive of the county and including the county there would be $250,000 extra expended for taking care of the poor of the county.

Cecil Bar Endorses Judge Keating

At a meeting of the Cecil County Bar Association held on Thursday, April 21st, a resolution was adopted by a vote of 11 to 4 which resolution endorsed the Hon. Thomas J. Keating for renomination as a candidate for Associate Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit Court.

May Continue Dog Quarantine In Cecil County

On Tuesday, April 19th, Dr. Mark Welsh, State Veterinarian, and Dr. C. A. Kane Health Officer for Cecil County met at the Health Department Office, in Elkton, to discuss the situation with reference to Rabies in Cecil County.

The present quarantine which includes the entire County will expire on May 10 and it is hoped that the greater portion of the County may be released from quarantine at that time.

No definite announcement was made but it seems probable that the existing quarantine will be continued on a portion of the County after May 10.

Record Oyster Catch

Maryland's oyster tonging season ended officially on Friday ,April 15, with some 125 tonging boats winding up operations in Chesapeake Bay tributaries with Conservation officials predicting the largest catch in 14 years.

QUAKER NECK NEWS

Mr. Maynard Brown and family from Haddonfield, New Jersey, were here last week end to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown, near Pomona.

We are happy to report Mr. W. R. Startt has returned to his home here in Quaker Neck on Tuesday of this past week. His daughters, Mrs. Gladys Shaffer and Mrs. Margaret Mecker motored him and Mrs. Startt over. He stood the trip very well. Seems to be improved a great deal although still on a diet.

The Youths Temperance Council of Quaker Neck and Broad Neck held a general public meeting at Bond Church on Tuesday nite with a large crowd. Rev. Paul Reynolds was the speaker of the evening; Miss Virginia Hague read the scripture reading and a very appropriate poem from the union signal; Mrs. Elsie Walbert sang a solo, "My Task". Prayer and benedition by Rev. Travers. The next meeting will be at the home of Virginia and Elizabeth Hagues at Lankford in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Legg and baby, of near Rock Hall, visited at the home of Thomas's parent in Quaker Neck on Sunday.

Tomorrow services at Bond and Mowbray as usual. At Bond the Holy Communion at 11 a. m. on Sunday, May 8 it will be adminstired at Mowbray at 7.45 p. m. along with Mother's Day sermon and Music. Last nite at the Pomona Parsonage a pantry donation was given our good pastor, Rev. Travers and his wife.

A few of our folks here in Quaker Neck enjoyed the Waterman's supper in Rock Hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. James Kirby and sisters, Alice and Louise of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, returned to their home on Monday after a couple of days with their parents here.

The Official Board of the Pomona charge will meet on Monday, May 2nd at 8 p. m. We expect to have a full Board present as we have several important problems which need immediate attention. This meeting will be at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Philemon Dickerson and daughter, Patty, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Walbert, Doris and John August attended a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Smith in Chestertown on Monday night, it being a birthday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Eben Jenkins at Hyattsville upon the arrival of a baby girl born on Wednesday of last week.

Misses Minnie and Mary Brooks have opened their home at Quaker Neck wharf having returned the last part of last week. They have been enjoying the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Lulu Startt has been suffering from a very bad arm having scratched it with barbed wire. It is better at this writing.
