THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER·

Whereas the week past has had a lull from the recent current activities, the week-end seems packed with events either prior or post the Metcalfe—Harrison wedding to-day.

On Thursday, however, Miss Fredrica Metcalfe one of the bridesmaids entertained at luncheon in honor of Miss Metcalfe, the bridesmaids and a few close friends. The wedding itself will be at two o'clock to-day and will be solemnized at St. Luke's Church, Church Hill and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. Haydon Metcalfe at Sudlersville. The bride, Miss Frances Gwynne Metcalfe, will have Miss Mary Carey Metclafe, her sister, as maid of honor and the following bridesmaids:

Miss Marion Alexander, Springfield, Mass., and Miss Anna Haxdon Baden, Maden, Md.; Miss Mary Gwynn Branham, Miss Peggy Branham, and Miss Fredericka Metcalfe, of Chestertown, and Miss Joan Greene, Cleveland, all cousins of the bride.

The groom, Mr. Charles Leland Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Norris Harrison, of Rydal, Pa., and Land's End Farm, near Centreville, will have as his best man, Mr. Robert B. Harrison and the following ushers:

Daniel Greenwood, Robert Greenwood, Eugene McGuckin, Charles Wilson, John Sinlay and B. M. Roe, Sudlersville.

Last night, Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Harrison entertained the bridal party, at buffet supper, following the rehearsal.

To-night Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison have issued invitations to a large buffet supper at their home Broadfields Farm, to which many people here in town have been invited.

Meanwhile, there's much festivity today at Wide Hall, while the garden party, supper and dance which Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard will give later to-day, gets underway. The party, is in honor of their granddaughter, Msis Patricia Morris, of Washington, who will make her debut next season.

All of the Baltimore and Washington debutantes, including their parents, and the young set of men have been invited. A few have been asked to remain over the week-end for a house party.

Miss Agnes Carey Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Wilson, of Georgetown, Maryland, will be married to-day to Mr. James Deputy Davis, 3rd, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Daves, Jr., of Galena, to take place at four o'clock at the Westminster Presbyterian Church, the Rev. B. B. Staats of West Orange, New Jersey, will officiate.

Miss Wilson will be given in marriage by her father.

Her attendants will be Mrs. H. R. Cole, of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride and Mrs. Julian Cochran, of Galena, sister of bride as matrons-of-honor.

Miss Clara Virginia Davis, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret Saulsbury, of Ridgely as bridesmaids.

Miss Emmy Lou Cole, neice of the bride will be flower girl and Master Calvin Cole, nephew of the bride will be ring-bearer.

Mr. Davis has chosen Mr. Edward S. Davis his brother as bestman. The ushers will be Mr. John Wilson, bother of the bride, Mr. Lu Dolan, of Montclair, New Jersey, Mr. Laurence Cane, of Wilmington, Delaware and Mr. Harold Jump, of Wilmington, Delaware. A reception will follow the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Shriley announce the approaching wedding of their daughter, Katharine Aline to Mr. John Walter Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Thompson of Rock Hall.

The ceremony will take place at Wesley Chapel on Thursday, June 3 at 4 p. m.

Miss Alice Kennedy will act as Maid of Honor for Miss Shriley and Mr. William W. Thompson will act as his brother's best man.

To-morrow Sunday afternoon marks the innovation of the sailing races at the Club which attracted wide-spread interest last summer. Each afternoon, after the races, tea will be served at the Club for members.

Last Sunday afternoon late, some forty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Coale descended upon them unbeknowingly, laden with baskets for a picnic supper. Mr. and Mrs. Coale who have recently moved into their new home in Queen Anne's, were delightfully surprised and I hear a most pleasant evening followed.

Mrs. William Beck, of New York came Thursday accompanied by Mrs. Henry Beck and her daughter, Miss Margaret Beck, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris for a few days. Mrs. Beck will occupy, for July and August, the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck. Mr. and Mrs. Beck will live at the Sophie Fisher Inn during those months.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Truslow spent last week-end in Atlantic City, N. J., and from there motored North, going to Albany and several places along the Hudson, making a trip of about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and family, of Lansdowne, Pa., have reopened their summer place, Fox Point, where they will be at home for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Andrews left Thursday for the White Mountains, where they will visit, before sailing to England, for a six weeks visit with Mr. Andrews' parents. They expect to return to Chestertown in September and in October will return to their home ,Shanghai, China. Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cannon, their hosts while here, invited a few of their close friends in to say "au revoir" on Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Esther M. Dole left Monuday, June 2, for Pennsylvania State College. State College, Pa., to attend an Institute of International Relations. Miss Alice Dole, her daughter, is also attending this college, working for her Masters Degree in Art Supervision. Dr. Dole wil go to Alfred University, July 4, where she will teach in Summer School, after which, she will do research work in history in Baltimore until the Fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer, while Mrs. Kratzer is visiting her sister in Clearfield, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones have as their guests Mrs. Jones' brother, Wm. G. Jump and wife of Chula-Vista, Calif. Mr. Jump has not paid a visit East for 30 years and is happy in renewing old acquaintances. Miss Charlotte Russell has accepted an invitation to return to the Coast with them where she will attend college.

Miss Esta V. Harrison left this week for Springfield, Missouri, where she will spend the summer months.

Charles Townshend entertained a number of his little friends Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollinger, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barnes entertained in their honor on Saturday evening.

Miss Hannah Garrett, of Salisbury, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chaires.

Already, we hear the fire crackers, signs of the approach of July 4. July 4 spells picnic, so be thinking up your newest sandwiches, get your chickens ready and cakes baked in plenty of time. Ye housewives, they must be fed, and thus prepare to keep them happy.

Yours for contentment,

THE WANDERER

Mate Transfers To Philadelphia Council

Mate Robert Harirson has transferred from the Del-Mar-Va Council to the Valley Forge Council at Philadelphia where he has assumed the job as District Sea Scout Commissioner. Mate Harrison is returning to Philadelphia to continue his studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

IN MEMORIUM

STEVENS—In loving memory of my darling little son, Oscar C. Stevens Jr., who passed away June 19th 1937. One year has passed since that sad day.

The one we loved was called away.
The face I loved is now laid low,
His loving voice is still
The hand so often clasped in mine
Lies low in deaths cold chill
God took him home it was his will
But in our hearts he liveth still
Why did he go when life seemed fair
And no dark clouds were near
To dim the brightness of our lives
Or start the bitter tear
We thought not at the close of day,
When night veiled eart and sky
That one so full of life and hope
Would breathe the last goodbye.

His loving mother, Beatrice E. Stevens. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Pinder, Galena.

BETTERTON

The new elevated board walk was completed last Saturday and it is expected that the promenade will be opened to the end of the Ericsson Pier this week. The new concession buildings are being erected, the first one, joining the Chesapeake Hotel is a bingo stand.
