LOCAL ITEMS.

Numerous "flittings" have occured in this city and county during the past week.

Mr. Fletcher J. Babylon has been appointed postmaster at Wakefield in place of Mr. Isaac S. Brilhart, resigned.

Messrs. Wm. Ranoul and his son Harry of Warfieldsburg, have been quite ill with pneumonia, but are now improving.

The official report of the rainfall at Baltimore, during the month of March, places it at 7.94 inches, the greatest in twenty-one years.

Miss Wroth, sister of Rev. Peregrine Wroth, of Baltimore, has taken Winchester Place summer resort, and will fit it up for the accommodation of summer boarders.

Mrs. Levi Manahan, of the vicinity of Warfieldsburg, has been confined to bed for some days with a severe attack of indigestion, but is now in an improved condition.

During the month of March Mr. B. F. Crouse, clerk of the circuit court, received for record 47 deeds, 30 mortages and 26 bills of sale, and issued 17 marriage licenses.

The entertainment of the public school at Frizellburg, announced to take place last Saturday evening, was postponed in consequence of the very inclement weather until this, Saturday, evening, 4th inst.

Mrs. Caroline M. Lynch, of Baltimore, who, a number of years ago, resided on East Main street, this city, died on Sunday last. Mrs Lynch was an estimable lady and much respected in this community.

Mr. Emanuel Koontz, formerly of this vicinity, who has been residing near Owings' Mills, Baltimore county, during the past year, returned this week and now occupies the "Hollow Rock" farm adjoining this city.

Salem Lodge No. 60, I. O. O. F., of this city, will hold a reunion of the members and their families, at their Hall, on Monday night, May 11th, which will be the forty-third anniversary of the institution of the Lodge.

Among the eighty-eight graduates of the Maryland University School of Medicine, Baltimore, at the commencement on Wednesday last, was Dr. Thomas J. Coonan, of this city, and Dr. A. Sidney Cover, of Uniontown, this county.

Mr. Paul Yingling's sale, at his late residence on Liberty street, this city, was postponed until Monday last, on account of Saturday's snow storm. On Tuesday Mr. Yingling removed with his family to Baltimore, where they will reside in future.

The Wren Family gave an entertainment at Odd Fellow's Hall, this city, on Saturday evening last, for the benefit of Charity Lodge No. 58, Knights of Pythias. The evening was exceedingly unpropitious, but a fair audience was in attendance.

At the sale of the household effects of Mr. John L. Bankert, near Lucabaugh's mill, in Cranberry Valley, recently, an old time eight-day clock, in a tall case, was purchased by Mr. Chas. C. Gorsuch, of this city, for $50. It is a handsome and valuable time piece.

The new Lutheran Church at Taylorsville will be dedicated to the service of God on Sunday, 12th inst., at 10.30, A. M. Services will be held at 7.30 the previous evening and on the evening of the dedication day. The occasion will be of a very interesting character.

Mr. Denton W. Witter, of Cranberry, removed, on Wednesday, to the State of Iowa, where he intends to make his future home. Carroll county cannot well spare such worthy citizens, but Mr. Witter has the good wishes of many friends for his success and prosperity in his new home.

The employes of the SENTINEL are indebted to Mr. J. D. Crowl, of this city, for a can of his excellent ice cream. Mr. Crowl has housed a large amount of ice and will not only be able to meet all orders for ice cream during the coming season, but will have a full supply of pure spring-water ice for his customers in this city, at reasonable rates.

Cards of invitation have been received by a number of our citizens to the wedding of Miss Emma Rebecca Cassell, daughter of Mr. T. D. Cassell, of Baltimore, and Mr. Charles H. Baughman, of this city. The happy event is to take place at Chatsworth Methodist Church, Franklin and Pine streets, Baltimore, at a quarter before 10 o'clock, Thursday morning, 9th inst.

Mr. John Hornberger, of this city, who was bereaved by the death of his wife, made sale of his personal effects on Monday last and left on Wednesday, accompanied by his grand-daughter, Miss Katie Sias, who has resided with him during the past year, for Frederick county, Va., where he will reside in future with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Sias.

Nearly all the members of Mr. Edwin J. Lawyer's family, Pennsylvania avenue, this city, have been suffering with the grippe during the last two weeks. During the early part of this week his aged mother was extremely ill, but is now improving. His venerable father, too, has been suffering with the disease, and his recovery from the severe physical affliction under which he was previously suffering has been retarded by the attack.

Mr. Josiah Unger, as administrator, of John Hesson, deceased, mortagee, sold a dwelling-house, blacksmith shop, &c., in the village of Tyrone, on Monday last, to Mr. John F. Marquart, for $845.

An immense mass of limestone rock was thrown down at the quarries of the Messrs. Goodwin Brothers, near this city, early last week. A gentleman of this city who made an approximate estimate of the dimensions of the mass, places its contents at ten thousand perches.

The gloomy and depressing weather, combined with the wretched condition of the country roads, made April 1st an unusually gloomy anniversary in this city. Visitors were not numerous and the financial business of the day was not equal to its ordinary volume on this occasion.

A log tenant house on the farm of Mr. Wm. H. Chew, near New Windsor, was destroyed by fire last week. It was unoccupied at the time, but was rented by a citizen of New Windsor who had his household goods already loaded to move to it, when he received word that it was in flames. The loss is estimated at $300, with no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

The little four-year-old son of Mr. Noah Barnes, of Bishop street, this city, was severely bitten by a dog belonging to Mr. Samuel P. Everhart, on Monday last. The little fellow was passing along Mr. Everhart's lot, and to avoid the mud, walked close to the fence and took hold of the palings with his hands. The dog caught his left hand and tore and lacerated the flesh in a shocking manner. Dr. Joseph T. Hering dressed the child's injuries.

Miss Mary Belle Sollers, daughter Mr. Thos. E. Sollers, formerly of this city, was married on Thursday evening, at the home of her father, in Philadelphia, Pa., to Dr. John P. Frishmuth, of that city. Mr. T. S. Sollers, brother of the bride, was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Wadsworth. Among the wedding guests was Mrs. E. O. Grimes, of this city.

The fine large pumpkin which has been lying in the SENTINEL office for nearly five months, was cut into slices a few days ago and found to be in a perfectly sound condition all through. It is claimed of pumpkins of this variety that good pies can be made of them without the use of eggs. It was left at the SENTINEL office by Mr. Milton Chew, of Carrollton, who raised 4450 pounds of pumpkins of the same variety, besides thirty bushels of potatoes and other products, on a plat of ground 75x75 feet, last year. A number of persons have requested seeds from this pumpkin and they can now obtain them by applying at this office. It contained 394 of them.

Appropriate Easter services were held in all the churches of this city on Sunday last. The Holy Communion was celebrated in the Lutheran, Episcopal and Reformed churches. Seventeen persons were added to the membership of the latter, most of whom had been received by the rite of confirmation on the previous Friday evening. On Sunday evening the Methodist Protestant Sunday School held an appropriate and beautiful service, as did also the Sunday School of the Reformed Church. A brief Easter service was held by the Sunday School of Grace Lutheran Church, before the administration of the Lord's Supper Sunday evening. A young people's Easter service was held in M. E. Church in the evening.

The performance of the comedy-drama, "Meg's Diversion," at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Thursday evening, was well attended, in spite of the disagreeable and inclement weather, and was much enjoyed by the large audience. All the parts were admirably sustained by the performers. The SENTINEL would be pleased to give an extended notice of the affair, but the composing room says: "No more copy wanted." It must add, however, that there seemed to be no weak spot in the entire cast. The several characters were represented by Misses Margaret Baumgartner, Pauline Trumbo, Lizzie Irwin, Messrs. B. Frank Crouse, W. R. C. Neale, C. Vincent Dugan, George J. Parke, R. Abner Parke. The twining of the maypole, by sixteen boys and girls, representing fairies, which followed the play, was a charming performance.

A special meeting of Maryland Classis of the Reformed Church was held at Union Bridge, March 31st, for the purpose of dissolving the pastoral relations between Rev. D. A. Souders and the Union Bridge charge and dismissing Rev. Souders to Westmoreland Classis, Synod of Pittsburg. The meeting was attended by the President of the Classis, Rev. E. R. Deatrick, Revs. U. H. Hielman, D. A. Souders, G. A. Whitmore, C. S. Slagle and A. S. Weber, and Elders J. T. Orndorff, David Firor, Samuel Fleagle, and Wm. H. Morningstar. Much regret at the withdrawal of Rev. Souders from the Classis was manifested by the members present and he was assured that he would be followed by the prayers and best wishes of his associates in the ministry for his success in his new field of labor. Rev. Souders will at once enter upon his duties as pastor of the Reformed Church in Irwin, Westmoreland county, Pa.

Mr. G. S. Griffith, President of the Maryland Prisoners' Aid Association, and Rev. L. F. Zinkhan, the general agent, recently paid an official visit to the jail and alms house of this county, and in their report generally compliment the condition of these institutions. They found in the alms house 69 inmates, of whom 24 were women, 39 men and 6 children. The main building, they say, was in excellent condition, with evidences of cleanliness and comfort throughout. But the building occupied by the men, they allege, is in "shocking" contrast with the other. Their description of it isn't pleasant reading, and, if they have not exaggerated, prompt steps should be taken to place it in better condition. They state that 2501 tramps were provided with lodgings or food during the past year, and as most of these were men it is likely the men's quarters were so overcrowded as to make it impossible to prevent the accumulation of filth. Thirty-eight prisoners were found in the jail, which is stated to be in a good sanitary condition.

Death of Mr. Thomas P. Goodwin.

Mr. Thomas P. Goodwin, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of this city, died at his residence, East Main street, at 8 o'clock on Sunday evening last, aged 84 years, 2 months and 16 days. Mr. Goodwin was born in Baltimore county and came to Carroll upwards of fifty years ago. He engaged in farming and resided on his property about a mile from this city until 1865, when he removed to the home on East Main street where he resided until the day of his death. In August, 1833, he became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and thenceforth lived a consistent and true Christian life. As the end approached and he realized that he was about to depart he gave very clear testimony of his faith, in the religion of Jesus, to his son, Charles, who conversed with him concerning his hope of a better life. In response to an inquiry as to his belief in salvation through the merits of the Son of God, which he had always testified, he answered, "I know it." Faith was almost lost in sight and he no longer said, "I believe," but, "I know."

Mr. Goodwin was twice married, and his wives were sisters, and also sisters of the late Robert D. Gorsuch, of this county, and of Hon. Thos. Gorsuch, of Catoctin Furnace, Frederick county. By his last wife, who survives him, he leaves two sons, well-known citizens, Mr. Chas. E. Goodwin, who is unmarried and has always resided with his parents, and Mr. H. Price Goodwin, who is married and resides on the homestead, near this city. He was very quiet and unostentatious in his demeanor, but a man of strong convictions, from which he was never swerved by selfish considerations. Though he never took an active part in politics he was a firm and conscientious Republican.

Funeral services were held at the Centenary M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, his pastor, Rev. G. W. Cooper, officiating, assisted by Rev. P. H. Miller, of Grace Lutheran Church, after which the remains were interred in Westminister cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Edward Lynch, Wm. B. Thomas, Theo. Derr, John T. Wampler, Geo. W. Morningstar, Thomas Turfle. The services were largely attended.

M. P. Conference.

The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church met in the Lafayette Avenue Church, Baltimore, on Wednesday. Its sessions will probably extend into next week, as matters of great interest to the Church at large are to be considered and acted upon. Among these will be the report of the General Conference committee on the revision of the Church's "Articles of Religion." This committee, of which Rev. Dr. L. W. Bates, of the Maryland Conference, is chairman, was appointed by Adrian (Mich.) General Conference of 1888 to revise the old articles of religion and to formulate new ones, setting forth more distinctly the principles of Wesleyan Arminianism. This committee concluded its labors last January by making a few verbal changes in the existing articles and making several new ones, which will be laid before the conference for adoption. The Maryland Conference will be, with probably one exception, the first to act on the committee's report, and this action is being looked for by Methodist Protestants all over the country with a great deal of interest.

The conference territory includes Maryland, Delaware, the border counties of Pennsylvania and Virginia, and Newark, N. J. The Methodist Protestant conferences are composed equally of ministers and laymen. Within the conference are 262 churches and 69 parsonages, valued at $1,008,400; 19,441 church members, 20,638 Sunday-school pupils, taught by 2,918 teachers. The conference contributions for the year 1890 were: Foreign missions, $6,000; home missions, $2,400; superannuated preachers, $6,810, and ministerial education, $1,500.

Among the clerical and lay delegates from Carroll county are: Rev. J. L. Mills, D. D., of Westminster; Rev. W. S. Hammond, D. D., of Union Bridge; Rev. J. W. Charlton, of Uniontown, pastor of the Pipe Creek Circuit; Rev. Wm. A. Crouse, of Westminster, pastor of the Deer Park Circuit; Rev. James T. Lassell, of Finksburg; Rev. J. T. Ward, D. D., President of Westminster Theological Seminary; Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., President of Western Maryland College; Messrs. Jesse L. Shreeve, Frances L. Hering and others. Rev. W. M. Strayer was re-elected President.

The Great March Snow Storm.

The snow storm which was raging when the SENTINEL was printed last week, continued until about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and rose at times almost to a blizzard. The snowfall was very great, but the flakes were moist and heavy and fell with sufficient force to pack very closely, so that the depth attained scarcely reached ten inches. In spite of the soggy character of the snow, however, the high wind caused it to drift badly and seriously obstruct the public roads, some of which were entirely filled and impassable, making it necessary for travelers to take to the fields and rendering travel, by any method, extremely difficult. The star route mail carriers in this county nearly all found it impossible to get through with their mails, which, in most cases, were delayed until Monday. The tracks of the Western Maryland Railroad, in the mountain cuts, were badly obstructed by drifts, and trains were delayed well nigh a day as a consequence. One of the results of this condition was considerable delay in the delivery of the newspapers of this county issued on Saturday morning. Those printed in this city could not be forwarded from the postoffice here because there were no means of transportation. This fact will account to the patrons of the SENTINEL for the delay in its reception.

The warm sunshine of Sunday and Monday caused the rapid disappearance of the wintry visitor, however, and Tuesday's rain nearly completed the work, leaving deposits of the snow only where it was badly drifted. Only an attempt to travel them could furnish an accurate idea of the condition of the public roads as another effect of the storm.

The trustees of Western Maryland College have purchased for that institution the property of Mr. Jno. A. Kretzer, at the corner of Main and College streets, opposite the college grounds, for the sum of $2,300. The lot fronts upwards of 200 feet on Main street and the same distance on College street.

Easter Ball.

A full-dress Easter ball was given by a number of the young gentlemen of this city, at Wantz's Hall, on Monday night. Messrs. N. Howard Baumgartner, and C. Vincent Dugan comprised the committee in charge of the arrangements. It was a very pleasant and successful affair. Those present were: Misses Nina Scott, Sophie Cooke, Grace Dammann, Nannie M. Heyde, Nannie Wagner, Lola Garner, Harriette Jackson, Florence Gazzam, Cassie Garner, Grace Winterson, Messrs. Shorb Neale, Edgar Thompson, William E. Moore, Paul Corriell, Archie Anderson, Carlton Weatherby, Wilbur Mauapan, Frank Moale, Charles B. Roberts, Jr., Eugene Heyde, Harry Cooke, of Baltimore; Misses Kauffman and Bessie Stewart, of Lancaster, Pa; Miss Keturah Gittings, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Agnes Lowell, of Waynesboro, Pa.; Mr. John F. Everhart, of Roanoke, Va.; Mr. Frank Raue, of York, Pa.; Mr. James H. Dugan, of Georgetown, D. C.; Misses Bessie Shriver, Gussie Shriver, Mr. Percy H. Shriver, of Avondale; Hon. and Mrs. Pinkney J. Bennett, Misses Daisy, Bessie and Blanche Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kleff, Mrs. George M. Parke, Mrs. D. N. Henning, Mrs. J. Q. H. Smith, Mrs. Wm. B. Thomas, Misses Annie Shriver, Maggie Huber, Lottie Moore, Janie Thomas, Lizzie Irwin, Mamie Irwin, Gertrude Kleff, Messrs. J. Milton Reifsnider, John M. Roberts, Wm. D. Reese, Abner Parke, George F. Parke, George Brown, Frank Z. Miller, Will E. Everhart, Brooke Irwin, N. H. Baumgartner, Charles V. Dugan, Arthur F. Smith, John H. Cunningham, Charles T. Reifsnider, Jr., of Westminster.

College Notes.

Nearly all the students who were home during the Easter holidays are back again at their work.

Sickness among the students has subsided, and it is hoped that the health of the college people will now be perfect.

It is not too late to say that the Browning Society gave a very creditable entertainment. Miss Heyde was a prominent figure both as vocalist and as "Topsy."

This term the tug of war is taking place between some of the higher classmen for first and second honors. Where the grades have been most alike is where the hard work will be done.

At present time some of the students, both from college and seminary, are attending M. P. Conference in Baltimore. Dr. Lewis and Prof. Whaley went there on last Tuesday to meet their brethren.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last Thursday, the glee club had the pleasure of singing at the wedding of Mr. Campbell and Miss McKellip. They attended the reception and returned with pleasant faces, which told that they feasted on the fat of the land.

The boys are now waiting till the weather "fairs up" when they will be ready to embark in a course of athletic games. Those interested are holding themselves in readiness to launch out on the sea that will either wash them on the shore of success or failure.

About the middle of this month the base-ball nine will give a good old entertainment in college for the benefit of said club. The performances will be of the most pleasing, mirth provoking, laugh and yell kind. A small admission will be charged to all.

For the SENTINEL.

Social Party.

The hospitable residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Etzler, about one and a quarter miles north of Unionville, was the scene of one of the most delightful parties of the season, on Wednesday evening, 25th ult. The party was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Katie, who, assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. Brown, spared no effort to make the occasion a most pleasant one. The guests began to arrive shortly after sundown, and continued to come till a late hour. Various plays and parlor games, interspersed with very fine music, the instrumental part of which was furnished by Messrs. Wolfe, Reisler, and Grimes, and the vocal by Miss Cook, were indulged in until twelve o'clock, when all were invited to the dining room to partake of refreshments, which consisted of all the delicacies of the season. After all had been bountifully supplied they again engaged in social amusements until the wee sma' hours, when they took their departure, wishing their host and hostess many pleasant years. Those present were Misses Cook and Smith, Messrs. Saylor, Melvin Lindsay, Murray Reisler, Scott Wolfe, Union Bridge; Miss Jennie Burrier, Walkersville; Misses Nettie and Nannie Myers, Messrs. Richard Norris, Albert Stitely, Vernon Barnes, Mapleville; Misses Annie and Florence Harman, Etta and Ardine Brown, Messrs. Albert and Will Harman, J. Wagner, John, James and William Brown, Ernest Myers, New Windsor; Miss Della Eury, Washington, D. C.; Miss Jessie Molesworth, Mr. Roy Molesworth, New Market; Misses Gertrude Danner, Nourine Douty, Minnie Crabbs, Daisy Beaver, Pauline Nicodemus, Elsie Dudderar, Norna and Viva Appleby, Messrs. Walter Dudderar, Will Nicodemus, Ira Whitehill, James Appelby, Roy Buckingham, Roy Sundergill, Unionville; Mr. Charles Dugan, West Virginia; Messrs. Roy Gardner, John and Daniel Pfoutz, Johnsville; Mr. Herbert Keefer, Franklinville; Messrs. Carlton Rodrick, Edw. Beall, Edw. Gilbert, Liberty; Mr. Carl Molesworth, Frederick.

For the SENTINEL.

Birthday Party near Warfieldsburg.

Mr. John Beggs gave his daughter, Miss Ella, a party on Monday evening in honor of her sixteenth birthday, which was a very pleasant affair. The parlor, hall and dining-room were decorated for the occasion very tastefully. Quite a number of guests were present, mostly in evening dress and the evening was pleasantly spent in games and music with an intermission for elegant refreshments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Beggs, Misses Ella Beggs, Carrie Beggs, Mrs. William Stoner, Misses Blanche Stoner, Annie and Ida Cover, Matie Foutz, Clara Lantz, Blanche Barnes, Mollie Sawble, Olivia Cook, Minnie Summers, Mr. and Mrs. George Lescaleet, Messrs. Horatio Stoner, Clayton Beggs, Theodore Stoner, Lewis M. Sellman, Harry Summers, Charles Cook, Vernon Barnes, Ulysses Duvall, John Cover, Conrad Smeichey, of Warfieldsburg and vicinity; Misses Mary Haines, Florence Haines, Lizzie Bear, Charles Haines, of Dennings; Miss Mary Stevenson, Mr. John Stevenson, of near Westminster; Miss Sallie Danner, Mr. Clay Danner, of Avondale, and many others.

Wedding Bells.

CAMPBELL—MCKELLIP.

A wedding of great interest in this community occurred at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon in Ascension Episcopal Church, this city. The decorations of the church, of rare and beautiful flowers and plants, arranged by Miss Mary B. Shellman and Miss Lottie Moore, added elegance to the otherwise beautiful and attractive scene. The bride was Miss Julia Fisher McKellip, only daughter of Col. Wm. A. McKellip, of the Westminster bar, and one of the best known public men of the State, and a niece of the late Judge John E. Smith, of the Circuit Court of this county. She is a very pretty, piquant and attractive young lady. The groom was Mr. Alexander Haight Campbell, son of Mr. Frank Campbell, a prominent citizen of York, Pa. The bride was dressed in a gown of white faille, trimmed with chiffon and orange blossoms, with tulle veil, fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies-of-the-valley, and a prayer-book in ivory binding.

The maid of honor was Miss Sophie Cooke, of Baltimore, whose dress was of white faille trimmed with duchesse lace. She wore a short veil fastened with an aigrette, and also carried a prayer book in ivory binding and a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaids were: Miss Harriette Jackson, of Baltimore; Miss Gussie Shriver, of Avondale; Miss Nannie Morgan Heyde, of Baltimore; Miss Bessie Bennett, of Westminster; Miss Florence Gazzam and Miss Gertrude Orendorff, of Baltimore. They all wore dresses of mousseleine de soie and Leghorn hats. The hats of Misses Jackson and Shriver were trimmed with pink flowers, and they carried bouquets of pink roses and hyacinths tied with pink ribbons. The hats of Misses Heyde and Bennett were trimmed with yellow roses, and they carried bouquets of yellow roses and tulips tied wtih yellow ribbons. Those of Misses Gazzam and Orendorff were trimmed with jonquils. Their flowers were jonquils tied with green ribbons.

Misses Nannie Henning, May Bruce Smith, Helen Clabaugh and Louise Reifsnider were flower girls. Their dresses were of white India silk and illusion.

The pages who held the ribbons were Masters Guy Smith and Ralph Reifsnider, cousin, of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Frank V. Moale, of Baltimore; Philip Raue, Wm. Heighes, of York, Pa.; Charles T. Reifsnider, Jr., J. Smith Reifsnider (cousins of the bride), of Westminster; S. Clinton Cropley, of Washington, D. C. Mr. Arthur Fisher Smith, cousin of the bride, of Westminster, was the best man. The bridal party entered the church in the following order: Ushers and bridesmaids alternating by twos, flower girls, and then the bride leaning on the arm of her father. As they advanced the glee club of Western Maryland College sang the "Wedding March," from Lohengrin, with organ accompaniment by Mr. Charles Kews, of the college. The ceremony was then performed by the rector, Rev. Wyllys Rede. As the bridal party turned to retrace their steps the flower girls scattered beautiful floral offerings in the path of the bride, and the glee club sang the bridal chorus from "The Rose Maiden," by Kohn.

A reception followed the ceremony, from 2.30 till 4 o'clock P. M., at the City Hotel.

Each member of the College Glee Club was presented with a souvenir scarf pin.

Neat boxes containing bride's cake were distributed. In one of those presented to the maid of honor and bridesmaids was a loveknot gold ring, which was drawn by Miss Gussie Shriver.

The bridal presents were very numerous, beautiful and valuable.

Among those present at the marriage and reception were the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell Miss Campbell, Miss Louise Hay, Mr. Charles Frick, Mr. John E. Williams, of York, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wysham, Mrs. M. Fitzgerald Smith, Mrs. George Poole, Mrs. David Clarke, Mrs. Dr. Theodore Cook, Mrs. A. C. Whealton, College Glee Club; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shriver, Misses Nettie Shriver, Bessie Shriver, Janie Shriver, and Mr. Percy M. Shriver, of Avondale. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left by the 4.24 P. M. train for an extended trip North.

Congratulatory letters were received from Hon. Louis E. McComas, Hon. James Tanner, Gen. Russell E. Alger, Hon. Frank Brown and a number of others.

GRETZINGER—STONER.

A friend has left at the SENTINEL office a copy of the Public Press, of Northumberland, Pa., of February 13th, which contains an interesting account of the marriage, on Wednesday evening, February 11th, in the Presbyterian Church of that place, of Miss Mary Adelaide Stoner, eldest daughter of Dr. Wm. B. Stoner, of Northumberland, a granddaughter of Mr. George W. Stoner, of Stonersville, this county, and Mr. Wm. C. Gretzinger, the popular registrar of Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa. The event was evidently a very prominent one in the social life of Northumberland and a column of the Press is used in its description. While Valenti's wedding march was being rendered the bridal party approached the altar in the following order: "Miss Sara Stoner, a sister of the bride, and as one of her maids of honor, and Mr. Robert Holmes, of Bucknell, usher; Miss Millie Duncan, of Duncansville, maid of honor, and Mr. Huston Taggart, of this place, usher; now the bride, attended by her father, Dr. Stoner, who gave her away—this party up the left aisle; and up the right aisle marched Rev. Dr. Harris, president of Bucknell, and Rev. J. D. Fitzgerald, of the Presbyterian Church; Mr. Art Keller, of Watsontown, and Mr. Frank Van Devender, of town; then the groom, Mr. Gretzinger, with his best man, Mr. Abrams, of Abrams, Montgomery county. The party entire formed a lovely group at the altar. After the last strains of the march had ceased Rev. Fitzgerald offered prayer, and then married the couple under the ring ceremony. Dr. Harris made a closing prayer."

A reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents. The happy couple received many handsome presents, among which were a number from relatives and friends in this county. They will reside in Lewisburg.

Woodbine Items.

Rev. E. H. Lamar preached at Morgan Chapel on the 29th ult. It was his first sermon there and he was the cynosure of all eyes. Mr Lamar, though a young man, is a good speaker. His urbane bearing and concise style, with ease and originality, well befits him for the work he has undertaken.

Rev. J. S. Burton, who labored so acceptably three years on West Falls Circuit, was left without an appointment, for the purpose of receiving a collegiate education.

The Misses Ida Carthorn and Elsie Firoved are progressing nicely with their schools.

Mr. Martin Grimm has sold a small farm and dwelling to Mr. Ernest B. Harrison, for one hundred and seventy-five dollars per acre.

Since the heavy fall of snow some parts of the county roads resemble "diabo'us' half acre."

Manchester Items.

Mr. U. A. Wentz and bride arrived home from Philadelphia, last week, after spending 10 days very pleasantly among friends. On Thursday evening, accompanied by the best man, Mr. Chas. Grove, and his sister, Mr. Geo. Bixler and wife, Mr. Henry Duce and wife, and Mr. Nelson Grove and wife, they went to the groom's house, Mr. Cornelius Wentz's, at Ebbvale, where they were given a fine reception. The festivities were well interspersed with music that added much to the pleasant evening spent in the hospitable home, where refreshments of fruits, cake, confectioneries and other viands were sumptuously provided and enjoyed by the company. In addition to the above were present: Mr. Edward W. Garrett, wife and daughter, Mr. Calvin Wentz and wife, Mr. Geo. Stoffer and wife, Mr. Cologhan and wife, Mr. Chas. Sullivan.

A few weeks ago our sportsmen placed an order with Mr. C. C. Luse, of Great Bend, Kansas, for 6 jack rabbits, right from the prairies. In the course of 10 days they were informed that the "Jacks" were shipped, C. O. D., and in due time arrived at Greenmount Station; but to their sorrow, upon opening the box, two fine fellows were found dead. The rest were cared for, but another one died during the night, leaving them but three, at a cost of $21.05. The first cost of the rabbits, at the express office where shipped, was $12.00 to which was added $9.05 expressage. The boys think that is rather expensive sport to be only prospective and nothing real as yet. From the general appearance and movements of the rabbits they give promise of fine sport when once in sufficient number to be hunted.

Old "Major," the hero of many hard run chases, both as the subject and object—as the former in the pursuit of the "Johnnies," many of which in his 10 years service he captured or run to their hiding places, and as the latter when many a good housewife or her better half were in pursuit with pick, shovel, club or broom while he was escaping with the Sunday roast, broiled ham or breakfast steak, either of which was quite a favorite with the venerable hero—has passed away at the ripe old age of 13 years, from the effects of a regular dose of strychnine. He was so unfortunate several times before as to pick up doses of this sort, but his master, Mr. Jacob Frankforter, was successful on these occasions in saving his life. He was buried with the full honors of the hunting fraternity. Mr. F. says he was the best bottomed dog in the county; pretty strong, but then plenty of meat will give strength.

Regular services were held in our Churches during the day on Sunday and at evening the Sunday School of Emmanuel Lutheran Church held their Easter services in the Church proper, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. In front of the chancel was an arch bearing the word "Risen;" a beautiful group of lilies was near the pulpit, on which rested the motto, "Christ Crucified for Us," in transparent letters, forming a cross on a dark ground; to the right was a tall cross entwined with evergreens in a group of potted plants; to the left was a large nest of colored eggs, surrounded by a number of rabbits, all giving a good effect. The following program was observed:

Singing, "Onward," by school; Invocation, by the pastor; "Song of Triumph," by the school; recitation, "Easter Day," Evie La Motte; prayer; responsive reading; singing, "All Hail," by the children; acrostic, "Jesus the Prince of Life," by twenty-two children; singing, "Send the Light," by the school; recitation, "Easter Tide," Edna Wink; "Song of Rejoicing," chorus of male voices; recitation, "Why we Keep Easter," A. Fuhrman; singing, "Triumphant Day," by the school; address, by the pastor; "Missionary Song," by Laura and David Myers; "How Easter was First Kept," by six boys; singing, "Easter Bells; "First Witnesses of Resurrection," two girls; solo, "Easter Light," by Edna La Motte.

During the collection Mr. and Mrs. Eyster sang a duet, "Love Divine," Mrs. Eyster at the organ, which, with the solo of Miss La Motte and the song of David Myers, a little 6 year old boy, accompanied by his sister Laura, of 10 years, at the organ, are worthy of special mention. The collection was for "Church Extension," and amounted to $16.52. After the collection the ushers, Mr. Monroe La Motte, and Walter Hanson, distributed nicely colored eggs to the scholars and teachers of the school. Judge D. H. Hoffacker is the superintendent.

On Monday evening the Infant Department of Trinity Reformed Sunday School gave their entertainment in the lecture room of the Church, which was fitted up with a stage and neatly decorated with evergreens and potted plants. The attendance was large at 5 cents admittance. The following program was observed:

Singing, chorus, by the scholars; recitation, "Welcome," by four scholars; recitation, "Easter Tribute," by three girls; recitation, "Silvery Sunbeams," by Altia Berry; recitation, "Angels Song," by Lotta Shower; recitation, "Easter Day," by Bertha Miller; chorus, "Hallelujah to His Name," by scholars; recitation, "When the Sun Expels the Night," by M. Fuhrman; recitation, "My Life's a Narrow Span," by Altia Berry; recitation, "Looks Like Me," by John Abkins; solo, "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," by Pearl Burns; recitation, "Sermon," by Lotta Shower; followed by collection, by four small boys; "Revised Humpty Dumpty," by four boys; solo, "God Bids us Shine," by Carroll Warehime; "Fan Drill," by eleven scholars; tableau, "Our Infant School;" tableau, "Before and after the Explosion;" tableau, "Evening prayers."

During this time the eggs distributed some weeks ago were opened and contents counted. The banner egg, Robert Brilhart, contained $4.40; next highest, Norma E. Gettier, $3.70; L. Shower, $3.40; P. Burns, $3.10; &c., amounting to $36.61, for which the infants, in one grand unison, give thanks to a generous public and their friends for their kind assistance, which assures to them an organ. Much praise is due Miss Laura Burns and her co-laborers in this department for the excellent preparation and training they, with unwearied patience, gave this class. The event will be a memorable epoch in their lives.

After a week of the worst kind of damp and cloudy weather we had several days of sunshine as the forerunners of the heaviest snow fall of the season. It was driven by a strong N. E. wind that piled it up in many alleys and lanes as high as the fences. In fact, almost all the roads running north and south in this section were blockaded, so that there was but little travel for several days. It continued dnring Friday and Saturday until about 4, p. m., and so interfered with the Church appointments of Rev. N. J. Miller for preparatory and communion services that they were postponed until April 19. It was impossible for the country members to get to town until Monday, when there was a general turnout of the farmers who shoveled and broke through the drifts that the sun by Monday evening had lowered at least one half. At present writing travel is opened in general, but the roads are in a terrible condition.

On Monday last the annual elections for officers of the Reformed and Lutheran Churches was held. In the morning Trinity Church elected Messrs. Wm. F. Lucbabaugh and Joshua Albaugh, elders, and Messrs. Willoughby Rhodes and Edward Rohrbaugh, deacons. In the afternoon Emmanuel Church elected Messrs. Noah Schaeffer and Elias Myerly, elders, and Messrs Andrew E. B. Myers and Samuel Miller, deacons.

A big upset on Sunday on the Germantown road spread about 11½ feet of "Grove" over the snow drifts; the grasping of the lines by the lady saved a wreck of the cutter, although she was coasted along for some distance by the noble steed.

A communication to friends here gives us the information that Mrs. Annie Colliflower, widow of the late Rev. Wm. F. Colliflower, who served the Reformed charge here for 12 years, is now lying quite ill from hemorrhages by which she was suddenly attacked on Saturday morning.

Mr. Henry H. Miller was seized with severe cramps last week while in the woods superintending his workmen and was hardly able to get home.

Two members of the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Company were extremely ill with cramps on Monday last. This company attracts large crowds to the Hall each night and the entertainments are A1.

Miss Edith Schaeffer, of Baltimore, is visiting friends here.

Mr. Chas. H. Everhart temporarily entered the employ of Mr. Geo. A. Everhart, at Mt. Vernon, on Tuesday last.

Flittings are the order of the day and are moving N., S., E. and West.

The Mayor and Common Council election of this corporation will be held on Saturday next. The old board are in nomination.

Winfield Items.

Mud of beautiful consistency, yet not altogether lovely, is upon our highways and byways to such an extent as to make pedestrianism very difficult, if not dangerous.

The band, to be known as the Winfield Cornet Band, recently temporarily organized here, effected a permanent organization on Monday evening last, having elected the following officers: President, Wm. H. Barnes; Sec'y., E. A. Easton; Treas., Willie Cover. The band consists of 20 members. A full set of first-class instruments has been ordered from a New York house.

Mrs. James Skidmore, nee Buckingham, a native, and for many years a resident of this vicinity, died at her home in King William county, Va., on Saturday last. Her remains were interred at Ebenezer Cemetery on the 1st instant.

Monday next, 6th inst., being the 25th anniversary of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic, Pickett Post, No. 17, will celebrate the event by holding a public meeting at 8 o'clock, P. M., on that day. Comrade H. L. Shipley and others will deliver addresses.

In conformity to the law of "eternal fitness," the SENTINEL's Woodbine correspondent has evolved in that hollow head of his (did he not run a feather in one ear and take it out the other?) some "infernal" vagaries, among which is that Marcus Pickett's engineer was in some manner responsible for certain ghostly manifestations which have the effect of frightening both winged and wingless bipeds. And, by the way, we fear the wingless ones will forever remain wingless unless removed immediately from the contaminating influences of the aforesaid correspondent.

Marcus Picket's engineer, having but just returned to town after more than a fortnight's rustication in the wilds of the fourth district of Howard county, embraces this opportunity to show that the above-named manifestations are easily traced to natural causes.

First, The "strange lights" were but reflections from the Woodbine correspondent's rubicund nose. Second, The "satyr" which frightened both birds and girls was nothing more nor less than an effigy of the correspondent placed in a field for the purpose of frightening crows from corn, which, owing to the above-mentioned hollowness, no doubt, the said correspondent failed to harvest at the proper season.

Bird Hill Items.

Your Bird Hill correspondent has not been heard from for some time because he had the misfortune to break his eyeglasses and could not get to Westminster to have them repaired, on account of the bad condition of the roads, until last week. Luckily he accomplished it before the great snow storm of Friday and Saturday, which blockaded the roads and since the snow has melted has left them in worse condition than ever. Our mail carrier did not get here till Monday and then had to come through the fields.

Mr. James Baker has moved from the vicinity of Brummel to this village.

Quilting is the order of the day among the ladies, married and single, and they seem to enjoy it very much. Is the fact a presage, among the young ladies, of marriage, or does it portend very cold weather next winter? The elder ladies, however, seem to have thus far outstripped the younger ones in the number of their quilts. On Easter Monday Mrs. Wm. P. Baker finished her fifth one.

Mr. John T. Philips, of this vicinity, has removed to the property he purchased from Mr. W. Barnes, near Caledonia Mills.

Our village blacksmith, Mr. Elias Ogg, has rented his shop to a Mr. Lockard and will move to Baltimore on the 15th inst., where he will go into business with his son. We are sorry to lose him, for he is a good neighbor and an upright man; but we wish him success in his new field of labor.

The Sunday School at Deer Park Chapel will be open on Sunday next, by order of the superintendent, Mr. Wm. P. Baker.

A Mayberry correspondent sends us some items but appends no name. Doubtless the communication is all right, but being anonymous cannot be used.

Mr. Martin L. Holloway, son of Rev. H. C. Holloway, of Pittsburg, Pa., graduated as the valedictorian of his class, at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, on the 25th ult.

Taneytown Items.

The Holy Communion was celebrated last Sunday morning in the Lutheran Church; preparatory services on Good Friday morning, at which time the pastor confirmed 27 persons. A very interesting Easter service was held by the Sunday School on Easter Sunday evening.

Passion week was duly observed by preaching in the Reformed Church every evening during the week, and the celebration of the Holy Eucharist on Easter Sunday morning. During the lenten season the pastor received 24 persons into the Church, 22 by confirmation and 2 by reprofession of faith. The service rendered by the Sabbath School on Easter evening was of a high order and well rendered. The altar was decorated with potted flowers and presented a beautiful appearance.

Last Wednesday evening, at the annual election of officers for Grace Reformed Sabbath School, for the ensuing year, the following persons were elected: Mr. Amos Duttera, Superintendent; Levi Flickinger, Asst. Sup.; Charles Mentzel and Oliver Fogle, Librarians; M. C. Duttera and Miss Annie Bear, Secretaries; Josiah Snyder, Treas.; Mrs. Lizzie Fox, Miss Flora Kemp, and Miss Nora Ditzler to have charge of Infant Department.

The lecture by Hon. Henry Houck and the entertainment under the auspices of the "King's Daughters," on Easter Monday evening, in Eckenrode's Hall, interested and delighted a large, select and cultivated audience.

Mr. Amos Duttera has purchased the Thomas Longley farm, 166 acres, for $3,500.

Pleasant Valley Items.

The entertainment given by the Pleasant Valley Vocaphone Orchestra was a decided success. The program was as follows: Musical Burlesque by the orchestra; declamation, "Tell to the Mountains;" quartette, "Merrily goes our Bark;" Irish sketch, "Maroney's Mistake;" song, "I Whistle and Wait for Kate;" commedietta—two acts—"The Doctor's Office;" song, "I'll never get married and poverty see;" interlude; farce, "The flower of the family;" song, "Not in it;" Ethiopian acts; "Backwoods Echos," and "Stocks up and stocks down;" song, "They're after me;" comedy drama—in 3 acts—"Rip Van Winkle;" Great Plantation song, "Brudder Eber catch a coon," burlesque lecture on woman's rights; comedy drama—"Life in the back woods of Arkansas;" tableau. The hall was filled and not quite all could be admitted. Had it not been for bad roads not more than half who would have come could have gained admission. It was a success from beginning to end and every one seemed more than pleased. The Band can very justly feel very proud of the affair. The drawing of the scenery was done by Edward Zepp, who has the reputation of being a fine hand at that business.

The sale of George W. Sullivan's house and lot was withdrawn and afterwards the property was sold to Keener Taney for the sum of $500.

Mr. Wm. H. T. Yingling was chopping down a tree a day or two ago, which fell in a different direction than he expected, catching him and bruising him up pretty badly.

Mrs. Sallie A. Fleagle has returned from a 6 months' visit to her son and daughter at Harrisburg.

Patapsco Items.

Old citizens here say they never saw a March snow storm equal to that of last week.

Jesse G., son of Mr. Wm. Flater, of near Sanyville, died on the 27th ult., in the 12th year of his age. His remains were interred in Pleasant Grove M. E. Cemetery on Sunday, 29th ult., Rev. J. Tolly Marsh officiating.

Mr. Howard S. Barnhart, of near Eden, has rented and is living on the farm of Mr. Benton Flater, near Sandyville. Mr. John Holbrooks is domiciled in Mr. Nat. Bay's house, and Mr. Henry Frank has moved into Mr. James Spencer's house, both near Tank Station. Mr. Geo. Weaver has taken Mr. Holbrooks' house. Mr. John Westaway has rented Mr. Jacob Weller's house and will occupy it in a few days.

Mr. Wisner, of near Tannery, has bought of Messrs. Milton and Ezra Chew, executors of the late John H. Chew, a house and lot of which he will take possession in a few days. The reported price paid was $350.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Fanwell, and two children, of Woodberry, are visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Deep Run Items.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Earhart, which took place last Sunday, was well attended, considering the condition of the roads. Rev. J. G. Noss officiated. The following persons acted as pallbearers: Messrs. Moses Troxell, E. Yeiser, Larkin Belt, John Bemiller, Samuel Baum, David Crowl, Ephraim Feeser and Jno. Mathias. H. T. Troxell was the undertaker. Mrs. Earhart had the most beautiful casket ever seen at Silver Run cemetery. It was a very fine steel one profusely decorated with silver mountings.

The funeral of Mrs. Gertrude Byers took place on Monday, the day following Mrs. Earhart's burial, and was well attended. Rev. H. C. Fultz officiated; H. T. Troxell, undertaker. Mrs. Byers also had a very nice casket.

Our Schools, both Bish's and Wisner's, under the supervision of M. T. Yeiser and N. T. Houck, respectively, are preparing to celebrate Arbor Day in the proper manner.

Shipley Items.

Easter with us was all that we desired this year, and the drifting snow, of good Friday and Saturday, which completely blockaded all the bleak places of our public roads, will help to make Easter festivities memorable. The Washington road is full in many places and through travel is impossible, unless the roads be opened.

Sunday and Monday were two very warm days, and the snow has melted very rapidly, and where the ground is bare the mud is ankle deep in the public roads. The snow is a big set off to early spring work, such as sowing oats, trucking, and gardening. We got no mail on Saturday and Tuesday, on account of the blockade, and you can hardly imagine how much we missed the papers.

Mrs. Louisa Schnieder is quite poorly with rheumatism, and Luella, youngest daughter of Geo. W. Caples, has a gathered jaw, which was lanced on Monday by Dr. Jas. P. Summers.
